Ld Lieutenant preſent.

The Houſe was reſumed: And his Grace Lionel Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Cavan carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Kildare, the Cap of Maintenance; two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Grace the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint them, that it is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter.

And the Houſe of Commons being come, they, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

MY Experience of your Loyalty and Zeal for the King's Service; the ſignal Inſtances, upon every Occaſion, of his Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs, and a Conſciouſneſs of my juſt Regard to the Honour of his Crown, and of my ſincere Wiſhes for the Proſperity of this Kingdom, give me the ſureſt Grounds to expect that the Buſineſs of this Seſſion will be carried on with that Candour, Temper and Unanimity, which will add Dignity to your Proceedings, moſt effectually advance the Publick Service, and afford the moſt acceptable Proof of your grateful and affectionate Duty to the beſt of Princes.

A due Care of the Proteſtant Charter Schools, cannot be too often or too earneſtly recommended to your Conſideration; and the Benefits already experienced call upon you to cultivate every Method of promoting, to the utmoſt, the Succeſs of that wiſe and uſeful Inſtitution.

The

The flouriſhing State of your Linen Manufacture gives me the higheſt Pleaſure; I will moſt chearfully aſſiſt your Endeavours for the further Advancement of that valuable and important Branch of your Trade; and in providing for its Support and Encouragement, you may ſecurely depend upon his Majeſty's moſt gracious Favour and Protection.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the proper Officers to lay before you the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates, and have nothing to aſk in the King's Name, but the uſual and neceſſary Supplies, for the Support of his Majeſty's Government.

I am commanded by his Majeſty to acquaint you, that he will graciouſly conſent, and recommends it to you, that ſo much of the Money remaining in his Treaſury as ſhall be neceſſary, be applied to diſcharge the National Debt, or of ſuch Part thereof as you ſhall think expedient.

His Majeſty, in his great Wiſdom, judging a Time of general Tranquillity to be the fitteſt Seaſon for providing againſt future Dangers, will direct an Inquiry to be made into the Condition of the ſeveral Fortifications, that the Kingdom may be put into a proper State of Defence: An Eſtimate of the Expence which will attend that neceſſary Service, ſhall, in due time, be laid before you; and his Majeſty is perſuaded, that this Inſtance of his Attention to the Security of his People will be highly agreeable to his faithful Commons.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I HAVE not failed to embrace every Opportunity (and it was a Part of my Duty moſt pleaſing to me) to repreſent to the King, in the fulleſt and ſtrongeſt Terms, the Loyalty and good Affections of his Subjects of Ireland: And I have it in Command to declare to you, that his Majeſty relies, with an intire Confidence, on their inviolable Attachment to his Sacred Perſon, Royal Family, and Government.

It is unneceſſary for me, at this Day, to make Profeſſions of my Zeal for the Welfare and Proſperity of this Kingdom. Let the true Intereſt of Ireland be ever your great Object: My Conduct ſhall demonſtrate, that it is unalterably mine.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table;

Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty from this Houſe, to beg Leave to repeat to his Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our inviolable Attachment to his Sacred Perſon, Royal Family, and Government.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that our Hearts are full of Gratitude for the many Benefits and Advantages which we enjoy under his juſt and mild Adminiſtration: Our Religion protected and cultivated; our Rights and Privileges preſerved and ſupported; our Laws duly and juſtly executed; our Commerce and Manufactures encouraged and extended; and all that is dear to a free, loyal and dutiful People, made the Object of his Majeſty's paternal Affection and Regard.

To beſeech his Majeſty to accept of our unfeigned Thanks, for his gracious Intention of continuing to us his royal Favour and Protection, in providing for the Support and Encouragement of the Linen Manufacture of this Kingdom, that moſt valuable and important Branch of our Trade.

To offer humbly to his Majeſty, our ſincere Thanks for the Inſtance he has been graciouſly pleaſed to give us of his Attention and Regard to the Intereſt and Welfare of this Kingdom, in continuing his Grace the Duke of Dorſet our Chief Governor, of whoſe Abilities and Fidelity his Majeſty has had ſo full Experience in the ſeveral important Truſts which have been repoſed in him, and which he has diſcharged with the greateſt Honour to himſelf, and Advantage to the Publick.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we will carry on the Buſineſs of this Seſſion with that Candour, Temper and Unanimity, which will moſt effectually advance the Publick Service, and will afford, we doubt not, the moſt acceptable Proof of our grateful and affectionate Duty to the beſt of Princes.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Earl of Hillſborough, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and that all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the L. Lieutenant

Clerk leave to be abſent.

Ordered, that Mr. Hartley Hutchinſon, Clerk-Aſſiſtant, have Leave to be abſent for three Weeks from his Attendance on this Houſe.

The Earl of Hillſborough reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to their Lordſhips' Reſolution of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to repeat to your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Perſon, Royal Family and Government; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that our Hearts are full of Gratitude for the many Benefits and Advantages which we enjoy under your juſt and mild Adminiſtration: Our Religion protected and cultivated; our Rights and Privileges preſerved and ſupported; our Laws duly and juſtly executed; our Commerce and Manufactures encouraged and extended; and all that is dear to a free, loyal and dutiful People, made the Object of your Majeſty's paternal Affections and Regard.

We beſeech your Majeſty to accept of our unfeigned Thanks, for your gracious Intention of continuing to us your royal Favour and Protection, in providing for the Support and Encouragement of the Linen Manufacture of this Kingdom, that moſt valuable and important Branch of our Trade.

We humbly offer to your Majeſty our ſincere Thanks, for the Inſtance you have been graciouſly pleaſed to give us of your Attention and Regard to the Intereſt and Welfare of this Kingdom, in continuing his Grace the Duke of Dorſet our Chief Governor, of whoſe Abilities and Fidelity your Majeſty has had ſo full Experience, in the ſeveral important Truſts which have been repoſed in him, and which he has diſcharged with the greateſt Honour to himſelf, and Advantage to the Publick.

We aſſure your Majeſty, that we will carry on the Buſineſs of this Seſſion with that Candour, Temper and Unanimity, which will moſt effectually advance the Publick Service, and will afford, we doubt not, the moſt acceptable Proof of our grateful and affectionate Duty to the beſt of Princes, Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

The Lord Loftus reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace
LIONEL Duke of DORSET,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly preſent to your Grace our Thanks, for your excellent Speech from the Throne, and beg to declare unanimouſly, our unfeigned Joy, upon your Grace's Return to the Government of this Kingdom.

Our Experience of that Candour which adds Luſtre to the many eminent Virtues inherent in your Grace, will not ſuffer us to doubt, that we have been, and ſhall be, upon all Occaſions, Occaſions, faithfully repreſented to his Majeſty, by your Grace, as moſt zealouſly devoted to his Sacred Perſon, Royal Family, and Government.

We ſhould as ill conſult our Intereſt as our Dignity, did we not reſolve fully to anſwer your Grace's juſt Expectations, by conducting all our Proceedings with Candour, Temper and Unanimity: They are the genuine Reſult of our affectionate Duty to the beſt of Princes, and will be the ſtrongeſt Proof of our Zeal for the true Intereſt of our Country.

The Proteſtant Charter-Schools, eſtabliſhed under the happy Influence of your Grace's former Government, and upon all Occaſions affectionately recommended by your Grace, are deſervedly the Object of our conſtant Attention; and we ſhall induſtriouſly improve every Opportunity of extending the Benefits of that wiſe and uſeful Inſtitution.

The Aſſurances of your Grace's Aſſiſtance, ſo often and ſo ſignally experienced, cannot fail to animate our Endeavours for the farther Advancement of the Linen Manufacture, the moſt valuable and important Branch of our Trade. The preſent flouriſhing State of it, we thankfully attribute to the repeated Inſtances of his Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs; and rely, with all dutiful Confidence, on the Continuance of the ſame royal Favour and Protection.

Your Grace has, with the juſteſt Reaſon, declined making Profeſſions of your Zeal for the Welfare of this Kingdom: Your Grace's Conduct through the whole Courſe of your former and preſent Adminiſtration, is our ſure Pledge of your unalterable Regard to the true Intereſt of Ireland.

Warm with theſe Sentiments, we think ourſelves called upon by every Motive of Prudence, Gratitude, and Juſtice, chearfully to concur in every Meaſure, which may moſt effectually promote the Publick Service, maintain the Dignity and Honour of his Majeſty's Government, and render it, as far as in us lies, eaſy and happy in your Grace's hands.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Grace.

Committees for Religion;

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee for Religion; and that all the Lords of this Houſe, who are not named of this Committee, and ſhall come, are to have Voices therein; and have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, in order to their proceeding on any Affair that ſhall come before them.

It was resolved in the Affirmative.

A Message was sent to the House of Commons, by Dr. Wall and Mr. Lill, two of the Masters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this House hath agreed to the same, without any Amendment.

The Lord Visc. Lanesborough reported from the Committee of the whole House, to whom the Consideration of an ingrossed Bill, sent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for continuing, altering and amending the Laws in relation to the Flaxen and Hempen Manufactures, was committed; that they had gone through the and said Bill, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment; and also compared the same with the original Transmiss, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the said Bill be now read a third time.

Hodie tertia vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act for continuing, altering and amending the Laws in relation to the Flaxen and Hempen Manufactures. Flaxen, &c. Bill,

The Question was put, Whether this Bill shall pass?

It was resolved in the Affirmative. passed;

A Message was sent to the House of Commons, by Dr. Wall and Mr. Lill, two of the Masters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this House had agreed to the said Bill, without any Amendment. Message to Commons, with Concurrence.

Then the House was adjourned during Pleasure, to robe.

The House was resumed: And his Grace Lionel Duke of Dorset, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the House with the usual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Cavan carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Kildare, the Cap of Maintenance; four Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Grace the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, ascended the same, and seated himself in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal standing robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordships took their Seats. L˜d Lieutenant present.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and then, standing on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod to signify to the Commons, that it is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleasure they attend him immediately in the House of Peers. Commons sent for:

And the House of Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the usual Ceremonies, where Mr. Speaker, after a Speech to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant in relation to the Money-Bill, delivered it to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought it to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Title, as follows, viz. they enter.

1. An

Royal Aſſent given to three Bills.

1. An Act for granting and continuing to his Majeſty an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Wine, Tobacco, Hides, and other Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned; and for prohibiting the Importation of all Gold and Silver Lace, except of the Manufacture of Great Britain.

To this Bill, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, in theſe Words, viz.

" Le Roy remercie ſes bons Sujets, accepte leur " Benevolence, et ainſi le veult."

2. An Act for continuing, altering and amending the Laws in relation to the Flaxen and Hempen Manufactures.

3. An Act for making the River Lagan navigable, and opening a Paſſage by Water between Lough Neagh and the Town of Belfaſt in the Co. Antrim.

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

" Le Roy le veult."

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

And the Houſe of Commons being come, they, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies. they enter.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

HIS Majeſty having been graciouſly pleaſed to appoint me to the Government of this Kingdom, I judged it neceſſary, in ſo critical a Conjuncture, immediately to come over, and as ſoon as the publick Conveniency could permit, to meet you in Parliament, in order to concert the proper Meaſures for ſecuring the Tranquillity, and promoting the Intereſt and Happineſs of Ireland. Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

His Majeſty reſts ſecure on your known Loyalty and zealous Attachment to his Royal Perſon, Family and Government; and your abundant Experience of his paternal Goodneſs, will, I doubt not, produce on your Part the juſt Returns of moſt affectionate Duty, Gratitude and Confidence.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the proper Officers to lay before you the ſeveral Accompts and Eſtimates; and aſſure myſelf, that you will, with the greateſt Chearfulneſs, grant the neceſſary Supplies for the Support of the Eſtabliſhment.

The King's Service having required ſeveral Regiments to be taken off this Eſtabliſhment, his Majeſty, always attentive to the Safety of this Kingdom, has been pleaſed to Order a proper Augmentation to be made in the remaining Regiments of Foot.

By his Majeſty's Commands, I have provided ſeven thouſand Stands of new Arms, which have been delivered to the Troops, together with ſome additional Military Stores, ſuch particularly as are proper for a Field Train of Artillery; Tents and other Neceſſaries for a Camp, have likewiſe been provided; ſo that a conſiderable Body of Troops may, on any Emergency, march and encamp on the ſhorteſt Warning.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I RECOMMEND to your particular Conſideration, what further Laws may be neceſſary for the Improvement of your Commerce and Inland Navigation; for the Advancement of your Linen and other Manufactures; and for the Encouragement of the Proteſtant Charter Schools.

I ſhall teſtify my Duty to the King, and my ſincere Zeal for the Publick Service, by giving my beſt Aſſiſtance to every Meaſure conducive to the Proſperity and Honour of the Kingdom committed to my Care.

The preſent critical State of Affairs abroad, demands a more than ordinary Attention for the Defence and Security of this Kingdom.

Your

Your own Wiſdom and Experience will point out, and a juſt Regard to the Publick Good will moſt powerfully incite you, to embrace every Method which may contribute to the Attainment of thoſe Ends. None can afford ſo ſolid a Security againſt every Danger as a perfect Harmony and Union amongſt all his Majeſty's faithful Subjects; and this you will moſt effectually promote, by preſerving, in all your Deliberations, that Temper and Unanimity, which alone can give Dignity and Weight to your Proceedings.

As Friends to this Country and faithful Subjects to the beſt of Sovereigns, we muſt all have the ſame publick Views and Intereſts: A firm Zeal for the Support of his Majeſty's Government, for the Succeſſion to the Crown in his Royal Family, and for thoſe invaluable Religious and Civil Rights, ſettled and entailed on us by the glorious Revolution, ought, and I am perſuaded ever will be, the ruling Principle of an Iriſh Parliament. It is the ſame, I have ever profeſſed, and from which, in no Time or Situation of my Life, I truſt I ſhall ever depart. I am the happier therefore in being ſent amongſt you, as I ſhall promiſe myſelf, that agreeing in the Ends, we ſhall alſo concur in the ſame Means, of purſuing them; and by the Stability of our Councils defeat every Attempt of our avowed or ſecret Enemies, to ſhake our envied Conſtitution, and render precarious the ineſtimable Bleſſings which we enjoy under his Majeſty's moſt juſt and gracious Government.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table.

Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to congratulate his Majeſty on his Arrival in Great Britain. Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

To expreſs our Gratitude for his Majeſty's paternal Care, in committing the Government of this Kingdom to the hands of his Excellency the Marquis of Hartington.

To declare how ſenſible we are of the Advantages ariſing to us from his Excellency's coming ſo early and at ſo critical a Conjuncture.

To aſſure his Majeſty of the Zeal and Duty, Unanimity and Harmony of this Houſe; and likewiſe to aſſure his Majeſty, we ſhall endeavour to obtain his royal Favour, by promoting the true Intereſt of this Country, by the Advancement of its Proteſtant Charter-Schools, its Trade and Commerce, particularly the Linen Trade and our Inland Navigation.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Powerſcourt, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs of Thanks be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, for his Excellency's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament. Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant Ordered, that the Lord Carysfort, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Viſc. Powerſcourt reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame were again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Arrival in Great Britain, an Event which muſt at all times fill the Hearts of your Majeſty's Subjects with Joy, but particularly at this Time, as it removes their only Fears: Ireland fears no Enemies, but when ſhe imagines your royal Perſon is in Danger.

We return your Majeſty our ſincere Thanks, for your paternal Care, in appointing his Excellency the Marquis of Hartington our Chief Governor; a Perſon every way qualified to ſupport the Dignity of his Office, equally zealous for the Prerogative of the Crown, and the Liberties of the People, deſcended from a great and honourable Father, who dignified the ſame Office by his juſt and diſintereſted Adminiſtration, which we who ſhare in the Advantages it derived to us, do gratefully remember.

We are ſenſible of the Advantages of his Excellency's coming over to us ſo early and at ſo critical a Conjuncture; his viewing a great Part of this Kingdom, and making himſelf Maſter of the true State of Ireland, and the real Intereſt of your Majeſty's Subjects: And we humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that this particular Attention and Care ſhall in us produce their natural Effects, Duty and Zeal in all our Actions, Unanimity and Harmony in all our Councils, the ſureſt Defence againſt an Enemy beyond meaſure ambitious; and ambitious with ſuch Art, as to take Advantages from the ſlighteſt Differences amongſt us.

Highly ſenſible, that to promote the Good of this Kingdom, is the ſureſt Method of obtaining your royal Favour; we aſſure your Majeſty, we ſhall every way endeavour to promote the Advancement of our Proteſtant Charter-Schools; that we ſhall give all poſſible Attention to our Manufactures, particularly the Linen, ſo eſſential to the Support of Ireland; and that we will not omit any Opportunity of improving our Commerce and Inland Navigation, and of bringing them to ſuch Perfection, as will give Pleaſure to your Majeſty, by adding Wealth to your Subjects, who are at all times ready, with their Lives and Fortunes, to ſupport your Majeſty's Government, and to maintain the Succeſſion to the Crown in your Royal Family, on which alone, under GOD, depends the Continuance of thoſe invaluable Bleſſings, which we received from the glorious Revolution.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

The Lord Carysfort reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency
WILLIAM Marquis of HARTINGTON,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our moſt humble Thanks for your Speech from the Throne.

We acknowledge, with Gratitude, this late and ſignal Inſtance of his Majeſty's paternal Regard for our Happineſs, in the Choice that he has been graciouſly pleaſed to make of your Excellency to fill the Government of this Kingdom: And we are truly ſenſible of your Excellency's Goodneſs, in not delaying to come over to us, at ſo critical a Conjuncture; and in your taking the firſt Opportunity of meeting us in Parliament, in order to concert the proper Meaſures for ſecuring the Tranquillity and Happineſs of Ireland. The great and unuſual Pains that your Excellency has taken in your Progreſs through the Kingdom, to inform yourſelf of the Situation and Circumſtances of this Country, are evident Proofs of your good Inclination to maintain its Intereſts.

Your Excellency's particular Recommendation to us of the Improvement of our Commerce and Inland Navigation, of the Advancement of our Linen and other Manufactures, and of the Encouragement of our Proteſtant Charter-Schools, gives us the greateſt Pleaſure and Satisfaction; and we rely upon your Excellency's Aſſiſtance and Support, in purſuing thoſe Methods which may beſt contribute to promote thoſe deſirable Ends.

Your

Your Excellency's known Attachment to his Majeſty's royal Perſon, Family, and Government, and to the great Principles of the Revolution, leaves us no room to doubt of your Excellency's moſt ſincere and ready Endeavours to give Effect to whatever Meaſures may be conducive to the Proſperity and Honour of this Kingdom: And we beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency, that nothing ſhall be wanting on our Part that may teſtify our earneſt Deſire to promote, with all Chearfulneſs and Unanimity, the Eaſe, Security and Honour of his Majeſty's Government, and the Publick Welfare, under your Excellency's Adminiſtration.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church on the 23d Inſtant, being an Anniverſary Thankſgiving for the Deliverance of the Proteſtants of this Kingdom from the Popiſh Maſſacre in 1641.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Killala ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 5th of November next, being appointed a Day of Thankſgiving for the happy Deliverance of the three Eſtates of England from the intended Maſſacre by Gunpowder; and alſo for the happy Arrival of his late Majeſty King William III. of glorious Memory, on that Day, for the Deliverance of our Church, and theſe Nations.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chief Juſtice Caulfeild, Speaker, acquainted the Houſe, that the Judges, according to Order, had prepared a Report of what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, which he preſented to the Houſe, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

Report from Judges on temporary Laws.

IN obedience to your Lordſhips' Order, whereby we are to inquire what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, we have examined the ſeveral temporary Laws lately expired or near expiring, and find no other Acts lately expired or near expiring, except:

An Act in the 1ſt Seſſion, in the 2d of Queen Anne, C. 10, for the Exchange of Glebes, &c. to be in Force for twenty-one Years, and was continued by 10th George I. C. 4, to the 1ſt September, 1731, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and by the 5th George II. C. 6, for twenty-one Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 23d Geo. II. C. 8, the Act of the 2d Queen Anne, and ſuch Parts of the ſaid Act of the 5th George II. which relates to the Act of the 2d Queen Anne, are continued for four Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, after the Expiration of the ſaid four Years.

An Act of the 7th Gul. III. C. 21, for the better ſuppreſſing of Tories, Robbers and Rapparees, and for preventing Robberies, Burglaries and other heinous Crimes, to continue for three Years, and to the End of the 1ſt Seſſion of the next Parliament, after the ſaid three Years; and an Act of the 9th Gul. III. C. 34, to ſupply the Defects, and for better Execution of an Act, paſſed this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intitled, An Act for the better ſuppreſſing Tories and Rapparees, &c. ut ſupra. This and the former Act to continue for ſeven Years, from 6th November, 1697, and to the End of the next Seſſion. Both theſe Acts are by the firſt Seſſion of the 2d Queen Anne, C. 13, continued for ſeven Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and by 6th George I. C. 12, continued for ſeven Years, from the laſt Day of that Seſſion of Parliament, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion. By the 12th George I. C. 6, thoſe Acts, as altered and amended, are continued for eleven Years, from the 25th December, 1726, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and by the 9th George II. C. 6, they are continued to the 25th March, 1757, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament.

An Act of the 2d George I. C. 9, to make the Militia of this Kingdom more uſeful, to continue until the 24th of June, 1718; continued by 4th George I. C. 9, for two Years, from 25th of December, 1721; and by the 10th George I. C. 4, for two Years from 25th December, 1723; and is in like Manner continued by other Acts; and by the 11th George II. C. 13, it is continued to the 29th September, 1744, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion; and by the 19th George II. C. 9, it is amended, and that Act, and the ſaid Act of the 19th George II. C. 9, are to continue for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion: The ſaid Act of the 2d George I. C. 9, and of the 19th George II. C. 9, are by 21ſt George II. C. 7, continued for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion; and by the 23d George II. C. 8, the Act of the 2d George I. C. 9, which was not altered by the 19th George II. C. 19, and the ſaid Act of the 19th George II. C. 19, are continued for four Years, from the End of that Seſſion, to the End of the next Seſſion, after the Expiration of the ſaid four Years.

An Act of the 6th George I. C. 2, to prevent the ingroſſing and regrating of Coals for ſeven Years, from the 1ſt November, 1719, and to the End of the next Seſſion: We have not met with any Act which continues it; but this Act is by 21ſt George II. C. 7, revived and continued for ſeven Years, from the 1ſt of May, 1748, and to the End of the then next Seſſion.

An Act of the 6th George I. C. 8, to prevent the running of Goods, &c. continued by 8th George I. C. 6, for two Years, from 25th December, 1721; and by the 10th George I. C. 4, for ſeven Years; and by the 3d George II. C. 5, to the 25th March, 1730; and by the 9th Geo. II. C. 6, for two Years; and by the 11th Geo. II. C. 3, for two Years; and by 13th George II. C 3, for two Years; and by 15th George II. C. 3, for two Years; and by 17th George II. C. 7, for two Years, from the Expiration of that and other Acts continued by 19th Geo. II. C. 4, for two Years; and by 21ſt George II. C. 4. for two Years; and by 23d George II. C. 3, for two Years; and by 25th George II. C. 9, for two Years; and to the End of the then next Seſſion.

An Act of the 6th George I. C. 10, for the better regulating the Pariſh-Watches, and amending the High-ways in this Kingdom; and for preventing the Miſapplication of the Publick Money: This Act and all and every Clauſe, Article and Proviſoe therein contained, ſo far as the ſame relates to any County, Counties of Cities, Boroughs, Towns Corporate, Pariſhes, and other Places in the ſeveral Counties in this Kingdom, other than what relates to, and may concern, the Pariſh-Watches of the City of Dublin, and Liberties of the ſaid City, was continued for two Years, from the 25th March, 1722, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament; and the 10th George I. C. 3. makes the 6th George I. C. 10, as to what relates to all the Counties in this Kingdom, except Dublin, perpetual; and continues the Act of the 6th George I. C. 10, as to what relates to the City of Dublin, for ſeven Years, from 1ſt March, 1723; and the 3d George II. C. 5, continues it to 25th March, 1737; and the 11th George II. C. 13, continues it to 29th September, 1744, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and the 19th George II. C. 15, continues it to the 29th September, 1746, and to the End of the then next Seſſion; and the 21ſt George II. C. 7, continues it to the 29th September, 1749, and to the End of the then next Seſſion; and the 23d Geo. II. C. 8, continues it for four Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion after the Expiration of the ſaid four Years.

An Act of the 10th Geo. I. C. 4: By this Act ſo much of the Act of the 4th George I. for veſting in his Majeſty the Lands whereon the Barracks are built, as relates to the Powers to iſſue Commiſſions, &c. continued from 25th December, 1724, for ſeven Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion; and by this Act the Licenſes for Coaches, &c. are continued from 1ſt May, 1725, until the End of the next Seſſion after: This Act is continued by 3d George II. C. 5, till 25th December, 1737,; and by the 11th George II. C. 13, to the 24th June, 1758.

An Act of the 10th George I. C. 10, for regulating Abuſes in the buying and ſelling Cattle, was for two Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion, continued by the 12th Geo. I. C. 6, to the 1ſt December, 1728, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and by the 11th George II. C. 13, to the 29th September, 1744; and by the 19th George II. C. 15, to the 29th September, 1746, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion; and by the 21ſt George II. C. 7, to the 29th September, 1749, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and by the 23d George II. Report on temporary Laws. The Lord Viſc. Maſſareene reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of the Report of the Judges, of what Laws are expired or near expiring was referred; that they had conſidered thereof, and had come to the following Reſolutions:

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act, paſſed in the 1ſt Seſſion of the 2d Year of Queen Anne, C. 10, for the Exchange of Glebes, &c. to be in Force for twenty-one Years, and was continued by the 10th George I. C. 4, to the 1ſt of September, 1731; and by the 5th George II. C. 6, for twenty-one Years; and by the 23d George II. C. 8, the Act of the 2d of Queen Anne, and ſuch Parts of the ſaid Act of the 5th George II. which relates to the Act of the 2d Queen Anne, was continued for four Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, is fit to be made perpetual.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 7th Gul. III. C. 21, for the better ſuppreſſing of Tories, Robbers and Rapparees, and for preventing Robberies, Burglaries and other heinous Crimes, Crimes, which was to continue for three Years, and to the End of the 1st Seſſion of the next Parliament after the ſaid three Years, was continued by ſubſequent Acts to the 25th of March, 1757, and to the End of the next Seſſion, ought to be continued for twenty-one Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 2d George I. C. 9, to make the Militia of this Kingdom more uſeful, which was to continue till the 24th of June, 1718, and continued and amended by ſubſequent Acts, ought to be continued for the further Term of four Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, after the Expiration of the ſaid four Years.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 6th George I. C. 2, to prevent the ingroſſing and regrating of Coals, which was to continue ſeven Years, from the 1ſt of November, 1719; and was by the 21ſt George I. C. 7, revived and continued for ſeven Years, from the 1ſt of May, 1748, and to the End of the then next Seſſion, ought to be continued for ſeven Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 6th George I. C. 8, to prevent the running of Goods, &c. and continued by ſubſequent Acts, and was by the 25th of George II. C. 9, to be in Force for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion, ought to be continued for two Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved; that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 6th George I. C. 10, for the better regulating the Pariſh-Watches and amending the High-ways in this Kingdom, which was continued by ſubſequent Acts, and further continued by the 23d Geo. II. C. 8, for four Years, ought to be continued for the further Term of four Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 10th George I. C. 4, and ſo much of the Act of the 4th Geo. I. for veſting in his Majeſty, the Lands whereon the Barracks are built, as relates to the Powers to iſſue Commiſſions, &c. from the 25th of December, 1724, for ſeven Years; and by this the Licenſes for Coaches, &c. are continued to the 24th of June, 1758, ought to be continued for twenty-one Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 10th George I. C. 10, for regulating Abuſes in the buying and ſelling of Cattle, which was in Force for two Years, and continued by ſubſequent Acts of Parliament, to the 29th of September, 1749; and by the 23d George II. C. 8. continued for four Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, ought to be continued for four Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 12th George I. C. 2, to prevent the fraudulent and clandeſtine Importation of Goods, which was to continue till the 25th March, 1728; and by ſubſequent Acts continued; and continued further by 25th Geo. II. C. 9, for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ought to be continued for two Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved. that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 1ſt George I. C. 3, for the more ſpeedy and effectual Repair of Bridges, which was continued by ſubſequent Acts to the 25th of March, 1757, ought to be continued for ſixteen Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 1ſt George II. C. 16, for regulating the Price and Aſſize of Bread and Markets, and by ſubſequent Acts continued; and by the 23d George II C. 8, for four Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ought to be continued for four Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 3d George II. C. 4, for the more effectual preventing and further Puniſhment of Forgery, &c. which was continued by ſubſequent Acts to the 25th of March, 1757, ought to be continued for twenty-one Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 9th George II. C. 5, for aſſigning Judgments, &c. which was continued by ſubſequent Acts till the Year 1755, and to the End of the next Seſſion, ought to be continued for eleven Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 11th of Geo. II. C. 14, for Improvement of the Fiſhery, which was continued by a ſubſequent Act to the 25th of March, 1757, ought to be continued for three Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 15th George II. C. 8, for ſecuring the Payment of Rents, which was continued till the Year 1755, and to the End of the next Seſſion, ought to be continued for four Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

To which Reſolutions, the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree.

Reſolved, that an Act, paſſed in the 25th Year of George II. C. 8. for the better adjuſting and more eaſy Recovery of the Wages of certain Servants, &c. be continued for two Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

and

Houſe to be called.

Upon reading the Order for the Day, the Houſe proceeded to the Call of the Houſe.

Ordered, that ſuch Lords who have not appeared this Day upon the Call of the Houſe, be again called over on this Day fortnight.

Upon reading the Order for the Day,

Committee on State of Popery.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, to take into Conſideration the preſent State of Popery in this Kingdom; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene reported from the ſaid Committee, that they had come to ſeveral Reſolutions, in the Matter to them referred, which he was ready to report, when the Houſe will pleaſe to receive the ſame.

Ordered, that the ſaid Report be now made.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that ſeveral of his Majeſty's natural-born Subjects, who are actually in the Service of the French King, have of late reſorted to this Kingdom, with an Intention to ſeduce others of his Majeſty's Subjects into that Service.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that to prohibit the Return into this Kingdom of ſuch of his Majeſty's Subjects as now are, or at any time hereafter ſhall be, in the Service of the French King, would greatly tend to prevent others of his Majeſty's Subjects from being ſeduced into that Service.

The ſaid Reſolutions, being again read by the Clerk at the Table, and to which the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree.

Proceedings on State of Popery.

Upon reading the Order of the Day, the Houſe was put into a Committee to take into further Conſideration the preſent State of Popery in this Kingdom; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene reported from the ſaid Committee, that they had come to ſeveral Reſolutions in the Matter to them referred, which he was ready to report, when the Houſe will pleaſe to receive the ſame.

Ordered, that the ſaid Report be now made.

Reſolutions on State of Popery.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Number of Popiſh Prieſts, Monks and Friars has of late Years greatly increaſed in this Kingdom, to the manifeſt Prejudice of the Proteſtant Religion, of his Majeſty's Government, and of the Peace and Welfare of this Kingdom.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the allowing a competent Number of Popiſh ſecular Prieſts to exerciſe their Functions, under proper Rules and Reſtrictions, with a due Execution of the Laws againſt Regulars, and Perſons exerciſing eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction, would tend to deliver this Kingdom from the great Number of Monks and Friars that at preſent infeſt it.

The ſaid Reſolutions, being again read by the Clerk at the Table, and to which the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree.

Ordered, that the ſaid Report be now made.

Further Reſolutions on State of Popery.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Number of Parochial Miniſters of the eſtabliſhed Church of this Kingdom, is not ſufficient to extend the Proteſtant Religion, in the Countries that are popiſhly affected.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Number of Parochial Miniſters might be increaſed by the ſeparating of great Unions of Pariſhes, or the dividing of large ſingle Pariſhes, where a competent Maintenance can be allowed for more than one Clergyman.

Reſolved, that it appears to this Committee, that many old Churches in this Kingdom, are run to Decay, and cannot be repaired nor rebuilt from the Inability of the Pariſhoners, on account of their Poverty to bear the Tax, to which the Law makes them liable for that Purpoſe.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Ruin of theſe Churches has been the Occaſion, in many Places, of the Deſertion of the Regular Cures of thoſe Pariſhes, now commonly called Non-Cures, to the manifeſt Prejudice of the Proteſtant Religion.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the repairing or rebuilding of ſuch Churches, where a reſident Miniſter can be immediately ſettled, would be a great Means of extending the Proteſtant Religion, and would be a Work worthy of Publick Encouragement.

Reſolved,

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the actual Reſidence of a Miniſter of the eſtabliſhed Church, upon every Benefice, where there is or ſhall be a Church built, will be a Means of ſtopping the Growth of Popery, and will tend to the Advancement of the Proteſtant Religion.

The ſaid Reſolutions, being again read by the Clerk, at the Table, and to which, the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree.

Heads of Bill for a Regiſter of Popiſh Prieſts,

The Lord Viſc. Limerick preſented to the Houſe, Heads of a Bill for a Regiſter of Popiſh Prieſts; which were received, and read a firſt time.

to be printed.

Ordered, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe, do appoint the printing thereof.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Clonfert ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 30th of January inſt. being the Martyrdom of King Charles I.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Down and Connor ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on Friday the 6th Day of February next, being a Day appointed by Authority for a General and Publick Faſt, to be obſerved throughout this Kingdom.

Viſc. Jocelyn introduced.

The Right Hon. Robert Lord Baron Newport of Newport, Lord Chancellor of Ireland, being by Letters Patents, dated the 6th Day of December, in the 29th Year of King George II. created Lord Viſc. Jocelyn, his Lordſhip taking the Purſe with the Great Seal, retired to the lower end of the Houſe, and having there put on his Robes, was this Day introduced between the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene and the Lord Viſc. Laneſborough, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying his Lordſhip's Patents (which he delivered to him at the Step before the Throne) preceding: His Lordſhip laid down his Letters Patents upon the Chair of State, kneeling, and from thence took and delivered them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table by the Clerk of the Crown: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes: His Lordſhip was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place at, the lower end of the Viſcounts' Bench, from whence he went to the upper end of the Earls' Bench, and ſat there as Lord Chancellor, and then returned to the Wool-ſack.

A Petition

Petition of George Rochfort, Esq; &c.

A Petition of George Rochfort, Esq; and Alice Rochfort otherwise Hume his Wife, setting forth, that Michael Lord Dunkellin deceased, being indebted to Sir Gustavus Hume, Bart. in the Sum of £1785 : 10*s.* 0*d.* for Money lent, did execute a Bond and Warrant to the said Gustavus Hume, dated the 23d of December, 1719, for the Payment of the said Sum, with Interest: That in the Year 1722 the said Lord became Earl of Clanrickard, and not having paid any Part of either Principal or Interest, did by a Deed, dated the 19th of April, 1726, mortgage to the said Sir Gustavus certain Lands in the said Deed, for the Payment of the said Sum and the Interest thereof.

That said Earl Michael died in November, 1726, leaving Issue, only one Son, the present Earl Smith, then a Minor, of tender Years, and said Sir Gustavus died in October, 1731, before he received any Part of said Principal or Interest, except about £230, having before his Death made his Will, dated the 18th of August, 1729, whereby (amongst other things) he bequeathed the said Debt, due by said Earl Michael, to the Petitioner Alice Hume, now Alice Rochfort his Daughter; and the said Alice being then a Minor, Lady Alice Hume her Mother, as Administratrix of the said Sir Gustavus, in behalf of her Daughter, issued a Scire facias as of Trinity-Term, in the 5th Year of his present Majesty's Reign, on the Judgment obtained on the said Bond; but the Estate of the said Earl of Clanricard, being then greatly incumbered, and several of the prior Incumbrancers having got into Possession of the same, or the greatest Part thereof, during the Minority of the present Earl, no effectual Proceedings were had for Recovery of the said Debt, secured as aforesaid to the said Sir Gustavus Hume till some time after the present Earl attained full Age, which he did not do till the Year 1740.

That by Indenture, dated the 24th of May, 1746, made previous to the Marriage of George Rochfort, Esq; with the said Alice Hume, the said Lady Alice did grant to the said Trustees in the said Deed mentioned, the said Principal Money due by the said Earl Smith for the Use of said George and Alice, and the Survivor, in manner as therein mentioned.

That said Earl Smith refusing to discharge either Principal or Interest due on the Foot of said Mortgage, the said George and Alice, on the 18th of March, 1746, filed their Bill against said Earl Smith to foreclose the said Mortgage, and the said Earl Smith, on the 26th of September, 1748, answered the said Bill, and insisted that he had not any Estate by Descent, or as Heir at Law to his Father, the said Earl Michael, and set up a Title, under a Settlement executed in 1711, making the said Earl Michael Tenant for Life, although the said Settlement has, in many Suits, been found to be fraudulent against Creditors, and several Verdicts have been obtained against said Earl Smith on that Foundation.

That the said Cause has been at Issue, upwards of two Years, and the said Earl, in order to protract the same, and to prevent the Examination of Witnesses, on the 17th of December, 1752, filed a Cross-Bill against the said George and Alice, to which they put in their Answer; and though it was materially full, there were seventeen Exceptions taken to it; and to remove any further Pretences for delay, they answered the said Exceptions: But in order further to delay the said Cause, it is now insisted on, in behalf of said Earl, that the said George and Alice should give in a further Answer to the said Cause, in regard that they, in their former Answers, omitted to answer as to their Hearsay touching Matters alledged to have been transacted before they were born; and the said Earl of Clanrickard not being satisfied with the Delays he has already given, declines waving his Privilege of Parliament.

That the Principal and Interest of the said Debt to the 23d Day of December last, amounts to £6697 : 14*s.* 9½*d.* which at legal Interest, would produce £401 : 17*s.* 2¾*d.* yearly, and the Interest of the original Debt of £1785 : 10*s.* at £8 ℔ Cent. produces only £142 : 16*s.* 7*d.* yearly, so that the Petitioners are Losers £259 : 0*s.* 7¾*d.* yearly, whilst the said Suit is protracted.

That the Petitioners are afraid to proceed in their said Cause, against the said Earl of Clanrickard (his Lordship being one of the Peers of this Right Hon. House) without their Lordships' Permission, lest they might incur their Lordships' Displeasure:

And therefore humbly beseeching their Lordships to take the Premises into Consideration, and to grant them such Relief, as to their Lordships, in their great Wisdom and Justice, shall seem meet, so as that the Petitioners may be at Liberty to prosecute the said Suit, against the said Earl of Clanrickard, without incurring the Displeasure of this Right Hon. House; was presented to the House, and read.

Order thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that Smith Earl of Clanrickard do attend in his Place on Monday the 15th Day of March next, and that the Lord Chancellor do write to his Lordship to acquaint him therewith.

Meſſage from Commons to return Bill. A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Col. John Bourke and others, to return an ingroſſed Bill, ſent down by this Houſe, intitled, An Act to ſupply the Defects of an Act paſſed in the 11th Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intitled, An Act for explaining and amending ſeveral Statutes for prohibiting Under-Sheriffs or Sheriffs' Clerks from officiating as Sub-Sheriffs or Sheriffs' Clerks more than one Year; and to acquaint this Houſe, that they have agreed thereto, without any Amendment.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had received a Meſſage from his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, which his Grace directed him to lay before their Lordſhips, which he read, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

"DEVONSHIRE.

"My Lords,

Meſſage from Lord Lieutenant. "I HAVE his Majeſty's Commands to acquaint your Lordſhips, that his Majeſty having received repeated Advices, that a Deſign is formed by the French Court, to make an Invaſion upon Great Britain or Ireland, and the great Preparations of Land Forces, Ships, Artillery and Warlike Stores, now notoriouſly making in the ſeveral Ports of France oppoſite to our Coaſts, leaving little room to doubt of the Reality of ſuch a Deſign, his Majeſty has ordered me to lay before your Lordſhips this important Intelligence, and to acquaint you that his Majeſty thinks it neceſſary, in ſo critical a Conjuncture, to provide for the Safety and Defence of this Country, by a further Augmentation of his Forces here, not doubting, from the known Loyalty and Zeal of your Lordſhips, that you will chearfully concur in ſuch Meaſures as may be neceſſary for ſupporting the Honour of his Crown, and preſerving the Religion, Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom."

Reſolution thereon. Reſolved, nem. con. that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, that he will be pleaſed to return our moſt humble Thanks to his Majeſty, for making us acquainted with the Deſigns and Preparations of the French Court.

To acknowledge his Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, in providing, at this critical Conjuncture, for the more effectual Safety and Defence of this Kingdom.

And to aſſure his Majeſty, that we will, with the utmoſt Chearfulneſs and Zeal, concur in whatever Meaſures his Majeſty ſhall judge neceſſary for that important End.

And that, always animated with a grateful Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoy, under his Majeſty's moſt juſt and gracious Government (upon which alone and the Succeſſion in his Royal Houſe the Preſervation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, under God, intirely intirely depends) we ſhall be ready to demonſtrate our inviolable Loyalty, upon this and every other Occaſion, by exerting our utmoſt Endeavours, to defend and aſſiſt his Majeſty, againſt all his Enemies, and to ſupport the Rights and Honour of his Crown, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes.

To aſſure his Grace, that we have at all Times an entire Confidence in his Grace's known Wiſdom, Vigilance and Attention to the Welfare of this Kingdom; and that we ſhall always think it our Duty to endeavour to render his Grace's Adminiſtration, as eaſy to his Grace, as it is confeſſedly beneficial to the Publick.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Earl of Kildare, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and that all Lords, who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet immediately in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed.

The Earl of Kildare reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to their Lordſhips' Reſolution of this Day, that they had prepared the ſame accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace
WILLIAM Duke of DEVONSHIRE,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to L^d Lieutenant

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly intreat your Grace to preſent our moſt humble Thanks to his Majeſty, for having been pleaſed to acquaint us, by your Grace's Meſſage this Day, with the Deſigns of the French Court, to make an Invaſion upon Great Britain or Ireland, an Attempt which cannot fail to excite the utmoſt Abhorrence and Reſentment in all his Majeſty's faithful Subjects; and we truſt in the DIVINE PROVIDENCE, will prove, in the Event, as vain and deſtructive to the Undertakers, as it is perfidious and preſumptuous.

We thankfully acknowledge his Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, in providing, at this critical Conjuncture, for the more effectual Defence and Safety of this Kingdom; and we beg your Grace will be pleaſed to lay our moſt ſolemn Aſſurances before his Majeſty, that we will, with the utmoſt Chearfulneſs and Zeal, concur in whatever Meaſures his Majeſty ſhall judge requiſite for that important End.

Fully convinced, that the Preſervation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties depends, under GOD, intirely upon his Majeſty, and the Succeſſion in his Royal Houſe; and animated with a grateful Senſe of the many invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under his Majeſty's moſt juſt and gracious Government, we ſhall be ready, upon this and every other Occaſion, to demonſtrate our inviolable and moſt affectionate Loyalty, by exerting our utmoſt Endeavours to defend and aſſiſt his Majeſty againſt all his Enemies; and to ſupport and maintain the Rights and Honour of his Crown, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Grace, that we have at all Times an intire Confidence in your known Wiſdom, Vigilance and Attention to the Welfare of this Kingdom; and that we ſhall always think it our Duty to endeavour to render your Grace's Adminiſtration as eaſy to your Grace, as it is confeſſedly beneficial to the Publick.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Grace.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that in obedience to their Lordſhips' Order of this Day, he waited upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to know when he would pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe, with their Lordſhips' Addreſs to his Grace; and his Grace was pleaſed to appoint this Day, at Five o'clock, at the Caſtle.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that the Houſe had attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with their Addreſs; to which Addreſs his Grace was pleaſed to give this Anſwer:

" My Lords,

" I RETURN your Lordſhips Thanks for " this affectionate Addreſs, and ſhall take the " firſt Opportunity of laying before his Ma- " jeſty, the Loyalty and Zeal which you have " expreſſed upon this important Occaſion."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe, preſented this Day to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and his Grace's Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that it was his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Houſe do adjourn itſelf to Monday the 26th Day of April next:

And the Queſtion of Adjournment being put;

The Houſe adjourned till Monday the 26th Day of April next, at Eleven o'clock in the Morning.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

His Grace William Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Antrim carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Kildare, the Cap of Maintenance; two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Grace the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint them, that it is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

Commons preſent R. H. J. Ponſonby, Eſq; as Speaker:

And the Houſe of Commons being come, were conducted to the Bar, by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies, and having received his Grace the L^d Lieutenant's Commands, to proceed to the Choice of a new Speaker, in the room of the Right Hon. Henry Boyle, Eſq; now Earl of Shannon, preſented the Right Hon. John Ponſonby, Eſq; whom they had choſen to be their Speaker, for his Grace's Approbation, where Mr. Ponſonby made a Speech, as follows, viz.

" May it pleaſe your Grace,

His Speech.

" THE Houſe of Commons have, in purſu-
" ance of your Grace's Commands, proceeded " to the Election of a Speaker, and have been
" pleaſed to confer that great Honour upon " me, in the Room of the noble Perſon, who " has preſided for ſo many Years with ſuch
" eminent and diſtinguiſhed Abilities in the " Chair of that Houſe.

" Though I cannot ſufficiently acknow" ledge the very high Obligation, this ex" traordinary Mark of their Favour has placed " upon me, yet when I conſider the Difficulty
" and Importance of this high Truſt, and at
" the ſame time reflect upon my own Inſuffi-
" ciency and Inexperience, I find myſelf under
" the neceſſity of intreating your Grace to " interpoſe with the Commons in my Favour,
" and to direct them to chooſe a Perſon out
" of the many in that Houſe, more able, more " experienced and every way more equal to
" this moſt honourable but arduous Taſk."

The Lord Chancellor, by his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Command, ſaid:

" Mr. Ponſonby,

Lord Chancellor's Reply.

" HIS Grace the Lord Lieutenant hath heard
" with Attention the Excuſe which your great
" Modeſty hath offered; but which his Grace's
" Regard to the Publick cannot by any Means
" admit.

" Had you been unknown to his Grace,
" your Fitneſs for the reſpectable Station, to " which you are elected, would have been " amply proved to him by the Voice of the " Houſe of Commons.

" It hath not eſcaped his Grace's Notice,
" that you have given a freſh Proof of your " Ability to fill the Chair, by the Manner in " which you have expreſſed your Wiſhes to " decline that Honour.

" His Grace is perſuaded, that a loyal and " dutiful Attachment to his Majeſty, a ſteady
" Zeal to promote the Eaſe and Dignity of his
" moſt juſt and gracious Government, and a
" due Regard to the true Intereſt of your " Country, will be the conſtant Rule of your " Conduct.

" His

" His Grace doth therefore approve and " ratify the Choice made by the Commons, " and confirms you, their Speaker, in the " room of a Noble Perſon, whoſe long Courſe " of Services his Majeſty hath graciouſly " rewarded by a diſtinguiſhing Mark of royal " Favour.

" Aſſiſted by your own Experience and " Knowledge of Parliamentary Affairs, di- " rected by the Wiſdom, and ſupported by the " good Affections of the Houſe of Commons, " what Difficulties can occur to which you " will not be equal?

" Your Diffidence of yourſelf, his Grace " conſiders as the beſt Security, that you will " diſcharge the various Duties of your Office " with Attention and Diligence, proportioned " to your Senſe of their Importance, and to " the general Expectation of the Publick."

Then Mr. Speaker ſaid:

" May it pleaſe your Grace,

Speaker's Speech after Approbation.

" MY Unwillingneſs to accept the very high " Honour, which the Houſe of Commons " have been pleaſed to confer upon me, " proceeded from the Conſciouſneſs, I juſtly " have of my own Inability and Inexperience.

" But ſince your Grace has thought proper " to confirm their Choice, it is my Duty to " ſubmit, and to endeavour by a ſteady and " unalterable Attachment to his Majeſty's " Perſon and Government, and the true In- " tereſt of this Kingdom, to render my Failings " the Object of Indulgence, rather than of " Cenſure.

" I flatter myſelf, that my moſt ſincere, " conſtant and zealous Endeavours to promote " true Liberty and the Publick Welfare, will, " in ſome Meaſure, ſupply the Want of thoſe " eminent Qualifications, ſo neceſſary to the " Execution of this important Truſt; and I " ſhall account myſelf happy indeed, if, by " an humble Imitation of your Grace's Wiſ- " dom and Prudence, I may, in any Manner, " contribute to promote that Concord, Order " and Unanimity, which alone can effectually " ſupport the true Intereſt of this Kingdom, " and ſecure the ineſtimable Bleſſings we " enjoy under his Majeſty's moſt auſpicious " Reign."

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Biſhop of Down reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, that they had prepared the ſame, which he read in his Place, and the ſaid Addreſs being afterwards read at the Table, was agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace
WILLIAM Duke of DEVONSHIRE,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave, before the Cloſe of the Seſſion, to give your Grace this Teſtimony of our Eſteem, and of our Gratitude for your juſt and prudent Conduct, during a long Reſidence amongſt us, and amidſt a Variety of important and intereſting Matters of State.

At a Time ſo dangerous and critical as this, when an inſolent and ambitious Neighbour threatens theſe Iſlands, and Temper and Spirit in Government are equally neceſſary, we cannot but applaud his Majeſty's deep Diſcernment and peculiar Care for this Nation, in committing the Charge of it to your Grace, in whom we have found, by happy Experience a rare Conjunction of Mildneſs with Reſolution, and Activity directed by Wiſdom.

The ſeaſonable Proviſion for our Defence againſt a daring and deſperate Enemy; the extenſive Bounties for the Encouragement of inland Commerce; the Zeal and Unanimity with which Publick Buſineſs hath been tranſacted, are clear and unqueſtionable Evidences of your Grace's Attention to the Security and true Intereſt of this Kingdom, and of the Reality of our intire Satisfaction and Confidence under your Adminiſtration.

As your Grace will very ſoon return to the Royal Preſence, we have not the leaſt Doubt of our appearing in a favourable Light to his Majeſty, from your Repreſentation of us, as all your Actions are governed by Truth and Candour. And the Warmth of our Duty and Loyalty to the beſt of Kings, and of our Love for the Religion, Laws and Proſperity of our Country, cannot fail of being properly expreſſed by your Grace, ſince your own Heart will readily furniſh you with the moſt lively Feelings to deſcribe it by.

We ſhall eſteem ourſelves greatly favoured by his Majeſty (whom GOD long preſerve!) in the continuing of your Grace in the high Station which you now ſo eminently fill. For we are fully convinced, that your frequent Appearance in that Office, will add new Luſtre to the Reign of our Royal Sovereign, Stability to our Peace and Welfare, and Honour and Dignity to your Grace's Government: A conſtant yet chearful Application to the Publick Service, Principles unſtained and Virtue unaffected in the Repreſentative of Majeſty, as they are Bleſſings to a Nation, which is under their Influence, ſo they muſt render an Adminiſtration eaſy and illuſtrious; and effectually ſecure to the Prince, the Affections of a grateful, loyal and happy People.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Grace.

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

YOUR grateful Duty to the King and firm Attachment to the Intereſt of your Country, were never more conſpicuous, than in the Unanimity with which, throughout this long Seſſion of Parliament, you have aſſiſted his Majeſty's gracious Intentions for the Safety, Tranquillity and Happineſs of his People of Ireland.

By ſtrengthening his Majeſty's Hands, you have, in the moſt prudent Manner, conſulted the Preſervation of all that can be dear to you as Proteſtants, or Men: And the perfect Confidence which you have ſo chearfully repoſed in his Majeſty's royal Care for your Security, is amply juſtified, by your Knowledge of thoſe juſt and gracious Principles, which direct the Councils of a Sovereign, who hath uniformly made the Law and the eſtabliſhed Maxims of the Conſtitution the Meaſure of his Government.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE received the King's Commands to return you Thanks for the Readineſs and Zeal with which you have raiſed the neceſſary Supplies, for the Support of the Eſtabliſhment, and enabled his Majeſty to provide for your Defence, againſt every Danger foreign or domeſtick.

The extenſive Proviſions made for the further Cultivation and Improvement of this Kingdom, are at once an authentick Proof of your unfeigned Regard to the Publick; and the paternal Goodneſs of his Majeſty, whoſe chief Glory it is, to be the indulgent Father of all his People.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE many wiſe and ſalutary Acts calculated for the general Benefit and Advantage of the Kingdom, to which his Majeſty has graciouſly been pleaſed to give his royal Aſſent, will very happily diſtinguiſh this Seſſion of the Parliament of Ireland.

It will be your Part, by your Authority and Examples in your reſpective Countries, to enforce their punctual and vigorous Execution.

There never was a Time which ſo loudly called for the utmoſt Exertion of your Influence to propagate a general Veneration for our Excellent Conſtitution; to inſpire the People with your own Sentiments of the Juſtice, Moderation and Benignity of the King's Government; to promote Induſtry, Peace, Sobriety and good Order; and to encourage Harmony and Union amongſt all his Majeſty's faithful Subjects.

You may be aſſured, that I will gladly lay before the King, in the trueſt and moſt favourable Light, the affectionate Loyalty with which both Houſes of Parliament have concurred for the Support of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, and Security of the Kingdom, againſt any Attempt to deprive us of the ineſtimable Bleſſings we derive from his Majeſty's auſpicious Reign.

Your Approbation of my Conduct, ſo kindly expreſſed in your ſeveral Addreſſes, gives me the higheſt Satisfaction, and lays me under an additional Obligation to make the Welfare and Proſperity of Ireland, the conſtant Object of my future Wiſhes and Endeavours.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Grace's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 8th Day of June next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 8th Day of June next. Parliament prorogued.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed.

L^d Lieutenant preſent. His Grace John Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Weſtmeath carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Kildare, the Cap of Maintenance; three Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Grace the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for: The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter. And the Houſe of Commons being come, they, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech. IT is with great Satisfaction I obey his Majeſty's Commands to meet you here in Parliament, being aſſured, from your former Conduct, that your Deliberations will be directed to promote the Honour of his Majeſty's Government, and the Safety and Proſperity of this Kingdom.

The preſent critical Juncture of Affairs, occaſioned by the War in which his Majeſty has been neceſſarily engaged, to defend the Rights of his Crown, and protect the Commerce of his Subjects, and the unnatural Conjunction of thoſe Powers with whom he is to contend; require your moſt ſerious Attention, in order to preſerve Peace at Home, and to be prepared, if any Inſult ſhould be attempted on this Kingdom.

The full Enjoyment we have had of our Religious and Civil Rights and Liberties, ſince the Acceſſion of his Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Houſe, and the paternal Care and Tenderneſs invariably ſhewn by his Majeſty to his good Subjects of this Kingdom, muſt have made the deepeſt Impreſſion on your Minds, and convinced you how nearly we are intereſted in preventing whatever may tend to deprive us of thoſe Bleſſings.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

HEAVY as the Expence of this War has been, I have nothing in Command from his Majeſty to aſk, but the uſual Supplies; and, for that Purpoſe, I have ordered the proper Officers to prepare the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates to be laid before you.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

YOU are not now to be informed of his Majeſty's Readineſs to conſent to ſuch Laws as may conduce to the Welfare of this Kingdom: You will conſider the State of the Charter-Schools, and what further Steps may be taken to ſtrengthen the Proteſtant Intereſt, and to promote the Linen Manufacture, which muſt be conſidered as the Staple of this Kingdom: It were alſo to be wiſhed, that ſome Method might be found out to prevent the Calamities which are the neceſſary Conſequences of a Want of Corn in Ireland, which have been, in Part, felt this laſt Year, and to which this Country has been too often expoſed.

My beſt Endeavours ſhall concur with you in every thing that may advance the real Intereſt of this Kingdom.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table;

Lord Lieutenant's Speech to be printed. It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King. Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to aſſure his Majeſty, that the ſame invariable Sentiments of Duty and Loyalty, which have diſtinguiſhed all our former Deliberations, ſhall be ſteadily directed to promote the Honour of his Majeſty's Government, and the Safety and Proſperity of this Kingdom.

To expreſs the feeling Senſe we have of the preſent critical Juncture of Affairs, occaſioned by the War in which his Majeſty is neceſſarily engaged engaged to defend the Rights of his Crown, and to protect the Commerce of his Subjects; and that we will exert ourſelves, to the utmoſt of our Power, to fruſtrate any Attempt which may be made to diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity of this Kingdom.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that the full Enjoyment we have had of our Religious and Civil Rights, ſince the Acceſſion of his moſt illuſtrious Houſe, has made the deepeſt Impreſſion upon our Minds, and inſpires us with the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude, and that we cannot but eſteem his Majeſty's having appointed his Grace the Duke of Bedford to the Government of this Kingdom, at this important Criſis, as a particular Inſtance of his paternal Care and conſtant Attention to the Security and Welfare of this Kingdom.

And to aſſure his Majeſty, that we ſhall conſider the State of the Charter-Schools, and what further Steps may be taken to ſtrengthen the Proteſtant Intereſt; as alſo to extend that valuable Branch of our Trade the Linen Manufacture; and the Means of increaſing our Tillage, hitherto ſo fatally neglected.

Ordered, that the Earl of Shannon and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs of Thanks be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his Grace's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament. Reſolution for Addreſs to L^d Lieutenant Ordered, that the Earl of Clanbraſſill, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Addreſs; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Lord Chief Baron takes the Oaths, &c.

The Right Hon. Edward Willes, Eſq; being appointed Lord Chief Baron of his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer, this Day delivered his Writ in the accuſtomed manner, and came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

The Earl of Shannon reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that the ſame invariable Sentiments of Duty and Affection which have influenced all our former Proceedings, will be ſteadily directed to promote the Honour of your Majeſty's Government, and the Safety and Proſperity of this Kingdom. Addreſs to the King.

We cannot too deeply expreſs the feeling Senſe we have of the preſent critical Juncture of Affairs occaſioned by the War in which your Majeſty is neceſſarily engaged, to defend the Rights of your Crown, and to protect the Commerce of your Subjects.

The unnatural Conjuncture of thoſe Powers with whom your Majeſty is to contend, muſt bring the Danger to which we are expoſed, ſo much the nearer to our view, as to make us exert our utmoſt Endeavours to maintain Tranquillity at Home, and defeat any Attempt which the Enemies of our Peace may intend againſt us.

The free Enjoyment we have had of all our Religious and Civil Rights and Liberties, ſince the Acceſſion of your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Houſe, cannot fail of making the deepeſt Impreſſion on our Minds; and your Majeſty having appointed his Grace the Duke of Bedford to the Government of this Kingdom, at this important Criſis, affords us the moſt convincing Proof of the Continuance of that paternal Care and Tenderneſs, always ſhewn to your Majeſty's faithful Subjects of this Kingdom.

When ſuch formidable Deſigns are laid to deprive us of all our Conſtitutional Rights and Liberties, both Civil and Religious, it muſt raiſe the higheſt, the greateſt Confidence, as well as the warmeſt Returns of Gratitude and Loyalty, in every truly Proteſtant Breaſt, to know, that they are committed by your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Goodneſs to the Care of a Governor, ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed by his high Birth, great Abilities, inherent Worth, and known Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Family, and deſcended from an Anceſtor ſo univerſally and juſtly beloved when living, and ſo glorious in his Death, for endeavouring to ſecure thoſe invaluable Bleſſings to us.

We are fully aſſured of your Majeſty's Readineſs to conſent to ſuch Laws as may conduce to the Welfare of this Kingdom; which will encourage us to conſider the State of the Charter-Schools, ſo wiſely calculated to ſtrengthen the Proteſtant Intereſt; and to think of the moſt proper Means of extending that moſt valuable Branch of our Trade, the Linen Manufacture: The Care of our Tillage alſo, hitherto ſo fatally neglected, is an Object of the moſt intereſting Nature, and cannot but engage us to apply ourſelves, in the moſt ſerious Manner, to take ſuch Steps as may prevent the Calamities, which are the neceſſary Conſequence of a want of Corn, ſo often ſeverely felt by this Kingdom. And we cannot omit taking this Opportunity of aſſuring your Majeſty, that we ſhall moſt chearfully embrace every Occaſion of approving ourſelves worthy the Continuance of your Majeſty's royal Favour and Protection.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

The Earl of Clanbraſſill reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs of Thanks to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his Grace's Speech, delivered Yeſterday from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace
JOHN Duke of BEDFORD,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return our moſt humble Thanks to your Grace, for your Speech delivered from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament; and we beg Leave, at the ſame time, to expreſs our moſt ſincere Joy upon your Grace's happy Arrival in this Kingdom.

The Marks of paternal Affection with which our gracious Sovereign has been pleaſed to favour this Nation, have been many and various; but none of them have made a deeper Impreſſion on our Minds, than his Appointment of your Grace to the Government of this Kingdom, at a Time when the Neceſſity of his Affairs ſeemed to require the Attendance of ſo able and faithful a Counſellor near his ſacred Perſon.

His Majeſty's loyal Subjects of Ireland have long wiſhed to ſee the Government of this Kingdom delegated to the Heir and Deſcendant of the great Perſon who paved the Way for the late glorious Revolution; who laid the Foundation of our Civil and Religious Rights and Liberties, and cemented it with his Blood: Their Wiſhes are now ſatisfied; and they admire, in your Grace, the ſame Virtues and great Qualities, that diſtinguiſhed and adorned your illuſtrious Anceſtor.

The great Employments in the State, which your Grace has filled with ſo much Honour to yourſelf, and with ſuch Utility to the Publick, give us the ſtrongeſt Aſſurance, that your Grace will diſcharge your preſent high Office with the ſame Honour, and to the great Advantage of this Nation: And we promiſe ourſelves, that, under your Adminiſtration, the Dignity of Government, and the Authority of Law, will be confirmed, ſupported and eſtabliſhed.

Your Grace has moſt kindly encouraged us to conſider of ſuch Laws as may conduce to the Welfare of this Kingdom; ſuch Laws as may ſtrengthen the Proteſtant Intereſt; and excite the Induſtry of our People, by promoting and extending the Staple Manufacture of this Country: Your Grace has ſhewn that you you attend to all our Neceſſities and feel for our Wants, by adviſing us to think of ſome Method of preventing the Return of ſuch a Calamity as we lately ſuffered, from a ſcarcity of Corn, which your Grace's noble and generous Nature prompted you early to ſoften and relieve. And we ſhould think ourſelves utterly unworthy ſuch a Governor, if we did not endeavour to imitate your Example, and to follow your Advice. We ſhall therefore, relying upon your Grace's kind and generous Aſſiſtance, proceed with Chearfulneſs to frame and conſider of ſuch Laws as may beſt anſwer the great Ends propoſed, in full confidence of obtaining all that becomes dutiful Subjects to aſk, from a gracious Sovereign.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Grace.

Petition of the Earl of Hillſborough and William Anneſley, Eſq;

A Petition of Wills Earl of Hillſborough and William Anneſley, Eſq; two of the principal Proprietors of the Lands of the Pariſh of Clonuff in the Dioceſe of Dromore, on behalf of themſelves and Inhabitants of the ſaid Pariſh; ſetting forth, that the ſaid Pariſh contains twenty-five Denominations of Land, the leaſt of which conſiſts of about 250 Acres, and ſome of upwards of 500 Acres, and is in Length near ſix Miles, and the ſame in Breadth.

That the ſaid Pariſh contains upwards of 1300 Inhabitants.

That the Pariſh-Church thereof has been for ſome Years in Ruins, the Roof being entirely fallen.

That ſome time in the Year 1751, as their Lordſhips' Petitioners are informed, ſaid Pariſh was, by Act of Council, united to the Pariſh of Drumgath.

That the Pariſh of Drumgath contains alſo upwards of 1300 Inhabitants, and that the Pariſh-Church is ſo ſmall, as to be barely ſufficient for the Accommodation of the Proteſtants of the Church of Ireland as by Law eſtabliſhed, who reſide therein, and amount to upwards of 100 Perſons.

That many Parts of the Pariſh of Clonuff are near ſix Miles from the Pariſh-Church of Drumgath, and that ſome of the Inhabitants have two Rivers to paſs to the ſame, which are frequently not fordable, at which times they muſt go three Miles out of their way to a Bridge.

That their Lordſhips' Petitioners are at a Loſs to diſcover the Motives to the ſaid Union, which is ſo diſtreſsful to the Inhabitants of the ſaid Pariſh, and which was obtained without their Conſent, and without their having ſuch Notice as to enable them to make the proper Repreſentations againſt the ſame.

That the Vicarial Tythes which belong to the Incumbent of Clonuff are of the yearly Value of upwards of ſixty Pounds, and the Vicarial Tythes which belong to the Incumbent of Drumgath are of a greater Value, which their Lordſhips' Petitioners humbly apprehend is a ſufficient Suſtentation and Maintenance for the reſpective Vicars of each Pariſh.

That their Petitioners are deſirous, together with the Inhabitants of the ſaid Pariſh, to give their Aſſiſtance towards the rebuilding of the Pariſh-Church, and that the Vicar may be accommodated with a convenient Glebe, upon Terms advantageous to him and his Succeſſors.

That if the ſaid Union be according to Law, and be permitted to continue, their Lordſhips' Petitioners are very apprehenſive, that the Proteſtant Intereſt will decreaſe in the ſaid Pariſh, by the Diſcouragement given to ſuch as are now reſiding therein, and as might be inclined to ſettle there, by the Want of a Pariſh-Church and a Miniſter to be reſident among them, whereby their Petitioners, as well as the Inhabitants of ſaid Pariſh, will be great Sufferers.

That their Petitioners have, together with the Inhabitants of the ſaid Pariſh, laid their Caſe before the Right Rev. George Lord Biſhop of Dromore, and petitioned his Lordſhip to aſſiſt them in obtaining a Diſſolution of the ſaid Union, which Petition his Lordſhip is not pleaſed to comply with; and that they are therefore obliged to make their humble Application to their Lordſhips:

And praying their Lordſhips to conſider their Caſe, and to give them ſuch Relief as their Lordſhips ſhall, in their great Wiſdom, think meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Petition be referred to a Committee; and that the Lord Longford and all Lords preſent, be the ſaid Committee, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Heads of Bill for regiſtring Popiſh Prieſts

The Earl of Clanbraſſill preſented to the Houſe, Heads of a Bill for a general Regiſter of Popiſh Prieſts, which were received, and read a firſt time.

Ordered, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be read a ſecond time on this Day three Weeks.

Heads of Bill to be printed.

Ordered, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Earl of Belvedere introduced.

The Right Hon. Robert Lord Viſc. Bellfield, being by Letters Patents, dated the 29th Day of November, in the 30th Year of King George II. created Earl of Belvedere, was, in his Robes, introduced between the Earl of Roſs and the Earl of Laneſborough, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the ſaid Letters Patents preceding: His Lordſhip preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place at, the lower end of the Earls' Bench.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant had received his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe of the 12th of October laſt, which his Grace directed him to lay before their Lordſhips, which he read, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

"GEORGE R.

King's Anſwer to Addreſs.

"HIS Majeſty returns his Thanks to the "Houſe of Lords, for their dutiful and loyal "Addreſs. The Zeal and Affection they ex- "preſs for his Majeſty's Perſon and for his "Royal Family and Government, cannot fail "of being particularly agreeable to his Ma- "jeſty, in the preſent critical Situation of "Affairs: And they may always depend on "his Majeſty's Care to ſecure to his Subjects "of Ireland, the Enjoyment of their Religious "and Civil Rights; and to promote the Ma- "nufacture, Trade and Happineſs of that "Kingdom.

"G. R."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Majeſty of the 12th of October laſt, and his Majeſty's moſt gracious gracious Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

Report from Committee on Tillage.

The Earl of Clanbraſſill reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to inquire into the State of Tillage in this Kingdom, and to conſider of ſome Method of improving the ſame, and of better ſupplying the City of Dublin with Wheat; that they had agreed to a Report, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and is as follows, viz.

My Lords,

THE Lords' Committees, appointed to inquire into the State of Tillage in this Kingdom, and to conſider of ſome Method of improving the ſame, and of better ſupplying the City of Dublin with Wheat, have agreed to a Report, as follows, viz.

THE Conſumption of Wheat and Flour in the City of Dublin has ſo extenſive an Influence on the Tillage of Ireland, that your Committee thought it was incumbent on them to begin by inquiring into the Quantity of that Conſumption.

And they find that (rating three hundred Pounds Weight of Flour, as equal to two Barrels of Wheat) there is not leſs than two hundred thouſand Barrels of Wheat annually conſumed in this City.

They then proceeded to inquire into the Quantity of Wheat of Iriſh Growth, which was entered at the Market-Houſe, and the Quantity which was imported from Parts beyond the Sea into this Port, during the laſt five Years; and they find, that

In the Year ending the 25th Day of March, 1753, there were entered at the Market-Houſe of Dublin, 89,443 Barrels of Wheat of Iriſh Growth; and in the ſame Year there were imported into the Port of Dublin, 61,102 Barrels of Wheat.

In the Year ending the 25th Day of March, 1754, 79,626 Barrels of Wheat were entered at the ſaid Market-Houſe; and 97,058 Barrels were in the ſaid Year imported into the ſaid Port.

In the Year ending the 25th Day of March, 1755, only 58,710 Barrels of Wheat were entered at the ſaid Market-Houſe; and in the ſame Year, 287,558 Barrels were imported into the ſaid Port.

In the Year ending the 25th Day of March, 1756, 99,969 Barrels of Wheat were entered at the ſaid Market-Houſe; and in the ſame Year, 68,446 Barrels were imported into the ſaid Port.

In the Year ending the 25th Day of March, 1757, 70,077 Barrels of Wheat were entered at the ſaid Market-Houſe; and in the ſame Year, 88,148 Barrels were imported into the ſaid Port.

By all which it appears, that in the ſaid five Years, 404,825 Barrels were entered at the ſaid Market-Houſe; and in the ſame five Years, 594,312 Barrels were imported into the ſame Port, making in all 999,137 Barrels.

But this appears not to have been the Whole of the Conſumption of the City of Dublin during the ſaid Time; for your Committee find, that the Entries of Wheat at the Toll-Gates belonging to this City (at which a Toll amounting to a Pottle and half a Pint is paid out of every twenty Stone of Wheat) conſiderably exceed the Entries of Wheat at the Market-Houſe, and particularly in the Year ending at Michaelmas 1756, the Entries at the Toll-Gates appeared to exceed the Entries at the Market-Houſe by at leaſt 5000 Barrels, which muſt be owing to the foreſtalling of the Market by the Bakers, who doubtleſs buy only low-priced Corn in this Manner, as by that Means the Medium Price of Wheat is raiſed at the Market-Houſe.

Your Committee have alſo Reaſon to apprehend, that it is a common Practice of the Bakers to buy Wheat of a low Price in the Country, and to have it ground into Meal at the Mills adjacent to this City; from whence, by blending it with Meal produced from Wheat by them bought at the Market-Houſe and ſent to be ground at the ſame Mills, they introduce the Whole as the Produce of Wheat bought at the Market-Houſe; and thus they not only avoid paying the Toll due to the City, but they alſo introduce clandeſtinely a low-priced Commodity, which had it been ſold in open Market, would have reduced the Medium Price of Wheat, and would conſequently have affected the Aſſize of Bread: And it appears to your Committee, that theſe two Articles, added together, would conſiderably ſwell the Amount of Wheat and Flour conſumed in this City.

It alſo appears to your Committee, that the Merchants and Factors do not make regular Returns of their Sales of Wheat and Flour, although they are directed by Law to make the ſaid Returns upon Oath (if required) but they leave the making of thoſe Returns chiefly to their Brokers, whom your Committee apprehend to be improper Perſons for that Purpoſe (eſpecially if an Oath be required) as the Merchants and Factors may diſpoſe of great Quantities of Wheat and Flour without the Knowledge or Privity of the ſaid Brokers. Nor does it appear to your Committee, that any Return of the Sale of damaged Wheat or Flour was ever made to the Chief Magiſtrate of this City; from whence they find juſt Cauſe to apprehend, that Wheat and Flour, damaged in the Voyage, has frequently been ſold to Bakers in a clandeſtine Manner, and by them employed much to the Detriment of the Publick, but greatly to their own Profit.

Your Committee are confirmed in this Opinion, by the Evidence of a Perſon of great Experience in this Buſineſs, who ſaid it was a common Practice for a Number of Bakers to agree to buy a Quantity of damaged Wheat or Flour, and divide it among themſelves in certain Proportions; and that when Wheat and Flour is damaged to a certain Degree of Fuſtineſs or Sourneſs, it is ſold to the Bakers. He alſo ſaid that when Wheat is fuſty, it is generally ſold at one, two or three Shillings ℔ Hundred under the Middle Price: [*And Flour, when fuſty or ſour, is ſold at one or two Shillings ℔ Hundred under the Middle Price.] He alſo ſaid, that he had once bought Wheat of an inferior Quality, at eleven Shillings ℔ Barrel, when the Middle Price was at ſeventeen; nor did he know or remember, that a Return was made of that Wheat to the Lord Mayor. He further ſaid, that low-priced, damaged Wheat, or Flour, may be employed by the Bakers in Bread, when mixed with other Wheat and Flour, and that the Fuſtineſs of Bread is generally occaſioned by the imported Wheat or Flour. He added, that he has heard, that Wheat has been ſent to France, and not having been ſold there on account of its being damaged, was returned hither, and then bought by the Bakers.

Your Committee then proceeded to examine the Maſter and Wardens of the Corporation of Bakers, who confirmed in general the above Evidence, and the Maſter of the Corporation added, that ſome Bakers have lately bought a Parcel of New England Flour, which was extremely bad, and that it was mixed with ſome good Flour, and made into Bread: And ſaid, He believed, that the Quantity of the ſaid Flour was about 1500 Barrels: And further ſaid, He was not certain, whether or no this Flour was returned to the Lord Mayor, though he believed that Flour is generally returned to him, but not by him entered in the Aſſize.

Your Committee did not think proper to examine the Merchants and Factors to theſe Points, as it would, in ſome Meaſure, have been calling upon them to criminate themſelves: But, upon the whole, your Committee are of Opinion, that the ſeveral beforementioned Abuſes require the Attention of the Legiſlature, and ought, if poſſible, to be remedied by Law.

It further appears to your Committee, that every Perſon who brings Wheat to the Market-Houſe is obliged to ſend a Sample out of the whole Parcel to the Lord Mayor, which Sample is a Perquiſite belonging to the Sword-Bearer of the City, who acts as Deputy Clerk of the Market, the Quantity of the ſaid Sample is left to the Diſcretion of the Owner of the Wheat.

It alſo appears, that when Wheat is once entered at the Market-Houſe, the Owner is not ſuffered to take it away unſold, but he is permitted to loft it in the Market-Houſe, for which he pays one Halfpenny ℔ Week for each Sack: The Quantity of Wheat, thus lofted, has ſometimes amounted to four or five hundred Barrels, but is commonly much leſs conſiderable: It appears, that the Lofts at the Market-Houſe are capable of containing, with Eaſe, upwards of two thouſand Barrels of Wheat.

Your Committee then thought proper to inquire into the Markets held in the Liberty of St. Sepulchre's, and they find that Markets are held in the ſaid Liberty twice in the Week, from Michaelmas to Chriſtmas only; and that the ſaid Market is intirely ſupplied with Wheat from the Co. of Wicklow, and the Weigh-Maſter of the ſaid Liberty informed your Committee, that in the Year 1756, 649 Barrels of Wheat were weighed in the ſaid Market. He alſo ſaid, that the Wheat there ſold was generally under the Medium Price of the Wheat brought to the City Market. He further informed your Committee, that he has, in Purſuance to an Order given him by the Seneſchal

* Thus incloſed [ ] not inſerted in the Rough Journal.

Seneſchal of the ſaid Liberty, made regular Returns to the Lord Mayor of the Quantity and Prices of Wheat ſold in the ſaid Market, ſince Michaelmas laſt.

It further appeared to your Committee, in the Courſe of their Inquiry, that the Market of this City is ſupplied with Wheat of Iriſh Growth chiefly from the Counties of Kilkenny, Meath, Carlow, Kildare, Dublin, and the King's County; and that the Queen's County and the Counties of Wicklow and Weſtmeath ſend in ſome occaſionally; and they were particularly informed by a Perſon of great Experience in this Matter, that the Co. of Kilkenny alone furniſhes a full fourth Part of the Wheat entered at this Market-Houſe.

Your Committee then proceeded to inquire into the State of Tillage in the Counties of Clare, Galway, Limerick, Tipperary and Roſcommon; and they find that thoſe Counties have been, during a long Space of Time, and ſtill continue, moſtly under Stock, although they contain great Tracts of exceeding good Land, very proper for raiſing Corn of all Kinds, and particularly Wheat. That the Land in thoſe Counties, being freſh, would produce much greater Crops than Land of equal Goodneſs nearer to Dublin, which has been worn by conſtant Tillage. That in many Parts, the Land is become unwholeſome for Sheep, from the Length of Time it has been under grazing, which would be a great Inducement to thoſe Counties to turn themſelves to Tillage, if they had any Vent for their Grain; but at preſent they raiſe little, if any, more than is neceſſary for their own Conſumption. That the great Expenſe attending Land-Carriage, and the Want of Granaries in Dublin for lodging their Corn, in Caſe they ſhould fail of an immediate Market, are the principal Cauſes which deter them from going largely into Tillage.

From all which, it appears to your Committee, that if a Bounty was given, ſo as to eaſe the Price of Carriage from thoſe diſtant Counties, it would probably induce them to go largely into Tillage, and that if Publick Granaries were erected in or near this City, for the Reception of Wheat, it would greatly encourage the Farmers in thoſe Counties, to raiſe Wheat for the Dublin Market, as they would not then be under a Neceſſity of ſelling their Grain, when the Market was glutted with that Commodity. And if a Publick Officer was appointed, who ſhould be directed to give a Receipt for each Parcel of Wheat lodged in thoſe Granaries, a Paper Credit would be thereby erected, which would be of ſingular Advantage to the Farmers, in the carrying on of their Buſineſs.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

Upon which Report, the Houſe came to the following Reſolutions:

Reſolutions thereon.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the granting a Bounty upon the Carriage of Wheat from remote Counties to this City, will be a Means of improving Tillage, and of better ſupplying this City with Wheat of our own Growth.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the erecting of Publick Granaries in or near this City, with proper Regulations of the ſame, will greatly encourage the Extenſion of Tillage, and will be a great Means of ſupplying this City with a ſufficient Quantity of Wheat raiſed in this Kingdom.

Report ſent to Lord Lieutenant,

Petition of V. K. Chetwood, Eſq;

A Petition of Valentine Knightley Chetwood of Woodbrook in the Queen's County, Eſq; ſetting forth, that the Lands of Grenanbegg, Inſhinlaurence and Ballyhinane in the Barony of Clanwilliam and Co. Limerick, formerly the Eſtate of Richard Brooking the Petitioner's Grandfather, did, in the Year 1700, veſt in Knightley Chetwood the Petitioner's Father, in Right of Heſter Chetwood otherwiſe Brooking, only Daughter and Heireſs at Law of the ſaid Richard Brocking, with whom the Petitioner's ſaid Father intermarried, and the Rents and Profits of the ſaid Lands were by him received all along, without any Interruption whatſoever.

That in the Year 1750, a Leaſe made of the Premiſes having determined, the Right Hon. George Lord Baron of Carbery, made a forceable Entry on, and took Poſſeſſion of, twenty-eight Acres of ſaid Lands, though his ſaid Lordſhip's Grandfather, nor the late Lord Baron of Carbery his preſent Lordſhip's Father, ever laid any Claim thereto, nor could the Petitioner deriving under a Grant made in the 21ſt Year of King Charles II. (and the ſaid George Lord Carbery, under a Purchaſe made by his Lordſhip's Grandfather, from the Hollow Blade Company, in the Year 1713) to whom the ſaid Eſtate deſcended, and came on the Death of the ſaid Knightley Chetwood in the Year 1752.

That the Petitioner, on the 29th Day of November, in the ſame Year, exhibited his Bill in his Majeſty's High Court of Chancery in this Kingdom, againſt the ſaid Lord Carbery, praying to be reſtored to the Poſſeſſion of, and otherwiſe relieved in, the Premiſes; but the ſaid Lord Carbery having inſiſted, and ſtill inſiſting, on his Privilege of Parliament, the Petitioner could not bring the ſaid Cauſe to a Hearing, nor can he, for ſome great Length of Time, hope to be relieved in the Premiſes, except their Lordſhips will be graciouſly pleaſed to interpoſe in Favour of the Petitioner:

And praying their Lordſhips to take the Premiſes into Conſideration, and to grant the Petitioner ſuch Relief, that he may be at Liberty to proſecute the ſaid Suit againſt the ſaid Lord Carbery, without incurring their Lordſhips' Diſpleaſure; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that George Lord Baron Carbery do attend in his Place, in this Houſe, on Monday the 16th Day of January next, and that the Lord Chancellor do write to his Lordſhip, to acquaint him therewith. Order thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Clonfert ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 30th Day of January next, being the Martyrdom of King Charles I.

The Earl of Weſtmeath reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs of Condolence to his Majeſty on the Death of her late Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Caroline; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs of Condolence to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, to lay before your Majeſty this Teſtimony of our Condolence with your Majeſty on the Death of that moſt excellent Princeſs her late Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Caroline.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that ſuch is our Duty and Affection to your Majeſty and your Royal Family, that we cannot, without the deepeſt Affliction, think of the Loſs of any of thoſe Royal Branches upon which your Majeſty's Peace of Mind or the Safety of theſe Kingdoms may in any ſort depend.

May your Majeſty's Life be long and happy: May your Reign be undiſturbed by any future Afflictions; and may the Sovereignty of theſe Kingdoms be handed down, through an uninterrupted Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe, to the lateſt Times!

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs of Condolence to his Majeſty.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by the Right Hon. Mr. Hill and others, to acquaint this Houſe, that the Commons cannot, for great and weighty Reaſons, concur with their Lordſhips in an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, agreeable to their Lordſhips' Meſſage of Yeſterday.

Commons do not concur in the Addreſs relative to Corn-Spirits.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and acquaint him, that it is the Deſire of this Houſe, that his Grace will pleaſe to order two of the Judges to ſtay in Town from their Circuits to attend the Service of this Houſe.

The Earl of Laneſborough, from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, made the following Report, viz.

My Lords,

THE Lords' Committees for Privileges, in obedience to your Lordſhips' Inſtruction to them, to conſider of ſome effectual Method to reſtrain all Perſons from aſſuming to themſelves Titles of Honour, and from bearing Enſigns of Honour, which do not properly belong to them, have directed me to report the following Reſolutions and Orders, as the moſt effectual Means to anſwer the Ends propoſed by your Lordſhips, viz.

Reſolved, that all Perſons aſſuming to themſelves Titles of Honour not warranted by Law, nor allowed by the known Courteſy of this Land, are guilty of a high Breach of the Privileges of this Houſe.

Reſolved, that all Perſons ſigning ſuch Titles of Honour, in Lieu of, or as an Addition to, their Names, are guilty of a high Breach of the Privileges of this Houſe.

Reſolved, that all Perſons bearing Enſigns of Honour not warranted by Law, nor allowed by the known Courteſy of this Land, upon their Carriages, Plate or Furniture, with or without their Coats of Arms, are guilty of a high Breach of the Privileges of this Houſe.

Reſolved, that all Printers and Publiſhers attributing Titles of Honour to any Perſons to whom they do not properly belong, by inſerting ſuch Titles in their public News-Papers or Advertiſements, either in Lieu of, or as an Addition to, the Names of ſuch Perſons, are guilty of a notorious Breach of the Privileges of this Houſe.

Reſolved, that this Houſe will proceed, without Delay, to puniſh all Perſons who ſhall from henceforth offend in any of the beforementioned Points.

Ordered, that the King of Arms do, from time to time, make Inquiry after all Perſons who ſhall, from henceforth, offend in any of theſe Points, and do make regular Returns of the Names of all ſuch Delinquents to the Clerk of the Parliaments. Order thereon.

Ordered, that the King of Arms, attended by his proper Officers, do proceed to blot out and deface all Enſigns of Honour borne by ſuch Perſons upon their Carriages, Plate and Furniture, and do make regular Returns of his Proceedings therein to the Clerk of the Parliaments.

To which Reſolutions and Orders, the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree.

Ordered, that the ſaid Reſolutions and Orders ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the foregoing Reſolutions be declared Standing Orders of this Houſe, and entered on the Roll accordingly.

The Earl of Laneſborough, from the Lords' Committees appointed to inſpect into the State of the Parliament-Office, &c. made the following Report, viz.

My Lords,

Report of Committee to inſpect the Parliament-Office.

THE Lords' Committees appointed to inſpect into the State of the Parliament-Office, and inquire in what Manner the Rolls of Parliament are now kept, and how diſpoſed of, having, in obedience to your Lordſhips' Orders, inſpected the Parliament and Rolls Offices, think it their Duty to report immediately to your Lordſhips the State of the Parliamentary Records contained in, or belonging to, them.

In the Parliament-Office, they ſaw all the Journals of the Houſe of Lords in good Order, and properly diſpoſed in Preſſes; and the Clerk of the Parliaments informed them, that theſe Journals were brought to this Office at the beginning of each Seſſion, and were on every Prorogation carried to an Houſe in Latin's-Court, for the Rent of which an Allowance is conſtantly made. He further ſaid, that all the original Acts in his Cuſtody, with Tranſcripts of them, conſtantly remain there, to avoid the Accidents to which they might be ſubject, on frequent Removals from one Place to another.

Though this Diſpoſition of theſe Records, appear to the Lords' Committees liable to many Objections, they think it however the beſt that could have been made, on the pulling down of the Old Parliament-Houſe, and during the Greenneſs of the new one: But in their Opinion, the Acts as well as Journals, might all, from henceforth, be conſtantly kept in the Parliament-Office, if proper Preſſes and Drawers be there provided for them, and Fires be regularly kept, as well in the Intervals of Seſſions, as in the Seſſions themſelves

In the Houſe in Latin's-Court, to which the Lords' Committees adjourned, they found all the original Acts, from the Year 1715 to the preſent time, in Preſſes, with Drawers, numbered to diſtinguiſh the Seſſions, and all in perfect good Order. They alſo found fair Tranſcripts of the Acts of each Seſſion in like good Order: The Publick Acts in one Parliament Roll, and the Private ones in another; but neither Act nor Tranſcript earlier than the Year 1715.

Being informed, that the Acts and Tranſcripts of earlier Times, now in being, were in the Rolls' Office, the Lords' Committees proceeded thither, and examined ſeveral of them; but the Cold, Dampneſs and other ſhocking Circumſtances of the Place making it very inconvenient, and even hazardous, to ſpend in it the Time neceſſary to examine all, and ſome things worthy of Note ariſing on every Roll which they did inſpect, many more from verbal Accounts given by the Deputy Clerk and Keeper of the Rolls, the Lords' Committees ordered him to lay before them, in Writing, a State of the Parliament Rolls, remaining of Record in this Office, and alſo of the Office itſelf, which he has accordingly done.

This State the Lords' Committees found to be ſo full and clear, and to correſpond ſo exactly with what appeared to them on Inſpection, that they have choſen to lay it before your Lordſhips: They alſo lay before your Lordſhips the Copy of the Certiorari referred to in it.

The Lords' Committees have no Doubt, but that your Lordſhips will, at once, ſee the manifold bad Conſequences which muſt ariſe from the Diſorder and Confuſion in which theſe Offices have long been ſuffered to lie: Two of theſe Conſequences which ſeem the moſt ſtriking, they humbly beg Leave to point out.

One is, that all Advantage from Duplicates of authentick Records, is and muſt be abſolutely loſt, if either of the Fires (which within a few Years broke out in Houſes very near adjoining the Rolls' Office,) one of them ſo near as to have taken hold of Part, had conſumed the Whole, all Acts and Tranſcripts previous to the Year 1715, and with them a vaſt Number of other moſt valuable Records, had been deſtroyed, to the irreparable Loſs of the Nation. And if the Houſe in Latin's-Court, ſubject, like other Houſes, to Accidents from Fire, and more ſo from the Cloſeneſs of the Place, and the too near Neighbourhood of other Houſes, ſhould be thus deſtroyed, the ſame Fate muſt attend all the Parliamentary Records, both Acts and Tranſcripts, from the Year 1715 to the preſent time. Whereas, if the original Acts were all lodged in the Parliament Office, as the Lords' Committees conceive they ought to be, and if Tranſcripts, ſigned in due Form, by the Clerk of the Parliaments for the time being, and returned on Writs of Certiorari, which they apprehend ought regularly to iſſue, after every Seſſion, out of the Court of Chancery, were in like Manner lodged in the Rolls' Office, the Loſs of the Records of one Office might be ſupplied in ſome Meaſure from thoſe in the other.

The other very bad, and in the Opinion of the Lords' Committees, more ſtriking Conſequence, is, that all Conſtats of Publick, and Exemplifications of Private, Acts, paſſed ſince the Year 1715, which laſt are always under the Great Seal, muſt be made out, as they have been for above forty Years, from the Tranſmiſſes under the Great Seal of Great Britain, which all remain in the Rolls' Office. Theſe the Lords' Committees think to be the Warrants to the Chief Governor or Governors to give the Royal Aſſent to Bills of a certain Tenor, if conſented to by both Houſes of Parliament; but not Records for the Purpoſes of Conſtats or Exemplifications; for this among other Reaſons, that it does not appear from the Tranſmiſſes, whether Bills of a certain Tenor ever received the Royal Aſſent or not.

How far the making out Conſtats, or Exemplifications, in this Manner, may affect their Credit, when produced as Evidence in Courts of Juſtice, and how proper it is to affix the Great Seal to Exemplifications, ſo made out, the Lords' Committees humbly ſubmit to your Lordſhips' Judgment.

The Lords' Committees think the Account of the Office, ſtrong and ſhocking as it may appear to be, ſhort of the Truth, which Deſcription can, in their Opinion, hardly equal.

As they have no Doubt but that your Lordſhips will, with them, lament the miſerable Condition in which a Multitude of Records of ſuch vaſt Conſequence to the Laws and Property of the Nation, now do and have too long been ſuffered to remain, ſo they humbly hope that your Lordſhips, taking this whole Matter into ſerious Conſideration, the Confuſion and Diſorder which have crept into the Parliament and Rolls' Offices will be removed, and that proper and ſecure Repoſitories will be provided for the Records which regularly belong to each.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

Reſolved, that this Houſe will, on Thurſday Morning next, take the ſaid Report into Conſideration.

APPENDIX.

To the Lords' Committees for inſpecting into the State of the Acts of Parliament, &c.

Mr. Lodge's Report.

IN obedience to your Lordſhips' Commands, I have examined the Parliament Rolls remaining of Record in the Rolls' Office of his Majeſty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland, and find that they begin with the 5th Year of King Henry VI. which Roll hath this Title:

Anno 5° Hen. VI.

" Act⁹ in Parliamento D˜ni Regis ten⁹ apud " *Dublin*⁹ coram Jacobo le Botiller, Comit⁹ de " Ormond, Juſtic⁹ ipſius D˜ni Regis Terræ ſuæ " Hiberniæ, Die Veneris prox⁹ poſt Feſtum S^ti " Cuthberti, Ep˜i et Confeſſoris, Anno Regni " Regis Henrici Sexti, quinto."

And is thus indorſed upon the laſt Skin:

" Mem⁹ q^d XVIIJ Die *Septembr*⁹ Anno R: " R: Henrici Sexti, ſexto venerabilis in X^to " Pater Ric˜us Archiep˜us *Dublin*⁹ Cancellar⁹ " ipſius D˜ni Regis *Hibe*⁹ recepit apud Trym " iſtum tenorem Actus Parl˜ti, unde in iſto " tenore ſp˜ialr fit mentio ex deliberatione " *Thom*⁹ *Bron*⁹ Cler⁹ dicti Parl˜ti Decreto conſi- " deratione et auctoritate ejuſdem Parl˜ti " ſec˜dum formam Decreti conſiderationis et " auctoritatis ſupradictor⁹"

The Rolls, from this Time to the Reſtauration, are chiefly intitled, " Statuta Ordinatio- " nes, Actus, &c." Edita in Forma quæ ſequitur; —— or, in hæc verba —— or, in hunc modum:

Anno 18° Hen. VI.

The Roll of the 18th Henry VI. is ſubſcribed *Thom*⁹ *Bron*⁹ Cl˜icus Parliament⁹ And under the Name, in a different Hand-writing, " This " Roole is XI. Statut˜s and Rec⁹ for the ſame."

The Roll of the 29th of Henry VI. is thus indorſed:

Anno 29° Hen. VI.

" Memor˜d⁹ quod Hugo Wogan, Cl˜icus " Parliamenti D˜ni Regis Hibern˜ce deliberavit " Rotulum quorundar⁹ Ordinationum Statu- " tor⁹ et Actuum Magni Concilii infra ſpeci- " ficat⁹ contin⁹ XXI° Die Martii, Anno Regni " Regis *Hen*⁹ Sexti, viceſimo-nono, Johanni " *Chevir*⁹ Clerico ac Cuſtodi Rotulor⁹ Cancellar⁹ " D˜ni Regis Hiberniæ."

Anno 33° Hen. VI.

The Roll of the 33d of Hen. VI. is indorſed: " Memorand⁹ q^d viceſimo Die Junii, Anno " Regni Regis Henrici Sexti, triceſimo-tertio, " Hugo Wogan, Clericus Parliament⁹ delibe- " ravit hunc Rotulum *Joh˜i Chevir*⁹ Cl˜ico ac " Cuſtodi Rotulorum Cancellar⁹ dicti D˜ni " Regis Terræ ſuæ Hiberniæ."

Anno 7° Edw. IV.

The Roll of the 7th of Edward IV. hath an Indorſement much defaced; but the Words *Clericus Parliament*⁹ and *Rotul*⁹ are legible.

The Roll of the 8th of Henry VII. is thus indorſed on the laſt Skin but one.

Anno 8° Hen. VII.

A Writ of Certiorari ſeems to have been affixed to the Roll of the 2d of Eliz. by Part of the Thread ſtill remaining.

Annis 11 & 27 Elizabeth.

At the End of every Act upon the Rolls of the 11th and 27th Years of Queen Elizabeth, are theſe Words:

" Le Seignyor Deputie le vieulte."

And the Roll of the 11th Year is thus ſubſcribed:

" Et in hoc Rotulo continentur viginti- " quinque pelles Pergamen⁹ in quibus inſcri- " bunter XXXII. ſeparalia Statuta et Actus."

Anno 2° Jac. I.

The only Roll of King James I. in the 11th Year of his Reign, hath a Writ of Certiorari annexed, directed to Thomas Chetham, Eſq; Clerk of the Parliaments, to return into Chancery the Tenor of all the Acts and Statutes enacted in the Parliament held at the Caſtle of Dublin, 18th May 11° and continued by ſeveral Prorogations to 24th October 13° dated 25th Auguſt 15° *Jac*⁹ I. And at the Foot of the Roll is this Certificate:

Anno 4 Gul. & Mar. To the Roll of the 4th of Will. and Mary is annexed a Writ of Certiorari, directed to John Smith, Eſq; Clerk of the Parliaments, to return into Chancery the Tenor of all the Acts enacted in the Parliament held 5th October, 4 Gul. and Mar. and continued by ſeveral Prorogations to 26th June, 5 Gul. and Mar. dated 15th January, 6 Queen Anne, indorſed " Executio hujus Brevis patet in " quadam Schedula huic Brevi annexat.

" Sic recd
" JOHN SMITH,
" Clerª Parliamentª"

Anno 7° Gul. III. To the Roll of the 7th of King Will. is annexed a Writ of Certiorari of the ſame Date with the foregoing, to return into Chancery the Tenor of all the Acts enacted in the Parliament begun 27th Auguſt, 7° Gul. and continued to 14th June 11° indorſed as the aforeſaid Writ.

Anno 2° Annæ. To the Roll of the 2d Queen Anne, is annexed the Writ of Certiorari of which your Lordſhips have the Copy, dated 24th January, 1711, and indorſed as before — Note: All the above mentioned Writs are of the like Tenor.

The original Acts of Charles II. William and Anne, which received the Royal Aſſent, have been returned to and now remain in the Rolls' Office.

From the Year 1711, no Returns appear to have been made of the original Acts, or the Tenor thereof, by the Clerks of the Parliaments to the Office of the Rolls; ſo that the Tranſmiſſes under the Great Seal of Great Britain remain only as of Record from that Period; and when Copies of Private Acts are required, they are made from the Tranſmiſſes thereof.

All which is certified to your Lordſhips by

JOHN LODGE,
Deputy Clerk and Keeper of the Rolls.

My Lords,

The Office in which the ſaid Parliament Rolls and the Chancery Records are depoſited, is in a very ruinous State, being ſupported by Props from Top to Bottom.

The Weight of the Pleadings is ſo great, that there is Reaſon to fear the ſinking of the Floors, which would fall in, ſhould the Props give way.

The Roof is ſhored up from End to End, and in Danger of falling in by every high Wind.

The Slates are ſtript by every Storm, and the Windows cannot be kept in Repair, ſo that the Records daily ſuffer by Duſt and Moiſture.

The whole Building is ſo ſhook by Tempeſts, that the Clerks have quitted their Deſks, through Fear, and locked up the Office.

The Building is not only very inconvenient and ill contrived, but incapable of containing Half the Records in a proper Manner, ſo that they are laid up in Heaps, and ſuffer by their own Weight.

The Deputy Keeper of the Rolls has no Office appropriated to his own Uſe, except a ſmall Cloſet without a Fire, and even that is crowded with Records.

The Increaſe of Pleadings every Year is ſo great, as to require Rooms of large Extent; and if ſome Remedy be not provided, no Place can be contrived for another Year's Pleadings, every Room being full to the very Door.

The Office altogether is ſo ruinous, and expoſed to ſo many Accidents from Weather, Fire, Vermin, &c. whereby the Records of the Kingdom may be loſt or deſtroyed, and the publick Property thereby much affected, that it is difficult to deſcend further into Particulars for the Information of your Lordſhips in this Point.

I am,

MY LORDS,

Your Lordſhips' moſt dutiful and obedient Servant,

JOHN LODGE.

The Earl of Clanbraſſill preſented to the Houſe, a Bill, intitled, An Act for preventing Accidents of Fire in Cities and Towns Corporate; which was received, and ordered to be read.

Bill to prevent Accidents by Fire.

Hodie prima vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for preventing Accidents of Fire in Cities and Towns Corporate.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be now read a ſecond time.

Hodie ſecunda vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for preventing Accidents of Fire in Cities and Towns Corporate.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be ingroſſed.

The Lord Longford preſented to the Houſe, a Bill, intitled, An Act for diſſolving the Union of the Pariſhes of Clonuff and Drumgath in the Dioceſe of Dromore; which was received, and ordered to be read.

Bill to diſſolve Union of Pariſhes.

Hodie prima vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for diſſolving the Union of the Pariſhes of Clonuff and Drumgath in the Dioceſe of Dromore.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be now read a ſecond time.

Hodie ſecunda vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for diſſolving the Union of the Pariſhes of Clonuff and Drumgath in the Dioceſe of Dromore.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be ingroſſed.

Ordered, that all Lords now preſent, who are not of the Committee for Privileges, ſhall be added thereto.

Proceedings on State of Parliament Office;

Upon reading the Order for the Day, the Houſe proceeded to take into Conſideration the Report made from the Lords' Committees appointed to inſpect into the State of the Parliament-Office, and inquire in what Manner the Rolls of Parliament are now kept, and how diſpoſed of; and came to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved,

and that it is a proper Repoſitory for Acts.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Parliament-Office adjoining to this Houſe is the proper Repoſitory for the original Acts paſſed in this Realm, and that Tranſcripts of the ſaid Acts, certified in due Form, ought to be in the Rolls' Office, there to remain of Record.

Writs of Certiorari formerly directed to Clerk.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the antient Uſage has been to iſſue Writs of Certiorari, from time to time, out of the Court of Chancery, requiring the Clerk of the Parliaments to return the Tenor of all Acts: But it does not appear to this Houſe, that any ſuch Writ has been iſſued for this Purpoſe ſince the Year 1711.

Irregular Depoſit of Acts in Rolls and Parliament-Office,

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that it appears to this Houſe, that the original Acts paſſed in this Kingdom in the Reigns of King Charles II. King William and Queen Mary, King William III. and Queen Anne, remain in the Rolls' Office, together with Tranſcripts of the ſame, regularly certified; and that all original Acts, paſſed ſince that time, remain in the Cuſtody of the Clerk of the Parliaments, together with Tranſcripts ready to be ſo certified, ſo that there are Duplicate Records of the former Period in the Rolls' Office, but no Records of the latter; the neceſſary Effect of which has been, that all Conſtats from Publick and Exemplifications of Private Acts (which laſt are always under the Great Seal) muſt have been made out by the Keeper of the Rolls, during the latter Period, from the Tranſmiſſes under the Great Seal of Great Britain, from which Tranſmiſſes it does not appear, that ſuch Acts were paſſed in this Kingdom.

highly detrimental and ſubject to Accidents.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Continuance of the original Acts and Tranſcripts, in this disjointed State, is improper and highly detrimental to the Nation, inaſmuch as the Subject is thereby deprived of the Liberty of reſorting at all times to the Parliamentary Records of one Period, and of taking Conſtats or Exemplifications under the Great Seal, undoubtedly authentick; and in Caſe of the Deſtruction of either Office, by Fire or other Caſualty, there can be no more than a partial Reſource found in the Records remaining in the other.

Original Acts to be lodged with Clerk.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that it is highly expedient that all original Acts, of which Tranſcripts have been duly certified into the Court of Chancery, ſhould be lodged with the Clerk of the Parliaments: That a Writ of Certiorari ſhould be immediately iſſued, requiring the ſaid Clerk to return the Tenor of all Acts paſſed in this Kingdom, ſince the Year 1711, into his Majeſty's Court of Chancery; and that from henceforth a Writ of Certiorari ſhould be regularly iſſued, for the like Purpoſe, at the Cloſe of every Seſſion.

Rolls' Office, ruinous and inconvenient.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that it appears to this Houſe, that the Rolls' Office is ſo crouded with Records, that a Multitude of them remain in Heaps on the Floors; and that even thus, there is not Room for the Reception of many more: That the whole Building is in a moſt ſhattered and ruinous Condition; and that the Records therein contained (being of the utmoſt Conſequence to aſcertain his Majeſty's Rights and the Properties of the Subjects of this Kingdom) are in imminent daily Hazard of being deſtroyed by Accidents of Fire and Weather, or buried in a Heap of Rubbiſh.

Order on Report.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the Report from the Lords' Committees, appointed to inſpect into the State of the Parliament-Office, and inquire in what Manner the Rolls of Parliament are now kept, and how diſpoſed of, made on Monday the 20th Inſt. together with the Reſolutions this Day agreed to by the Houſe, upon taking the ſaid Report into Conſideration, and lay the ſame before his Grace.

ordered to Lord Lieutenant.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Reſolutions, and lay the ſame before his Grace.

Petition of L. Roberts, Eſq;

A Petition of Lewis Roberts of the City of Dublin, Eſq; ſetting forth, that in the Year 1749, the Petitioner purchaſed the Lands of Old Conaught in the County of Dublin from Edward Walſh, Eſq; and procured a proper Certificate from the Regiſtry-Office in this Kingdom relative to all Deeds, Leaſes and other Matters neceſſary for clearing the Title to ſaid Eſtate.

That Part of ſaid Lands had been formerly in Leaſe to Mrs. Mary Lawleſs for a Term of twenty-one Years, which Leaſe was not expired at the Time of ſaid Purchaſe, but determined on the 10th of October, 1757, of which Leaſe alone the Petitioner had Notice at the Time of his Purchaſe.

That the Repreſentatives of ſaid Mrs. Lawleſs, pretending that they had a Leaſe for thirty-one Years of ſaid Lands, which is not yet expired, filed a Bill in the High Court of Chancery againſt the Petitioner and ſaid Edward Walſh, and charged Notice of ſaid Leaſe for thirty-one Years on the Petitioner, which Bill the ſaid Edward Walſh anſwered, and denied he ever told the Petitioner of any Leaſe other than of the Leaſe for twenty-one Years; and alſo inſiſted, for the Reaſons in his ſaid Anſwer, that the ſaid thirty-one Years' Leaſe was not valid; and the Petitioner alſo anſwered ſaid Bill, and denied Notice of ſaid thirty-one Years' Leaſe or of any other than the Leaſe for twenty-one Years; on which Bill an Injunction to ſtop the Petitioner's Proceedings for Recovery of ſaid Lands was obtained, for Want of the Anſwers being filed in time; which Injunction being diſſolved, the Petitioner was adviſed to bring an Ejectment on the Title for Recovery of ſaid Lands, the ſaid Leaſe for thirty-one Years not having been regiſtered before the Petitioner purchaſed ſaid Lands.

That the Petitioner received a Notice from Hartley Hutchinſon, Eſq; one of the Clerks of this Right Hon. Houſe, if the Petitioner ſhould proceed upon his ſaid Ejectment, that he would complain of the Petitioner to this Right Hon. Houſe, he being in ſome way concerned in Intereſt in ſaid Lands.

That the Intereſt ſaid Hutchinſon pretends to have in ſaid Lands, muſt have accrued long ſince the Petitioner's Purchaſe, and after the ſaid Suit, of all which he had full Notice.

That unleſs the Petitioner is allowed to go to Trial upon ſaid Ejectment in this Eaſter Term, he will not be able to get Poſſeſſion of ſaid Lands until next November, by Means whereof he will loſe £200, or thereabouts:

And praying their Lordſhips to give the Petitioner Liberty to proceed in the ſaid Cauſe, without incurring their Lordſhips' Diſpleaſure; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

The Lord Viſc. Jocelyn reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; that they had prepared the ſame, which he read in his Place, and the ſaid Addreſs being afterwards read at the Table, was agreed to by the Houſe. as follows, viz,

To his Grace
JOHN Duke of BEDFORD,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to congratulate with your Grace on the approaching Concluſion of this Seſſion of Parliament, a Seſſion eminently diſtinguiſhed through the weighty Influence of your Grace's Recommendation, by many ſignal Inſtances of his Majeſty's royal Bounty, and by many Laws of the higheſt Importance to the Welfare and Improvement of this Kingdom.

We juſtly conſider the Appointment of your Grace to the Government of Ireland, as a moſt intereſting Proof of his Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs. The Principles and Virtues, inherited by your Grace from your illuſtrious Anceſtors, had always been the Objects of our Reverence and Admiration; and the vigorous Exertion of thoſe Virtues by your Grace in important Stations (equally to the Honour of the Crown and Advantage of the Publick) afforded us the moſt lively Preſage of Happineſs, in being committed to your Grace's Care.

Your Grace, on your firſt Entrance into the High Office you now adorn, confirmed our warmeſt Hopes, and by your generous Attention to our Diſtreſſes in the late Scarcity, deſervedly endeared yourſelf to a relieved and thankful People.

They have, ſince, ſeen the whole Tenor of your Grace's Conduct, animated by the ſame noble Principle of Benevolence and Publick Spirit, and thankfully acknowledge, that the publick Tranquillity and Happineſs have been the great and conſtant Objects of your Attention and Care, through the whole Courſe of your wiſe and mild Adminiſtration.

With the moſt reſpectful and affectionate Gratitude, they therefore regard your Grace, as the worthy Repreſentative of his Majeſty, the gracious and equal Father of all his People, and from his Majeſty's long and experienced Goodneſs, flatter themſelves his Majeſty will graciouſly indulge their unanimous and ardent Wiſhes, by continuing your Grace to preſide over us.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Grace, that we will heartily concur with the general Wiſhes of the Kingdom, and that we will zealouſly endeavour to promote that good Temper and Harmony, which your Grace's Juſtice and Prudence have happily eſtabliſhed amongſt us: That upon your Return to this Kingdom, your Grace may find us (what we ever ought to be) a People united in Affection, as we are in Intereſt and Duty, and unanimouſly determined to make your Grace's Adminiſtration as eaſy and honourable to your Grace, as it hath been, and we are aſſured ever will be, beneficial and ſatisfactory to the Publick.

We rely, with perfect Confidence, on that Candour which is inherent in your Grace, and which adds Luſtre to your brighteſt and moſt amiable Actions, that on your Grace's Return into the Royal Preſence, we ſhall be repreſented to his Majeſty as his loyal, dutiful and grateful Subjects, firmly attached to the Support of his Royal Perſon and Family, affectionately ſolicitous for the long Continuance of his precious Life, and warmly zealous for the Honour and Dignity of his Crown, the Succeſs of his Arms, and the laſting Glory and Felicity of his moſt auſpicious Reign.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Grace.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

THE Seaſon of the Year and your long Attendance in Parliament, make it neceſſary to cloſe this Seſſion.

His Majeſty's Goodneſs in complying with the Requeſts of his Parliament and the ſingular Confidence he has repoſed in you, by giving his Royal Aſſent to the Bills for granting Premiums on the inland Carriage of Corn and for the Freight of Coals, for the Payment of which no Proviſion has yet been made, are ſtrong Proofs of his gracious Attention to the Welfare of this Kingdom, and call for the moſt grateful Confidence, on your Parts, for the Support of his Government, on which your Safety and the publick Happineſs, under GOD, chiefly depend.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I AM commanded to thank you, in his Majeſty's Name, for the uſual Supplies you have granted to ſupport this Eſtabliſhment, aſſuring you, they ſhall be applied with Frugality for the Publick Service.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

NOTHING can be more ſeaſonably recommended to you, at this time, than to cultivate a good Underſtanding amongſt his Majeſty's Subjects, which will beſt ſecure the Publick Peace, and prevent the fatal Conſequence of Diſſatisfaction at Home.

I muſt again thank you for the obliging Approbations you have, by your reſpective Addreſſes, given to my Conduct here.

My ſincere Intentions have been to promote the real Intereſt and Proſperity of Ireland: On theſe Principles I ſhall continue to act, depending on your Unanimity to render them effectual.

I ſhall, on my Return into the Royal Preſence, moſt faithfully repreſent your dutiful and affectionate Zeal for his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, and as Occaſions offer, warmly recommend to his Grace and Favour thoſe who ſhall diſtinguiſh themſelves in preſerving the Peace and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Grace's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Thurſday the 8th Day of June next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thurſday the 8th Day of June next. Parliament prorogued.

Commons ſent for:

And the Houſe of Commons being come, they, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies. they enter.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is with great Satisfaction that I obey his Majeſty's Commands to meet you again in Parliament, as I have no Doubt that your Conduct will be ſuch as to juſtify the Repreſentations I had the Honour to lay before him upon my laſt Return from this Kingdom, of the Zeal and Loyalty of his Houſes of Parliament to his Royal Perſon and Government. Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the proper Officers to lay before you the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates for the Publick Service; and though the Expenſes naturally incident to a War, carried on with ſo much Acrimony, by an incenſed and powerful Enemy, have exceeded the uſual Charge; yet I flatter myſelf, that the putting this Kingdom into a proper State of Defence and the enuring the Troops to an Aptneſs for taking the Field on any ſudden Emergency, will fully compenſate for the Expenſes which ſhall have been incurred by it; eſpecially as I can aſſure you that I have nothing in Command from his Majeſty to aſk, but the uſual Supplies, which I make no Doubt you will grant with the utmoſt Chearfulneſs.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE great Succeſs, which through the Bleſſing of GOD, has attended his Majeſty's Arms by Sea and Land in various Parts of the World, muſt, I am convinced, afford the greateſt Satisfaction to his faithful Subjects of Ireland, who, jointly with thoſe of Great Britain, enjoy the Bleſſings of internal Peace, whilſt they behold a great Part of Europe involved in the Calamities of War.

The pleaſing Proſpect I have now before me of the Union and Harmony, which ſo happily ſubſiſts amongſt you, of the proſperous State of this Country, improving daily in its Manufactures and Commerce, affords me the moſt reaſonable Expectation of effecting the Welfare and Happineſs of this Kingdom, which I know will be moſt acceptable to his Majeſty; and conſequently, in Duty to him and to the Situation in which he has been graciouſly pleaſed to place me, moſt agreeable to myſelf.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table;

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne, to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to declare our invariable Duty and Affection to his Royal Perſon and Government. Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

To congratulate his Majeſty on the great Succeſs which has, through the Bleſſing of GOD, attended his Arms in various Parts of the World.

To aſſure his Majeſty of our firm Reſolution to do every thing in our Power for the Support of his Government, and to return our Thanks to his Majeſty, for his having been pleaſed to continue his Grace the Duke of Bedford in the Government of this Kingdom.

Ordered, that the Earl of Drogheda, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs of Thanks be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his Grace's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament. Reſolution for Addreſs to the Lord Lieutenant.

Ordered, that the Lord Mornington, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Addreſs; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Twelve o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

The Earl of Drogheda reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to renew thoſe Profeſſions of Affection and Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, which we have had the Happineſs ſo often to make; from which, we truſt, we have never departed, and which we ſhall, in all Events, maintain with unabated Zeal, and with unſhaken Fidelity.

Permit us to take this Occaſion of offering our Congratulations, with Hearts annimated by the warmeſt and moſt ſincere Joy, upon the great Succeſs, which, through the Bleſſing of GOD, has attended your Majeſty's Arms, in various Parts of the World.

To ſuccour the Diſtreſſed, to relieve the weaker States from Oppreſſion, and to preſerve the Liberties of Europe, has been the conſtant and generous Care of your Majeſty, and of your illuſtrious Predeceſſors. But to withſtand ſo powerful, and at once ſo formidable, a Combination, is a Trial that ſeems to have been reſerved to compleat the Glory of your Majeſty's Reign, and to diſtinguiſh it to ſucceeding Ages, by ſhewing how great Efforts can be made, by a wiſe and magnanimous Prince, ſupported by the Confidence of a brave and united People.

We muſt be inſenſible and unworthy of the Bleſſings beſtowed upon us, not to reflect, with the utmoſt Gratitude, on the internal Peace, which we and our Fellow-Subjects of Great Britain have enjoyed, and compare our own Condition with that of other Countries, which have felt, and do ſtill feel, the ſevereſt Calamities of War.

This we owe alſo, next to the Protection of PROVIDENCE, to the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils and to your watchful Care for the Safety of your People. But we now, in an extraordinary Manner, perceive the happy Effects of your Majeſty's mild, equal, prudent and long Government, by which the Hearts of all your People are become ſo intirely devoted to you, that even your Enemies ſeem to be convinced, that there are no Means left to diſturb your Kingdoms, but thoſe of open Violence; and that all Attempts would be vain to alienate the Affections of your Majeſty's Subjects, by drawing them to any other Object, or to ſtir up within your own Dominions a Spirit of Diſcontent or Rebellion.

Duty, Gratitude and Intereſt, call upon us to return your Majeſty our ſincereſt Thanks for continuing his Grace the Duke of Bedford in the Government of this Kingdom, of whoſe eminent Abilities we have had the fulleſt Experience, and whoſe unvaried Zeal for your Majeſty's Service has been ſo happily tempered as to produce that Harmony and Union amongſt ourſelves, which will incline and enable us to promote, with one Mind, every Meaſure neceſſary for the Support of your Majeſty's Government: It is therefore, with the moſt intire Satisfaction, that we receive him as our Chief Governor, as we have the ſtrongeſt Confidence that every thing which can be expedient for the Security, the Tranquillity and the Improvement of this your Majeſty's Kingdom, will be deſigned by him, and be executed with Chearfulneſs and Efficacy.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

The Lord Mornington reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs of Thanks to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his Grace's Speech delivered Yeſterday from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz

To his Grace
JOHN Duke of BEDFORD,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do beg Leave to return your Grace our unfeigned Thanks, for your Speech delivered from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, and at the ſame time heartily to congratulate your Grace on your happy Return to this Kingdom. Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

We are under the ſtrongeſt Ties of Gratitude to your Grace, as well as of Duty and Affection to the beſt of Kings, to ſupport and juſtify the favourable Repreſentation which your Grace has been pleaſed to make to his Majeſty, of our Zeal for his Service, and of our inviolable Attachment to his Royal Perſon and Family, by ſteadily adhering to thoſe Principles, by uſing our utmoſt Endeavours to ſupport the Honour and Dignity of his Majeſty's Government, and by the moſt perfect Unanimity in the Diſpatch of the Publick Buſineſs.

The great and glorious Succeſs which has attended his Majeſty's Arms, muſt have given the higheſt Satisfaction and Comfort to the Minds of all his good Subjects, particularly thoſe of this Country, who have been, by the Bleſſing of GOD upon his Majeſty's Councils, preſerved in the Enjoyment of the moſt profound Peace and Tranquillity at Home, while the Inhabitants of a great Part of Europe have undergone the ſad Calamities of War.

We cannot but conſider his Majeſty's continuing your Grace in the Government of this Kingdom, as a ſignal Inſtance of his paternal Care for us, and of his conſtant Attention to our Safety and Proſperity: Your Grace's known Abilities, ſo often exerted and proved in the moſt exalted Stations, and at the moſt critical Conjunctures, having naturally diſtinguiſhed your Grace in the Eye of our wiſe and gracious Sovereign, as the propereſt Perſon to protect and defend his People.

We acknowledge, with the utmoſt Thankfulneſs, your Grace's Activity in putting the Kingdom into a proper State of Defence, in this Time of Danger; and are not leſs ſenſible of your prudent Management in the Performance of that expenſive Service, ſo as not to be under a Neceſſity of demanding more than the uſual Supplies from Parliament.

The

The Improvement of our Manufactures and Commerce, under the Difficulties of War, and the perfect Union and Harmony ſo happily ſubſiſting amongſt us, are certain Proofs of the Wiſdom, Mildneſs and Impartiality of your Grace's Adminiſtration; and muſt ſtrongly engage us to contribute every thing in our Power to make your Government as eaſy and honourable to your Grace, as it has been advantageous and agreeable to us.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Grace.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Clonfert ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church on the 23d Inſt. being an Anniverſary Thankſgiving for the Deliverance of the Proteſtants of this Kingdom from the Popiſh Maſſacre in 1641.

Ordered, that all the Lords in and about the Town be ſummoned to attend the Service of this Houſe on Friday Morning next.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that this Houſe did Yeſterday attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, with their humble Addreſs to be preſented to his Majeſty; and his Grace was pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

" I WILL forthwith tranſmit this dutiful " and affectionate Addreſs, to be laid before " his Majeſty."

The Lord Chancellor alſo reported, that the Houſe did at the ſame time preſent their Lordſhips' Addreſs to his Grace; to which he was pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer to Addreſs.

" I RETURN your Lordſhips my ſincereſt " Thanks for this very obliging Addreſs. It " gives me the greateſt Pleaſure, to find that " my Endeavours for promoting the Intereſt " of this Kingdom have met with your Appro- " bation; and you may depend upon my " continuing them, as the ſureſt Means to " preſerve your Eſteem."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe, preſented Yeſterday to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and his Grace's Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed; and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Killala ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 5th Day of November next, being appointed a Day of Thankſgiving, for the happy Deliverance of the three Eſtates of England from the intended Maſſacre by Gun-Powder, and alſo for the happy Arrival of his late Majeſty King William III. of glorious Memory, on that Day, for the Deliverance of our Church and theſe Nations.

Reſolved, nem. con. by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that it is the undoubted Right and Privilege of every Lord of Parliament to frank any Letter, not exceeding two Ounces in Weight, to be conveyed by Poſt from any Part of this Kingdom to any Part thereof, during the Time of holding any Seſſion of Parliament, and for forty Days before and forty Days after the holding ſuch Seſſion; and for forty Days before and forty Days after every Prorogation of the ſame.

Bishop of Killala introduced.

The Rev. Samuel Hutchinson, Doctor in Divinity, being by Letters Patents, dated the 20th Day of April, in the 32d Year of our Sovereign Lord King George II. created Lord Bishop of Killala and Achonry, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Elphin and the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Down and Connor, also in their Robes; the Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod and Ulster King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying his Lordship's Letters Patents preceding: His Lordship presented the same to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-sack, who gave the same to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which was read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was also read.

Then his Lordship came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and subscribed the Declaration, and also took and subscribed the Oath of Abjuration, pursuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Bishops' Bench.

Relative to counterfeiting of Franks.

Resolved, nem. con. by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that it is the Duty of every Lord of Parliament, upon the Discovery of a Counterfeit or Counterfeits of his Frank, to lay the same before this House:

Ordered, that the said Resolution be forthwith printed and published, and that the Clerk of this House do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs of Thanks to L^d Lieutenant

Reſolved, nem. con. that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to return his Grace the Thanks of this Houſe, for the freſh Inſtance his Grace hath ſhewn of his conſtant Attention to the Welfare of this Kingdom, by communicating to this Houſe the important Intelligence his Grace hath lately received, by the King's immediate Command, from one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State.

To expreſs to his Grace, the deep and grateful Senſe we have of his Majeſty's paternal and affectionate Concern for the Safety of this Kingdom, in this critical and dangerous Conjuncture; and that this Houſe receives, with the higheſt Satisfaction, the pleaſing Teſtimony his Grace has given us in his Meſſage of his Majeſty's juſt and well-grounded Confidence in the Zeal of his faithful Proteſtant Subjects of Ireland.

That

That we doubt not but all his Majeſty's loyal People of this Country, animated and excited by his Grace's Example, will, upon this Occaſion, give every Proof of their dutiful Gratitude to the beſt of Kings, by exerting themſelves in Defence of his Royal Perſon and Government, and of the Succeſſion in his illuſtrious Houſe, in which is involved all that is moſt dear to them, and upon which, under GOD, depend the Proſperity and Happineſs of this Nation.

To aſſure his Grace, that this Houſe has the firmeſt Reliance upon the Wiſdom, Vigour and Prudence of his Grace's Adminiſtration, and that we will ſtand by and ſupport his Grace in all ſuch further Meaſures as his Grace ſhall judge neceſſary to be taken, in order to make a timely and effectual Preparation to reſiſt and fruſtrate any daring and deſperate Attempts of the Enemy, to diſturb the Quiet, and ſhake the Security, of this Kingdom.

To give his Grace the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances, that this Houſe will, upon this Occaſion, at the Hazard of their Lives and Fortunes, manifeſt that Zeal for the preſent happy Eſtabliſhment, and that Affection for his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, by which it is the Honour and Glory of this Parliament, and this Nation, to have been ſo often diſtinguiſhed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Earl of Hillſborough, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and that all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet immediately in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed.

The Earl of Hillſborough reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to their Lordſhips' Reſolution of this Day; that they had prepared the ſame accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Upon reading the Order for the Day,

The Houſe proceeded to take into Conſideration his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Meſſage preſented Yeſterday to the Houſe.

Reſolution for Addreſs of Thanks to Ld Lieutenant

Reſolved, nem. con. that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to return his Grace the Thanks of this Houſe, for the freſh Inſtance his Grace hath ſhewn of his conſtant Attention to the Welfare of this Kingdom, by communicating to this Houſe the important Intelligence his Grace hath lately received, by the King's immediate Command, from one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State.

To expreſs to his Grace, the deep and grateful Senſe we have of his Majeſty's paternal and affectionate Concern for the Safety of this Kingdom, in this critical and dangerous Conjuncture; and that this Houſe receives, with the higheſt Satisfaction, the pleaſing Teſtimony his Grace has given us in his Meſſage of his Majeſty's juſt and well-grounded Confidence in the Zeal of his faithful Proteſtant Subjects of Ireland.

That

That we doubt not but all his Majeſty's loyal People of this Country, animated and excited by his Grace's Example, will, upon this Occaſion, give every Proof of their dutiful Gratitude to the beſt of Kings, by exerting themſelves in Defence of his Royal Perſon and Government, and of the Succeſſion in his illuſtrious Houſe, in which is involved all that is moſt dear to them, and upon which, under GOD, depend the Proſperity and Happineſs of this Nation.

To aſſure his Grace, that this Houſe has the firmeſt Reliance upon the Wiſdom, Vigour and Prudence of his Grace's Adminiſtration, and that we will ſtand by and ſupport his Grace in all ſuch further Meaſures as his Grace ſhall judge neceſſary to be taken, in order to make a timely and effectual Preparation to reſiſt and fruſtrate any daring and deſperate Attempts of the Enemy, to diſturb the Quiet, and ſhake the Security, of this Kingdom.

To give his Grace the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances, that this Houſe will, upon this Occaſion, at the Hazard of their Lives and Fortunes, manifeſt that Zeal for the preſent happy Eſtabliſhment, and that Affection for his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, by which it is the Honour and Glory of this Parliament, and this Nation, to have been ſo often diſtinguiſhed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Earl of Hillſborough, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and that all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet immediately in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed.

The Earl of Hillſborough reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to their Lordſhips' Reſolution of this Day; that they had prepared the ſame accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace
JOHN Duke of BEDFORD,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant. WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return our ſincere Thanks to your Grace, for the freſh Inſtance your Grace has ſhewn of your conſtant Attention to the Welfare of this Kingdom, in communicating to this Houſe the important Intelligence your Grace hath lately received, by the Kings immediate Command, from one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

We have the deepeſt and moſt grateful Senſe of his Majeſty's paternal and affectionate Concern for the Safety of this Kingdom, in this critical and dangerous Conjuncture; and we receive, with the higheſt Satisfaction, the pleaſing Teſtimony your Grace hath given us, in your Meſſage, of his Majeſty's juſt and well-grounded Confidence in the Zeal of his faithful Proteſtant Subjects of Ireland.

We doubt not but all his Majeſty's loyal People of this Kingdom, animated and excited by your Grace's Example, will, upon this Occaſion, give every Proof of their dutiful Gratitude to the beſt of Kings, by exerting themſelves in Defence of his Royal Perſon and Government, and of the Succeſſion in his illuſtrious Houſe, in which is involved all that is moſt dear to them, and upon which, under GOD, depend the Proſperity and Happineſs of this Nation.

We have the firmeſt Reliance upon the Wiſdom, Vigour and Prudence of your Grace's Adminiſtration; and we are reſolved to ſtand by and ſupport your Grace, in all ſuch farther Meaſures, as your Grace ſhall judge neceſſary to be taken, in order to make a timely and effectual Preparation to reſiſt and fruſtrate any daring and deſperate Attempts of the Enemy, to diſturb the Quiet, and ſhake the Security, of this Kingdom.

We do, from the bottom of our Hearts, aſſure your Grace, that we will, upon this Occaſion, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, manifeſt that Zeal and that Affection for his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, by which it is the Honour and Glory of this Parliament, and this Nation, to have been ſo often diſtinguiſhed.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Grace.

Lord Courtown introduced.

James Stopford, Eſq; being by Letters Patents, dated the 19th Day of September, in the 32^{d} Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord King George II. created Lord Baron of Courtown in the Co. Wexford, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Right Hon. the Lord Baron Mornington and the Right Hon. the Lord Baron Ruſsborough, alſo in their Robes, the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the ſaid Letters Patents preceding: His Lordſhip preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place at, the lower end of the Barons' Bench.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to congratulate his Majeſty on the uninterrupted Series of Victories to the taking of Quebec, the Capital of the French Empire in North America.

To expreſs our great Concern for that brave Commander, General Wolfe, whoſe Abilities to conduct, and Intrepidity in Danger, render his Death a publick Misfortune, and demand a publick Acknowledgment from his Country.

And to declare our earneſt Wiſhes for the Preſervation of his Majeſty's Life, and for a ſafe and honourable Peace.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Viſc. Powerſcourt, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and that all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet immediately in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed.

The Lord Viſc. Powerſcourt reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to their Lordſhips' Reſolution of this Day; that they had prepared the ſame accordingly; which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

THE Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty in the warmeſt Manner, at this Time, when led by an uninterrupted Series of Victories to the taking of Quebec (the Capital of the French Empire in North America) we ſee the Glory of your Majeſty's Arms, the Wiſdom of your Councils, the Trade and Commerce of your Subjects, carried to ſo unexampled an Height, as will ever adorn the Britiſh Hiſtory, and remains a laſting Proof of the extenſive Power of the Kings of Great Britain and Ireland, when happily, like your Majeſty, poſſeſſed of the Affections of their People, at all times ready to engage their Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Royal Family.

Permit us, moſt gracious Sovereign, whilſt rejoicing on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, to expreſs our great Concern for the Loſs of that brave Commander, General Wolfe, whoſe Abilities to conduct, and whoſe Intrepidity in Danger, render his Death a publick Misfortune, and demand the next Reward, to the Honour of your Majeſty's Approbation, this publick Acknowledgment from his Country.

May the ALMIGHTY, long preſerve your Majeſty's moſt valuable and important Life, that the Happineſs of your Dominions may, by the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, be eſtabliſhed by a ſafe and honourable Peace.

Reſolved,

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that in Obedience to their Lordſhips' Orders, he had waited on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he would pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo with the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Grace; and his Grace was pleaſed to appoint this Day, at Three o'clock, at the Caſtle.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant had received his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe of the 17th of October laſt, which his Grace directed him to lay before their Lordſhips, which he read, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

"GEORGE R.

King's Anſwer to firſt Addreſs.

" HIS Majeſty returns his Thanks to the " Houſe of Lords, for their dutiful and loyal " Addreſs. Their Congratulations on the " Succeſſes with which PROVIDENCE has " bleſſed his Majeſty's Arms, in various Parts " of the World, and their ſteady Attachment " to his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, " are highly ſatisfactory to his Majeſty, and " call for his Majeſty's particular Care for pro- " moting the Happineſs and Proſperity of his " Kingdom of Ireland.

" G. R."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Majeſty, of the 17th of October laſt, and his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed; and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

Reſolved, that the humble Thanks of this Houſe ſhall be returned to his Majeſty, for his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe of the 17th of October laſt.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Reſolution, and deſire his Grace will pleaſe to lay the ſame before his Majeſty,

The Lord Chancellor reported, that the Houſe had attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with their humble Addreſs to be preſented to his Majeſty; and his Grace was pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

Lord Lieutenant's Anſwers.

" I WILL forthwith tranſmit this dutiful " and affectionate Addreſs to be laid before " his Majeſty."

The Lord Chancellor alſo reported, that the Houſe did, at the ſame time, preſent their Lordſhips' Addreſs to his Grace; to which he was pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

" I THANK your Lordſhips, for this very " kind Addreſs. The Zeal and Affection " which you expreſs therein for his Majeſty's " Perſon and Government, give me the trueſt " Pleaſure, and can never be exerted more " ſeaſonably than in the preſent critical " Conjuncture: You may depend upon my " continuing my utmoſt Care and Attention " for the Defence and Security of this " Kingdom."

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe, preſented the 31ſt of October laſt to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and his Grace's Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Judges, according to Order, made a Report, as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Report on temporary Laws.

IN Obedience to your Lordſhips' Order of the 23d of November laſt, whereby the Judges were directed to inquire what Laws are lately expired or near expiring; the Judges cannot find any Acts that have lately expired or are near expiring, except,

An Act of the 10th Year of his late Majeſty King George I. for the better regulating of Pariſh-Watches, and amending the High-ways of this Kingdom, and for the preventing the Miſapplication of Publick Money, and alſo for eſtabliſhing a regular Watch in the City of Dublin; and to prevent Miſchief that may happen by graving Ships in the River Liffey, which, for ſo much as relates to the City of Dublin and the Liberties thereof, and the Liberties thereunto adjoining, was continued by the 11th of his preſent Majeſty till the 29th of September, 1744, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 19th of his preſent Majeſty, further continued until the 29th Day of September, 1746, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 21ſt of his preſent Majeſty further continued until the 29th Day of September, 1749, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 23d of his preſent Majeſty further continued for four Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 31ſt of his preſent Majeſty, ſo far as the ſame relates to Pariſh-watches and High-ways further continued for the Space of four Years, from the End of that Seſſion of Parliament; and after the Expiration of the ſaid Term of four Years, to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

An Act of the 17th of his preſent Majeſty, to prevent the burning of Land, which by the 21ſt of his preſent Majeſty is continued until the 20th of September, 1760, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

An Act of the 23d of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for amending, continuing and making more effectual the ſeveral Acts now in Force in this Kingdom, for the more eaſy Recovery of Tythes and other eccleſiaſtical Dues of ſmall Value, and alſo for the more eaſy providing a Maintenance for Pariſh-Clerks, now expired.

An Act of the 25th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, for the better Preſervation of the Game, for two Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 31ſt of his preſent Majeſty, for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

An Act paſſed in the 5th Year of his preſent Majeſty, for the better Regulation and Government of Seamen in the Merchants' Service, which Act was expired; and by the 31ſt of his preſent Majeſty, revived and continued for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

An Act of the 11th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, for buying and ſelling all Sorts of Corn and Meal and other Things therein mentioned, by Weight; and for the more effectual preventing the Frauds committed in the buying and ſelling thereof, and for regulating the Price and Aſſize of Bread, and for the better regulating the Markets, by the 19th of his preſent Majeſty, continued ſo far as the ſaid Act relates to the Price and Aſſize of Bread, and the better regulating the Markets, and by the 29th of his preſent Majeſty continued from the 1ſt Day of May, 1756, for the Term of two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

An Act made in the 6th Year of his late Majeſty King George I. for the more effectual preventing the ingroſſing and regrating of Coals in this Kingdom, which was to continue in Force from the 1ſt Day of November, 1719, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and further revived and continued by the 21ſt of his preſent Majeſty, for ſeven Years, from the 1ſt of May, 1748, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 29th of his preſent Majeſty, continued for two Years, from the 1ſt of May then next, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

An Act of the 15th Year of his preſent Majeſty, for the more effectual ſecuring the Payment of Rents, and preventing Frauds by Tenants, which, by the 17th of his preſent Majeſty, was continued until the Year 1750; and by the 29th of his preſent Majeſty, continued for four Years, from the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, after the Expiration of the ſaid four Years.

An Act of the 25th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, for the better adjuſting and more eaſy Recovery of the Wages of certain Servants, and the better Regulation of ſuch Servants and certain Apprentices, and for the Puniſhment of ſuch Owners of Coals and their Agents, as ſhall knowingly employ and ſet at Work, Perſons retained in the Service of other Coal-Owners, and alſo that mutual Debts between Party and Party be ſet one againſt the other, by the 29th of his preſent Majeſty, continued, with ſeveral Amendments, to the 25th of March, 1760, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

An Act of the 9th of his preſent Majeſty, to make a Recital of a Leaſe for a Year in a Deed of Releaſe, ſufficient Evidence of ſuch Leaſe, now expired.

An Act of the 11th of his preſent Majeſty, for the further Improvement and Encouragement of the Fiſhery of this Kingdom, continued by the 13th of his preſent Majeſty, to the 25th of March, 1757, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 29th of his preſent Majeſty, continued for the Space of three Years, from the End of that Seſſion of Parliament, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, after the Expiration of the ſaid three Years.

Report referred to Committee.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Report ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to a ſelect Committee, and that all the Lords preſent ſhall be the ſaid Committee; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, ſhall have Voices therein; and two of the Judges to aſſiſt.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Meſſage from Commons.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by the Right Hon. Mr. Rowley and others, with an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; to which they deſire the Concurrence of this Houſe: And then the Meſſengers withdrew.

And the Meſſengers being called in,

The Lord Chancellor acquainted them, that this Houſe will ſend an Anſwer by Meſſengers of their own.

The ſaid Addreſs was then read, and the following Amendments were made, viz. the Words "Lords Spiritual and Temporal and "the" in the Title; and in the firſt Paragraph of the ſaid Addreſs, "and agreed to by "the Houſe."

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Stopford and Mr. Lill, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this Houſe have concurred with them in their Addreſs with the ſaid Amendments.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by the Right Hon. Mr. Rowley and others, with the Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, ſent up by their Houſe, and to acquaint this Houſe, that they have agreed to the Amendments made by their Lordſhips.

Which Addreſs is as follows, viz.

To

To his Grace
JOHN Duke of BEDFORD,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal; and the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs of both Houſes to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Grace our ſincere Thanks, for your ſeaſonable Interpoſition in having made Uſe of the moſt effectual Means, on Monday laſt, to diſperſe a moſt dangerous and inſolent Multitude of People aſſembled before the Parliament-Houſe, in order, moſt illegally and audaciouſly, to obſtruct and inſult the Members of both Houſes of Parliament attending the Publick Service of the Nation, in manifeſt Violation of the Rights and Privileges of Parliament.

And we humbly requeſt your Grace, that you will be pleaſed to iſſue a Proclamation, offering ſuch a Reward as your Grace ſhall think proper for the Diſcovery of any of the Perſons ſo aſſembled, or of ſuch Perſons as may have excited and encouraged them thereto.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know what Time he will be pleaſed to appoint to be attended with the Addreſs of both Houſes of Parliament to his Grace.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Lord Anneſley Leave to petition Commons.

Ordered, that the Lord Anneſley ſhall have the Leave of this Houſe to petition the Houſe of Commons, in relation to an Affair concerning one of the Members of that Houſe.

The Earl of Inchiquin reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, was referred; that they had conſidered thereof, and have come to the following Reſolutions:

Reſolutions on temporary Laws.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 10th Year of his late Majeſty King George I. for the better regulating of Pariſh-watches, and amending the High-ways of this Kingdom, and for the preventing the Miſapplication of Publick Money, and alſo for eſtabliſhing a regular Watch in the City of Dublin; and to prevent the Miſchief that may happen by graving Ships in the River Liffey, which for ſo much as relates to the City of Dublin and the Liberties thereof, and the Liberties thereunto adjoining, was continued by the 11th of his preſent Majeſty, until the 29th of September, 1744, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the the 19th of his preſent Majeſty, further continued until the 29th of September, 1746, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 21^{ſt} of his preſent Majeſty, further continued until the 29th Day of September, 1749, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 23^{d} of his preſent Majeſty, further continued for four Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 31^{ſt} of his preſent Majeſty, ſo far as the ſame relates to Pariſh-watches and High-ways, further continued for the Space of four Years, from the End of that Seſſion of Parliament; and after the Expiration of the ſaid Term of four Years, to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, is fit to be continued for ſeven Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 17th of his preſent Majeſty, to prevent the burning of Land, which by the 21^{ſt} of his preſent Majeſty, is continued until the 20th of September, 1760, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, as to ſuch Part as relates to the burning of Land, ought to be continued for ſeven Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 23^{d} Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the amending, continuing and making more effectual the ſeveral Acts now in Force in this Kingdom, for the more eaſy Recovery of Tythes and other eccleſiaſtical Dues of ſmall Value, and alſo for the more eaſy providing a Maintenance for Pariſh-Clerks, now expired, is fit to be revived and continued for ſeven Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ſo far as it relates to the more eaſy providing a Maintenance for Pariſh-Clerks.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 25th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, for the better Preſervation of the Game, for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, continued by the 29th of his preſent Majeſty'

Majeſty's Reign, for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ought to be continued for two Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act, paſſed in the 5th Year of his preſent Majeſty, for the better Regulation and Government of Seamen in the Merchants' Service, which Act was expired, and by the 31ſt of his preſent Majeſty, revived and continued for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ought to be continued for two Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 11th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, for buying and ſelling all Sorts of Corn and Meal, and other things therein mentioned, by Weight; and for the more effectual preventing the Frauds committed in the buying and ſelling thereof, and for regulating the Price and Aſſize of Bread, and for better regulating the Markets, by the 19th of his preſent Majeſty continued, ſo far as the ſaid Act relates to the regulating the Price and Aſſize of Bread, and the better regulating the Markets, and by the 29th of his preſent Majeſty continued, from the 1ſt Day of May, 1756, for the Term of two Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ought to be continued for two Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act made in the 6th Year of his late Majeſty King George I. for the more effectual preventing the ingroſſing and regrating of Coals in this Kingdom, which was to continue in Force from the 1ſt Day of November, 1719, for ſeven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, and further revived and continued by the 21ſt of his preſent Majeſty, for ſeven Years, from the 1ſt of May, 1748, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 29th of his preſent Majeſty, continued for two Years, from the 1ſt Day of May, then next, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer, ought to be continued for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 15th Year of his preſent Majeſty, for the more effectual ſecuring the Payment of Rents, and preventing Frauds by Tenants, which by the 17th of his preſent Majeſty, was continued until the Year 1755, and by the 29th of his preſent Majeſty, continued for four Years, from the End of the then Seſſion of Parliament, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, after the Expiration of the ſaid Term of four Years, ought to be continued for four Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 25th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, for the better adjuſting aud more eaſy Recovery of the Wages of certain Servants, and the better Regulation of ſuch Servants and certain Apprentices, and for the Puniſhment of ſuch Owners of Coals and their Agents, as ſhall knowingly employ and ſet at Work, Perſons retained in the Service of other Coal-Owners, and alſo that mutual Debts between Party and Party be ſet one againſt the other, by the 29th of his preſent Majeſty, continued with ſeveral Amendments to the 25th of March, 1760, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ought to be continued for four Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 9th of his preſent Majeſty, to make a Recital of a Leaſe for a Year in a Deed of Releaſe, ſufficient Evidence of ſuch Leaſe, now expired, ought to be made perpetual.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 11th of his preſent Majeſty, for the further Improvement and Encouragement of the Fiſhery of this Kingdom, continued by the 13th of his preſent Majeſty to the 25th of March, 1757, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 29th of his preſent Majeſty, continued for the Space of three Years, from the End of that Seſſion of Parliament, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament after the Expiration of the ſaid Term of three Years, ought to be continued for three Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

To which Reſolutions, the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree. agreed to.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had received an Anſwer from his Grace the Lord Lieutenant to their Lordſhips' Addreſs of the 12th Inſt. which is as follows:

B E D F O R D.

My Lords,

Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

IN Purſuance of your Lordſhips' Addreſs of the 12th Day of this Month, I have by my Meſſage, delivered by my Lord Chancellor on Wedneſday laſt, communicated to your Lordſhips the Meaſures that have been taken to put this Kingdom into a proper Poſture of Defence.

B.

Dublin Caſtle,
16th February, 1760.

Upon reading the Order for the Day, the Houſe proceeded to take into Conſideration his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Meſſage, delivered to this Houſe on Wedneſday laſt.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, that an Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to return our moſt humble Thanks, for communicating to this Houſe the Meaſures which his Majeſty, in his great Wiſdom, has taken to put this Kingdom into a proper Poſture of Defence, in purſuance of the Deſire and Aſſurances of his Parliament of this Kingdom.

That we rely on his Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs, ſo continually, and hitherto ſo ſucceſsfully, exerted, for the Protection and Proſperity of his People; and that we reſt aſſured, that his Majeſty's Care for the Safety of this Kingdom, will effectually fruſtrate any dangerous and deſperate Attempts of the Enemy to diſturb the Quiet, and ſhake the Security, of this Realm.

That his Majeſty may on this, and all Occaſions, depend on the utmoſt Support from his loyal Houſe of Lords, with a Confidence juſtly due from the moſt loyal Subjects to the beſt of Kings, and of whoſe paternal Regard for the Welfare of all his Subjects, his Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, as well as the wiſe and preventive Meaſures now graciouſly communicated to us, have given moſt ample Experience.

That we doubt not, but by the Bleſſing of DIVINE PROVIDENCE upon his Majeſty's Councils and Arms, and by the Vigilance and Activity of his Miniſters, we ſhall not only be effectually protected againſt all the Attempts of of our Enemies, but that his Majeſty will ſee us eſtabliſhed in the quiet Enjoyment of our Poſſeſſions and Rights, by an equitable and honourable Peace.

That our ardent Wiſhes are, that his Majeſty may long reign a happy and glorious King, over a loyal and flouriſhing People!

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Earl of Shelburne, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and that all the Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet on Monday Morning next, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to return our ſincere and humble Thanks to his Grace, for having been pleaſed to lay before this Houſe an Account of the Augmentation which hath been ordered by his Majeſty to be made to the Forces on the Eſtabliſhment of this Kingdom.

That being convinced, by long and happy Experience, of his Majeſty's paternal Care of his faithful Subjects of Ireland, we cannot but have intire Confidence in the Wiſdom and Efficacy of his Meaſures upon every Occaſion.

And to aſſure his Grace, it is our determined Reſolution moſt zealouſly to ſtand by and ſupport his Majeſty with that invariable Loyalty and Affection, which we owe to the beſt of Kings.

And alſo to beg Leave humbly to acknowledge his Grace's Attention to the Safety and Tranquillity of this Kingdom, in having uſed ſuch effectual Means for carrying his Majeſty's Commands into the ſpeedieſt Execution.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Viſc. Jocelyn, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and that all the Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet on Monday Morning next, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Ordered, that the proper Officer do lay before this Houſe the preſent State of his Majeſty's Fort of Kingſale, together with an Account of the Number of Pieces of Artillery fit for Service in that Fort.

Ordered, that all Orders, not proceeded on, be adjourned till Monday Morning next.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Earl of Shelburne reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to a Reſolution of this Houſe of Saturday laſt; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return our moſt humble Thanks to your Majeſty, for communicating to this Houſe the Meaſures which your Majeſty, in your great Wiſdom, has taken to put this Kingdom into a proper Poſture of Defence, in Purſuance of the Deſire and Aſſurances of your Parliament of this Kingdom.

We rely on your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs, ſo continually, and hitherto ſo ſucceſsfully, exerted, for the Protection and Proſperity of your People; and reſt aſſured, that your Majeſty's Care for the Safety of this Kingdom, will effectually fruſtrate any dangerous and deſperate Attempts of the Enemy to diſturb the Quiet, and ſhake the Security, of this Realm.

Your Majeſty may, on this and all Occaſions, depend on the utmoſt Support from this your loyal Houſe of Lords, with a Confidence juſtly due from the moſt loyal Subjects to the beſt of Kings, and of whoſe paternal Regard for the Welfare of all your Subjects, your Majeſty's whole auſpicious Reign, as well as the wiſe and preventive Meaſures now graciouſly communicated to us, have given moſt ample Experience.

We doubt not, but by the Bleſſing of DIVINE PROVIDENCE upon your Majeſty's Councils and Arms, and by the Vigilance and Activity of your Miniſters, we ſhall not only be effectually protected againſt all the Attempts of our Enemies, but that your Majeſty will ſee us eſtabliſhed in the quiet Enjoyment of our Poſſeſſions and Rights, by an equitable and honourable Peace.

Our ardent Wiſhes are, that your Majeſty may long reign a happy and glorious King, over a loyal and flouriſhing People!

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to be laid before his Majeſty.

The Lord Viſc. Jocelyn reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to a Reſolution of this Houſe of Saturday laſt; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace
JOHN Duke of BEDFORD,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to L^d^ Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return our ſincere and humble Thanks to your Grace, for having been pleaſed to lay before this Houſe an Account of the Augmentation, which hath been ordered by his Majeſty to be made to the Forces upon the Eſtabliſhment of this Kingdom.

Convinced by long and happy Experience of his Majeſty's paternal Care of his faithful Subjects of Ireland, we cannot but have an intire Confidence in the Wiſdom and Efficacy of his Meaſures, upon every Occaſion; and it is our determined Reſolution moſt zealouſly to ſtand by and Support his Majeſty with that invariable Loyalty and Affection, which we owe to the beſt of Kings.

We alſo beg Leave humbly to acknowledge your Grace's Attention to the Safety and Tranquillity of this Kingdom, in having uſed ſuch effectual Means for carrying his Majeſty's Commands into the ſpeedieſt Execution.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Grace.

Upon reading the Order for the Day,

Heads of Bill to prevent Abuſes in vending Spirits, &c.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon Heads of a Bill to prevent the Miſchiefs ariſing from the Credit given by the Retailers of ſpirituous Liquors, and to prevent the Evil ariſing by the Retailers of Strong Beer, Ale, Porter, and other ſtrong fermented Liquors, giving Credit to Servants, Day-Labourers and other Perſons who uſually work or ply for Hire or Wages; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Earl of Carrick reported from the Committee, that they had gone through the ſaid Heads of a Bill, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereunto, with ſeveral Amendments, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe.

The ſaid Heads of a Bill were then, by Order, read a third time.

Ordered to Lord Lieutenant,

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Anneſley do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and deſire the ſame may be tranſmitted into Great Britain, in due Form.

Thomas Eyre, Eſq; Engineer and Surveyor General, according to Order, delivered in at the Bar, An Account of the preſent State of the Fortifications of Londonderry, Culmore Fort; City of Cork, Cork Harbour; Limerick, Duncannon Fort; Galway and Charlemont, and of the Artillery at each of the ſaid Places. State of the Forts, and

Mr. Keen, Clerk of the Ordnance-Office, according to Order, delivered in at the Bar, An Account of the Artillery, Small Arms, Ammunition and other Military Stores, in his Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin on the 10th Day of March, 1760; as alſo, An Account of what Arms have been delivered out for the Uſe of the Militia of this Kingdom, ſince the 21ſt of February laſt, to ſaid time; and what Number of thoſe Arms were made at Bremen or other foreign Parts. of the Arſenals in Dublin Caſtle

And alſo, An Account of the Artillery, Small Arms, Ammunition and other Military Stores at Londonderry, Cork, Limerick, Duncannon Fort, Galway and Charlemont on the 10th Day of March, 1760, diſtinguiſhing ſuch of the Artillery and Small Arms as are fit for Service from ſuch as are not; which were received and read, and ordered to lie upon the Table.

A Motion was made, that the Houſe ſhould come to the following Reſolution:

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant againſt Gaming,

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, beſeeching his Grace to give Order to all Magiſtrates to put the Laws now in being againſt the pernicious Practice of Gaming into ſtrict Execution.

debated and negatived.

And a Debate ariſing thereupon, and the previous Queſtion being put, That the ſaid Queſtion be now put;

The Houſe divided, and the Earl of Carrick reported from the Tellers, that the Contents below the Bar were 7, and the Not-Contents within the Bar were 13;

It paſſed in the Negative.

DISSENTIENT.

Proteſt.

BECAUSE it appears to us, that the Practice of Gaming has aroſe to ſo great a Height, that it is abſolutely neceſſary that Magiſtrates ſhould be ordered to put the Laws againſt it into ſtrict Execution; and becauſe we think the Lord Lieutenant the moſt proper Perſon to give theſe Orders.

Resolution for Address to the Lord Lieutenant.

Resolved, that an humble Address be presented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to congratulate with him on the approaching Conclusion of this Session of Parliament, which must ever be distinguished on the Annals of this Kingdom for the remarkable Firmness shewn by his Grace in dispelling those gloomy Appearances which threatened us soon after the Opening of this Session, and for his wise and prudent Care, in putting us into a Capacity of frustrating the most daring Attacks of our implacable and disappointed Enemies.

To thankfully acknowledge the high Obligations we owe to his Grace for making the publick Tranquillity and Happiness, the great and constant Objects of his Attention, through the whole Course of his wise and mild Administration, and to assure him, we shall retain the most sincere Gratitude, for his wise, generous and most effectual Assistance, in restoring Publick Credit, so absolutely necessary for the Support of the Trade and Welfare of this Kingdom.

To beg Leave to assure his Grace, that we will zealously endeavour to promote that good Temper and Unanimity which his Grace's Prudence and Justice have so happily restored, and to take every Method of promoting that good Order, Decency and Harmony, which his Grace's steady and due Execution of the Laws, have so effectually established amongst us.

To rely with perfect Confidence on his Grace's well-known Candour, that at his Return into the Royal Presence, we shall be represented by his Grace as his Majesty's most loyal, dutiful and grateful Subjects; and that we flatter ourselves, that his Majesty will graciously indulge our unanimous and ardent Wishes, by continuing his Grace to preside over us.

Ordered, that the Lord Rusborough, and all the Lords present, shall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the said Address, and all Lords who shall please to come to the said Committee, are to have Voices therein.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

THE Buſineſs of the Seſſion being now over, and the Seaſon of the Year requiring your Attendance in your reſpective Counties, I truſt your participating at Home, with your Neighbours and Conſtituents, the ſeveral good Laws which have paſſed this Seſſion, will not only be agreeable to yourſelves, but productive of the greateſt Good, as they will be carried into Execution under your own Inſpection, and the People be taught to honour and reverence them, by your Example.

The greateſt Happineſs and Proſperity a free Nation can enjoy, is only attainable by a thorough Submiſſion to the Laws, and a Veneration for them, which this Nation, jointly with Great Britain, ought moſt peculiarly to have, as the Laws by which they are governed, have been framed by the joint Conſent of the whole Body of the Kingdom. Let me then, in the moſt earneſt Manner, recommend to you this undoubted Truth, that Ireland will ever flouriſh, in Proportion to the due Execution of the Laws in every Part of the Kingdom: By this, Trade will flouriſh; Manufactures increaſe and riſe to Perfection; Agriculture and Plantation, and every kind of Improvement, be carried on to its full Extent; and Peace and Plenty be eſtabliſhed over the whole Iſland. By this, likewiſe, Violence and Oppreſſion will ceaſe every where, and Riot and Tumult be heard of no more.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

THE great Zeal and Readineſs you have ſhewed in ſtrengthening his Majeſty's Hands, by the extraordinary Supplies you have granted for the neceſſary Defence of this Kingdom, is looked upon by his Majeſty, as a ſtill farther Inſtance of your Attachment to his Royal Perſon and Government, of which you had given given ſo many former Proofs; and I have it in Command from his Majeſty, to thank you for his freſh Inſtance of your Zeal for his Service, and that of your Country.

The Care you have taken for eſtabliſhing Publick Credit upon a firm and ſolid Baſis, will, I flatter myſelf, anſwer the End propoſed, and effect that Circulation, ſo neceſſary for carrying on the Commerce of this Country.

The particular Confidence you have placed in my Frugality and Oeconomy in the expending the Publick Money, demands my moſt grateful Acknowledgments; and you may depend on my utmoſt Care not to forfeit your good Opinion of me.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Appearances in the Beginning of the laſt Winter, very ſoon after my firſt Meeting you here, of Invaſions in different Parts of this Kingdom, were ſo ſtrong, that his Majeſty was pleaſed, in his great Wiſdom, to order me to communicate to his Parliament, the Intelligences he had received, not doubting to find that Warmth and Unanimity in his Parliament and Subjects of Ireland, which they have ſince univerſally ſhewn, and which has been moſt grateful to his Majeſty. And I have farther in Command to add, that after, by the Bleſſing of God on his Majeſty's Arms, and through the Vigilance and Bravery of his Fleet, the great Plan of Invaſion was defeated, and only a very ſmall Diſembarkation of French Troops was effected in the North of this Kingdom; the Spirit of his Subjects in thoſe Parts was ſo effectually applied, as to prevent any conſiderable Damage to be done by them till the regular Troops, which were at a Diſtance, could be brought up, whereby the Enemy was intimidated from advancing beyond the Walls of Carrickfergus. This his Majeſty ſees with great Pleaſure, and approves the Spirit exerted on that Occaſion.

It will be my Duty, as well as a great Satiſfaction to me, to repreſent to the King, upon my Return into his Royal Preſence, the good Affections of his Subjects of Ireland.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Grace's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Wedneſday the 16th Day of July next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Wedneſday the 16th Day of July next.

Biſhops to preach.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 23d Inſt. being an Anniverſary Thankſgiving for the Deliverance of the Proteſtants of this Kingdom from the Popiſh Maſſacre in 1641.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Ferns and Leighlin ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 5th of November next, being appointed a Day of Thankſgiving for for the happy Deliverance of the three Eſtates of England from the intended Maſſacre by Gun-powder, and alſo for the happy Arrival of his late Majeſty King William III. of glorious Memory, on that Day for the Deliverance of our Church and theſe Nations.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

Lord Lieutenant preſent.

His Excellency George-Dunk Earl of Halifax, L^d^ Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Drogheda carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Cavan, the Cap of Maintenance; two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the L^d^ Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State, under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and then ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that his Excellency the L^d^ Lieutenant commanded their Attendance immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

They enter.

And the Commons being come, were conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that you repair to your Houſe, and chooſe a fit Perſon to be your Speaker, and preſent him to his Excellency here immediately, for his Excellency's Approbation; and then the Commons withdrew.

Commons preſent their Speaker.

The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod acquainted his Excellency, that the Commons were at the Door, and being ordered to call them in, they were conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies, where the Right Hon. John Ponſonby, Eſq; made a Speech, as follows, viz.

" May it pleaſe your Excellency,

His Speech.

" THE Commons in Parliament aſſembled, " in obedience to your Excellency's Com- " mands, and according to ancient Uſage, " have proceeded to elect a Speaker; and " I have the Honour to acquaint your " Excellency, that their unanimous Choice " hath fallen upon me.

" I ſhall not, my Lord, upon this Occaſion, " depart from that Sincerity of Character, " which I have hitherto endeavoured to pre- " ſerve, and which is the only Foundation of " Merit that I can ever pretend to build upon " or to maintain: I will not therefore deny that " this Deſignation of me, a ſecond time, to ſo " high and important an Office, by the una- " nimous Voice of the Commons, fills my " Heart with Joy and Gratitude.

" Nor muſt I preſume totally to arraign " their Choice: They know my inviolable " Duty and Attachment to our moſt gracious " King; they know my ardent Zeal for the " Good of my Country; and they know the " high and juſt Reſpect that I bear to your " Excellency's Perſon and Government. Had " I been deficient in any one of theſe great " Requiſites, their Choice would have been " otherwiſe directed; and if theſe Qualifi- " cations could alone enable me to diſcharge " this arduous and delicate Truſt, I ſhould, " without Scruple, ſue to your Excellency for " Approbation.

" But when I conſider how accurate a " Knowledge in Parliamentary Proceedings, " what Quickneſs of Apprehenſion, and what " Strength of Judgment, are neceſſary to " form a Speaker of a Houſe of Commons; " and when I remember to have ſeen all thoſe " Qualifications joined in the Perſon who " formerly filled that Chair; and to have felt " ſince, that the Want of them has only been " ſupplied by an extraordinary and continual " Indulgence, my Fears and Diffidence of " myſelf have, at this Moment, ſo filled my " Mind as to leave Room for no other Objects.

" Conſcious therefore of my own Defects, I " moſt humbly offer my Requeſt to your " Excellency, that you will pleaſe to obſerve " how many there are among thoſe Gentle- " men, who have conferred this Honour upon " me, of Abilities far ſuperior to mine, and to " direct the Commons to return to their own " Houſe, and elect a more fit and ſufficient " Perſon."

Then the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

Mr. Ponſonby,

Commons' Speaker approve and

HIS Excellency now commands me to acquaint you, that your known Attachment to his Majeſty's Service, and that of your Country, with your highly-approved Conduct as Speaker in the laſt Parliament, convince him, that the Commons have acted wiſely in their Choice of you to be their Speaker in this Parliament: He cannot therefore admit of your modeſt Excuſe, but does, with intire Satisfaction, approve of you to be their Speaker.

Then Mr. Speaker ſaid:

His Reply to Lord Lieutenant.

" YOUR Excellency having been pleaſed " to approve the Choice of the Commons, I " muſt now apply myſelf to the Diſcharge of " my Duty, which cannot be better begun, " than by aſſuring your Excellency, that " the People of this Kingdom, having given " the ſtrongeſt Proof of their Attachment to " his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, by " chooſing for their Repreſentatives in this " Parliament, Gentlemen diſtinguiſhed in " their ſeveral Countries by their Zeal for the " Proteſtant Succeſſion in his Majeſty's moſt " illuſtrious Houſe; their firm Adherence to

" our preſent happy Conſtitution, and their " Zeal for the Good of their Country, which " can never be effectually promoted, without " preſerving the moſt intire Harmony with " our Fellow-Subjects of Great Britain, and " diſcouraging every Attempt to diſturb it.

" I cannot but pleaſe myſelf with the Hope " and Expectation, that the ſame Unanimity " that the Commons have ſhewn in their firſt " Proceeding, will appear in all their future " Deliberations.

" Nor is leſs to be expected under the Reign " of a King, ſo eminently and ſo deſervedly " the Object of the Love and Admiration of " his People, and under the Conduct of a " Chief Governor, whoſe diſcerning Judg- " ment and accurate Knowledge in every " Branch of Buſineſs, will enable him to " point out our true Intereſts, and whoſe mild " and gracious Temper muſt conciliate the " Minds and Affections of all who approach " him.

" It is therefore with the greateſt Pleaſure, " and with the fulleſt Aſſurance under your " Excellency's Influence, that I proceed in " the Diſcharge of my Truſt, by humbly " demanding in the Name and on the Behalf " of the Commons, an intire Conſervation of " all their Privileges, that they may have " Freedom of Speech in their Debates, and " not be moleſted in their Perſons, Goods " or Attendants; that the Miſtakes I ſhall " make, may meet with a favourable Con- " ſtruction and gracious Pardon; and that " when the Publick Good ſhall require it, I " may, by the Direction of the Houſe, have " free Acceſs to your Excellency's moſt Noble " Perſon."

Then the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's further Commands, ſaid:

Mr. Speaker,

" HIS Excellency moſt willingly grants what " you have deſired in Right of the Commons; " and will, to the utmoſt of his Power, at all " times, ſupport and ſecure the Rights and " Privileges of Parliament.

" You, Sir, may alſo depend on his Excel- " lency's favourable Conſtruction of what " you ſhall act or ſay, as Speaker of the " Houſe of Commons."

Then his Excellency was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I HAVE the Honour of his Majeſty's Commands to meet this his firſt Parliament in Ireland: I obey them with intire Satisfaction, from an Aſſurance, that your Deliberations will be influenced by the ſame Principles of Loyalty and Affection to your Sovereign, and of Zeal for the Proſperity of your Country, which have ſo long diſtinguiſhed the Parliaments of this Kingdom.

The Loſs of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, at a time, when not only the Security of his own Dominions, but the Welfare of Europe, ſeemed ſo eſſentially to depend on the Continuance of his Life, muſt have affected you in the moſt ſenſible Manner.

Your Grief however has already been alleviated, and your Loſs repaired, by the Succeſſion of his Majeſty, not only to the Throne (his legal Inheritance) but to the Duty, Affection and Confidence of his Subjects, as unbounded as the greateſt of his Predeceſſors have ever poſſeſſed, in the moſt fortunate Periods of their Reign.

This Parliament happily commences with the Acceſſion of a King, bred under the Influence, and formed by the Example, of a Prince, who uniformly tempered Prerogative with Law, and whoſe Glory it was, in the Exerciſe of his Power, to protect the Rights and Liberties of his People.

You can be no Strangers to his Majeſty's moſt gracious Declaration, That the Preſervation of the Conſtitution in Church and State, and the enforcing a due Obedience to the Laws (not more neceſſary to his own Authority than to the Liberties of his People) ſhall be the firſt and conſtant Object of his Care. And I have it particularly in Command to declare to you, that his Subjects of this Kingdom are fully and in every reſpect comprehended in theſe Aſſurances.

His Majeſty's wiſe Choice of a royal Conſort, eminent for her perſonal Virtues and Endowments, and deſcended from an Houſe ſo illuſtrious for its Attachment to the Proteſtant Cauſe, diſplays, in the cleareſt Light, his paternal Care, not only to preſerve to us, but tranſmit unimpaired to our Poſterity, the Bleſſings of his Reign, Liberty and pure Religion.

When I conſider the Security of our preſent, and the Proſpect of our future, Happineſs; and when I ſee you animated, as I am perſuaded you are, with every Sentiment which Loyalty and Gratitude can inſpire, I aſſure myſelf of a Seſſion of Parliament that will be diſtinguiſhed by its uninterrupted Harmony, and by its effective Zeal for the Support of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown. Such Diſpoſitions, ſteadily adhered to, cannot fail, under his Majeſty's paternal Influence, to preſerve you an happy, and to eſtabliſh you an opulent, and a flouriſhing People.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the proper Officers to lay before you the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates, from which you will be enabled to judge of the Proviſions neceſſary to be made for the Support of his Majeſty's Government, and for your own Security. The Means of making thoſe Proviſions (which I hope will be expeditiouſly adjuſted) I doubt not will, on your Part, be ſuch as ſhall be moſt ſuitable to the Circumſtances of this Country; on mine, you may depend upon the utmoſt Frugality.

You will take into your Conſideration the ſeveral incidental Charges of the Military Eſtabliſhment, as it now ſtands, of which exact

Eſtimates

Eſtimates cannot be formed, and alſo that a large Sum will he wanted for the effectual Repair of the Barracks, a Work which cannot be delayed.

I muſt obſerve to you, that, notwithſtanding the Authority given by the Vote of Credit of the laſt Parliament, the Sum of two hundred thouſand Pounds only has been raiſed; a Circumſtance of Oeconomy, which cannot fail to give you Satisfaction.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Improvement of your natural Advantages, ought to be the Object of your moſt ſerious Attention; Agriculture, the ſureſt Support of every State, deſerves, at all times, your higheſt Regard: To the end, that through your Wiſdom, the Skill and Induſtry of the Inhabitants of this Country may fully correſpond with the Bounty of PROVIDENCE in their favour; to encourage, regulate and improve which, will of Courſe extend your Manufactures, and your Commerce, will, I am ſure, be your continual Care. Your Linen Trade has long and juſtly been the Object of publick Encouragement; but much ſtill remains to carry to its full Extent, a Manufacture for which there is ſo large a Demand, which is ſo various in its Branches, and which, with due Attention, might be rendered as conſiderable a Source of Wealth to the Whole, as it is now to Part, of this Kingdom.

There is no Object more worthy your Attention than your Proteſtant Charter-Schools: Notwithſtanding the peaceable Demeanour of the Papiſts in this Kingdom, It muſt always be your Duty and your Intereſt to divert from Error, by every effectual though gentle Method, the deluded Followers of a blind Religion; and theſe Inſtitutions merit your Support and Protection, not only as Schools of Religion, but as Seminaries of uſeful Arts and virtuous Induſtry.

Let me now, in the moſt earneſt Manner, recommend to you, that after ſo many honourable Events abroad, and ſo many joyful Events at home, neither Jealouſies nor Diſtruſts, neither publick Heats nor private Animoſities, may diſturb that Tranquillity which is deſirable at all Times, and at this Seaſon is peculiarly neceſſary to your Welfare.

As to what Regards myſelf, you ſhall always find me, not only ready, but ſolicitous, to contribute whatever my Authority, my Credit or my Experience, can furniſh for theſe ſalutary Purpoſes. And I can with Truth aſſure you, that I ſhall in no Degree fulfil the Intentions or merit the Approbation of my Royal Maſter, but by ſtudying the Peace and Welfare of the Kingdom which his Majeſty has committed to my Care.

I am ſenſible the Situation in which I am placed, is as arduous as it is important: But I bring with me the cleareſt Intentions for your Service; to maintain the Honour and to promote the Service of the Crown, are Duties, from which I never will depart: To forward the Proſperity and to preſerve the Conſtitution of this Country, are Objects of which I never will loſe Sight. And there is nothing I more ſincerely wiſh, than that the Intereſts of both Kingdoms may be as thoroughly underſtood, as they are inſeparably connected. There is no Point I ſhall more diligently labour: And I muſt now aſſure you, at the Opening of my Adminiſtration, (what the Progreſs of it will, I hope demonſtrate) that I have no End or Ambition, but to be able to repreſent, in the warmeſt manner, to his Majeſty, the Zeal and Unanimity of his Subjects in this Kingdom, and to carry with me, on my Return into the Royal Preſence, the good Opinion, the Affection, the Hearts of the People of Ireland.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table;

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof. Speech to be printed.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to condole with his Majeſty on the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, at a Time when the Welfare of Europe ſeemed to depend on the Continuance of his Life. Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

To congratulate his Majeſty on his happy Succeſſion to the Throne of his Anceſtors, his legal Inheritance, and to the unbounded Affection and Confidence of his Subjects, in a Manner ſcarce to be equalled by any the moſt illuſtrious of his Predeceſſors.

To acknowledge the Divine Goodneſs, in having given us a Prince of ſuch exalted Virtue, ſo fully to repair the mighty Loſs we ſhould otherwiſe have ſuſtained, by the Death of his royal Grandfather; and to expreſs our Senſe of the Happineſs this Nation enjoys, in having this Parliament commence with the Acceſſion of a King bred under the Influence, and formed by the Example, of a Prince, who uniformly tempered Prerogative with Law; and whoſe Glory it was, in the Exerciſe of his Power to protect the Rights and Liberties of his People.

To expreſs the grateful Senſe this Houſe entertains of his Majeſty's Goodneſs, in the Aſſurance he has given us, that his Subjects of this Kingdom are fully and in every reſpect comprehended in his Majeſty's moſt gracious Declaration, that the Preſervation of the the Conſtitution in Church and State, and the inforcing a due Obedience to the Laws, not more neceſſary to his own Authority, than to the Liberty of his People, ſhall be the firſt and conſtant Object of his Care.

To acknowledge the Wiſdom of his Majeſty's Choice of a Royal Conſort, ſo eminent for her perſonal Virtues and Endowments, and deſcended from an Houſe ſo illuſtrious for its Attachment to the Proteſtant Cauſe; an Event which diſplays his paternal Care in the cleareſt Light, and enſures the unimpaired Tranſmittal of the Bleſſings of the preſent Reign, Liberty and pure Religion to our Poſterity.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that, animated as we are, with the warmeſt Sentiments which Gratitude and Loyalty can inſpire, we ſhall exert ourſelves to carry on the Buſineſs of the preſent Seſſion, in ſuch Manner, that it may be diſtinguiſhed by its uninterrupted Harmony and effective Zeal for the Support of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, which Diſpoſitions we conſider as the ſureſt Means, under his Majeſty's paternal Influence, of making us an happy, and eſtabliſhing us an opulent and flouriſhing People.

To expreſs the grateful Senſe we have of his Majeſty's tender Care and Concern for this Kingdom, in having been graciouſly pleaſed to appoint his Excellency the Earl of Halifax our Chief Governor, whoſe diſtinguiſhed Merit and approved Abilities in the high Station which he filled, give us the fulleſt Aſſurance that he will exert himſelf in promoting the Happineſs, and preſerving the Tranquillity, of this Kingdom.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that ſenſible as we are of the many Bleſſings we now enjoy, and have derived from his wiſe and gracious Adminiſtration, and that of the Princes of his Royal Houſe, and moſt grateful for their ſtrict and uniform Attention to the Preſervation of our Laws and Liberties, we ſhall endeavour to make the fulleſt Returns of the moſt affectionate Duty and inviolable Attachment to his Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government; and ſhall not ceaſe to implore the DIVINE PROVIDENCE for the long Continuance, the Glory and Happineſs of his Majeſty's Reign.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Sudley, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee, to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Attendance of Judges diſpenſed with

Reſolved, that this Houſe will diſpenſe with the daily Attendance of all the Judges; and that two only be required to attend the Service of this Houſe, till further Order of the Houſe.

The Lord Viſc. Sudley reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Thurſday laſt; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, with all Humility, beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty on the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late moſt gracious Sovereign, at a Time when the Welfare of Europe ſeemed to depend on the Continuance of his Life.

So ſevere and afflicting a Loſs muſt neceſſarily affect our Hearts with the deepeſt Sorrow, but we cannot ſufficiently acknowledge the Divine Goodneſs, in having given us a Prince of ſuch exalted Virtue, not only to ſucceed to the Throne (your legal Inheritance) but to the Affection and Confidence of your Subjects, as unbounded as the greateſt of your Predeceſſors have ever enjoyed them, and ſo fully to repair the Loſs we ſhould otherwiſe have ſuſtained, by the Death of ſo excellent a Prince.

The Commencement of this Parliament, with the Acceſſion of a King bred under the Influence, and formed by the Example, of a Prince, who uniformly tempered Prerogative with Law; and whoſe Glory it was, in the Exerciſe of his Power, to protect the Rights and Liberties of his People, affords us Matter of the higheſt Joy and Satisfaction.

We cannot entertain too grateful a Senſe of your Majeſty's Goodneſs, in the Aſſurances you have given us, that your Subjects of this Kingdom are fully and in every reſpect comprehended in your Majeſty's moſt gracious Declaration, That the Preſervation of the Conſtitution in Church and State, and the enforcing a due Obedience to the Laws, not more neceſſary to your own Authority, than the Good of the People, ſhall be the firſt and conſtant Object of your Care.

The wiſe Choice your Majeſty has made of a Royal Conſort, eminent for her perſonal Virtues and Endowments, diſplays, in the cleareſt Light, your paternal Care, not only to preſerve, but to tranſmit to Poſterity, the Bleſſings of your Reign, Liberty and pure Religion.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that, animated as we are with the warmeſt Sentiments which Gratitude and Loyalty can inſpire, we ſhall exert ourſelves to carry on the Buſineſs of the preſent Seſſion in ſuch Manner, as that it may be diſtinguiſhed by its uninterrupted Harmony and effective Zeal for the Support of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, which Diſpoſitions we conſider as the ſureſt Means, under your Majeſty's paternal Influence, of making us an happy, and eſtabliſhing us an opulent and flouriſhing People.

We have the moſt grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's tender Care and Concern for this Kingdom, in having appointed his Excellency the Earl of Halifax our chief Governor, whoſe diſtinguiſhed Merit, and approved Abilities in the High Station which he filled, give us the fulleſt Aſſurance, that he will exert himſelf in promoting the Happineſs and preſerving the Tranquility of this Kingdom.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that ſenſible as we are of the many Bleſſings we now enjoy, and have derived from your wiſe and gracious Adminiſtration, and that of the Princes of your Royal Houſe, and moſt grateful for their ſtrict and uniform Attention to the Preſervation of our Laws and Liberties, we ſhall endeavour to make the fulleſt Returns of the moſt affectionate Duty and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government; and ſhall not ceaſe to implore the DIVINE PROVIDENCE for the long Continuance, the Glory and Happineſs of your Majeſty's Reign.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to be laid before his Majeſty.

The Lord Viſc Jocelyn reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Thurſday laſt; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency
GEORGE-DUNK Earl of HALIFAX,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;
The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return your Excellency our moſt humble Thanks for your Speech from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament,

With Hearts full of Loyalty and Gratitude to his Majeſty, we acknowledge it as a ſignal Inſtance of his Majeſty's Royal Attention and Favour to this Kingdom, that he has been graciouſly pleaſed to commit the Government of it to your Excellency's Care.

Your Excellency's diſtinguiſhed Abilities, your extenſive Knowledge and great Experience in the commercial Intereſt of Great Britain, and the Wiſdom and Vigour with which (under your Excellency's Direction in your former important Station) thoſe moſt valuable Intereſts have been ſupported, extended and ſecured, juſtly intitled your Excellency to every Mark of Reſpect and Gratitude, from all who then had the Happineſs of being under your immediate Protection.

Thoſe eminent Services, ſo honourably atteſted by ſuch as were beſt qualified to judge of the Merit, and were principal Sharers in the Benefit of them, could not be unknown to his Majeſty's faithful Subjects of Ireland, nor fail to inſpire them with particular Veneration for your Excellency's exalted Character.

But high as the Opinion was, which we had before conceived of your Excellency, permit us, my Lord, to ſay, it is now not only confirmed, but improved: The great Attention and Candour with which you have enquired into, and conſidered, the State of this Kingdom, and the Readineſs and Solicitude you have ſo kindly ſhewn to promote the Publick Welfare, by your Authority, your Credit and your Experience, give us a firm Aſſurance, that the greateſt National Benefits will reſult from the Wiſdom of your Excellency's Adminiſtration.

The Improvement of our natural Advantages, the Encouragement of Agriculture, and the extending of our Manufactures and Commerce, are ſo judiciouſly and earneſtly recommended by your Excellency; and the Utility and Importance of the Proteſtant Charter-Schools are placed before us in ſo ſtrong a Light, that we ſhould be to the laſt Degree wanting, both to our Duty and Intereſt, if we do not fix our moſt ſerious Attention upon theſe great Objects, and avail ourſelves of your Excellency's Aſſiſtance, to eſtabliſh us under his Majeſty's paternal Influence, an opulent, flouriſhing, Proteſtant People.

To propoſe, to recommend, to facilitate the Means of publick Happineſs, is a Conduct moſt worthy of your Excellency, which by thus purſuing the Intention, cannot fail to merit the Approbation, of his Majeſty, at the ſame time that it effectually engages the unbounded Reſpect, the Affection, the Hearts of all his People.

On our Part, animated with the warmeſt Sentiments of Loyalty and Gratitude to our Sovereign, and of Zeal for the Proſperity of our Country, we have nothing more at Heart, than to approve ourſelves to your Excellency, his Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy, and careful to promote and extend, to the utmoſt of our Power, the ſame juſt Sentiments amongſt all our Fellow-Subjects.

In

In our Proceedings in Parliament, the Reality of theſe Principles will be demonſtrated by the Harmony of our Deliberations, and chearful Concurrence in every Meaſure which can tend to the Support of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, the Preſervation of the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, and the Eaſe and Succeſs of your Excellency's Adminiſtration.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that the Judges, according to Order, had prepared a Report of what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, which he preſented to the Houſe, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

IN Obedience to your Lordſhips' Order of the 9th of November laſt, whereby the Judges were directed to inquire what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, the Judges upon Inquiry, find:

Report on temporary Laws.

An Act paſſed in the 10th Year of his late Majeſty King George I. intitled, An Act for continuing and amending an Act for the better regulating of Pariſh-Watches, and amending the High-ways of this Kingdom, and for the preventing the Miſapplication of Publick Money; and alſo for eſtabliſhing a regular Watch in the City of Dublin, and to prevent Miſchiefs that may happen by graving Ships in the River Liffey, which Act by an Act made in the 29th Year of his late Majeſty King George II's Reign, for continuing and reviving ſeveral temporary Statutes, and other Purpoſes therein mentioned, ſo far as the ſame relates to Pariſh-Watches and High-ways in this Kingdom, was continued for the Space of four Years, from the End of that Seſſion of Parliament, and after the Expiration of the ſaid Term of four Years to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ſo that the ſaid Act (if not continued) will expire upon the riſing of the preſent Seſſion.

An Act paſſed in the 3d Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for the better Diſcovery of Judgments in the Courts of King's-Bench, Common-Pleas and Exchequer, at Dublin, and for the greater Security of Purchaſers, has been continued by ſeveral Statutes for the Term of eleven Years, to be computed from the 25th Day of March, 1753, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

An Act, paſſed in the 5th Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for the better Regulation and Government of Seamen in the Merchants' Service, which being expired, was by an Act paſſed in the 31ſt Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, revived and continued for the Space of two Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ſo that the ſame expired upon the riſing of the laſt Seſſion.

An Act paſſed in the 9th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty, intitled, An Act to prevent the Evil ariſing by the Retailers of Beer, Ale, Brandy, Rum, Geneva, Aqua-vitæ and other ſpirituous Liquors, giving Credit to Servants, Day-Labourers and other Perſons who uſually work or ply for Wages, which was by an Act paſſed in the 19th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty, intitled, An Act for reviving and continuing ſeveral temporary Statutes, continued for fourteen Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ſo that the ſame (if not continued) will expire upon the riſing of the preſent Seſſion.

An Act paſſed in the 15th Year of his late Majeſty King George II's Reign, intitled, An Act for the more effectual ſecuring the Payment of Rents, and preventing Frauds by Tenants, which by an Act paſſed in the 29th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty, was continued for four Years, from the End of the then Seſſion of Parliament, after the Expiration of the ſaid Term of four Years, ſo that the ſaid Act (if not continued) will expire upon the riſing of the preſent Seſſion.

An Act paſſed in the 17th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to prevent the pernicious Practice of burning Land, and for the more effectual deſtroying of Vermin, which by an Act paſſed in the 21ſt Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, was continued, as to ſuch Part thereof as relates to the burning of Land, until the 29th Day of September, 1760, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ſo that the ſaid Act (if not continued) will expire upon the riſing of the preſent Seſſion.

An Act paſſed in the 25th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, for the better adjuſting and more eaſy Recovery of the Wages of certain Servants and certain Apprentices, and for the Puniſhment of ſuch Owners of Coals and their Agents, as ſhall knowingly employ and ſet at Work, Perſons retained in the Service of other Coal-Owners, and alſo that mutual Debts between Party and Party be ſet one againſt the other; which Act by an Act paſſed in the 29th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, for continuing and reviving ſeveral temporary Statutes, and other Pprpoſes therein mentioned, was continued with ſeveral Amendments, to the 25th Day of March, 1760, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ſo that the ſaid Act (if not continued) will expire upon the riſing of the preſent Seſſion.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Report ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to a ſelect Committee, and that all the Lords preſent ſhall be the ſaid Committee, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein, and two of the Judges to aſſiſt.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Upon reading the Order of the Day, for further reading the Standing Orders of this Houſe; the ſame was adjourned till Thurſday Morning next.

Report on temporary Statutes.

The Lord Viſc. Strangford reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of the Report from the Judges of what Laws are expired or near expiring, was referred; that they had come to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act paſſed in the 10th Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George I. intitled, An Act for continuing and amending an Act for the better regulating of Pariſh-Watches and amending the High-ways of this Kingdom, and for preventing the Miſapplication of Publick Money, and alſo for eſtabliſhing a regular Watch in the City of Dublin, and to prevent Miſchiefs that may happen by graving Ships in the River Liffey, which Act, by an Act made in the 29th Year of his late Majeſty King George II's Reign for continuing and reviving ſeveral temporary Statutes and other Purpoſes therein mentioned, ſo far as the ſame relates to Pariſh-Watches and High-ways in this Kingdom, was continued for the Space of four Years, from the End of that Seſſion of Parliament, and after the Expiration of the ſaid Term of four Years, to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, is fit to be continued for four Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act, paſſed in the 3d Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King Geo. II. intitled, An Act for the better Diſcovery of Judgments in the Courts of King's-Bench, Common-Pleas and Exchequer at Dublin, and for the greater Security of Purchaſers, has been continued by ſeveral Statutes for the Term of eleven Years, to be computed from the 25th Day of March, 1753, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ought to be made perpetual.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act, paſſed in the 5th Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King Geo. II. intitled, An Act for the better Regulation and Government of Seamen in the Merchants' Service, which being expired, was by an Act paſſed in the 31ſt Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, revived and continued for the Term of two Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, is fit to be revived and continued for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act paſſed in the 9th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty, intitled, An Act to prevent the Evil ariſing by the Retailers of Beer, Ale, Brandy, Rum, Geneva, Aqua-vitæ and other ſpirituous Liquors, giving Credit to Servants, Day-Labourers and other Perſons who uſually work or ply for Wages, which was by an Act, paſſed in the 19th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty, intitled, An Act for reviving and continuing ſeveral temporary Statutes, continued for fourteen Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, is fit to be continued for fourteen Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act, paſſed in the 15th Year of his late Majeſty King George II's Reign, intitled, An Act for the more effectual ſecuring the Payment of Rents, and preventing Frauds by Tenants, which by an Act, paſſed in the 29th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty, was continued for four Years, from the End of the then Seſſion of Parliament, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, after the Expiration of the ſaid Term of four Years, is fit to be continued for four Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act, paſſed in the 17th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to prevent the pernicious Practice of burning Land, and for the more effectual deſtroying of Vermin, which by an Act, paſſed in the 21ſt Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, was continued, as to ſuch Part thereof as relates to the burning of Land, until the 29th of September, 1760, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ought to be continued for four Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved,

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act, paſſed in the 25th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, for the better adjuſting and more eaſy Recovery of the Wages of certain Servants and certain Apprentices, and for the Puniſhment of ſuch Owners of Coals and their Agents, as ſhall knowingly employ and ſet at Work, Perſons retained in the Service of other Coal-owners; and alſo that mutual Debts between Party and Party may be ſet one againſt the other; which Act, by an Act paſſed in the 29th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, for continuing and reviving ſeveral temporary Statutes therein mentioned, was continued with ſeveral Amendments, to the 25th Day of March, 1760, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, is fit to be continued for four Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

To which Reſolutions, the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree.

paſſed;

and returned to Commons.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by the Lord Chief Juſtice of the Common-Pleas and Mr. Juſtice Scott, to return the ſaid Bill, and acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſame, without any Amendment.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Redmond Morres and others, to to return an ingroſſed Bill, ſent down by this Houſe, intitled, An Act for allowing further Time to Perſons in Offices or Employments to qualify themſelves, purſuant to an Act, intitled, An Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery, and to acquaint this Houſe, that they had agreed thereto, without any Amendment.

Lord Farnham introduced.

The Right Hon. Robert Lord Baron Farnham, being by Letters Patents, dated the 10th Day of September, in the 34th Year of King George II. created Lord Viſc. Farnham, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Lord Viſc. Charlemont and the Lord Viſc. Sudley, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying his Lordſhip's Letters Patents preceding: His Lordſhip preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes, and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place at, the lower end of the Viſcounts' Bench.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

Lord Lieutenant preſent.

His Excellency George-Dunk Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Roſs carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Cavan, the Cap of Maintenance; three Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons' Bill for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint them, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter.

And the Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies, where Mr Speaker, after a Speech to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant in relation to the Money-Bill, delivered it to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought it to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Title, as follows, viz.

Royal Aſſent given to two Bills.

1. An Act for granting and continuing to his Majeſty an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, Strong Waters, Wine, Tobacco, Hides and other Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned; and for prohibiting the Importation of all Gold and Silver Lace, except of the Manufacture of Great Britain.

To this Bill, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, in theſe Words, viz.

" Le Roi remercie ſes bons Sujets, accepte leur " Benevolence, et ainſi le veult."

2. An Act for allowing further Time to Perſons in Offices or Employments to qualify themſelves, purſuant to an Act, intitled, An Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery.

To this Bill, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent in theſe Words, viz.

" Le Roi le veult."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

Petition of Rev. John Leland, &c.

A Petition of the Rev. John Leland, Doctor in Divinity, Thomas Litton and Samuel Owens, Eſq'rs. Executors of Ralph Leland, Merchant, deceaſed, ſetting forth, that the Right Hon. Richard late Earl of Roſs, and the Right Hon. Richard now Earl of Roſs, by Deeds of Leaſe and Releaſe, dated the 16th and 17th Days of April, 1740, mortgaged unto the ſaid Ralph Leland and his Heirs, ſeveral Houſes, Towns, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Tythes and Fee-Farm Rents therein mentioned, for the Sum of £3500 and Intereſt, at the Rate of £5 : 10*s*. for every £100 by the Year, as therein is mentioned.

That the ſaid Richard late Earl of Roſs died about the Month of June, 1741, and upon his Death his Title and Eſtate deſcended to the ſaid Richard now Earl of Roſs, his only Son and Heir.

That the ſaid now Earl of Roſs, by Indenture, dated the 5th Day of March, 1741, for ſecuring the Payment of the further Sum of £1000, lent to him by the ſaid Ralph Leland, made a further Mortgage to the ſaid Ralph Leland and his Heirs, of the ſame Premiſes, which were ſo before mortgaged to him, ſubject to a Redemption, on Payment of the ſaid Sum of £1000, and Intereſt, at the Rate aforeſaid, as therein is mentioned.

That the ſaid Ralph Leland died about May 1743, having previouſly made his Will and a Codicil thereto, and thereof appointed the Petitioners his Executors, who duly proved the ſaid Will and Codicil.

That about March, 1752, the Petitioners, at the Requeſt of the ſaid Earl, executed a Writing, whereby they agreed to reduce the Intereſt of the ſaid Principal Sums of £3500 and £1000 from £5 : 10*s*. to £5 for each £100 yearly; and that if the ſaid Earl paid one Half Year's Intereſt, before a ſecond Half Year's Intereſt became due, that then they would accept of Intereſt of the ſaid Principal Sums, at the Rate of £4 : 10*s*. for each £100 yearly.

That notwithſtanding the ſaid Agreement, the ſaid Earl has not ſince paid one Penny for or on Account of the Intereſt of the ſaid Sums, or either of them; and there now remains due for Principal and Intereſt the Sum of £7000, or thereabouts.

That the Petitioners, about the 16th Day of July, 1754, exhibited their Bill in his Majeſty's High Court of Chancery in this Kingdom, againſt the ſaid Earl, and ſeveral other Perſons, to foreclоſe the ſaid Mortgages, and for the other Purpoſes therein contained; and the ſaid Earl did not put in his Anſwer to the ſaid Bill till about January, 1757.

That the Petitioners, having been informed, that there were ſeveral Incumbrances prior to the ſaid Mortgages, which affected the ſaid mortgaged Premiſes, and which though paid, were kept on Foot for ſome private Purpoſe, and that ſeveral of the Premiſes ſo mortgaged to the ſaid Ralph Leland had been, ſince the ſaid laſt Mortgage, ſold by the ſaid Earl, or his Truſtees, to ſeveral Perſons: The Petitioners were adviſed to amend their ſaid Bill, which they did, on or about the 5th Day of Auguſt, 1758, and made the ſaid Purchaſers and Incumbrancers, Parties thereto; and the ſaid Earl was ſoon after ſerved with a Copy of the ſaid amended Bill.

That the ſaid Earl did not put in an Anſwer to the ſaid amended Bill, until January, 1760; and his Anſwer was ſhort, and Exceptions were taken thereto about April, 1760, which Exceptions were allowed.

That the ſaid Earl has not ſince anſwered over, by which Means the Petitioners are delayed in their ſaid Cauſe.

That the ſaid Earl now alledges, that the Reaſon why he has not anſwered your Petitioners' ſaid Bill, is becauſe his Attorney or Agent is out of Town, and that he cannot get his Papers from him.

That the ſaid Earl has given the ſame Reaſon from time to time for near two Years paſt.

That the ſaid Earl, by a Writing, dated the 23d Day of March, 1758, ſigned by him, agreed to wave his Privilege of Parliament in the ſaid Cauſe, as by the ſaid Writing hereunto annexed appears.

That the Parties to the ſaid Suit are many in Number, and as by the Death of any of the ſaid Parties the ſaid Suit muſt abate from time to time, the Petitioners in all probability will never be able to bring the ſaid Cauſe to a Hearing, unleſs they ſhall be at Liberty to proſecute their ſaid Suit againſt the ſaid Earl, without incurring the Diſpleaſure of your Lordſhips.

That the ſaid mortgaged Premiſes are become a very ſcanty Security for the Money due thereon, and it will be extremely difficult for the Petitioners to recover the ſaid Money on account of the ſeveral Sales that have been made of the ſaid mortgaged Premiſes, and other Circumſtances attending the ſame, and the Family of the ſaid Ralph Leland are laid under great Difficulties, by being ſo long kept out of ſo large a Part of their Property.

And

And therefore moſt humbly praying, that their Lordſhips will be pleaſed to take the Petitioners' Caſe into Conſideration, and to grant them ſuch Relief, as their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, ſhall think proper; and that the Petitioners may be at Liberty to proceed in, and proſecute the ſaid Suit againſt the ſaid Earl, without incurring the Diſpleaſure of their Lordſhips; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Petition ſhall be referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, who are to take the ſame into Conſideration, and report their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe.

Lord Branden delivers his Writ, &c.

This Day the Right Hon. William Lord Baron of Branden ſat firſt in Parliament, upon the Death of his Father Maurice late Lord Baron of Branden, and delivered his Writ in the accuſtomed Manner, and came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had received a Meſſage from his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, which his Excellency directed him to lay before their Lordſhips, which he read, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

Dunk Halifax.

My Lords,

Meſſage from Lord Lieutenant.

I have it in Command from his Majeſty to inform this Houſe, that after the moſt conciliatory Efforts which his Majeſty's Moderation could dictate, or his Royal Dignity permit, Affairs have been brought to an unhappy though on his ſide, inevitable Rupture with the Court of Spain.

In conſequence of this Event, and of the Dangers to which this Kingdom may thereby be particularly expoſed, his Majeſty has directed me to inform this Houſe, that he has thought it neceſſary to make an immediate Augmentation of five Battalions to the Forces on this Eſtabliſhment.

I have it likewiſe particularly in Command from his Majeſty to aſſure this Houſe, that after the liberal Grants which the Parliament of Ireland has made in the Courſe of this Seſſion, it is with much Regret he finds himſelf under the unavoidable Neceſſity of making any Application for further Supplies. But his Majeſty having, in all Exigencies, the moſt full and firm Reliance on the Experience, Affection and Loyalty of his faithful Proteſtant Subjects of Ireland, entertains no Doubt, that this Houſe will concur, with their uſual Unanimity and Chearfulneſs, in thoſe Meaſures, which the preſent War has rendered ſo indiſpenſably neceſſary for the Defence of his Majeſty's Crown, and of the Religion, Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom.

D. H.

Ordered, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Meſſage to this Houſe be taken into Conſideration on Monday Morning next.

Lords deliver their Writs, &c.

The Lords following delivered their Writs in the accuſtomed Manner, and came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes:

Earl of Weſtmeath
Lord Biſhop of Derry

Upon reading the Order for the Day,

The Houſe proceeded to take into Conſideration, his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Meſſage, preſented to the Houſe on Saturday laſt.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, nem. con. that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to return our moſt dutiful and unfeigned Thanks to his Majeſty, for his gracious Condeſcenſion, in directing a Communication to be made to this Houſe of the unhappy Rupture with the Court of Spain.

To declare, that we acknowledge and admire his Majeſty's Wiſdom, and his tender Care of his People, in ſuffering his Moderation ſo far to prevail, as to have made the moſt conciliatory Efforts that his Royal Dignity could permit towards preventing of this War, which, whatever Succeſs may be hoped for in the Progreſs of it, muſt be conſidered as a new Calamity; but at the ſame time as a Calamity to be borne with more Patience and Alacrity, and reſiſted with greater Vigour, becauſe we muſt be convinced that it could not by any human Wiſdom be avoided.

That this Conſideration, we hope, muſt animate the whole Body of his Majeſty's Subjects with the ſame Sentiments with which our Hearts are animated; and that they will all be as ready, as we now are, to devote our Fortunes and our Lives to the Support of his Majeſty's Crown; lamenting, on our Part only, that our Strength and Abilities bear ſo unequal a Proportion to our Duty, our Loyalty, and our Obligations.

That we are ſincerely thankful to his Majeſty, for the early Care he has ſhewn for the Safety of this Kingdom, in ordering an immediate Augmentation of five Battalions to the Forces upon this Eſtabliſhment; and we ſhall exert ourſelves, to the utmoſt of our Power, in promoting all ſuch, as well as every other Service which his Majeſty ſhall judge expedient upon this Emergency.

That

That we are at a Loſs for Words to expreſs our Gratitude to his Majeſty, for the moſt gracious and tender Manner in which his Majeſty has been pleaſed to ſignify his Acceptance of ſuch Demonſtrations of our Zeal, Loyalty and Affection for his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, as we have been able to give in this Seſſion of Parliament; and that we intreat his Majeſty to be aſſured, that theſe Sentiments are ſo deeply rooted in us, that no Circumſtance of Danger, no Diſtreſſes, no Trials, no Fears of any kind, can ever remove or ſhake them.

That we muſt farther beg Leave to take this Occaſion of declaring to his Majeſty the full and intire Satisfaction that we enjoy under the prudent and mild Adminiſtration of our Chief Governor the Earl of Halifax, whoſe ſtrict Attention to the Support of his Majeſty's Authority, has been ſo happily conducted, as to conciliate the Affections and draw the Confidence of Perſons of all Ranks in this Kingdom towards him; from which pleaſing Circumſtance, we may hope, that a general Advantage will be derived; and that whatever Strength, Power or Ability may be found to ſubſiſt in this Kingdom, it will be all collected to one Point, and be unanimouſly directed, as we wiſh it may ever be, to the great End of his Majeſty's Service!

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Earl of Drogheda, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and that all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein,

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to return his Excellency the Thanks of this Houſe for his Meſſage, communicating to this Houſe, by the King's Command, the wiſe and neceſſary Meaſures which his Majeſty, out of his tender Regard for the Security of his Kingdom of Ireland, has been pleaſed to take, of augmenting his Forces on this Eſtabliſhment, by the Addition of five Battalions. Reſolution for Addreſs to the Lord Lieutenant.

To expreſs, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, to his Excellency the moſt determined Reſolution of this Houſe to ſtand by his Majeſty in all ſuch Meaſures as ſhall be found neceſſary for the Defence of his Majeſty's Crown, againſt the King of Spain, and all his Majeſty's Enemies, and for the Support of the Religion, Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom.

To aſſure his Excellency, that this Houſe has the firmeſt Reliance, in the preſent critical and dangerous Conjuncture, upon the diſtinguiſhed Loyalty and affectionate Duty to the King, and the ſincere, attentive and diſintereſted Attachment to the Publick Service, which his Excellency has evinced, upon all Occaſions, with uncommon Ardour and Ability.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Earl of Hillſborough, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and that all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow, at Twelve o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

The Earl of Drogheda reported from the Lords' Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz,

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return our unfeigned Thanks to your Majeſty, for your gracious Condeſcenſion, in directing a Communication to be made to us of the unhappy Rupture with the Court of Spain.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

The Earl of Hillſborough reported from the Lords' Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to their Lordſhips' Reſolution of Yeſterday; that they had prepared the ſame accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency
GEORGE-DUNK Earl of HALIFAX,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our ſincere Thanks for your Excellency's Meſſage, communicating to us, by the King's Command, the wiſe and neceſſary Meaſure which his Majeſty, out of his tender Regard for the Security of this his Kingdom of Ireland, has been pleaſed to take, of augmenting his Forces upon this Eſtabliſhment, by the Addition of five Battalions.

With Hearts full of Gratitude for the early Attention which his Majeſty has ſhewn for the Safety of this Country, we deſire to expreſs to your Excellency, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, our determined and unalterable Reſolution, to ſtand by and aſſiſt his Majeſty, in all ſuch Meaſures as ſhall be found neceſſary for the Defence of his Majeſty's Crown againſt the King of Spain, and all his Majeſty's Enemies, and for the Support of the Religion, Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom.

And we aſſure your Excellency, with the utmoſt Satisfaction and moſt cordial Sincerity, that we have the fulleſt and firmeſt Reliance, in in the preſent critical and dangerous Conjuncture, upon the diſtinguiſhed Loyalty and affectionate Duty to the King, and the unfeigned, attentive and diſintereſted Attachment to the Publick Service, which your Excellency has, upon all Occaſions, evinced with uncommon Ardour and Ability.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that in obedience to their Lordſhips' Order of this Day, he had waited upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he would pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency; and his Excellency was pleaſed to appoint immediately, at the Caſtle.

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

It

passed; It was resolved in the Affirmative.

Message to Commons, with Concurrence. A Message was sent to the House of Commons, by Mr. Walker and Mr. Tunnadine, two of the Masters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this House hath agreed to the said Bill, without any Amendment.

The House was adjourned during Pleasure, to robe.

The House was resumed: And

L^d Lieutenant present. His Excellency George-Dunk Earl of Halifax, L^d Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the House with the usual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Westmeath carrying the Sword of State, and the Marquis of Kildare, the Cap of Maintenance; two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the L^d Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, ascended the same, and seated himself in the Chair of State, under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal standing robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordships took their Seats.

Commons sent for: The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and then standing on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod to repair to the House of Commons, and acquaint them, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleasure they attend him immediately in the House of Peers.

they enter. And the Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the usual Ceremonies, where Mr. Speaker delivered the Money-Bill to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought it to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Title, as follows, viz.

1. An Act for granting to his Majesty the several Duties, Rates and Impositions therein expressed, to be applied to pay an Interest at the Rate of £5 ℔ Cent. ℔ Ann. for the several Sums therein provided for, and towards the Discharge of the said Principal Sums.

Royal Assent given to two Bills.

To this Bill, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Assent, in these Words, viz.

"Le Roi remercie ses bons Sujets, accepte leur "Benevolence, et ainsi le veult."

2. An Act for rectifying a Mistake in the Marriage-Settlement of Francis Pierpoint Burton, Esq; with Elizabeth his present Wife, and for vesting the said Francis Pierpoint Burton's Estate in the Co. Limerick in him the said Francis Pierpoint Burton, his Heirs and Assigns for ever.

To this Bill, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Assent, in these Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il est desiré."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleased to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their House.

The House was adjourned during Pleasure, to unrobe.

The House was resumed.

Petition of Dublin Apothecaries

A Petition of the Maſter, Wardens and Commonalty of the Art or Myſtery of Apothecaries of Dublin, in behalf of themſelves and the reſt of the Apothecaries, Druggiſts and Importers of Drugs of the Kingdom of Ireland, ſetting forth, that the Petitioners are informed, that a Bill, intitled, A Bill for preventing Frauds in the vending of Drugs and Medicines, &c. is now under the Conſideration of this Houſe.

That the Petitioners humbly apprehend, that if the ſame ſhould paſs into a Law, ſeveral Clauſes thereof would not only be injurious to the Petitioners, but prejudicial to Commerce, the Revenues of the Crown, the Dying and Linen Manufactures, and oppreſſive of the Liberty of the Subject; to prove which, the Petitioners had a Number of Witneſſes attending the Committee of the Hon. Houſe of Commons (when the Bill was depending before them) and they make no Doubt that if the Committee had been impowered by their Houſe to examine ſaid Witneſſes, they would have fully proved their ſeveral Allegations:

And therefore moſt humbly praying, that this Houſe will permit the Petitioners to produce Witneſſes, or grant them ſuch other Relief, as in their Lordſhips' great Wiſdom ſhall ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

The Lord Viſc. Strangford reported from the ſelect Committee, to whom the Conſideration of an ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act to enable Henry Croker, Eſq; to make Leaſes of his Eſtate for three Lives or thirty-one Years, at a full improved Rent, and to charge his Eſtate with a Jointure for any Wife he ſhall marry, not exceeding £500 by the Year, was committed; that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment; and find that all Perſons concerned in the Conſequences thereof, have conſented thereto; and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Earl of Weſtmeath reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that they had prepared the ſame, which he read in his Place, and the ſaid Addreſs being afterwards read at the Table, was agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency
GEORGE-DUNK Earl of HALIFAX,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to offer our ſincere Congratulations to your Excellency, upon the approaching happy Concluſion of this Seſſion of Parliament; and we think ourſelves, at the ſame time, called upon to declare, that the Temper and Harmony with which all Publick Buſineſs has been tranſacted, have been the natural Effects of the wiſe, upright and impartial Conduct, by which your Excellency's Adminiſtration has been ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed.

We acknowledge it as a moſt endearing Inſtance of his Majeſty's paternal Concern for his Subjects of Ireland, that he was graciouſly pleaſed to commit them to your Excellency's Care, at a time which required a Perſon of ſuperior Talents and Abilities to preſide over us, which great Endowments, joined with your Excellency's inflexible Integrity of Mind and diſintereſted Benevolence of Heart, have been and muſt ever be uniformly exerted, in maintaining the Honour and Service of the Crown, and in promoting the Peace, Welfare and Proſperity of the People.

We have a juſt and grateful Senſe of his Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs, in providing for the Security of this Kingdom, in this time of common Danger; and we ſhall be always ready, to the utmoſt of our Power, to ſupport his Majeſty in the Proſecution of ſuch Meaſures as he ſhall find neceſſary for compleating the great Ends which his Majeſty has in View for the Peace, the Intereſts and the Glory of his own Dominions, and the general Tranquillity of all Europe.

It is with the moſt intire Confidence we rely on your Excellency's Prudence and Vigilance, which have been manifeſted on a late Occaſion, in guarding againſt Appearances that might affect the Publick Peace; and by the wiſe and ſeaſonable Exertion of your Power, in ſupport of the Civil Magiſtracy, ſuppreſſing thoſe criminal Gatherings of a raſh and outrageous Populace.

Your Excellency's known Juſtice and Goodneſs, can leave us no room to doubt, that on your Return to the Royal Preſence, you will make ſuch a Repreſentation to his Majeſty of the Duty and Loyalty of his Proteſtant Subjects of Ireland, as will ſecure to them the Continuance of his Royal Favour and Protection, of which we cannot receive a ſtronger nor more acceptable Proof, than his Majeſty's continuing your Excellency in the Government of this Kingdom, and permitting your Return to a grateful People, whoſe Confidence you have ſo juſtly merited, and whoſe Affections you have ſo univerſally engaged.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Excellency.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that the House had attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with their Address; to which Address his Excellency was pleased to give this Answer:

" My Lords,

Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

" IT has ever since my Entrance upon the " Government of this Kingdom, been a prin- " cipal Object of my Ambition, as well as a " principal Part of my Duty, to recommend " myself to your Lordships' good Opinion, " by early adopting and by strictly adhering to " that Plan of Conduct, which I thought " would be most beneficial to this Kingdom, " and which I knew would be therefore most " agreeable to your Lordships. The Unani- " mity of your Lordships' Conduct in the " Service of the Crown, during the Course of " this Session, and the very favourable Senti- " ments you are pleased to express of me in " this Address at the Close of it, have shewn " me that my Expectations have not been dis- " appointed. You may be assured, that the " high Reward my Endeavours have met with " in your Lordships' Approbation, will prove " the strongest Incitement to continue, and if " possible to increase, my Zeal for every thing " which may tend to promote your Lordships' " Dignity, and the true Interests of this " Kingdom."

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that the Address of this House, presented Yesterday to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and his Excellency's Answer thereunto, be forthwith printed and published, and that the Clerk of this House do appoint the printing of the said Address and Answer.

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz. "Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I ESTEEM it the peculiar Happineſs of this Kingdom, and of Courſe the diſtinguiſhed Honour of my Adminiſtration, that this Seſſion of Parliament, which opened with ſuch promiſing Appearances, has, both in its Progreſs and in its Concluſion, far exceeded my juſt Expectations, and your moſt ſanguine Profeſſions:

That Unanimity in the Support of the Crown, and in the Service of your Country, which at the Opening of the Seſſion it was my Buſineſs to recommend, it is now become my Duty to applaud; and ſuch has been the Activity of your Zeal, that ſcarce any other Employment, and no other Merit, has been left to me, but to recommend what you ſhould do, and to thank you for it, when done. Nothing could be more honourable in the Practice, and nothing, I am perſuaded, will be more uſeful in the Example, than this Intercourſe of mutual Truſt, of candid Dealing, and of favourable Opinion: And I indulge with infinite Satisfaction the pleaſing Hope, that the happy Temper of the firſt may communicate ſomething of its Complexion and Tendency to every ſucceeding Seſſion of this Parliament.

While his Majeſty reflects with Pleaſure on the many ſolid and ſubſtantial Proofs of your Zeal for his Service, he is not inattentive to the unavoidable Expenſe in which it has involved you, and he ſees it with ſtill greater Concern from the Willingneſs and Alacrity with which you have engaged in it. And there is nothing of which you may be more aſſured, than that his Majeſty, from his Diſcernment and his Juſtice, will always diſtinguiſh between your Zeal and your Ability; and that he will never meaſure by your Chearfulneſs in giving, your Capacity to give. It may reaſonably be preſumed, that the unparalelled Succeſſes, which his Majeſty's Virtues have, through the Bleſſing of PROVIDENCE, derived upon his Arms, will enable us hereafter to meet in Circumſtances more favourable favourable and more agreeable to us all: We ſhall then, it may be hoped, unite our common Endeavours in contracting thoſe Plans of Expenſe which it has been our Duty to inlarge; in applying our Thoughts, which are now occupied in the Defence, to the Improvement, of this Kingdom; and in repairing by the Security of a laſting and beneficial Peace, the Expenſe and Havock of this burdenſome and neceſſary War, by which your Manufactures have been already diſtreſſed, and your Proteſtant Strength ſo much weakened, which you muſt always remember to look up to, as your natural Bulwark and your ſure Dependance.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE his Majeſty's Commands, again to thank you for the ſeaſonable and ample Supplies which have been given; and to aſſure you, that extenſive as they are, their Value has been conſiderably augmented by the Chearfulneſs and Unanimity with which they were granted. I have it likewiſe particularly in Command, to convey to you the grateful Senſe his Majeſty entertains of your liberal Deſire, that the Appointments of his Repreſentative in this Kingdom ſhould be augmented, and the Satisfaction which he feels at your Approbation of my Conduct; and to expreſs, in Terms as ſtrong as poſſible, his Thanks for your Addreſs, and his Pleaſure at the Motives of it. And permit me, on this Occaſion, once more to repeat the Senſe which I ſhall for ever entertain of that Inſtance of your Regard, ſo liberal in you, ſo acceptable to the Crown, and ſo honourable to my Adminiſtration.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I MUST with Concern obſerve, that notwithſtanding the exemplary Behaviour of all Ranks of People in this Metropolis, and throughout the greateſt Part of this Kingdom, ſome diſtant Quarters of the Country have been unhappily diſturbed with Tumults and Riots of the lower Sort of People. I have, on this Occaſion, been reluctantly obliged to call out the Military Power, which is ſometimes the neceſſary but ought always to be the laſt Reſource of Government. The Officers ordered on that Service, have executed their Duty with Activity and Diſcretion. Theſe Tumults are, I hope, wholly ſuppreſſed; many of the Perſons concerned in them are in Cuſtody, and await the Puniſhment of their Offences; others are fled from Juſtice, and ſeem to want only an Occaſion of returning to their reſpective Habitations with Impunity.

By the Seaſon of the Year, and by the Cloſe of the Seſſion, you will ſhortly be diſengaged from the Weight of Publick Buſineſs: And I am ſatisfied, that the ſame Zeal for the Support of Government, the ſame Temper and Moderation, which have ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed you in Parliament, will regulate your Conduct in your reſpective Countries: And I doubt not that by Juſtice and by Lenity, by your Influence as Men of Property, and by your Authority as Magiſtrates, you will reconcile the Minds of the People to Peace, Civility and Order; and perfect that laſting Reformation, in which the mere Execution of the Laws, without the Example of thoſe who execute them, muſt always be defective

That I have diſcharged the great Truſt repoſed in me by his Majeſty, in ſome Degree, to your Satisfaction, that every Branch of my Adminiſtration has not been unpleaſing to you, or uſeleſs to this Country, are Circumſtances, which as a Man and as a Chief Governor, conſtitute my preſent Happineſs, and muſt form the moſt ſolid Baſis of my future Reputation. You know the Difficulties of my Situation and you will make Allowance therefore for my Errors. Whatever may have been the Imperfections of my Conduct, you will always perceive much private Regard for Individuals, and much publick Affection for this Kingdom: Theſe are Particulars in which the greateſt of my Predeceſſors have never ſurpaſſed, and the ableſt of thoſe who may ſucceed, can never go beyond, me. I ſhall return into the Royal Preſence with the deepeſt Impreſſion of your Conduct, charged and loaded with perſonal Obligation, and with publick Duty: And if I have not altogether failed in the arduous Office of a Repreſentative of his Majeſty, I ſhall not, I hope, be found deficient in the eaſy and acceptable Taſk of repreſenting, to the moſt gracious and beſt of Sovereigns, that unbounded Confidence, Zeal and Loyalty, which ſo juſtly intitle you to be ranked amongſt the moſt dutiful and affectionate of his Subjects.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 29th Day of June next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 29th Day of June next. Parliament prorogued.

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

IT is with the utmoſt Satisfaction, that, in obedience to his Majeſty's Commands, I am now to meet a Parliament, which has already given ſo many and ſuch very diſtinguiſhed Proofs of its Zeal and Unanimity in the Support and Service of the Crown.

I have it expreſsly in Command from his Majeſty, to declare to you his intire Approbation of your paſt Conduct, and to aſſure you, that the whole Courſe of your late Proceedings has filled his Royal Mind with every Sentiment of Regard which can flow from a juſt and gracious Sovereign, towards a dutiful and a loyal People.

It is with particular Satisfaction I communicate to you, at the Opening of this Seſſion of Parliament, thoſe great and important Events, which have occurred ſince your laſt Meeting.

By the Concluſion of a general Peace, the Tranquillity of every Part of Europe is perfectly re-eſtabliſhed; his Majeſty's Dominions are enlarged; the Commerce of his Subjects is extended, and you are at length relieved from thoſe Burdens which are unavoidable in the Progreſs even of the moſt ſucceſsful War.

Intereſted, as you are, in the Happineſs of ſo excellent a Sovereign, and ſenſible, as you have ever been, of the ineſtimable Publick Bleſſings which you have enjoyed under his illuſtrious Houſe, you will receive with Pleaſure the Information of the auſpicious Birth of the Prince of Wales, and of the further Increaſe of the Royal Family by the Birth of a ſecond Prince: Events which promiſe ſuch an Addition to his Majeſty's domeſtick Felicity, and ſuch a laſting Security to our happy Conſtitution.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the proper Officers to prepare the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates, that they may be laid in due time before you: You will obſerve, that although from the Exigencies of ſeveral extraordinary Services, the Expenſes of the two preceding Years have conſiderably exceeded what was uſual in times of Peace, yet they are fallen far ſhort of the Sums which were ſo liberally voted in the laſt Seſſion; a great Part of which ſtill remains unborrowed, his Majeſty having determined to make Uſe of the Credit given to his Government, in no other Proportion than as the Neceſſity of his Service exactly required. I conſider it as extremely fortunate, that I enter upon the Government of this Kingdom, at a time when the Situation of Publick Affairs will permit ſo very conſiderable a Diminution of the Publick Expenſe; and when I am commanded by his Majeſty to thank you only for your paſt Efforts, without again having Recourſe to the experienced Liberality of Parliament: I have nothing to aſk, but the Continuance of the Supplies for the Support of the ordinary Eſtabliſhments, which it is hoped will not exceed the Produce of the ordinary Revenue; and I recommend to you a proper Attention to the Reduction of the Publick Debt.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

NOT only my Duty, but my earneſt good Wiſhes for the Proſperity of Ireland, oblige me to take this Opportunity of mentioning to you the only unpleaſing Circumſtance which has occurred ſince my Entrance upon this Government: The tumultuous Riſings of the lower People, in Contempt of Laws and of Magiſtracy, and of every conſtitutional Subordination, muſt, if not duly attended to, be productive of the moſt fatal Conſequences: They are a Diſgrace to a Country of Liberty; they are ruinous to a Country of Commerce, and muſt be particularly fatal here, where the leaſt Check to the riſing Spirit of Induſtry is ſo very ſenſibly felt, and ſo very difficult to be retrieved. No Means can ſerve more effectually to prevent theſe Diſorders for the future, than the Encouragement of ſuch Inſtitutions as tend to impreſs on the Minds of the lower Order of People, early Habits of Induſtry, and true Principles of Religion: For this Purpoſe, your Proteſtant Charter-Schools were eſtabliſhed, to which I therefore recommend the Continuance of your Care, Encouragement and Support:

Support: Your Linen Manufacture demands, and will reward, every inſtance of Publick Attention: There is nothing which can more properly excite your future Endeavours, and nothing has more fully anſwered your former Expectations: This Manufacture has been at all times the favourite Object of Parliamentary Encouragement, and I ſhould be concerned that any National Advantage which has been cultivated under the Adminiſtration of my Predeceſſors, ſhould be neglected under mine. Be aſſured, you cannot take any Meaſures which will be more grateful to his Majeſty, or which I ſhall be more ſolicitous to forward, than thoſe which may in any reſpect advance the growing Proſperity of this very improveable Country: If therefore any of your Manufactures may be further extended; if any thing can be done towards exciting the Spirit or providing the Means of Induſtry; if any Improvements in Agriculture can be introduced upon wiſe and practicable Principles, and in every thing that tends to the Encouragement of Virtue, or the promoting of true Religion, you will have, towards the Attainment of thoſe Ends, not only my zealous Co-operation, but his Majeſty's ſteady and willing Protection. I come to this Government with the King's expreſs Commands, and my own very warm Inclination, to recommend and to ſupport ſuch Meaſures. His Majeſty has the firmeſt Reliance on your experienced Duty and Loyalty, on your unbiaſſed Regard to the Publick; and he doubts not that this Seſſion of Parliament will be carried on in a Manner ſuitable to your own Dignity, and to the Unanimity of your paſt Proceedings.

If the moſt inviolable Attachment to his Majeſty, and Zeal for his Service; if a firm Adherence to thoſe Principles, by which the Proteſtants of Ireland have ever been diſtinguiſhed, were Qualifications ſufficient for the Diſcharge of the high and arduous Truſt committed to my Hands, I might inſure to myſelf an Adminiſtration not unacceptable to Parliament: And I ſtill flatter myſelf, that as the only Ends I have in Purſuit are the King's Service and the Publick Welfare, I may obtain the only Rewards I have in View, his Majeſty's favourable Acceptance of my Services, and your intire Approbation of my Conduct.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table:

Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to aſſure his Majeſty, that his gracious Acceptance of our Duty and Zeal for his Service, cannot fail to excite in us freſh Vigour for his Support, and that the ſame invariable Sentiments of Duty and Affection which have influenced all our former Proceedings, ſhall be ſteadily directed to promote the Honour of his Majeſty's Reign, and the Safety and Proſperity of this Kingdom; and that we will, in all Events, maintain with unabated Zeal and unſhaken Fidelity, our Attachment to his Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

That amidſt the general Rejoicings of his Subjects, his Majeſty may permit us to take this earlieſt Occaſion of offering our Congratulations with Hearts animated by the warmeſt and moſt ſincere Joy, upon thoſe important Events which have occurred ſince our laſt Meeting; and gratefully to acknowledge it the Effect of his Majeſty's paternal Affection for this his People, under the DIVINE ASSISTANCE, that we are at length relieved from the Burdens of an expenſive, though neceſſary and ſucceſsful, War.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that, truly ſenſible as we are of the many and great Bleſſings we enjoy under ſo excellent a Sovereign, we cannot find Words to expreſs the Pleaſure we feel on every Increaſe of his Majeſty's Royal Family, and each new Source of his domeſtick Felicity, particularly on the auſpicious Birth of the Prince of Wales, and of a ſecond Prince, the Pledges and Security of our happy Conſtitution; who, inſtructed by his Royal Example, will have learned to rule a free, but loyal, People; and will become Guardians of thoſe Liberties, which, by his Precepts, they will have been taught to protect.

That we cannot have a ſtronger Aſſurance of his Majeſty's tender Concern for us, than in his Choice of his Excellency the Earl of Northumberland, to be the Governor of this Kingdom, whoſe diſcerning Judgment has pointed out what is neceſſary for our Conſideration and Care, and from whoſe Prudence, Integrity, Benevolence and Honour, we have every Reaſon to promiſe to ourſelves the full Enjoyment of thoſe Bleſſings, his Majeſty is graciouſly pleaſed to intend for us.

That being fully perſuaded, that the beſt and moſt effectual Method to recommend ourſelves to his Majeſty's Favour is, and ever will be, to promote the true Intereſt of his People; we will not neglect any Opportunity of encouraging ſuch Inſtitutions as may tend to impreſs on the Minds of the People, early Principles of Religion, and Inclinations to Induſtry, thoſe two great Sources of all national Happineſs; which, with the due Execution of the Laws, will, we hope, effectually prevent, for the future, ſuch tumultuous

Riſings

Riſings of the lower Order of People, ſo deſtructive of that Tranquillity and Peace, which our Duty and Gratitude to his Majeſty, as well as our Intereſt, muſt ever call upon us to preſerve.

That the Advancement of the Proteſtant Intereſt, that great Security to our Liberties, and the cultivating, to its utmoſt Extent, the Linen Manufacture, a Branch of Trade ſo valuable and ſo highly neceſſary to the Support of this Kingdom, deſerve, and ſhall employ, our moſt ſerious Attention: And that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's kind Promiſe to co-operate with us in all thoſe Meaſures which tend to advance the growing Proſperity of this Kingdom, muſt, under his Majeſty's Royal Protection and Favour, make us a flouriſhing and an happy People.

Further to beg Leave to aſſure his Majeſty, that we will ſhew our true and unbiaſſed Regard to the Publick Welfare, by that Unanimity in all our Proceedings, which manifeſtly conduces to the Peace and Safety of his Majeſty's Government, and is ſo eſſentially neceſſary to the Intereſt of Ireland.

Ordered, that the Earl of Kerry, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs of Thanks be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, for his Excellency's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament. Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

Ordered, that the Earl of Tyrone, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Lord Baltinglaſs introduced.

This Day John Stratford, Eſq; being by Letters Patents, dated the 21ſt Day of May, in the 3d Year of King George III. created Lord Baron of Baltinglaſs, was, in his Robes, introduced between the Lord Longford and the Lord Mount-Florence, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the ſaid Letters Patents preceding: His Lordſhip preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes, and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place at, the lower end of the Barons' Bench.

The Earl of Kerry reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that your gracious Acceptance of our Duty and Zeal for your Service, cannot fail to excite in us freſh Vigour for your Support; and that the ſame invariable Sentiments of Duty and Affection, which have influenced all our former Proceedings, ſhall be ſteadily directed to promote the Honour of your Majeſty's Reign, and the Safety and Proſperity of this Kingdom; and that we will, in all Events, maintain, with unabated Zeal and unſhaken Fidelity, our Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

The Earl of Tyrone reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency
HUGH Earl of NORTHUMBERLAND,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, attend your Excellency with the utmoſt Chearfulneſs, to return our Thanks for your Speech delivered from the Throne, and to congratulate your Excellency upon your joyful Arrival here, to take upon you the Government of this Kingdom.

We have expreſſed our warmeſt Gratitude to his Majeſty, for this Inſtance of his paternal Attention to our Welfare, and we aſſure your Excellency, that we conſider your eminent Virtues, your amiable Temper, and the extenſive Endowments of your Mind, the Gifts of Nature improved by wiſe Cultivation, as calculated calculated in an eſpecial Manner for the Ornament and the Benefit of Society, and moſt peculiarly adapted to the honourable and uſeful Diſcharge of the great Truſt, which his Majeſty has, happily for us, committed to your Hands.

It is our Duty to return our moſt ſincere Thanks to your Excellency, for communicating thoſe important and intereſting Events, which have occurred ſince the Cloſe of our laſt Seſſion of Parliament; and we can never fail to take our full Share in the general Joy upon every Acceſſion to the Honour of the Crown, to the Intereſts of Great Britain, and to their Majeſty's domeſtick Happineſs.

Your Excellency, by the moſt engaging Expreſſions, has raiſed in our Minds a Senſe of every Duty, and awakened every Attention which can contribute to our Security and Welfare; and if any Extenſion of our Commerce, any Improvements in our Manufactures, or in Agriculture, if Induſtry and Sobriety, if Peace and due Subordination among the People, if true Religion and Virtue, ſhould be the happy Reſults of the Endeavours we are determined to exert towards the Encouragement of theſe Principles and Habits; when we hereafter reap the Fruits of our Labours, we ſhall, with Pleaſure, reflect upon the Seaſon when the Seeds were ſown; and gratefully acknowledge the Debt we owe to your Excellency's Admonitions, your Influence, and your ſtill more prevailing Example.

It is not your Excellency's high Rank, not the Splendor of your Titles, nor the Greatneſs of your Poſſeſſions, which alone excite the publick Admiration, but thoſe Advantages accompanied by every valuable Endowment, and by every benevolent Diſpoſition of the Mind, ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed in your Excellency, muſt ever ſecure to you that Tribute of Reſpect and Affection, which is now ſo generally and ſo willingly paid.

We aſſure your Excellency, that we will ſteadily perſevere in that Courſe of Loyalty and dutiful Attachment to the beſt and moſt beloved of Kings, which his Majeſty has been ſo graciouſly pleaſed to approve: And as we have the firmeſt Reliance on your Excellency's kind Intentions towards us, we ſhall uſe every Means in our Power for the Support, Honour and Eaſe of an Adminiſtration, which already is ſo acceptable, and muſt prove ſo beneficial, to the Publick.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

Reſolved, that this Houſe will diſpenſe with the daily Attendance of all the Judges, and that two only be required to attend the Service of this Houſe, till further Order of this Houſe. Attendance of Judges diſpenſed with.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that in obedience to their Lordſhips' Order, he had waited upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he would pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency; and his Excellency was pleaſed to appoint this Day, at half an Hour after Two o'clock, at the Caſtle.

Adjourned till Four o'clock.

The Houſe met, according to Adjournment; and the Lord Chancellor reported, that the Houſe had attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with their humble Addreſs to be preſented to his Majeſty; and his Excellency was pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

Lord Lieutenant's Anſwers.

"I WILL forthwith tranſmit this dutiful "and loyal Addreſs to be laid before his "Majeſty."

The Lord Chancellor alſo reported, that the Houſe did at the ſame time preſent their Lordſhips' Addreſs to his Excellency, to which he was pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

"My Lords,

"I am extremely happy in the favourable "Opinion you are pleaſed to entertain and "expreſs of my Character and my Intentions. "My Conduct during my Adminiſtration, "will not, I hope, fall altogether ſhort of "thoſe very flattering Expectations; an ardent "Zeal for his Majeſty's Service, and an earneſt "Attention to the Publick Welfare, are the "Principles by which I ſhall be invariably "directed; and theſe, I know, cannot fail to "ſecure to me from your Lordſhips the moſt "favourable Conſtruction of my Actions, "and the moſt cordial Aſſiſtance in all my "Endeavours."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe, preſented this Day to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and his Excellency's Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

DISSENTIENT:

1. BECAUSE we conceive it to be ill-ſuited to the Dignity of this Houſe, to pronounce upon a Treaty which never was the Object of our Inquiry, as a Houſe of Parliament; nor ever came before us for that exact and particular Examination, which alone can give Weight, as we conceive, to an Opinion expreſſed in ſuch ample Terms of Approbation. Proteſt.

2. Becauſe we do not apprehend that at this time we are called upon to declare an Opinion concerning the late Peace, even though this Houſe were ſufficiently informed, and warranted to make ſuch Declaration.

3. Becauſe at the Opening of the Seſſion, the uſual Seaſon for declaring our Sentiments upon publick Events, and when we ſeemed particularly invited by the Speech from the Throne, to expreſs our Approbation of the late Peace, no ſuch Approbation was yet expreſſed by this Houſe: And therefore we deem it neceſſary to obſerve the ſame Conduct at preſent, in order to ſupport that Firmneſs and Conſiſtency ſo eſſential to the Dignity of this Houſe.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs of both Houſes to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to renew our unfeigned Profeſſions of the moſt zealous and affectionate Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, which we have been, upon all Occaſions, forward to expreſs, and we truſt, have been manifeſted by our Conduct.

We now think ourſelves, in a very particular Manner, called upon to make the moſt ſolemn and publick Declarations of our inviolable Duty and Attachment to your Majeſty, when the moſt infamous and flagitious Libels have been publiſhed and circulated through your Kingdoms, filled with the groſſeſt Inſults to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and royal Authority, violating every Rule of Decency, Order and Government, and tending to ſtir up, through all Ranks of your Majeſty's Subjects, a Spirit of Diſcontent and of Diſobedience to their Prince, the Laws and the Conſtitution.

As theſe audacious and outrageous Attempts have been deemed fitting Objects for the juſt and exemplary Cenſure of the Legiſlature of Great Britain, we think it cannot be unſeaſonable, and we hope it will not be unacceptable, to your Majeſty, that we alſo expreſs our utter Deteſtation and Abhorrence of ſuch inſolent and wicked Practices.

And we beg Leave, at the ſame time, humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that theſe Sentiments proceed not only from theſe Principles of Duty, by which we are bound as Subjects, but from the moſt cordial Affection and Reverence for thoſe reſpectable and amiable Virtues, which are the Objects of the Love and Admiration of all your People.

We therefore intreat your Majeſty, graciouſly to receive theſe Declarations from us; That we are fully ſenſible of the many and great Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign: That we are truly thankful to your Majeſty, for the honourable and advantageous Peace, which your Majeſty, through your great Wiſdom and paternal Concern for your Subjects, hath happily concluded for the Benefit of your Kingdoms; that it is our firm and unalterable Reſolution to ſupport the Dignity and Authority of your Majeſty's Government, whereſoever our Influence can extend, againſt all who ſhall preſume to diſturb it; and that it is our moſt ſincere and ardent Wiſh, that your Majeſty may reign through a long Courſe of Years bleſſed with the Increaſe of every publick and domeſtick Felicity, and ſupported by the unanimous Voice of all your Subjects.

To us, who by our Situation muſt be deprived of your Majeſty's immediate Influence, it is of the utmoſt Conſequence, that your Majeſty's royal Power ſhould be delegated to Perſons ſenſible of the Importance of that high Truſt, and by their Capacity, Probity and Moderation, fitted for the Execution of it: And we cannot omit this Occaſion of aſſuring your Majeſty, that the Rights and Dignity of the Crown can never be more faithfully maintained nor more honourably ſupported, nor the Adminiſtration of your Majeſty's Government carried on upon Principles more agreeable to the Conſtitution, nor in a Manner more intirely acceptable and ſatisfactory to the People, than by the Earl of Northumberland.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended with the Addreſs of both Houſes of Parliament to his Majeſty.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that in obedience to their Lordſhips' Order, he had waited on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to know what time he would pleaſe to appoint to be attended with the Addreſs of both Houſes of Parliament to his Majeſty; and he was pleaſed to appoint To-morrow at Three o'clock in the Afternoon, at the Caſtle.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant had received his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of both Houſes of Parliament of the 21^{ſt} of December laſt, which his Excellency directed him to lay before their Lordſhips, which he read, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

"GEORGE R.

King's Anſwer to Addreſs.

" HIS Majeſty has received, with the moſt " intire Satisfaction, the dutiful and loyal " Addreſs of the Lords and Commons of " Ireland, and aſſures them, that this very " diſtinguiſhing Proof of their Zeal, their " warm and affectionate Congratulations upon " the Re-eſtabliſhment of the Publick Tran- " quillity, upon Terms of Honour and Ad- " vantage to his Kingdoms, their Abhorrence " of that licentious Spirit, which tends alike " to the Subverſion of the Government, the " Laws and the Conſtitution; and their firm " Reſolution to exert themſelves, ſo far as " their Influence extends, in diſcouraging and " reſtraining it, are moſt peculiarly acceptable " to his Majeſty.

" Such a full and affectionate Declaration " of the Sentiments of the Parliament of " Ireland, of whoſe Fidelity his Majeſty has " always been intirely convinced, recommends " them moſt effectually to his Royal Favour " and Protection, upon which his Majeſty " aſſures them, that they may always depend.

" G. R."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of both Houſes of Parliament to his Majeſty of the 21^{ſt} of December laſt, and his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

Reſolution for Addreſs of Thanks to the King.

Reſolved, that an Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to return our moſt humble Thanks to his Majeſty, for his moſt gracious Anſwer to our late Addreſs:

And with the utmoſt Gratitude to acknowledge his Majeſty's Goodneſs in his favourable Acceptance of our ſincere Congratulations on the happy Re-eſtabliſhment of the Publick Tranquillity, and of our unfeigned Sentiments of Duty, Zeal and Affection for his Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government; and to aſſure his Majeſty, that we ſhall always endeavour to merit the Continuance of his Royal Favour and Protection, by our conſtant Attention to ſupport the Honour, Peace and Proſperity of his Government, on which our Happineſs, as a People, intirely depends.

The Journals of this Houſe of the 6th and 12th of December, 1715, were then, by Order, read.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Headfort, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come, are to have Voices therein.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Branden reported from the Lords' Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King. WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to offer our moſt humble and ſincere Congratulations to your your Majeſty on the happy Solemnization of the Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Auguſta, with his Serene Highneſs the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick-Lunenburgh.

Your Majeſty, by forming this ſtrict Alliance with that moſt illuſtrious Houſe, has given a freſh Proof of your Wiſdom and of your watchful Concern for the Liberties and the Proteſtant Intereſt of Europe; the eminent Services and moſt exalted Valour of his Serene Highneſs, in Support of that Cauſe, during the late glorious War, had in a peculiar Manner endeared his Perſon and Character to your Majeſty's Subjects of theſe Kingdoms: And although they muſt be affected with Concern on your Majeſty's being deprived of the Preſence of a Princeſs adorned with every valuable and amiable Accompliſhment, yet they muſt obſerve with Pleaſure and acknowledge with Gratitude, that thoſe Virtues and Services which have been the ſhining Objects of National Admiration, are thus highly conſidered by your Majeſty, and dignified by this moſt diſtinguiſhed and ineſtimable Reward.

We humbly intreat your Majeſty to accept our warmeſt Wiſhes, that this joyful Marriage may prove a fruitful Source of continued Felicity to your Majeſty and to the Princeſs, and of Strength to your Royal Houſe, and that it may be bleſſed with the ſame ſucceſsful and ſalutary Conſequences that have attended every other Meaſure which your Majeſty has ſo wiſely determined, and ſo ſteadily purſued through the Courſe of your moſt auſpicious and happy Reign.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty.

Upon reading the Order for the Day,

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon an ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for allowing further Time to Perſons in Offices or Employments to qualify themſelves, purſuant to an Act, intitled, An Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Committee, that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment; and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be now read a third time.

The Earl of Carrick, from the Lords' Committees appointed to inquire into the late tumultuous Risings in the Provinces of Munster and Ulster, &c. made the following Report, viz.

My Lords,

Report from Committee on tumultuous Risings.

THE Lords' Committees appointed to inquire into the late tumultuous Risings in the Provinces of Munster and Ulster, and to consider what Means are the most proper to prevent the same for the future, have met, and taken into Consideration the Matter to them referred, and have come to the following Resolutions, viz.

Resolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that there have been of late frequent tumultuous, riotous and treasonable Combinations and Insurrections of the lower People in different Parts of the Provinces of Munster and Ulster, in Defiance of the Laws, to the Terror of his Majesty's good Subjects, and the Disturbance of the publick Peace, with great Loss to the industrious Inhabitants, and and manifeſt Interruption to the Trade and Manufactures of this Kingdom; and who have alſo, by wicked and unlawful Threats and Menaces, attempted to invade the private Rights and Properties by Law veſted in their Fellow-Subjects; and by unjuſt and criminal Oaths to engage others in their traitorous Purpoſes, in Deſtruction of the Authority of Magiſtracy, and every legal and conſtitutional Subordination.

Reſolved, that it appears to this Committee, that the Offences mentioned in their former Reſolution, cannot be rendered more highly criminal, or the Offenders liable to ſeverer Puniſhment by any new Law, than by Laws now in Force; and that the Judges, who were intruſted with the Commiſſion for the Trials of thoſe who were indicted for theſe Offences, have executed the ſame with Honour to themſelves and to the Publick Service: Notwithſtanding which, your Committee have reaſon to apprehend the like ſeditious and traitorous Diſpoſitions have been endeavoured to be kept up amongſt ignorant and deluded People, by wicked and falſe Inſinuations of being favoured and protected from the Rigour of the Law.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that it would greatly tend to the quieting the Minds of the People, the ſtrengthening the Power of the Magiſtrate, and preventing the like Diſorders for the future, if the Senſe of Parliament were declared to the People, and that it would be a ſeaſonable and effectual Precaution to thoſe who may have been deluded by falſe and groundleſs Suggeſtions, if they were made to underſtand, that the Government and each Part of the Ligiſlature, have an equal Abhorrence of theſe outrageous and treaſonable Offences; and are alike determined upon a ſteady Exertion of their whole and united Authority in ſuppreſſing of them.

To which Reſolutions, the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Report and Reſolutions, and lay the ſame before his Excellency.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by the Right Hon. Mr. Forteſcue and others, with the Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, ſent up by their Houſe, and to acquaint this Houſe, that they have agreed to the Amendments made by their Lordſhips; which Addreſs is as follows, viz.

To his Excellency
HUGH Earl of NORTHUMBERLAND,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs of both Houſes to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, having ſeen with the moſt ſenſible Concern the many Diſorders and Outrages that have been committed in many different Parts of this Kingdom, in Defiance of the Laws and Violation of the Publick Peace; think ourſelves called upon by the Duty we owe to the King, by the Reſpect we bear to your Excellency, and by our anxious Regard for the Welfare of our Country, humbly to ſubmit to your Excellency's Conſideration our Apprehenſions and Sentiments upon thoſe alarming Appearances.

Had thoſe Grievances (the pretended Occaſions of the late Inſurrections) been found to have a real Exiſtence, yet the violent and tumultuary Attempts for redreſſing them would not have been, in the Eye of the Law, leſs criminal, and would even, in that Caſe, have been what they now undoubtedly are, Treaſon againſt the State.

But when no Traces of Oppreſſion can be ſeen, we can only impute theſe Diſorders to the artful Contrivances of deſigning Men, who from ſelfiſh and intereſted Views have ſpread this licentious Spirit among the People, and raiſed in their Minds a reſtleſs and turbulent Impatience of every legal and conſtitutional Obligation.

And we muſt confeſs it to be a melancholy Reflection in a State, the Foundation and the Pride of which is Civil Liberty, no Invaſion whereof can with any Colour be pretended, by theſe Diſturbers of the Publick Repoſe, that it became neceſſary to call in the Military Power in Aid of the Civil; without which Interpoſition, the rapid Progreſs of theſe Diſorders could not, upon ſome late Occaſions, have been ſo effectually withſtood.

When we offer theſe Conſiderations to your Excellency, we have the firmeſt Perſuaſion and Confidence, that his Majeſty has always made, and ever will make, the Laws of all his Kingdoms, framed equally for the Support of his Royal Authority and for the Maintenance of the Liberties of his Subjects, the invariable Rule of his Government, and that it is his gracious Intention, that all Ranks and Orders of Men ſhould enjoy, without Diſturbance or Moleſtation, and be protected in the Poſſeſſion of thoſe Rights and Privileges allotted to them by the Laws and the Conſtitution: Whoſoever exceeds thoſe Bounds, can lay no Claim to that Protection.

Nor

Nor have we the leaſt Doubt, but that your Excellency's Zeal for his Majeſty's Service, and your ſincere Concern for the Welfare of this Country, in which you are ſo juſtly eſteemed and honoured, will always incline your Excellency to uſe the moſt proper as well as the moſt effectual Means for removing theſe Miſchiefs and this Scandal from us.

And as we are convinced alſo, that your Excellency will never direct the Power with which you are ſo deſervedly veſted, but to ſuch wiſe and ſalutary Purpoſes, we do on our Parts, in this publick and ſolemn Manner, aſſure your Excellency of our firm Determination to exert our moſt ſtrenuous and conſtant Endeavours in the Support of your Excellency's Authority towards maintaining Peace and good Order through the Country, the encouraging Activity in the Magiſtracy, the giving Vigour to the Laws, and for the general Preſervation of the Civil and Religious Conſtitution.

And we cannot but entertain ſtrong Hopes, that your Excellency's clear Diſcernment and Steadineſs, your Humanity and Temper, together with this ſolemn and publick Declaration of our full Conviction of the Neceſſity of putting a Stop to theſe Evils, and a Conduct in us conformable to this Conviction, may produce this happy Effect in no long Courſe of Time: And as we rely on the moſt prudent and vigorous Exertion of your Excellency's Authority for this neceſſary End, ſo we truſt, that the People, thus warned of the Weakneſs as well as Wickedneſs of their former Attempts, will not be again miſled by falſe and groundleſs Suggeſtions, that they will be brought to ſee the fatal Tendency of their late blind and deſperate Conduct; and to acknowledge, that the Authority of that Government and thoſe Laws which they have contemned and defied, can be the only Means of ſecuring them againſt Poverty and Ruin, and of preventing the utter Subverſion of thoſe Liberties which have been made the ſpecious Pretence of theſe wild and unjuſtifiable Outrages.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know what Time he will pleaſe to appoint to be attended with the Addreſs of both Houſes of Parliament to his Excellency.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant had received his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe of the 27th of January laſt, which his Excellency directed him to lay before their Lordſhips, which he read; and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

"GEORGE R.

" HIS Majeſty thanks the Houſe of Lords, King's Anſwer to Addreſs.
" for their dutiful and loyal Addreſs, and re" ceives with Pleaſure their affectionate Con-
" gratulations on the Marriage of his Ma-
" jeſty's Siſter the Princeſs Auguſta with the " Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick-Lunenburg.
" Their zealous Wiſhes, that this happy Alli" ance may be attended by every Bleſſing, and
" the Satisfaction which they expreſs in the " Meaſures purſued by his Majeſty, ſince his
" Acceſſion to the Throne, are very agreeable
" to his Majeſty, and they may always depend " upon his Royal Favour and Protection.

" G. R."

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.
The Houſe was reſumed.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that in obedience to their Lordſhips' Order, he had waited upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to know what Time he would pleaſe to appoint to be attended with the Addreſs of both Houſes of Parliament to his Excellency; and he was pleaſed to appoint this Day, at Four o'clock, at the Caſtle.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Tunnadine and Mr. Auſtin, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that the Lords, having ſent to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant to know what Time he would pleaſe to appoint to be attended with the Addreſs of both Houſes to his Excellency, he has been pleaſed to appoint this Day, at Four o'clock, at the Caſtle; and their Lordſhips do intend to be there at that time.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe of the 27th of January laſt, and his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

Report from Committee on Firſt-Fruits.

The Earl of Charlemont reported from the Lords' Committees appointed to take into Conſideration the ſeveral Accounts laid before the Houſe by the Officers of the Board of Firſt-Fruits, and alſo the Accounts of the late Primate Boulter's Effects and Bequeſts to charitable Uſes, and of any other Fund under the Direction of the ſaid Board of Firſt-Fruits; that they have come to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Rules laid down in the Report of the Committee of the Board of Firſt-Fruits of the 24th of February, 1763, are excellently well calculated for the Benefit of this Charity, and reflect the higheſt Honour on thoſe who framed them.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that a ſtrict Adherence to the Regulations contained in the aforeſaid Report, will be greatly beneficial to this Charity.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that it will be highly advantageous to this Charity, that the Proceedings of the Board ſhould be annually printed.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the frequent Holding of Boards, is indiſpenſably neceſſary for the proper Regulation of this Charity.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that it would greatly tend to the expediting of Buſineſs, if the Act of the 10th of George I. was to be amended in ſuch Manner, as that any Seven of the Truſtees ſhould be a Quorum ſufficient to execute the Buſineſs of the Board.

To the firſt, ſecond, third and fourth Reſolutions, the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree.

My Lords,

Report on temporary Statutes.

IN obedience to your Lordſhips' Order of the 17th of November laſt, whereby the Judges were directed to inquire what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, the Judges, upon Inquiry, find:

An Act paſſed in the 3d Year of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for the Diſcovery of Judgments ni the Courts of King's-Bench, Common-Pleas and Exchequer at Dublin, and for the greater Security of Purchaſers, and which ſaid Act has been continued by ſeveral Acts of Parliament, but is now near expiring.

An Act paſſed in the 15th Year of his late Majeſty King George II's Reign, intitled, An Act for the more effectual ſecuring the Payment of Rents and preventing Frauds by Tenants, which by an Act paſſed in the 29th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty, was continued for four Years, from the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, after the Expiration of the ſaid Term of four Years.

An Act paſſed in the 25th Year of his late Majeſty King George II's Reign, intitled, An Act for the more effectual Execution of Orders of Courts of Juſtice for giving and quieting Poſſeſſions, and alſo for the more effectual bringing to Juſtice ſuch Perſons as ſhall inliſt his Majeſty's Subjects to ſerve as Soldiers in foreign Service without Licenſe, and which ſaid Act was by an Act made in the 31ſt Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty continued in Force for ſeven Years, from the 1ſt Day of June, 1758, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the foregoing Report ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to a ſelect Committee, and that the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be the ſaid Committee; and that all the Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, ſhall have Voices therein; and two of the Judges to aſſiſt.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Petition of E. Deevy, &c.

A Petition of Edmond Deevy, Patrick Caſey, Thady Whelan and Daniel Wholahan, now confined in Newgate, by order of this moſt Hon. Houſe:

Moſt humbly ſhewing, that the Petitioners have been cloſe confined in Newgate ſince the 13th Day of March laſt, (Part of the time in Irons) for having unfortunately incurred the Diſpleaſure of this moſt Hon. Houſe.

That while the Petitioners remained thus confined, Bills of Indictment were preferred to the Grand-Jury at the laſt Aſſizes for the County of Kildare, and were found againſt them, for the ſame Offence for which their Lordſhips committed the Petitioners, whereby they were diſabled from making a proper Defence, and are expoſed to inevitable Ruin.

That the Petitioners are heartily ſorry for having incurred the Diſpleaſure of this moſt Hon. Houſe, and with the greateſt Humility, beg their Lordſhips' Pardon, beſeeching their Lordſhips to releaſe them from their loathſome Confinement (without Fees;) was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Ordered, that the Keeper of his Majeſty's Gaol of Newgate do attend at the Bar of this Houſe To-morrow Morning at Twelve o'clock.

To his Excellency
HUGH Earl of NORTHUMBERLAND,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled, with Hearts full of Affection, Eſteem and Gratitude, attend your Excellency to congratulate you on the approaching happy Concluſion of a Seſſion of Parliament, in which the valuable and important Ends of his Majeſty's Service, your Excellency's Honour, the Publick Good, and the general Satisfaction of the People, have been on our Parts warmly, ſteadily, and we hope not unſucceſsfully, purſued.

We muſt, at the ſame time, acknowledge and declare, how uniformly and how effectually our Endeavours have been encouraged and aſſiſted by the Wiſdom and Prudence, the Juſtice and Humanity, ſo conſpicuous in every Part of your Excellency's Adminiſtration, and in every Article of your Conduct.

Under your Excellency's happy Influence and temperate Government, the Rights of the Crown have been aſſerted with Firmneſs, and maintained with Dignity; Conſtitutional Liberty has been preſerved inviolably; Diſorder, Tumult and Licentiouſneſs have been ſuppreſſed, and the People are beginning to underſtand, that their Trade and Manufactures cannot flouriſh; nor their Proſperity, nor even their Freedom, long ſubſiſt, but by keeping the ſeveral Subordinations in the State unbroken, and by a Submiſſion to legal Authority.

Such ſalutary and viſible Effects of a wiſe and honeſt Adminiſtration, together with the many uſeful Bills, now almoſt ready to receive the Royal Aſſent, will remain laſting Memorials of his Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs, and of your Excellency's watchful Concern and powerful Interpoſition, in every Inſtance where the Intereſt and Happineſs of this Kingdom could be affected.

From theſe general and principal Cares of Government, your Excellency's Attention has never been withdrawn: Yet it has not been confined to them; you have found room for the Exerciſe of other Virtues; the becoming Splendour and exemplary Decency which have adorned your Publick Character; your judicious and munificent Protection of every national Improvement, and your compaſſionate and extenſive Liberalities to the Indigent and Diſtreſſed, diſpenſed through different Parts of the Kingdom, are evident Proofs of the Goodneſs as well as Greatneſs of your Mind, and of your conſtant Deſire to imitate, in every thing, the Pattern of that excellent and amiable Prince, whom you ſo juſtly and ſo worthily repreſent.

Your Excellency is already poſſeſſed, of what we are ſure you conſider, as the moſt acceptable Return, the Affections and the Hearts of a whole People, by whom your Name will be held dear, even when they ſhall be unhappily deprived of the Benefits of your Influence.

But that Time, we promiſe ourſelves, is yet at a great Diſtance. For through our Confidence in his Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs, and from the candid and kind Repreſentation which your Excellency, we are aſſured, will make to his Majeſty of our inviolable Duty and Attachment to his Royal Perſon and Service, and of the general Demeanour and Diſpoſition of the People of Ireland, we have ſtrong Hopes that his Majeſty will be graciouſly inclined to believe that his Subjects here are not inſenſible of the Benefits of a juſt and indulgent Government, and that it will therefore be his royal Pleaſure to give a long Continuance to an Adminiſtration, by which which the Authority of the Crown will ſurely be maintained, with Dignity and Stability, Harmony and good Agreement: Induſtry and Tranquillity will be preſerved among the People, and which we are thoroughly perſuaded is the ſincere, ardent and unanimous Wiſh of his Majeſty's Subjects of every Rank and Denomination throughout this Kingdom.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Excellency.

Ordered, that Charles Walker, Eſq; one of the Maſters in Chancery attending this Houſe, ſhall have Leave to attend the Committee of Privileges of the Houſe of Commons, on behalf of Richard Barry, Eſq; Adjourned till Monday Morning next, at Eleven o'clock.

The Lord Biſhop of Waterford, from the Lords' Committees appointed to take into Conſideration the ſeveral Charities and charitable Donations in this Kingdom, made the following Report:

My Lords,

Report from Committee on Charities. THE Lords' Committees appointed to take into Conſideration the ſeveral Charities and charitable Donations in this Kingdom, have met, purſuant to Order, and beg Leave to acquaint your Lordſhips, that they have received many Informations on Oath, and otherwiſe, of ſeveral charitable Donations that remain unapplied in the Hands of Truſtees and others, to the Prejudice of the Publick, and contrary to the Intentions of the reſpective Donors, which Particulars are ſet forth in the Schedule annexed to this their Report.

That the approaching Cloſe of the Seſſion will prevent further Proceedings at this Time; but from this Report, your Committee have Reaſon to expect that well-diſpoſed Perſons will be induced to carry theſe neglected Charities into Execution, and give Occaſion for more effectual Proceedings in a future Seſſion of Parliament.

Your Committee find, that the late Mr. Knight charged his Eſtate with a Rent-charge of £31 : 5*s*. 9*d*. a Year for the Poor of the Pariſh of St. Peter's, Dublin, and alſo two hundred Shillings to be diſtributed to poor Proteſtants on the 4th Day of November yearly, on each of which there are ſix Years Arrears, amounting to about £252 : 14*s*. 6*d*.

Your Committee alſo find, that Dr. Nicholas Forſter, late Lord Biſhop of Raphoe, bequeathed a Sum of £1040 to be laid out in the Purchaſe of Lands for charitable Uſes, which has never been paid, the Intereſt of which now amounts to near £900.

Your Committee alſo find, that the late General Conyngham granted ſeveral Lands to Truſtees for charitable Uſes, which have never been applied, nor does it as yet appear to us, what the Income thereof is.

Your Committee further find, that Alderman Chriſtopher Crofts bequeathed £20 to the Poor of the Pariſh of St. Mary Shandon, Cork, and that Alderman Joſeph Franklin bequeathed £1 : 10*s*. a Year to the ſaid Pariſh.

Your Committee further find, that Doctor John Sterne, late Lord Biſhop of Clogher, bequeathed a Sum of £2000, to be laid out and become a ſtanding Fund for buying Glebes and purchaſing impropriate Tythes, for the Uſe and Benefit of the Church of Ireland as by Law eſtabliſhed, and alſo for apprenticing Children of Clergymen £100 yearly; and £600 towards ſupporting a Mad-Houſe, intended to be endowed by Dr. Swift, upon Contingency, which if not to happen, he then bequeathed ſaid £600 to be diſpoſed of to other charitable Uſes.

Your Committee further find, that Sir Caldwell bequeathed an annual Sum of £25 Sterl. towards building and keeping in Repair a Chapel of Eaſe in the Pariſh of Templecarn in the Dioceſe of Clogher, and for contributing towards the Maintenance of the Curate who ſhould officiate therein; and alſo that Sir James Caldwell bequeathed a Sum of £100 towards finiſhing ſaid Chapel, and directed his Truſtees ſhould yearly pay a Sum of £30, £20 whereof to be paid to ſome Clergyman who ſhould officiate there, and ten Pounds for Repairs; and if any Part thereof ſhould remain, to be diſtributed among the Poor of ſaid Pariſh.

Your

Your Committee further find, that Henry Richardſon, late of Ballykleran, bequeathed £100, the Intereſt whereof he directed to be applied towards the ſchooling of poor Children of the Pariſh of Tihallan and Dioceſe of Clogher.

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz. "Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

AS the advanced Seaſon of the Year and the Concluſion of the publick Buſineſs, muſt make you deſirous of returning to your reſpective Countries, I can with the moſt intire Satisfaction put an End to this Seſſion of Parliament, in which your ſtrong Profeſſions of Duty and Affection to his Majeſty have been amply and moſt honourably fulfilled.

Your ſteady Attention to his Majeſty's Service, and to the Welfare of his People, has enabled me to carry on the Buſineſs intruſted to me, with the utmoſt Eaſe and Satisfaction to myſelf; and I have no Doubt, that as you will receive juſt Honour and Credit, ſo the Kingdom in general will reap ſubſtantial and permanent Advantages from your Conduct, which has anſwered my moſt ſanguine Expectations, and engaged my warmeſt Gratitude.

But I ſpeak with the greater Confidence, as I have his Majeſty's repeated Commands to thank thank you in his Name for the happy Temper you have preſerved in your Deliberations; for the reſpectful and affectionate Concern you have manifeſted for the Honour of the Crown; the loyal and dutiful Attachment you have ſhewn to his Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and the grateful Senſe you have expreſſed of thoſe wiſe and ſalutary Meaſures, which have terminated in an honourable, advantageous, and we may hope, a laſting Peace.

Your Firmneſs and Reſolution, in declaring your equal Regard for our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, and your ſtrong and explicit Aſſertion of thoſe Principles of true Liberty and ſound Policy, upon which it is founded; and your impartial Care in ſecuring the legal Rights and Properties of all Orders of Men in the Nation, are particularly acceptable to his Majeſty, as a clear and moſt agreeable Proof of your hearty Zeal for the Honour and juſt Prerogative of his Crown.

But his Majeſty's experienced Regard for the Happineſs and Welfare of all his Subjects, and the peculiar Delight he takes in the Affections and Confidence of a free People, muſt give you a ſtronger Aſſurance, than Words can convey, that you have intitled yourſelves to the certain Returns of his Royal Favour; and that while this Behaviour is preſerved on your Parts, you may depend upon all poſſible Countenance and Protection from a King, whoſe Happineſs is known to be ſo eſſentially connected with that of his People.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I am to return his Majeſty's Thanks to you, particularly, for the neceſſary Proviſions ſo chearfully made by you for the Support of his Government. You have ſhewn your Care for the Publick, by the reducing the Intereſt, which tends gradually to the Reduction of the Principal, of the National Debt: And you may be aſſured, that the Confidence you have placed in me for raiſing a Sum of Money to ſupply any Deficiency in the Funds granted by you, ſhall not be employed, unleſs the Neceſſity ſhall be apparent, as you have already experienced in the like Circumſtances under the two preceding Adminiſtrations.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I HAVE nothing to recommend to you, but that when you return to your ſeveral Countries, you will uſe your utmoſt Endeavours and Influence to inculcate and cultivate among your Conſtituents and Dependants, the ſame Loyalty and Affection for the King, the ſame religious Attention to the Laws and Conſtitution of your Country, the ſame Regard for the Rights and Properties of all Parts and Members of the Community, that you have ſhewn to be the ruling Principles of your own Conduct, during your Attendance in Parliament. By reminding them of his Majeſty's determined Reſolution, to maintain the happy Conſtitution they have ſo long enjoyed, you will engage them to reſt ſecure in a well-grounded Confidence in his Royal Protection, and never to ſuffer miſtaken Apprehenſions of Grievances, or cauſeleſs Jealouſies to interrupt that Tranquillity and good Order which is the Fountain of all political Happineſs, the Source and Support of all Induſtry, Commerce and National Improvement, and is alſo the conſtant, uniform Object of the beſt of Kings.

I know not how to expreſs myſelf in Return for the moſt obliging and honourable Teſtimonies of your Approbation of my Conduct, contained in the Addreſſes from both Houſes of Parliament, nor for the Behaviour of the Nation, in general, towards me, during my Reſidence amongſt you.

The Succeſs of my Adminiſtration is ſtill the more pleaſing to me, as I can aſcribe it to the Fidelity and Probity of his Majeſty's Subjects here, in which I placed a Confidence that, I find, has not deceived me. This will confirm the ſtrong Repreſentation I ſhall certainly make to his Majeſty, on my Return into the Royal Preſence, of your loyal and affectionate Zeal for his Service.

I ſhall be the more ſparing in my Profeſſions to you, as I have ſo much Reaſon to hope you are already convinced, that I hold myſelf bound, by every Obligation, to exert my beſt Endeavours to ſupport and promote your Welfare; and that no practicable Plan for the Service of Ireland, will ever be declined or neglected by me, in whatever Situation I may be placed; but none can be more agreeable to me, than that in which I have now the Honour of being employed by his Majeſty, and in which I have found ſuch a Support from a loyal and affectionate People, in the Service of a moſt gracious King.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Thurſday the 21ſt Day of June next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thurſday the 21ſt Day of June next. Parliament prorogued.

of Commons, and acquaint the Commons, that it is his Excellency's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter. And the Commons being come, they, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech. I AM honoured with his Majeſty's Commands to meet you in Parliament, and embrace with ſingular Satisfaction this Opportunity of concurring with you in promoting his Majeſty's moſt gracious and cordial Intentions for the Proſperity of this his Kingdom of Ireland.

Long and perſonal Experience have raiſed in my Mind the moſt honourable Sentiments of your Zeal and Affection for his Majeſty's Service, and of your ſerious Attention to the Welfare of your Country; and conſcious that theſe will be the ſole Objects of my Conduct, I reſt aſſured, that this Seſſion of Parliament will be eminently diſtinguiſhed by our laudable Emulation, how beſt to be informed of the Means, and moſt effectually to carry them into Execution: This will prove the moſt acceptable Service to his Majeſty; and Unanimity in your Proceedings beſt expreſs your Senſe of the Happineſs enjoyed under the Government you are ſupporting, and your Gratitude for his Majeſty's paternal Care and Protection of his People.

In this Light, his Majeſty has moſt graciouſly accepted, and highly approved of, your paſt Conduct; and by your Perſeverance in theſe Principles, the future Felicity of this Kingdom will be eſtabliſhed.

Intereſted, as we are, in the domeſtick Happineſs of our moſt amiable Sovereign, and the Stability of his moſt illuſtrious Houſe, you will receive with Pleaſure, Information of the Increaſe of his Royal Family, by the auſpicious Birth of another Prince, deſcended from him.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the proper Officers to prepare the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates to be laid before you, and doubt not but you will find that your Supplies have been properly applied to the Publick Services. His Majeſty is well pleaſed, that thoſe Services have been anſwered, without making Uſe of the confidential Credit which his Majeſty conſidered as your wiſe Precaution againſt Caſes of Neceſſity.

As I have nothing in Command to aſk but the uſual Supplies, I am confident you will eſteem it your Duty and Intereſt that his Majeſty's Eſtabliſhments be ſupported with Honour.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

TIMES of Peace are the Seaſons to deliberate on the Means to render the natural Advantages of this Country moſt beneficial to the Inhabitants, and to increaſe national Wealth, by the Employment of the People: Policy directs where the Country admits of it, the Choice of ſome principal Object of Induſtry, as the Staple of Commerce; the Linen Manufacture, in its ſeveral Branches, is evidently That Object in Ireland. The Produce ſhews its Conſequence: Your Care will be to aſſiſt the Progreſs, and by prudent Laws to guard againſt private Frauds, which prevent the Conſumption, and will deſtroy the Credit of this Commodity at foreign Markets. It would be highly pleaſing to me, were my Adminiſtration marked by any uſeful Services to this moſt valuable Trade.

When our Thoughts are turned to promote Induſtry in the People, we ſhould remember how neceſſary religious Principles and virtuous Education are to obtain that End: The Charter-Schools were firſt inſtituted for thoſe Purpoſes. You have repeatedly given them Parliamentary Aſſiſtance: Your Experience therefore of their Utility, will induce you to continue them under your Protection. Other Particulars muſt be left to your Wiſdom, with this Aſſurance, that Duty and the warmeſt Zeal will ever engage my vigilant Attention to prevent what may tend to the Prejudice, and to forward every Meaſure for the Peace, Safety and Proſperity of Ireland.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table:

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King. Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to return his Majeſty our unfeigned Thanks for the repeated Aſſurances we have received from the Throne of his Majeſty's moſt gracious Intentions for the Welfare and Proſperity of this Kingdom, the cordial Sincerity of which has been fully demonſtrated by many ſingular Proofs of his Royal Goodneſs.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that being truly ſenſible of the ineſtimable Bleſſings of our happy Conſtitution, framed in every reſpect for the Benefit

Benefit of the People, we eſteem it our indiſpenſable Duty to acknowledge, with the utmoſt Thankfulneſs, that it is in every Part moſt religiouſly maintained, inforced and ſupported by the Wiſdom of his Majeſty's Councils, and the Clemency of his excellent Government.

With the moſt devoted Attachment to his Majeſty, and his Royal Houſe, to beg Leave to congratulate with his Majeſty's loyal and affectionate Subjects, on the auſpicious Birth of another Prince, deſcended from his Majeſty, rejoicing in this Acceſſion of Strength to his moſt illuſtrious Houſe, on the Stability of which the Happineſs of theſe his Majeſty's Kingdoms, and the Liberties of Europe (under God) depend.

To declare, at this Conjuncture; that we are particularly called upon, moſt gratefully to acknowledge his Majeſty's tender Concern for us in the Choice of his Excellency the Earl of Hertford to the Government of this Kingdom, from whoſe Knowledge of thoſe Connections, by which the real Intereſts of Great Britain and Ireland are inſeparably united, and his long experienced Attention to the particular Intereſts of this Kingdom, we have the moſt pleaſing Expectations of our full Enjoyment of thoſe Bleſſings, moſt graciouſly intended for us by his Majeſty, which can only reſult from a wiſe and confidential Adminiſtration.

To requeſt that our moſt gracious Sovereign will be pleaſed to accept of our faithful Aſſurances, that we will chearfully concur with his Excellency the Earl of Hertford in every Meaſure which may moſt effectually contribute to the Increaſe of Manufactures and Commerce, to the promoting of Induſtry, Virtue and true Religion.

That theſe ſhall be the important Objects of our Deliberations, which we ſhall not fail to purſue with Attention and Diſpatch, with Harmony, Unanimity and warmeſt Zeal for the Publick Good, the ſureſt Means of preſerving the Continuance of his Majeſty's Approbation, which we ſhall always eſteem our higheſt Reward.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Jocelyn, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

The Lord Viſc. Jocelyn reported from the Lords' Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled, return your Majeſty our unfeigned Thanks for the repeated Aſſurances we have received from the Throne of your Majeſty's moſt gracious Intentions for the Welfare and Proſperity of this Kingdom: The cordial Sincerity of which has been fully demonſtrated by many ſingular Proofs of your royal Goodneſs,

Truly ſenſible of the ineſtimable Bleſſings of our happy Conſtitution, framed in every reſpect for the Benefit of the People, we eſteem it our indiſpenſable Duty to acknowledge with the utmoſt Thankfulneſs, that it is in every Part moſt religiouſly maintained, inforced and ſupported, by the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, and the Clemency of your excellent Government.

With the moſt devoted Attachment to your Majeſty and your Royal Houſe, we beg Leave to congratulate with your Majeſty's loyal and affectionate Subjects on the auſpicious Birth of another Prince, deſcended from your Majeſty, rejoicing in this Acceſſion of Strength to your moſt illuſtrious Houſe, on the Stability of which the Happineſs of theſe your Majeſty's Kingdoms, and the Liberties of Europe (under GOD) depend.

At this Conjuncture we are particularly called upon, moſt gratefully to acknowledge your Majeſty's tender Concern for us, in the Choice of his Excellency the Earl of Hertford to the Government of this Kingdom, from whoſe Knowledge of thoſe Connections by which the real Intereſts of Great Britain and Ireland are inſeparably united, and his long experienced Attention to the particular Intereſts of this Kingdom, we have the moſt pleaſing Expectations of our full Enjoyment of thoſe Bleſſings, moſt graciouſly intended for us by your Majeſty, which can only reſult from a wiſe and confidential Adminiſtration.

Be pleaſed, moſt gracious Sovereign, to accept of our faithful Aſſurances, that we will chearfully concur with his Excellency the Earl of Hertford, in every Meaſure which may moſt effectually contribute to the Increaſe of Manufactures and Commerce, to the promoting of Induſtry, Virtue and true Religion.

Theſe ſhall be the important Objects of our Deliberations, which we ſhall not fail to purſue with Attention and Diſpatch, with Harmony, Unanimity, and warmeſt Zeal for the Publick Good; the ſureſt Means of preſerving the Continuance of your Majeſty's Approbation, which we ſhall always eſteem our higheſt Reward.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

The Lord Viſc. Mountmorres reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an

Benefit of the People, we eſteem it our indiſpenſable Duty to acknowledge, with the utmoſt Thankfulneſs, that it is in every Part moſt religiouſly maintained, inforced and ſupported by the Wiſdom of his Majeſty's Councils, and the Clemency of his excellent Government.

With the moſt devoted Attachment to his Majeſty, and his Royal Houſe, to beg Leave to congratulate with his Majeſty's loyal and affectionate Subjects, on the auſpicious Birth of another Prince, deſcended from his Majeſty, rejoicing in this Acceſſion of Strength to his moſt illuſtrious Houſe, on the Stability of which the Happineſs of theſe his Majeſty's Kingdoms, and the Liberties of Europe (under God) depend.

To declare, at this Conjuncture; that we are particularly called upon, moſt gratefully to acknowledge his Majeſty's tender Concern for us in the Choice of his Excellency the Earl of Hertford to the Government of this Kingdom, from whoſe Knowledge of thoſe Connections, by which the real Intereſts of Great Britain and Ireland are inſeparably united, and his long experienced Attention to the particular Intereſts of this Kingdom, we have the moſt pleaſing Expectations of our full Enjoyment of thoſe Bleſſings, moſt graciouſly intended for us by his Majeſty, which can only reſult from a wiſe and confidential Adminiſtration.

To requeſt that our moſt gracious Sovereign will be pleaſed to accept of our faithful Aſſurances, that we will chearfully concur with his Excellency the Earl of Hertford in every Meaſure which may moſt effectually contribute to the Increaſe of Manufactures and Commerce, to the promoting of Induſtry, Virtue and true Religion.

That theſe ſhall be the important Objects of our Deliberations, which we ſhall not fail to purſue with Attention and Diſpatch, with Harmony, Unanimity and warmeſt Zeal for the Publick Good, the ſureſt Means of preſerving the Continuance of his Majeſty's Approbation, which we ſhall always eſteem our higheſt Reward.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Jocelyn, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency
FRANCIS-SEYMOUR Earl of HERTFORD,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to L^d Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return your Excellency our moſt ſincere Thanks, for your Speech to both Houſes of Parliament.

We eſteem ourſelves under the higheſt Obligations to your Excellency, for the ſingular Satisfaction you have expreſſed in this Opportunity of concurring with us in promoting his Majeſty's moſt gracious Intentions for the Proſperity of this Kingdom.

Your Excellency's great Abilities, which have received the ſtrongeſt Approbation from the important Truſts repoſed in you by our wiſe Sovereign, and the long Experience we have had of your Knowledge in what relates to the real Intereſts of this Kingdom, with your powerful and ready Aſſiſtance in Support of them, give us an enlarged Proſpect of enjoying the utmoſt Benefit which can reſult from a well-informed, benevolent Adminiſtration.

Theſe juſt Expectations call upon us again to expreſs, with the ſincereſt Duty and Gratitude, our ſtrong Senſe of his Majeſty's Wiſdom and peculiar Attention to the Happineſs of his moſt loyal and affectionate Subjects of Ireland, in having committed the Government of them to your Care.

We are moſt thankful to your Excellency, for your joyful Information of the Increaſe of domeſtick Happineſs to our moſt amiable Sovereign, and the added Stability to his illuſtrious Houſe, by the Birth of another Prince, deſcended from him, with whom the Welfare of theſe Kingdoms are neceſſarily connected.

Your Excellency's wiſe and ſeaſonable Advice to improve this Time of general Peace, by deliberating on the Means to render the natural Advantages of this Country moſt beneficial to the Inhabitants, and to increaſe national Wealth, by the Employment of the People, cannot fail to animate our Endeavours for procuring thoſe deſirable Ends.

We think ourſelves moſt happy in his Majeſty's Approbation and Acceptance of our paſt Conduct, which has certainly been founded on our Zeal for his Service, and the Welfare of this Kingdom: In theſe Sentiments we ſhall perſevere, and with the firmeſt Reliance on your Excellency's kind Intentions towards us, we ſhall, with Unanimity, exert the utmoſt of our Power to ſupport the Honour of his Majeſty's Government, and the Eaſe of your Excellency's Adminiſtration, which we are confident will be formed on the Principles of publick Utility to this Kingdom.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our ſincere Condolence on the Death of that Great Prince his late Royal Highneſs William Auguſtus Duke of Cumberland, whoſe eminent Abilities and Integrity muſt render his loſs moſt affecting to your Majeſty.

We cannot, on this Occaſion, omit to offer our juſt Tribute of Gratitude to the Memory of that glorious Prince, by whoſe Conduct, under GOD, the Throne of theſe Kingdoms has been firmly eſtabliſhed in your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Houſe.

May the DIVINE PROVIDENCE continue unto us the Bleſſings of this Eſtabliſhment, through a long and happy Reign, to your Majeſty; and ſecure them to our lateſt Poſterity, by an uninterrupted Succeſſion of Princes deſcended from your Majeſty!

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, by the whole Houſe, in order to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty.

DISSENTIENT:

Proteſt. 1. BECAUSE we conceive, that a Law to prevent the Exportation of Corn is become unneceſſary, and therefore ineligible, inaſmuch as any Reſtriction upon Trade is unadviſeable and injurious, where it is not abſolutely requiſite: Beſide, that upon Grain's becoming cheap, in Conſequence of ſuch a Prohibition, and of another Law of this Seſſion for the Suppreſſion of our domeſtick Diſtilleries, Engliſh Merchants might be induced to buy up large Quantities of our Grain, at an Undervalue, with a View afterward, by their Intereſt and Repreſentations, to obtain in England, in Conſequence of the Alteration which has been made in the Bill, a Suſpenſion of this Law; in order to tranſport what they had thus purchaſed: By which means this Country might be exhauſted of its Grain, whilſt its Individuals would be inadequately paid for the Produce of their Lands, and this Kingdom, might in Conſequence of this Law be reduced to that Diſtreſs, and even Famine, of which this Law was intended to prevent the Poſſibility, but of which it is in no Danger at preſent, except from the paſſing of this Law, as thus altered.

2. Becauſe we conceive, that the Heads of a Bill, as they went from the Commons, in giving a Power to the Chief Governor or Governors, and the Privy Council of this Kingdom to ſuſpend the Prohibition, provided fully both for this Kingdom and for Great Britain; inaſmuch as it cannot be ſuppoſed, that they would, would, contrary to the Intereſt of this Kingdom, continue the Prohibition, if there were any Superfluity of Grain, although Great Britain were not in Scarcity; neither can it be ſuppoſed, that if Great Britain were in Scarcity, his Majeſty's Subſtitutes and the Privy Council of this Kingdom would heſitate upon any Intimation of it, to ſuſpend the Prohibition, if it could be done without the immediate Ruin of this Country; at the ſame time that they would have had an Opportunity, if the Conſequence were likely to be fatal, of remonſtrating againſt ſuch a Deſire, and removing Miſrepreſentations at leaſt, which they may not, as the Bill now ſtands; ſince the Power of Suſpenſion is, by the Alteration, communicated to another Body, which may exerciſe it without their Knowledge or Intervention.

3. Becauſe that the Governors and Privy Council of Ireland, to whom, if the Bill had not been thus altered, the Execution of this ſuſpending Power muſt have fallen are Perſons in general who have been born or who reſide in this Country, who have many Ties to it; who muſt know, and who muſt partake, in its Neceſſities; and who, if they were guilty of Miſconduct, would be cenſurable by us: From all of which Circumſtances, they are preferable to the Council of another Kingdom, who have no Ties to us, who have no Knowledge of our Circumſtances, who would not partake in our Diſtreſſes, and whoſe Miſconduct would not fall properly within our Animadverſion.

4. Becauſe we conceive, if it were convenient, that the Legiſlature ſhould be conſtantly aſſembled, that the Power of ſuſpending any Law ought only to be veſted in the Legiſlature which made it; but as it is not convenient that the Legiſlature ſhould be conſtantly aſſembled, whereas it is neceſſary that the Executive Power ſhould always ſubſiſt, the Power of Suſpenſion, when ſuch a Power is thought neceſſary, is for Convenience tranſferred to the Executive of the Country to which the Law belongs; but cannot conſtitutionally be transferred to the Executive Power of any other Country: And therefore we conceive, that the Power of ſuſpending this Law, could only be conſtitutionally depoſited in the Executive Power for this Kingdom of Ireland.

5. Becauſe although the Crowns of England and Ireland be united, yet Ireland is a diſtinct Kingdom, and as ſuch, has a diſtinct and ſeparate Executive, as well as a diſtinct and ſeparate Legiſlative. But the proper and diſtinct Executive of this Kingdom, is his Majeſty, as King of Ireland, or his Subſtitute or Subſtitutes with the Privy Council of Ireland: And not his Majeſty, in the Privy Council of Great Britain; inaſmuch as the Privy Council of Great Britain is his proper and diſtinguiſhing Adjunct, as King and Executive of Great Britain; and is in no ſort applicable to his Majeſty, as King and Executive Power of this his Kingdom of Ireland.

6. Becauſe we conceive it to be extremely dangerous, to admit any Novelty which may tend to confound this Diſtinction, ſo neceſſary to be preſerved; not knowing what Uſe may be made hereafter of ſuch Innovations.

7. Becauſe it is an improper and unconſtitutional Reſtriction upon his Majeſty, as King and Executive of Ireland, to ſubject him, as this Bill thus altered does, to adviſe with his Britiſh Privy Council, with reſpect to an Act, in which he is concerned merely as Executive of this Kingdom of Ireland.

TYRONE WESTMEATH
CHARLEMONT GRANDISON ⊕ Prox?

DISSENTIENT:

1. BECAUSE, from my Conceptions of the Harmony and Benevolence that ſhould ſubſiſt between Subjects of the ſame King, the Heads of a Bill for preventing the Exportation of Corn from Ireland was defective, in not expreſsly making an Exception for Great Britain, as in all like Caſes of Prohibition in Great Britain, Ireland is ſpecially excepted; which Omiſſion cauſed an Alteration, in my Apprehenſion, not agreeable to the Uſage of Parliament or the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, and a Novelty that may be productive of further Innovations. Proteſt.

2. Becauſe, according to my Conceptions, all Embargoes are Reſtraints that obſtruct the Courſe of Trade, and in this Inſtance leaves the Farmer at the Mercy of Monopolizers: Therefore I am induced to think, that an Encouragement or Premium on Corn imported, would have been a better Expedient againſt our Apprehenſions of Famine, the World being open to our Relief; and the Proſpect of ſuch Supplies, might make Avarice leſs ſecure of Extortion from the Hoarders of Grain, and had left no room for ſpeculative Jealouſies

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Lord Annaly introduced.

The Right Hon. John Gore, Esq; Lord Chief Justice of his Majesty's Court of King's-Bench, being by Letters Patents, dated the 17th Day of January, in the 6th Year of King George III. created Lord Baron Annaly of Tenelick in the Co. Longford, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Lord Baron of Howth and the Lord Baron Branden, also in their Robes; the Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod, and Ulster King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the said Letters Patents preceding: His Lordship presented the same to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Woolsack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was also read.

Then his Lordship came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and subscribed the Declaration, and also took and subscribed the Oath of Abjuration, pursuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place at, the lower end of the Barons' Bench.

Resolution for Address to the King.

Resolved, that an humble Address be presented to his Majesty, to express our sincere Concern on the lamented Loss of that amiable Prince Frederick-William, his Majesty's Royal Brother.

Ordered, that the Earl of Carrick, and all the Lords present, shall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Address, pursuant to the foregoing Resolution; and all Lords who shall please to come to the said Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordships, or any five of them, to meet this Afternoon, in the Committee-Chamber, near the House of Peers, adjourn as they please and report.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the House, that the Judges, according to Order, had prepared a Report of what Laws are lately expired, or near expiring, which he presented to the House, and the same was afterwards read by the Clerk, at the Table, as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Report on temporary Statutes.

IN obedience to your Lordships' Order of of the 11th of November last, whereby the Judges were directed to inquire what Laws are lately expired, or near expiring, the Judges upon Inquiry, find:

An Act passed in the 2^{d} Year of his Majesty King George I's Reign, intitled, An Act to make the Militia of this Kingdom more useful, and which Act has been continued by several Acts of Parliament, is now near expiring.

An Act passed in the 5th Year of his late Majesty King George II's Reign, intitled, An Act for the better Regulation and Government of Seamen in the Merchants' Service, which Act has been revived and continued by an Act made in the 2^{d} Year of his present Majesty's Reign, is now near expiring.

A Clause in an Act passed in the 2^{d} Year of his present Majesty, intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and amending several temporary Statutes for preventing Frauds being committed by Colliers, Miners, Carmen, Buyers of Coals and others, and for Remedy thereof.

And also another Clause in the said Act to prevent any Miner, Master or other Collier, or other Person employed in any of the Collieries or Mines in this Kingdom, from absenting himself from his Work, in Breach of his Articles or Contract with the Owners of any Colliery or other Mine, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, which said Clauses are only temporary, and now near expiring.

An Act passed in the 25th Year of his late Majesty's Reign, for the better adjusting and more easy Recovery of the Wages of certain Servants and certain Apprentices, and for the Punishment of such Owners of Coals and their Agents, as shall knowingly employ and set at Work, Persons retained in the Service of other Coal-Owners; and also that mutual Debts between Party and Party be set one against the other; and which said Act has been continued, with several Amendments, by several Acts of Parliament, is now near expiring.

All

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

Order thereon. It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the foregoing Report ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to a ſelect Committee, and that the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be the ſaid Committee, and that all the Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, ſhall have Voices therein; and two of the Judges to aſſiſt.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Earl of Carrick reported from the Committee, appointed to prepare an Addreſs on the lamented Loſs of that amiable Prince, Frederick-William, his Majeſty's Royal Brother, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered it at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King. WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, being deeply affected by the repeated Occaſions of Sorrow to your Royal Family, beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty our ſincere Concern on the lamented Loſs of that amiable Prince, Frederick-William, your Majeſty's Royal Brother.

Thoſe Virtues which ſo eminently diſtinguiſh the ſeveral Branches of your moſt illuſtrious Houſe, render their Deaths a Publick Loſs to your faithful Subjects; and the Increaſe of them will be ever conſidered by us as the great Security for the Happineſs of your People.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty.

Heads of Bill againſt tumultuous Riſings. The Earl of Carrick preſented to the Houſe, Heads of a Bill to prevent for the future illegal and tumultuous Riſings of Perſons within this Kingdom, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned; which were received, and read a firſt time.

Ordered, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be read a ſecond time on Monday Morning next.

Motion for Committee on Proxies. The Houſe was moved, that a ſelect Committee be appointed to inſpect the Journals of the Houſe, and report, Whether the ſigning the Name of the Proxy to the Proteſt of the Lord who was intruſted with that Proxy, be according to the Uſage of Parliament?

Debate thereon: And a Debate ariſing thereupon, the Queſtion was put, and the Houſe divided:

The Earl of Mornington reported, that the Contents below the Bar, were 19; and the Not-Contents in the Houſe, were 2;

Motion agreed to. It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Jocelyn, and all the Lords preſent, be, and are hereby, appointed a ſelect Committee, to inſpect and report, Whether the ſigning the Name of the Proxy to the Proteſt of the Lord who was intruſted with that Proxy, be according to the Uſage of Parliament?

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, and to have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Meſſage to Commons with Concurrence.

The Houſe was moved to come to the following Reſolution:

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to congratulate with his Excellency on the approaching Concluſion of this Seſſion of Parliament, diſtinguiſhed by the many uſeful Bills returned from Great Britain, which will be laſting Benefits to this Kingdom, and will remain as the moſt honourable Monuments of the Wiſdom and Succeſs of his Excellency's Adminiſtration.

Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

To expreſs that our ardent Wiſhes to ſee his Excellency fill the high Station to which his Majeſty's Goodneſs to his People of Ireland has raiſed him, were grounded on the certain Hopes, Hopes, that the Juſtice, Honour and Humanity, Qualities which were long known to adorn his private Character, would be ſtill more eminently conſpicuous in that of the Chief Governor.

And that the many Inſtances he had given of an ardent Deſire to promote the inſeparable Intereſts of Great Britain and Ireland, and his conſtant Endeavours to encourage by publick and private Protection, and by the powerful Influence of his own Example, the Trade, Manufactures and Agriculture of this Kingdom, muſt produce an Adminiſtration of Publick Affairs, honourable and agreeable to his Majeſty, and ſatisfactory and beneficial to his People.

That the many wiſe Proviſions made this Seſſion in favour of our Manufactures, for the Preſervation of Peace and Order, and above all, the important Bills for the Encouragement of Tillage, long wiſhed-for, and now, by the peculiar Favour of his Majeſty, granted, muſt ſatisfy the People of this Country, and convince Poſterity, that our Expectations have been fully anſwered, and that our moſt flattering Hopes have been crowned with Succeſs.

And further to expreſs our warmeſt Wiſhes, that his Majeſty may be pleaſed, according to his uſual paternal Goodneſs, to continue a Governor to preſide over us, who has by a moſt mild, impartial and ſatisfactory Adminiſtration, rendered himſelf dear to this Kingdom.

Debate thereon.

A Debate ariſing thereupon, it was propoſed, that at the End of the fourth Paragraph, theſe Words be inſerted, viz. "of which Bills we "have never heard a Word before this Inſt."

And the Queſtion being put, Whether the ſaid Words ſtand Part of the ſaid Reſolution?

It paſſed in the Negative.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Dungannon, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips or any five or more of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolution of Thanks to Earl of Carrick.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Thanks of this Houſe be given to the Earl of Carrick, for the Zeal, Activity and Publick Spirit, exerted by him in endeavouring to ſuppreſs and bring to Juſtice the Diſturbers of the Publick Tranquillity in the Southern Parts of this Kingdom: And for propoſing ſeveral Reſolutions to this Houſe, grounded upon the moſt authentick Diſcoveries, from which ſeveral Laws are now framed for the more effectually preventing the ſame for the future.

Order relative to Papiſts, &c.

Ordered, that the Clerk of this Houſe do enter in a Book, in an alphabetical Manner, the Names of the Pariſhes for which Returns are made by the Clergy of this Kingdom, of the Number of Proteſtant and Popiſh Families, and reputed Popiſh Prieſts and Friars; and do alſo, in Columns oppoſite to the Names of the ſaid Pariſhes, enter the Number of Proteſtant and Popiſh Families, and the Number of reputed Popiſh Prieſts and Friars, returned to be contained in the ſaid Pariſhes reſpectively, and alſo the Counties and Dioceſes in which ſaid Pariſhes are ſituated.

The SECOND SCHEDULE to which the annexed Report refers.

Schedule II.

TOPHAM MITCHELL, Eſq; divided the Reſidue and Remainder of his real and perſonal Eſtate to Swift's, Mercer's and Steevens's Hoſpitals, and to the Incorporated Society for promoting Engliſh Proteſtant Schools, and the Reſidue ſo deviſed, will amount to the Sum of £1600, or thereabouts; and will, in due time, be paid and applied, agreeable to the Intention of Mr. Mitchell.

The late Dr. John Sterne, Lord Biſhop of Clogher, by Will, bequeathed a Sum of £2000, to be laid out and become a Standing Fund for buying Glebes or purchaſing Impropriate Tythes, for the Uſe and Benefit of the eſtabliſhed Church of Ireland; and the preſent Lord Biſhop of Clogher, ſince the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, hath inſtituted a Suit in the Court of Chancery, in order to carry the Truſts comprized in ſaid Will into Execution.

Mrs. Jane Bonnell, by Will, dated on or about the 16th March, 1744, among other Legacies, bequeathed a Sum of £200, for apprenticing poor Girls of the Pariſh of St. John's, Dublin, to be paid out of a Debt of £1500, then due to her by Mortgage; and alſo bequeathed the Reſidue of her Fortune, after Payment of her Debts and Legacies, to her Executors, to be laid out by them in ſome convenient Purchaſe, for the Support of Clergymen's Widows: A Suit hath been lately revived by the Lord Biſhop of Waterford, and is now proceeding on, in order to eſtabliſh ſuch charitable Donation.

Alderman Nathaniel Preſton of the City of Dublin, by Deed, dated 6th Day of July, 1686, veſted in Truſtees 789 Acres of Land for ever, ſituate in the Queen's County, for ſupporting two Schools, one at Ballyroan in ſaid County, and one at Navan in the Co. Meath, and alſo for the Payment of £20 ℔ Ann. for ever to the Blue Coat Hoſpital in Dublin; that ſince the laſt Seſſion of Parliament Dr. William Carmichael, when Biſhop of Meath, revived a Suit which had been formerly inſtituted for an Account of the Rents and Profits of the ſaid Lands, and for carrying the Intention of Mr. Preſton into Execution, and the Lands, ſo veſted by Mr. Preſton, are now of the yearly Value of £600 and upwards, and that the Arrears and accruing Rents are now received for, and will in due time be applied to, the Uſe of ſaid Charity.

The Rev. Peter Harvey, by Will, dated 2d September, 1720, bequeathed the Intereſt of £128, yearly, to be applied in the putting out poor Children to Trades; and the ſaid Sum with the Intereſt thereof, from the Year 1752, hath this Seſſion been put into a Courſe of Payment.

George Gardiner, Eſq; by Will, dated 27th December, 1764, bequeathed a Sum of £1000 for putting out Apprentice poor Boys of the Proteſtant Religion in Dublin, which will be ſhortly paid, without Conteſt.

Mr. James Knight, in the Year 1725, veſted certain Lands of the yearly Value of £70 : 8*s.* in Truſtees, for ſupporting a Charity-School in St. Patrick's Cloſe, Dublin, and for other charitable Uſes, and a Suit was inſtituted by Mrs. Tilſon, Sir Robert Deane and the Rev. John Oliver, in order to carry ſuch Donation into Execution, and that ſuch Suit will be proceeded upon with Effect.

His late Majeſty King William III. of Glorious Memory, gave a Sum of £1000, a Lien upon a forfeited Eſtate, for repairing the Cathedral and other Churches in the City of Limerick, and that a conſiderable Part thereof remains unapplied; and ſince the laſt Seſſion of Parliament the Lord Biſhop of Limerick commenced a Suit, which he is now proceeding on with all Expedition, in order to have ſuch Donation accounted for and applied agreeable to the Intention of his ſaid late Majeſty.

The Corporation of the City of Limerick granted £20 a Year for the Support of a Blue-School in the City of Limerick, which Sum was regularly applied, until the Year, 1745; and Mrs. Alice Craven bequeathed a Sum of £35 a Year ariſing out of certain Houſe-Rents, towards the Support of ſuch School; and the Rev. Mr. Serjeant alſo pays the Sum of £10 a Year: But the Corporation having withdrawn their Bounty of £20 a Year in 1745, the School could only be ſupported and kept up until the Year 1748; and it appears, from an Account, that there is now a Sum of £623 : 15*s.* 2*d.* accumulated out of ſaid Rent; and the annual Sum paid by Mr. Serjeant, and placed out at Intereſt towards reſtoring ſaid School, which there is reaſon to believe will ſpeedily be effected.

The ſaid Mrs. Alice Craven bequeathed a Rent-Charge of 40*s.* a Year, ariſing out of the Rent of the Old Guard-Houſe in the City of Limerick, to the Corporation of that City, for the Uſe of an Hoſpital for City-Widows; and ſaid Houſe was ſold by virtue of an Act of Parliament for widening Baal's Bridge in the ſaid City, for the Sum of £42; but there being then an Arrear of ſaid 40*s.* a Year due to the Widows, amounting to £46, and the Corporation being convinced, that ſaid two ſeveral Sums of £42 and £46 were juſtly due to the ſaid Widows, have, ſince the laſt Seſſion, granted to two Widows, who had Rooms in ſaid Hoſpital, but no Salary, an Annuity of 40*s.* (in Lieu thereof) to each of the ſaid Widows.

Mr. Joſeph Love, by his Will, dated 20th March, 1726, bequeathed his whole Fortune, of what Nature or Kind ſoever, whether real or perſonal, to certain Truſtees, in Truſt, that the whole Amount thereof ſhould be employed in the Purchaſe of a certain annual Rent of Inheritance, and to be for ever applied in binding Apprentices to Tradeſmen of the Eſtabliſhed Church, ſuch Boys, educated in any of the Charity-Schools in Dublin, as his ſaid Truſtees ſhould make Choice of: The Apprentice-Fee to be given not to exceed Ten Pounds, and ſuch real and perſonal Eſtate hath for many Years, and now produces, an annual Sum of £78, and a Sum of £257 : 10*s.* 3. remaining unpaid of ſaid annual Rent, together with the Sum of £75 : 7*s.* 1*d.* the Intereſt thereof, amounting, in the Whole, to the Sum of £332 : 17*s.* 4*d.* hath been well ſecured this Seſſion of Parliament, to be applied according to the Intention of ſaid Mr. Love.

The Rev. Mr. Banks many Years ago, when Miniſter of Eyre Court in the Co. Galway, by his Will, bequeathed a Sum of £700 for eſtabliſhing a School for educating the poor Children of that Pariſh, and the ſaid School hath been very lately eſtabliſhed, and twelve poor Children of that Pariſh are now educated there, and Aſſurance given, that the ſaid School, for the future, ſhall be properly taken Care of.

Mrs. Leſlie, Widow of the Rev. John Leſlie, late Dean of Dromore, bequeathed an annual Sum of £14 to the Pariſh of Donagh in the Co. Monaghan and Dioceſe of Clogher, for the Maintenance of a School-Maſter, and furniſhing the Poor of ſaid Pariſh with good Books, which for ſome Years paſt, by a Fatality, hath not been paid or applied: but from the Inquiries made in the laſt and this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, your Committee have full Aſſurance given them, that the ſaid Sum of £14 will, for the future, be annually paid and applied, according to the Intentions of ſaid Mrs. Leſlie.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

The Lord Viſc. Dungannon reported from the Lords' Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; that they had prepared the ſame accordingly, which he read in his Place, and the ſaid Addreſs, being afterwards read at the Table, was agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency
FRANCIS-SEYMOUR Earl of HERTFORD,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to congratulate with your Excellency on the approaching Concluſion of this Seſſion of Parliament, diſtinguiſhed by the many uſeful Bills returned from Great Britain, which will be laſting Benefits to this Kingdom, and will remain as the moſt honourable Monuments of the Wiſdom and Succeſs of your Excellency's Adminiſtration.

We had long, my Lord, wiſhed to ſee your Excellency fill that high Station to which his Majeſty's Goodneſs to his People of Ireland has called you.

The beſt-founded Hopes were univerſally entertained of the Juſtice, Honour and Humanity of the chief Governor, as thoſe Qualities were known to have eminently adorned the Manners and diſtinguiſhed Character of the private Man. But our moſt ſanguine Expectations of an Adminiſtration, honourable and agreeable to his Majeſty, and ſatisfactory and beneficial to his People, were raiſed from your Excellency's conſtant Exertion of your Power to promote the inſeparable Intereſts of Great Britain and Ireland; and your unwearied Endeavours, by publick and private Protection, and by the powerful Influence of your own Example to encourage the Trade, Manufactures and Agriculture of this Kingdom.

The ſeveral wiſe Proviſions, made this Seſſion in favour of our Trade and Manufactures, for the Preſervation of Peace and Order, for the Encouragement of Tillage; and, above all, that important Bill for granting a Bounty on the Exportation of Corn, long wiſhed-for and often attempted, and now by his Majeſty's peculiar Favour returned under your Excellency's Adminiſtration, will ſatisfy our Fellow-Subjects, and muſt convince Poſterity, that our Expectations have been anſwered, and that our moſt flattering Hopes have been crowned with Succeſs.

Theſe Conſiderations, my Lord, added to the Mildneſs, Prudence and Impartiality of your Adminiſtration, in the high Office of Repreſentative of the beſt of Sovereigns, muſt naturally excite our warmeſt Wiſhes, that his Majeſty may be graciouſly pleaſed, according to his uſual paternal Goodneſs, to continue a Governor to preſide over us, who has given ſuch a Proſpect of Happineſs, and rendered himſelf ſo juſtly dear to his Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects of Ireland.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Excellency.

Report relative to Parliament-Office.

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Committee appointed to inſpect the Parliament-Office, and inquire if any and what Conveniencies are neceſſary to be added thereto, and whether a free Paſſage can be made for the Clerks and Servants belonging to this Houſe to go into the ſaid Office during the Intervals of Parliament; that they met, and having conſidered thereof, came to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Paſſage-Room on the North-Side of the Parliament-Houſe, with the ſmall Offices in the Room adjoining which leads to the Parliament-Office, will be neceſſary to be added thereto, together with two Vaults underneath the Offices, in Lieu of the Vaults the Clerks now have at the front of the Parliament-Houſe, to hold Coals for airing the Rooms, wherein the Parliamentary Books and Records are kept, by Order of this Houſe, during the Intervals of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that there may be a commodious Way from Turnſtile-Alley through the Yard to the Paſſage-Room for the Clerks and Servants belonging to this Houſe to go to the ſaid Offices, not to interfere with any other Part of the Parliament-Houſe, during the Intervals of Parliament.

To which the Houſe agreed. agreed to.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and lay the ſaid Reſolution before his Excellency.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that in obedience to their Lordſhips' Order, he had waited upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he would pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Excellency; and his Excellency was pleaſed to appoint this Day, at Four o'clock, at the Caſtle.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Robert French and others, with an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act for the better Preſervation of Corn; to which they deſire the Concurrence of this Houſe.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Walker and Mr. Tunnadine, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that the Houſe had Yeſterday attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with their Addreſs; to which Addreſs his Excellency was pleaſed to give this Anſwer:

My Lords,

Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer to Addreſs.

YOUR favourable Acceptance of my Endeavours for the Publick Service, and this peculiarly affectionate Mark of your Approbation and Eſteem, are extremely agreeable and highly honourable to me. I muſt be happy in the Perſuaſion, that an Adminiſtration which has received the Sanction of your good Opinion, and in which your Lordſhips have expreſſed ſo much Content and Satisfaction, muſt have been in ſome reſpects uſeful to this Kingdom. It is the greateſt Honour to you, and the higheſt Pleaſure to me, that my Perſeverance in my Duty to his Majeſty, and in my Regards to the true Intereſts of this Kingdom, will be the only Means of inſuring the Continuance of your Confidence and Regards.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe, preſented Yeſterday to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and his Excellency's Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

To these Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Assent, severally, in these Words:

"Soit fait comme il est desiré."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleased to make a Speech to both Houses of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

YOUR ardent Zeal and unwearied Pains for the Service of your Country, have necessarily drawn this Session into an unusual Length. It is now Time you should rest from your Labours, to relieve you with Repose and Relaxation, and that you should return to your respective Counties, to receive the Thanks of your Fellow-Subjects for your great and successful Attention to the Publick Good.

Your long and assiduous Deliberations have been fully recompensed by the many useful and important Laws which have now received the Royal Assent, and which will remain as lasting Monuments of the great Goodness of his Majesty, and of the Wisdom and Vigilance of this Parliament. The Provision made to preserve the Health and to relieve the Infirmities of his Majesty's Subjects in this Kingdom, by the Establishment of County Infirmaries; the wise and humane Design of encouraging Tillage, by the Act for the Preservation of Corn, for which salutary Purposes considerable Sums are to be annually paid out of the Treasury; the King's consenting, during this Session, in several Instances, to a Diminution of his Hereditary Revenue, for the Improvement of your Trade, Manufactures and Tillage, but especially the useful and important Law for the Encouragement of Tillage, cannot fail to make the deepest and most lasting Impressions on your Minds, of his Majesty's tender Regards and parental Affection for his People of Ireland.

The Publick Tranquillity has, I flatter myself, been effectually secured, not only by the exemplary Punishments inflicted on several of the Persons engaged in those wicked and dangerous Outrages, which had so long infested some Parts of this Kingdom, but by the Act for the Detection and Punishment of those Offences, which has now received the Royal Assent. Popular Insurrections, when quelled, have often, in other Countries, proved unfavourable to Liberty; but we have, this Session, an Improvement made in our Constitution, extending even to the Case of those Insurgents themselves, by the Act for regulating Trials in Cases of High-Treason, a memorable Instance of his Majesty's just Confidence in the Duty and Loyalty of his faithful Subjects of this Kingdom.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I HAVE the King's Commands to return you Thanks, in his Name, for the usual Supplies granted by you with your accustomed Unanimity, and to express his Majesty's Satisfaction, that you have eased your Fellow-Subjects, by reducing the Interest of Part of the National Debt. I am also to return you his Majesty's Thanks, for your chearful Concurrence in the proper Measures for the Disposition and Accommodation of the King's Troops, so as to render them of most Use for the Safety and Defence of this Kingdom, a Work of the most important Utility: Your Zeal and Unanimity upon that Occasion, and the Trust reposed in me, demand my most grateful Acknowledgments. I cannot sufficiently commend your Pains, Care and Attention, in providing for the building and repairing of Churches, in which you may rest assured of my best and most hearty Assistance.

I am particularly to thank you, for the unsolicited Mark of your Confidence and Esteem, by the Trust placed in me, of raising Money, if the Exigencies of Government should require it: A Power which shall not be executed, unless the Exercise of it shall be justified by the most evident Necessity. Happy must that Country be where a mutual Intercourse of Trust and Confidence, and a reciprocal Exchange of Affection and Gratitude, have so long and so uniformly subsisted between the King and his People!

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE affectionate Addresses of both Houses of Parliament, repeatedly presented to me, convey the most honourable Testimony of your Approbation of my Conduct, and give me me ſome Hopes, that I have not been altogether an unprofitable Servant to my Royal Maſter, and to his People, in this arduous Station in which it has been the King's Pleaſure to place me. I ſhall endeavour to deſerve the Continuance of your favourable Opinion, by ſhewing, upon every Occaſion, the higheſt Regards to the true Intereſt of this Kingdom, and the ſtricteſt Attention to the juſt Prerogative of the King, and to the Liberties of the People. And let me earneſtly recommend it to you, in your ſeveral Stations, to inculcate, by Precept, Authority and Example, a Love and Veneration for the Laws, and a dutiful Submiſſion to the conſtitutional Rights of the Crown, the firmeſt Security of Civil Liberty, and the ſtrongeſt Barrier againſt Diſorder and Anarchy; to enforce the Execution of Juſtice and a due Obedience to the Magiſtrate; to explain to the People, the Excellence of our happy Conſtitution; to promote and confirm in them a juſt Senſe of the many Bleſſings they enjoy; and the moſt grateful Sentiments of the Juſtice, Moderation and Benignity of the King's Government; and particularly to point out the great Benefits which this Kingdom has obtained, this Seſſion of Parliament, by his Majeſty's Goodneſs, in aſſenting to ſo many uſeful Laws.

I have great Satisfaction to find, that the Act to prohibit the Exportation of Corn, for a limited time, has produced the deſired Effects, by preventing the dreadful Calamity of a Famine. I have uſed every Endeavour in my Power to promote the Deſign of this Law, by encouraging the Importation of Corn, and by leſſening the Price to the Poor, in thoſe Places where, by Applications made to me for that Purpoſe, it appeared to be moſt neceſſary. Apprehenſions of the ſame Calamity had occaſioned a Law of the ſame Nature in Great Britain, but with an Exception for this Kingdom, an Inſtance of the moſt affectionate Attention from his Majeſty, and from our Fellow-Subjects of that Kingdom, of which I am perſuaded we ſhall entertain the moſt grateful Remembrance.

I cannot take my Leave of you, without aſſuring you, that I look upon myſelf as obliged, in Juſtice, in Intereſt and in Gratitude, to repreſent your Conduct to his Majeſty, in the moſt favourable Manner; to continue my conſtant Endeavours, in every Situation, for the Advancement of your Trade, the Aſſiſtance of your Manufactures, and the Encouragement of your Tillage; to maintain the Honour and Dignity of the Crown; and to promote the Proſperity and Happineſs of the People of Ireland.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Thurſday the 10th Day of July next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thurſday the 10th Day of July next. Parliament prorogued.

The Speaker, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint them, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter.

And the Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

IT is with great Satisfaction that in Obedience to his Majeſty's Commands, I now meet you here in Parliament, being confident, that the End of all your Conſultations, will be to ſupport the Honour of the Crown, and the juſt Rights and Liberties of the People.

As nothing can be more conducive to theſe great Ends, than the Independency and Uprightneſs of the Judges of the Land, in the impartial Adminiſtration of Juſtice; I have it in Charge from his Majeſty to recommend this intereſting Object to Parliament, that ſuch Proviſion may be made for ſecuring the Judges in the Enjoyment of their Offices and Appointments during their good Behaviour, as ſhall be thought moſt expedient.

I ſhall be happy to co-operate with you in this great Work, ſo graciouſly recommended by the King, and in whatever may tend to the effectual and expeditious Diſtribution of Juſtice, throughout every Part of this flouriſhing Country, whoſe Conſtitution and beſt Security is a Government by Law.

Deeply

Deeply intereſted, as we are, in the domeſtick Happineſs of our moſt amiable Sovereign, you cannot but reflect with Pleaſure on the Increaſe of his Majeſty's Family, by the Birth of a Princeſs Royal; and affectionately attached, as we muſt be, to every Branch of that illuſtrious Houſe, I am perſuaded you feel moſt ſenſibly the affecting Event of the Death of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, whoſe many and eminent Virtues had juſtly endeared him to his Majeſty, and all his Subjects.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the proper Officers to prepare and lay before you the neceſſary Eſtimates; and have no other Supplies to aſk, but ſuch as have been uſually given; truſting, at the ſame time, to your Wiſdom and Zeal, to make further Proviſions, if the neceſſary Support of Government, and the Safety of this Country, ſhall require it.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Proteſtant Charter-Schools have, from their firſt Inſtitution, met with the conſtant Aſſiſtance and Protection of Parliament; the ſame Diſpoſition, I am perſuaded, will ſtill continue, as they are the great Sources of Induſtry, Virtue, and true Religion.

The Linen Manufacture calls likewiſe for your utmoſt Attention; and it would be a pleaſing Circumſtance to me, if, during my Adminiſtration, I could ſee Foreigners intirely prevented from interfering in any Article of this important Conſumption.

You may depend upon his Majeſty's gracious Diſpoſition to conſent to all ſuch Laws, as ſhall be for the Welfare and true Intereſt of this Kingdom.

On my own Part, you may be aſſured, that I will, with the utmoſt Satisfaction, concur with you in every thing that may promote the Publick Good; and upon all Occaſions contribute my beſt Endeavours for advancing the Happineſs and Proſperity of the People of Ireland.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Speaker reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech; and the ſame being read at the Table,

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to aſſure his Majeſty of our unalterable Zeal for his Sacred Perſon, Family and Government; that we ſhall make it the conſtant Object of our Endeavours to ſupport the Honour of the Crown, conſcious at the ſame time, that it eſſentially imports the ſalutary and permament Exiſtence of the Rights of the People. Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

That our Minds are ſo filled with Gratitude at this late Inſtance of his gracious Protection, in recommending to Parliament that ſuch a Proviſion may be made for ſecuring the Judges of the Land in the Enjoyment of their Offices and Appointments during their good Behaviour as may be found expedient, that we want Words to expreſs our Sentiments on that momentous Subject.

That intereſted, as we are, in the Extenſion of his Royal Houſe, we cannot fail of conſidering every Increaſe of his Family as an important Acquiſition to the State, while we feel a filial Satisfaction at every Subject that adds to the domeſtick Comfort of his Majeſty and Royal Conſort.

That our Concern is ſincere and deep at the Death of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, whoſe many and eminent Virtues juſtly endeared him to his Majeſty and Subjects.

To acknowledge his Majeſty's Goodneſs, in ſending us a Governor every way ſo well qualified to repreſent his Majeſty.

To acknowledge, that the Proteſtant Charter-Schools, the Source of Induſtry, Virtue and true Religion, claim our utmoſt Aſſiſtance and Protection.

That the Linen Manufacture demands our utmoſt Attention, that Foreigners may be precluded from interfering in any Article of that Conſumption.

And to aſſure his Majeſty, that we ſhall make it our Study to model all ſuch Laws as ſhall appear to us to be conducive to the Welfare of this Kingdom, in ſuch a Manner as to render them deſerving of the Sanction of his Majeſty's Approbation.

Ordered, that the Earl of Bellamont, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs of Thanks be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, for his moſt excellent Speech this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

Ordered,

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Kingſton, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Biſhops to preach.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Dromore ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 23d Inſt. being an Anniverſary Thankſgiving for the Deliverance of the Proteſtants of this Kingdom from the Popiſh Maſſacre in 1641.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Down and Connor ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church on the 5th of November next, being appointed a Day of Thankſgiving for the happy Deliverance of the three Eſtates of England from the intended Maſſacre by Gunpowder, and alſo for the happy Arrival of his Majeſty King William III. of glorious Memory, on that Day, for the Deliverance of our Church and Nation.

Ordered, that a Committee be appointed to take into Conſideration the ſeveral Charities and charitable Donations in this Kingdom; and that the Lord Biſhop of Waterford, and all the Lords preſent, be the ſaid Committee; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee are to have Voices therein; and that the ſaid Committee have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records; and two of the Judges to aſſiſt.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Earl of Bellamont reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Tueſday laſt; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do embrace this earlieſt Opportunity of teſtifying our warm and unalterable Zeal for your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, Family and Government.

Attached by the double Tie of Duty and Affection, actuated by the moſt juſt Confidence, founded on an uninterrupted Experience of your favourable Intentions towards this your loyal Kingdom, we ſhall make it the conſtant Object of our Endeavours to ſupport the Honour of the Crown, and the juſt Rights and Liberties of the People.

Permit us, Royal Sir, to aſſure you, that our Minds are ſo filled with Gratitude at this late Inſtance of your gracious Protection, in recommending to Parliament that ſuch a Proviſion may be made for ſecuring the Judges of the Land in the Enjoyment of their Offices and Appointments, during their good Behaviour, as may be found expedient, that we want Words to expreſs our Sentiments on this Subject, being fully convinced, that Independence is the Baſis of Impartiality, and that whatever may tend to the effectual and expeditious Diſtribution of Juſtice and a Government by Law, are the beſt Securities of our moſt valuable Conſtitution.

Intereſted, as we are, in the Extenſion of your Houſe, we cannot fail of conſidering every Increaſe of your Family a valuable Acquiſition to the State, whilſt we feel a filial Satisfaction at every Event, which adds to the domeſtick Comfort of our amiable Sovereign and his Royal Conſort.

Judge then, Great Sir, how ſincere and deep is our Concern at the Death of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, whoſe many and eminent Virtues, the early Pledges of every great and glorious Act, juſtly endeared him to your Majeſty and all your Subjects.

We beg Leave to acknowledge your Majeſty's Goodneſs, in ſending us a Chief Governor, in every reſpect ſo well qualified to repreſent your Majeſty.

Permit us alſo to aſſure your Majeſty, that the Proteſtant Charter-Schools, the great Source of Induſtry, Virtue and true Religion, ſhall have our utmoſt Aſſiſtance and Protection.

And that the Linen Manufacture, eſſential in its every Branch and Modification to the Well-being of this Kingdom, ſhall employ our unwearied Vigilance, that Foreigners be precluded from participating in the Emoluments ariſing from the Conſumption of that important Commodity.

And we ſhall make it our Study to model all ſuch Laws as ſhall appear to us to be conducive to the Welfare of this Kingdom, in ſuch a Manner as to render them deſerving of the Sanction of your Majeſty's Approbation.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

The Lord Viſc. Kingſton reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Tueſday laſt; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency
GEORGE Lord Viſcount TOWNSHEND,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our hearty Thanks, for your moſt excellent Speech from the Throne.

We ſhall endeavour, in all our Proceedings, to confirm the favourable Opinion your Excellency is pleaſed to entertain of us; and to convince your Excellency, that the Support of the Honour of the Crown, and the juſt Rights and Liberties of the Subject, are the great Objects of our Deliberations.

His Majeſty's paternal Care of us, in providing for the impartial Adminiſtration of Juſtice, by ſecuring to the Judges the Enjoyment of their Offices and Appointments during their good Behaviour, is fully proved by his being graciouſly pleaſed to recommend to us the framing ſuch Laws, as may tend to that ſalutary Purpoſe: And we have an intire Reliance on your Excellency's Aſſurance, that you will co-operate with us in ſuch Laws, as may beſt promote the effectual and expeditious Diſtribution of Juſtice; thoſe great Objects of all well-conſtituted Governments, and on which the Happineſs and Proſperity of Society ſo greatly depend.

We ſhall always moſt ſenſibly feel whatever may contribute to the domeſtick Happineſs of our moſt amiable Sovereign, and his illuſtrious Conſort: And we therefore reflect with the utmoſt Pleaſure, on the Increaſe of his Majeſty's Family, by the Birth of a Princeſs Royal.

Senſible

Senſible of thoſe Impreſſions of Humanity and Tenderneſs, which muſt affect his Majeſty on the recent and melancholy Event of the Death of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, we beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency, it adds greatly to that Concern which we ſhall always feel, on any Diminution of his illuſtrious Family; but which muſt moſt ſenſibly affect us, when we recollect that his Royal Highneſs's many eminent Virtues had ſo juſtly endeared him to his Majeſty and all his Subjects.

Your Excellency's warm Recommendation of the Support of our Proteſtant Charter-Schools, and your Attention to whatever may contribute to the Encouragement and Extenſion of our Linen Manufacture, fully convince us, that with the Government of Ireland, your Excellency has adopted the true and real Intereſt of it: And we eſteem it a particular Inſtance of his Majeſty's Goodneſs to us, that he has intruſted the Government of this Kingdom to your Excellency, who is deſcended from a Nobleman, who ſo eminently ſupported the Intereſt of his illuſtrious Houſe, on which our Happineſs intirely depends, and who has himſelf ſo greatly contributed to the Extenſion of his Majeſty's Dominions in America.

Convinced by the Experience of his Majeſty's Goodneſs to us, we intirely depend on his gracious Diſpoſition, to conſent to all ſuch Laws, as ſhall be for the Welfare and true Intereſt of this Kingdom; and fully aſſured, that your Excellency will concur with us, in every thing that may promote the Publick Good, and our Happineſs and Proſperity: We, on our Parts, think it our Duty to aſſure your Excellency, that we ſhall uſe our beſt Endeavours to render your Excellency's Adminiſtration eaſy and honourable.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Speaker do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Speaker acquainted the Houſe, that in obedience to their Lordſhips' Order, he had waited upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he would pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency; and his Excellency was pleaſed to appoint this Day, at Half an Hour paſt Four o'clock, at the Caſtle.

Lord Lieutenant's Anſwers.

" My Lords,

" I WILL forthwith tranſmit this dutiful " and loyal Addreſs to be laid before his " Majeſty."

The Speaker alſo reported, that the Houſe did, at the ſame time, preſent their Lordſhips' Addreſs to his Excellency; to which he was pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

" I RETURN my Thanks to your Lordſhips, " for this affectionate Addreſs, and for the " very obliging Manner in which you expreſs " your good Opinion of me: I will always " endeavour to preſerve it, by making his " Majeſty's Service and the Intereſt of this " Kingdom, the Objects of my utmoſt Care " and Attention."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of the 22d Inſt. and his Excellency's Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

Then their Lordſhips in order to proceed to Chriſt-Church, to ſolemnize this Day, being a Day appointed by Act of Parliament for an Anniverſary Thankſgiving for the Deliverance of the Proteſtants of this Kingdom from the Popiſh Maſſacre in 1641,

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Biſhops' Bench.

Mr. Riall's Petition.

A Petition of Phineas Riall of Clonmel in the Co. Tipperary, Banker, ſetting forth that the Petitioner did, in the Year 1761, in the City of Waterford, intermarry with Mary Bolton, Spinſter, one of the Daughters of Cornelius Bolton of ſaid City of Waterford, Eſq;

That the ſaid Mary, the Petitioner's Wife, in the Beginning of June, 1766, entered into an unlawful Familiarity and criminal Converſation with John Foſter, then a Cornet in one of his Majeſty's Regiments of Dragoons, and carried on ſuch criminal Familiarity and adulterous Converſation with him from that Time to the 6th Day of July following.

That the Petitioner from the Time he had Intimation of the adulterous Conduct of his ſaid Wife, to this Time, did not cohabit nor had he any Intercourſe whatſoever with her.

That the Petitioner, on the 20th of September, 1766, inſtituted a Suit in the Conſiſtorial Court of the Dioceſes of Waterford and Liſmore, againſt his ſaid Wife, for a Divorce from Bed and Board, for Adultery; and the Petitioner, on the 20th June, 1767, upon full Proof that the ſaid Mary had violated her Conjugal Vow, and committed Adultery, did obtain a definitive Sentence of Divorce from Bed, Board and mutual Cohabitation, for the Adultery of the ſaid Mary with the ſaid John Foſter: And the Petitioner, having brought an Action at Law againſt the ſaid John Foſter for debauching and carnally knowing the ſaid Mary the Petitioner's Wife, the Petitioner obtained a Verdict with Damages and Coſts againſt the ſaid John Foſter.

That the Petitioner hath no Iſſue living by his ſaid Wife.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs on Birth of a Prince.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave humbly to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on the happy Events of the ſafe Delivery of the Queen and the Birth of a Prince.

With Hearts full of Gratitude for the Happineſs we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, we feel, with the utmoſt Satisfaction, every Circumſtance which can add to your Majeſty's domeſtick Enjoyments.

Fully convinced, that the Succeſſion of the Throne ſettled in your illuſtrious Houſe, is the great Baſis of our Liberties and Religion, every Increaſe of your Royal Family muſt raiſe our Hopes and give us the pleaſing Proſpect of the Continuance of thoſe Bleſſings to our lateſt Poſterity, which, without Interruption, we have enjoyed under a Race of Kings, renowned as the great Supporters of Liberty and the Proteſtant Religion, not only in their own Dominions, but throughout Europe.

Reſolution propoſed to addreſs his Majeſty to appoint a Chancellor.

A Reſolution being propoſed, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, beſeeching him of his paternal Goodneſs and Regard to the Welfare of this Kingdom, that He will graciouſly be pleaſed to appoint a Lord Chancellor, as the Vacancy of that High Office muſt obſtruct the Courſe of Juſtice in her principal Source, and be productive of numberleſs Inconveniencies to a loyal affectionate People.

A Debate aroſe thereupon. Debate thereon:

And the previous Queſtion being put, That the ſaid Queſtion ſhould be now put:

The Houſe divided.

And the Lord Biſhop of Kilmore reported, that the Contents below the Bar, were 2, and the Not-Contents in the Houſe, were 31;

It paſſed in the Negative. negatived.

DISSENTIENT:

1. BECAUSE we conceive, that on the preſent Occaſion, when Delay is the Grievance of which we complain, the previous Queſtion is peculiarly improper, as it is merely a Meaſure of Procraſtination. Proteſt.

That Delay in an Affair of this Nature may be attended with the worſt Conſequences, we conceive, becauſe the Execution of the Office of Lord High Chancellor by Commiſſion, is a defective Execution of it, inaſmuch as the Commiſſion, being executed by the common Law Judges of the Land, two at a time, taken each from different Courts, in a weekly Rotation, is attended with the following Inconveniencies: Firſt, that though the inferior Judges were always of equal Eminence with one who ſhould be appointed Chancellor in his own Perſon, yet they are not only not converſant with the Practice of the Court of Chancery, but habituated to a different Practice: Secondly, that they cannot fulfil the Duties of another Court; but by relinquiſhing their own: Thirdly, that taking away one Judge from a Court, is, in ſome Circumſtances, an irreparable Loſs; that, at beſt, but two can remain; that Cauſes of the greateſt Importance, will be deferred, till the Bench is full; that even in ſuch Cauſes as are heard by the two Judges that remain, if there be a Difference of Opinion, there is not a third to decide, and that Sickneſs, or Connection with certain Cauſes, may leave the Court with but one Judge, and ſometimes without any: Fourthly, that long and important Cauſes in Chancery, can ſeldom be decided in a Week; and therefore the Arguments urged in one Week before one Set of Commiſſioners, muſt be repeated before another Set, in a ſubſequent Week; that by this endleſs Protraction and Expenſe, Perſons are diſcouraged from proceeding, and the more, as the Commiſſioners cannot be expected to be very ready to decide, inaſmuch as Reputation is more eaſily loſt, than gained, in ſuch Circumſtances; and as the Cauſe would probably be but little advanced by their Deciſion, ſince the Party defeated would always apply to the Chancellor when appointed, for a Re-hearing: Fifthly, that theſe Inconveniencies are aggravated by the State of Buſineſs, in that Court, at the time of the late Chancellor's Death, whoſe great Abilities had drawn ſuch a Redundancy of Buſineſs into that Court, that notwithſtanding his Aſſiduity, a long Arrear of Cauſes, we underſtand, remained undiſcharged; that therefore, the Execution of the Office of Lord High Chancellor, by Commiſſion, is attended with this great Evil, that without ſupplying, to effect, the Court of Chancery, it diſmembers and mutilates all the Courts of Law, and diſturbs and obſtructs the whole Courſe of Juſtice.

2. Because from a thorough Confidence in his Majeſty's moſt gracious Diſpoſition towards his moſt affectionate People, ſo peculiarly manifeſted by the Declarations made to us, in his Name, by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant from the Throne, at the Opening of this Seſſion of Parliament, we are convinced that his Majeſty would lend a favourable Ear to our earneſt Solicitations, and would gratify the Deſires of his loyal People, by appointing a Lord Chancellor for this Kingdom; nor can we think it otherwiſe than a juſt Tribute of our Reſpect to his Majeſty, and the beſt Mark of our firm Reliance on his gracious Declarations, to inform his Majeſty, without Delay, of a Grievance which ſo eſſentially affects the Rights and Properties of his moſt faithful Subjects, and the due Execution of Juſtice, in this Kingdom.

Reſolution in favour of Speaker.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that his Excellency will lay before his Majeſty the Requeſt of this Houſe, that his Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to grant to the Right Hon. Lord Annaly, the Sum of one thouſand Pounds, in Teſtimony of their Approbation of his Lordſhip's particular Merit and faithful Services, as Speaker of this Houſe during this Seſſion of Parliament.

Ordered, that the Earl of Shannon do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the above Reſolution.

Motion for Addreſs that no more Penſions be granted,

A Reſolution being propoſed, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, humbly to repreſent, that we at preſent labour under a very heavy Debt.

That the Sums granted in Penſions are immenſely great, and that of all other Grievances the Yoke of Penſions is ſuperlatively the moſt galling and moſt burdenſome.

That we humbly conceive, that this Alienation of the Publick Revenues, is contrary to the expreſs Letter of the Statutes, by which they were granted.

That it appears to us, that £66,291 : 5*s*. 8*d*. is apportioned to that Uſe, contrary to the Spirit and Tenor, as well as the expreſs Letter, of the Statutes; ſince £21,306 : 7*s*. 6*d*. is the Sum which alone is free from Parliamentary Appropriations.

That in many of the Statutes, by which the Hereditary Revenues have been granted, there are expreſs Clauſes againſt Penſions, and that we muſt lament we have not the Honour of advancing this large Sum to the Support of his Majeſty's Intereſts and Dominions, which we ſhall always ſupport to the beſt of our Abilities.

That we humbly hope his Majeſty will advert to our earneſt Prayer, that he will graciouſly be pleaſed to grant no more Penſions for any Term whatſoever upon the Iriſh Eſtabliſhment, and that the Father of his People will not ſuffer this poor Kingdom, already ſinking under the Weight of this oppreſſive Evil, to periſh under the terrible Incumbrance of an Addition to the Liſt of Penſions.

A Petition of the Right Hon. Charles Earl of Drogheda, eldeſt Son and Heir and Adminiſtrator with the Will annexed of Edward late Earl Earl of Drogheda, &c. petition for Heads of Bill.

Earl of Drogheda deceaſed, and the Hon. Robert Moore, one of the younger Sons of the ſaid Edward Earl of Drogheda, and a Legatee under his Will, the Right Hon. William Pole, Eſq; and Charles Caldwell, Eſq; Creditors of the ſaid Edward late Earl of Drogheda, on behalf of themſelves and other Creditors of the ſaid Earl, ſetting forth, that the ſaid Edward late Earl of Drogheda was in his Life-time, and at the Time of his Deceaſe, ſeized in Fee-ſimple of divers Meſſuages, Farms, Lands, Advowſons, Tythes, Tenements and other Hereditaments ſituate reſpectively in the ſeveral Counties of Louth, Meath and Weſtmeath in this Kingdom, and being ſo ſeized, contracted ſeveral Debts which were ſecured by Mortgages, Bonds and Judgments, and died indebted to different Perſons, amounting, in the Whole, to the Principal Sum of £20,000 Sterl. the Particulars whereof are mentioned and ſet forth in a Schedule to this Petition annexed.

That the ſaid late Earl Edward departed this Life on or about the 28th Day of October, in the Year 1758, having previouſly made his Laſt Will and Teſtament in Writing, duly atteſted according to the Statute, bearing Date on or about the 29th Day of June, in the Year 1757, and thereby bequeathed to his eldeſt Son the Petitioner Charles, now Earl of Drogheda, by the Name and Addition of Charles Lord Moore, all his perſonal Eſtate of what nature or kind ſoever, clear of all his Debts, for the Payment whereof he thereby expreſsly declares, that he had provided another Fund.

And by ſaid Will, the ſaid Teſtator deviſed Annuities to three of his younger Sons for their reſpective Lives, all of which are now determined by Death, ſave only an Annuity of £150 ℔ Ann. payable to the Petitioner Robert Moore during his Life, and one other Annuity of £30, payable to Mrs. Suſan Glatigny during her Life.

And the ſaid Teſtator, by his ſaid Will, further bequeathed ſeveral pecuniary Legacies to his younger Sons, that is to ſay, To his Son the Hon. Ponſonby Moore, the Sum of £2000; to his Son the Hon. William Moore deceaſed, the Sum of £1000; and to the Petitioner Robert Moore, the Sum of £3000. And by his ſaid Will charged all his Eſtate, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in the ſaid ſeveral Counties of Louth, Meath and Weſtmeath, with the Payment not only of the ſaid Annuities and Legacies, and all Coſts and Expenſes which ſhould be occaſioned in recovering the ſame, and the Intereſt of the ſaid Legacies, but alſo with the Payment of all ſuch Debts as he ſhould owe at the time of his Death, and ſubject to the ſaid Rent-charges and Legacies, and to the ſaid Teſtator's Debts; he deviſed his ſaid Eſtate in the ſaid ſeveral Counties, to Thomas Loftus of Killyon, Eſq; and the Rev. Smyth Loftus, Clerk, and their Heirs, to the Uſe of the Petitioner Charles now Earl of Drogheda his eldeſt Son for Life, Remainder to the ſaid Truſtees to ſupport contingent Remainders, Remainder to the firſt and every other Son of the ſaid Charles now Earl of Drogheda in Tail-Male, with like Remainders in ſtrict Form of Law, to his ſeveral younger Sons and their Iſſue in Tail-Male ſucceſſively, one after another, according to Seniority of Age and Priority of Birth: And for Default of Iſſue-Male in all the ſaid Teſtator's Sons, he deviſed his ſaid Eſtate to the Uſe of ſuch Perſon, and his Heirs for ever, as ſhould be intitled to the Honours of his Family.

The Petitioners further ſet forth, that the Petitioner the ſaid Charles Earl of Drogheda, or his Brothers, have not any Iſſue-Male, and that the Debts and Legacies charged upon the ſaid Eſtates bear a very high Intereſt, which, together with the ſaid Annuities ſtill in being, and undetermined, amount yearly to a very conſiderable Sum, inſomuch that the Petitioner Robert can neither receive his ſaid Annuity yearly, or have his ſaid Portion of £3000 raiſed out of the ſaid Lands; and the Eſtates are ſo circumſtanced, that the ſaid Debts and Legacies cannot be raiſed and paid, without ſelling a competent Part of the ſaid Eſtates charged therewith.

And the Petitioners further ſet forth, that Proceedings to ſell, under a Decree of a Court of Equity, as much of the ſaid Eſtates as may be neceſſary for Payment of the ſaid Debts and Legacies and the Intereſt due on them, will not only be attended with very great Expenſe on account of the Number of Parties, which muſt be before the Court when ſuch Decree is pronounced, but the Petitioners and the other Creditors may be unreaſonably delayed by the Deaths of Parties, and the Forms of proceeding conſequential thereto; and all Perſons concerned in Intereſt in the ſaid Eſtates, will be greatly injured, occaſioned not only by the great Diſadvantage which always attends the Sale of Eſtates under Decrees, but that no Purchaſer of any ſeparate Part of the ſaid Eſtates can have a ſufficient Title made to him, or be put in Poſſeſſion thereof, until as much is ſold as will be ſufficient to pay all the ſaid Debts, Legacies and Intereſt due on them: All which Loſſes and Inconveniencies the Petitioners muſt ſuffer, if not relieved by the Aid of Parliament.

And praying their Lordſhips, that Leave may be given to bring in Heads of a Bill for veſting the Eſtates of the ſaid Edward late Earl of Drogheda (which by his Will are charged with the Payment of ſaid Debts and Legacies) in Truſtees, that ſo much thereof may be ſold, as ſhall be ſufficient for Payment of the Debts and Legacies which affect the ſame; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill, according to the Prayer of the ſaid Petition. Order thereon.

Ordered, that the Hon. Ponſonby Moore be ſerved with a Copy of the ſaid Petition.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

Ld Lieutenant preſent. His Excellency George Lord Viſc. Townſhend, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Tyrone carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Cavan, the Cap of Maintenance; two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State, under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for. The Speaker, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint the Commons, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter. And the Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies, where Mr. Speaker, after a Speech to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant in relation to the Money-Bills, delivered them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought them to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Titles, as follow, viz.

Royal Aſſent given to two Bills.

1. An Act for granting unto his Majeſty an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, Strong Waters, Wine, Tobacco, Hides, and other Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned; and for prohibiting the Importation of all Gold and Silver Lace, and of all Cambricks and Lawns, except of the Manufacture of Great Britain.
2. An Act for granting to his Majeſty the ſeveral Duties, Rates, Impoſitions and Taxes therein particularly expreſſed, to be applied to the Payment of the Intereſt of the Sums therein provided for, and towards the Diſcharge of the ſaid Principal Sums, in ſuch Manner as therein is directed.

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words following, viz.

" Le Roi remercie ſes bons Sujets, accepte leur " Benevolence, et ainſi le veult."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet on Thurſday Morning next, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Ordered, that two of the Judges do aſſiſt the ſaid Lords' Committees, who are to conſider of the ſaid Heads of a Bill.

Ordered, that all Perſons concerned in the Conſequences of the ſaid Heads of a Bill, may be heard by Counſel before the ſaid Lords' Committees, if they ſhall think fit.

Mr. Waddell's Petition.

A Petition of James Waddell of Springfield in the Co. Down, Eſq; ſetting forth, that the Petitioner, in the Year 1752, intermarried with Letitia Freeman, Spinſter, in the Kingdom of Great Britain, and cohabited with her there, until the Year 1760, when he brought her and his Family to this Kingdom; and there are Iſſue living of ſaid Marriage, to wit, two Sons and one Daughter.

That ſome ſhort time after, the Petitioner brought over his Family to reſide in this Kingdom, as aforeſaid, the ſaid Letitia the Petitioner's Wife, behaved in a very indecent and improper Manner, and in the Year 1766, entered into an unlawful Familiarity and adulterous Converſation with William M'Cullogh her Footman, and carried on ſuch criminal Familiarity and adulterous Converſation from the Beginning of the Month of November in the ſaid Year 1766, until the Beginning of March in the Year 1767; and the ſaid Letitia, having been detected in the Fact with the ſaid William M'Cullogh, the Petitioner, in Eaſter Term, 1767, 1767, caused a Writ to issue out of the Court of Common-Pleas against the said William M'Cullogh, and used all possible Means to have him secured, but he, as the Petitioner believes, being apprehensive that such Steps would be taken, absconded, and thereby prevented the Petitioner from executing said Writ.

That the Petitioner, on the 27th of August, 1767, instituted a Suit in the Consistorial Court of the Diocese of Dromore, against his said Wife, for a Divorce from Bed and Board for Adultery, to which the said Letitia took Defence; and the Petitioner, on the 28th of January, 1768, upon full Proof that the said Letitia had violated her conjugal Vow and committed Adultery, did obtain a definitive Sentence of Divorce, from Bed and Board and mutual Cohabitation, for the Adultery of the said Letitia with the said William M'Cullogh.

And praying their Lordships, out of their Goodness and Compassion to the said Petitioner's Misfortune and Calamity, to give Leave, that Heads of a Bill may be brought in to dissolve the Petitioner's said Marriage with the said Letitia Freeman, and to enable the Petitioner to marry again; was presented to the House, and read.

Order thereon,

Ordered, that the said Petition shall be taken into Consideration on this Day se'nnight.

Upon reading the Order for the Day,

The House was adjourned during Pleasure, and put into a Committee, to inquire into the State of the Navigation of the River Lagan; and after some time spent therein, Report of some Progress on Lagan Navigation.

The House was resumed: And the Earl of Charlemont reported from the Committee, that they had made some Progress in the Matter to them referred, and that he was directed to move the House for Leave to sit again.

Resolved, that this House shall be put into a Committee on Saturday Morning next, to take the same into further Consideration.

Ordered, that the Committee of the Lagan Navigation be discharged of so much of the Inquiry, expressed in the Order of Yesterday, as falls under the Words "And also into the "Reasons of the Rasures of Summonses sent "to Persons on the said Inquiry:" It appearing to this House, that there is no Cause for making such Inquiry, the said Rasures appearing to have happened by Mistake.

Parliamentary Grants, &c. for Lagan Navigation to be laid before Committee.

Ordered, that the whole Amount of Parliamentary Grants and the net Duties appropriated to the Use of the Lagan Navigation, be laid before the Committee of the whole House, appointed to inquire into the said Navigation; the Account of Parliamentary Grants by the Clerk of the Navigation-Board; and the appropriated Excise by the Accomptant-General or his Deputy.

Adjourned till Saturday Morning next, at Eleven o'clock.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had received a Meſſage from his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant in relation to the Petition of the Counteſs Dowager of Tyrone for the antient Barony of La Poer; and alſo the Secretary of State's Letter to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant thereupon; which were read, and ordered to be entered on the Journals of this Houſe, as follows, viz.

TOWNSHEND.

My Lords,

Meſſage from Lord Lieutenant on Barony of La Poer.

THE Earl of Shelburne, one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, having, in his Letter of the 19th of December laſt, acquainted me, that he had laid before the King the Reſolution of your Lordſhips, on the Petition of Catharine Counteſs Dowager of Tyrone, to his Majeſty; and that his Majeſty hath been graciouſly pleaſed to confirm the ſame, and to order that the ſaid Catharine Counteſs Dowager of Tyrone, and her Heirs, be allowed to enjoy all the Rights and Privileges belonging to the ſaid Barony of La Poer.

I ſend your Lordſhips herewith the Earl of Shelburne's ſaid Letter, which I deſire your Lordſhips to take into Conſideration, to the end that if any further Steps are neceſſary for carrying his Majeſty's gracious Intentions into Execution, the ſame may be taken without loſs of time.

T.

Whitehall 19th December, 1767.

My Lord,

Earl of Shelburne's Letter to Ld Lieutenant

HAVING laid before the King your Excellency's Letter of the 19th November, incloſing the Reſolution of the Houſe of Lords of Ireland, on the Petition of Catharine Counteſs Dowager of Tyrone to his Majeſty, referred to their Lordſhips' Conſideration, together with the Report of his Attorney and Solicitor General of the Kingdom of Ireland, and divers Proofs in Support of the ſaid Petition; by which the Petitoiner ſets forth her Claim to the Barony of La Poer in Fee, by Deſcent from her Grandfather Richard, who ſat and voted in Parliament as Baron La Poer till the 25th Year of his late Majeſty King Charles II. He was advanced to the Title and Dignity of Earl of Tyrone to him and the Heirs Male of his Body: Which Reſolution of their Lordſhips ſtates, that "the Right Hon. Catharine Counteſs "Dowager of Tyrone hath fully proved her "Claim to the Barony of La Poer in Fee, and "hath a Right to the ſaid Barony in Fee;" I am thereupon to acquaint your Excellency, that his Majeſty is graciouſly pleaſed to confirm the ſame; and to order that the ſaid Catharine Counteſs Dowager of Tyrone and her Heirs, be allowed to enjoy all the Rights and Privileges belonging to the ſaid Barony of La Poer.

I am, with the greateſt Truth and Reſpect,
My Lord,
Your Excellency's
Moſt obedient humble Servant,
SHELBURNE.

Witneſſes ſworn.

Charles Caldwell and Cambel Craige were by Order called to the Bar, and ſeverally ſworn to give their Teſtimony before the ſelect Committee, to whom the Conſideration of Heads of a Bill for veſting the Eſtate whereof the Right Hon. Edward late Earl of Drogheda died ſeized in Fee-ſimple, in Truſtees, to raiſe, by Sale of a competent Part thereof, Money ſufficient to diſcharge his Debts and Legacies (and other Incumbrances) affecting the ſame, were committed.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day, the Houſe proceeded to take into Conſideration, the Petition of James Waddell, Eſq; and the ſaid Petition being, by Order, read;

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Agent for the Petitioner do attend at the Bar of this Houſe with the Sentence of the Spiritual Court, mentioned in the ſaid Petition.

Mr. Waddell's Agent delivers Sentence at the Bar.

Mr. Samuel Waring, Agent to the Petitioner, attending according to Order, was by Order called in, and produced at the Bar an Exemplification of a Decree of Divorce in the Spiritual Court, mentioned in the ſaid Waddell's Petition, which was delivered in to the Clerk, and was by Order read at the Table;

Ordered, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill to diſſolve the Marriage of James Waddell, Eſq; with Letitia Freeman his now Wife, and to enable him to marry again, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned; and that the Lord Viſc. Dungannon do prepare and bring in the ſame.

Heads of Mr. Waddell's Bill.

Then the Lord Viſc. Dungannon, according to Order, preſented to the Houſe, Heads of a Bill to diſſolve the Marriage of James Waddell, Eſq; with Letitia Freeman his now Wife, and to enable him to marry again, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned; which were received, and read a firſt time.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill ſhall be read a ſecond time on Thurſday the 25th Inſt. and that Notice thereof ſhall be affixed on the Doors of this Houſe, and that the Lords be ſummoned to attend the Service of this Houſe on that Day: And that the ſaid James Waddell may be heard by his Counſel at the ſaid ſecond reading, to make out the Allegations of the ſaid Heads of a Bill; and that the ſaid Letitia Waddell otherwiſe Freeman ſhall be ſerved with a Copy of the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and that Notice ſhall be given to the ſaid Letitia Waddell otherwiſe Freeman of the ſaid ſecond reading; and that ſhe may be heard by her Counſel to what ſhe has to offer againſt the ſaid Heads of a Bill at the ſaid ſecond reading.

Whereas the Call of this Houſe was to be of this Day, the ſame was adjourned till Wedneſday Morning next.

Ordered, that all Lords in and about the Town, be ſummoned to attend the Service of this Houſe on Monday Morning next. Lords to be ſummoned.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, to inquire further into the State of the Navigation of the River Lagan; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Earl of Charlemont reported from the Committee, that they had made ſome Progreſs in the Matter to them referred, and that he was directed to move the Houſe for Leave to ſit again. Report of ſome Progreſs on Lagan Navigation.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall be put into a Committee on Saturday Morning next, to take the ſame into further Conſideration.

Bill to limit the Duration of Parliament

Hodie ſecunda vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for limiting the Duration of Parliaments.

Motion for Committal,

A Motion was made, that the ſaid Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe immediately, and a Debate ariſing thereupon,

The Houſe divided, and the Lord Viſc. Mountmorres reported, that the Contents below the Bar, were 49, and the Not-Contents in the Houſe were 2;

Proxys being called for, and read over by the Clerk, the Lord Chancellor declared, that the Contents with the Proxies were 54, and the Not-Contents were 2; agreed to.

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

DISSENTIENT:

Proteſt.

1. BECAUSE altering a long-eſtabliſhed Conſtitution, found by its Effects to be wiſely formed, is contrary to good Policy, as doubtful Happineſs is only ſuggeſted in the Place of real and experienced.

2. BECAUSE to judge truly of new Syſtems offered for this Country, we can only have Recourſe to the Effects produced where ſuch Policy is eſtabliſhed. The allowed Effects in a neighbouring Kingdom convinces us of the Inconveniencies which muſt conſequentially ariſe from frequent Elections in Ireland.

3. BECAUSE, although the Act for the Limitation of Parliaments, ſhould be thought uſeful and ſalutary to Great Britain, yet we apprehend, from the different Circumſtances and Situation of this Kingdom, it cannot be preſumed it will have the ſame Effect here, at leaſt, at preſent; and rather think, that ſuch a Law will be extremely detrimental to our infant Manufactures, and introduce ſuch Corruption, Idleneſs and Licentiouſneſs, as the Poverty of this Kingdom can in no ſort ſupport.

4. BECAUSE, from the Number of Papiſts and the frequent Inſurrections and Riſings of Perſons diſaffected to our Government, we apprehend it more than poſſible, that a Parliament of certain Duration may expire in ſuch Times of Danger as may render it difficult and improper immediately to convene another; and we have rather choſen to prevent the Conſequences that may ariſe from our being without a ſubſiſting Parliament, by giving our Diſſent to this Bill, than to enumerate more particularly thoſe Miſchiefs and Inconveniencies which we ardently wiſh our Poſterity may never experience by the paſſing it into a Law.

The Earl of Mornington reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, impreſſed with the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude, beg Leave to approach your Throne, to expreſs our grateful Acknowledgments to the beſt of Princes for the Return of the Bill for limiting the Duration of Parliaments, a Bill ſo eſſential to the Conſtitution, ſo beneficial to the Proteſtant Religion, and ſo univerſally deſired by the Nation; and to teſtify, by this early Tribute of our Thanks, the great Satisfaction which we feel from an Event which equally contributes to the Joy of the Nation, and to your Majeſty's Glory.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

The Lord Viſc. Mountmorres reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency
GEORGE Lord Viſcount TOWNSHEND,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return our grateful and unfeigned Thanks to your Excellency, for your ſtrenuous and ſucceſsful Zeal in favour of the Bill for limiting the Duration of Parliaments in this Kingdom.

At the ſame time, we beg Leave to expreſs our Gratitude to the beſt of Princes for this ſignal Proof of his Regard to his loyal People; and to declare our Approbation of your Excellency's Adminiſtration, ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed from thoſe of your Predeceſſors, by Events ſo long and ſo ardently deſired by the the People of Ireland.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty; and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that the Houſe had attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with their humble Addreſs to be preſented to his Majeſty; and his Excellency was pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

" My Lords,

Lord Lieutenant's Anſwers to Addreſſes.

" I WILL forthwith tranſmit this loyal and " affectionate Addreſs, to be laid before his " Majeſty."

The Lord Chancellor alſo reported, that the Houſe did, at the ſame time, preſent their Lordſhips' Addreſs to his Excellency; to which he was pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

" My Lords,

" I RETURN you my moſt hearty and ſin- " cere Thanks for this kind Addreſs; it gives " me the higheſt Satisfaction, that my Repre- " ſentations to his Majeſty in favour of the " Bill for limiting the Duration of Parliaments " in this Kingdom, have been effectual, not " doubting that his Majeſty's gracious Com- " pliance will meet with every Return which " a zealous and grateful People can make."

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of the 16th inſt. and his Excellency's Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that the Judges, according to Order, had prepared a Report of what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, which he preſented to the Houſe, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

My Lords,

IN obedience to your Lordſhips' Order of the 22d of October laſt, whereby the Judges were directed to inquire what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, the Judges upon Inquiry, find:

Judges' Report on temporary Laws.

A Clauſe in an Act, paſſed the 1ſt Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, whereby ſo much of an Act of the 3d Year of King George II. (intitled, An Act for the further explaining and amending ſeveral Statutes for prohibiting Under-Sheriffs and Sheriffs' Clerks from officiating more than one Year, &c.) as relates to Bills of Diſcovery therein mentioned, and obliges all Perſons to anſwer the ſame, without pleading or demurring thereto, was revived and continued, but is now near expiring.

A Clauſe in an Act of the 6th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for continuing, reviving and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes relating to the killing of Game, and to prevent the expoſing the ſame to Sale at improper Seaſons of the Year, is now near expiring.

An Act of the 3d Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to amend and explain an Act made in the 33d Year of the Reign of Henry VIII. intitled, An Act for Tythes, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, is now near expiring.

An Act of the 3d Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act to amend and continue an Act, intitled, An Act to prevent the exceſſive Price of Coals in the City of Dublin, is now near expiring.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

Order thereon. It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the foregoing Report ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to a ſelect Committee, and that the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be the ſaid Committee; and all Lords who ſhall come to the ſaid Committee ſhall have Voices therein; and two of the Judges to aſſiſt.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet on Monday next, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Upon reading the Order for the Day,

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to take into Conſideration the Petition of the Clerk of the Parliaments, Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe; that they met, purſuant to Order, and that he was directed to make the following Report, viz.

My Lords,

Report on Officers, &c. Petition.

THE ſelect Commitee; to whom the Conſideration of the Petition of the Clerk of the Parliaments, Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and the Serjeant at Arms, in behalf of themſelves and the other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, was referred, have met; and on examining ſome of the Clerks, who by Order of this Houſe were ſworn at the Table, proceeded thereon.

Mr. Edmond Fenner, being examined, ſaith, that he was employed and brought into the Parliament-Office by Mr. Sterne in the Seſſion 1755, and that he paid him for his Attendance but not regularly, and that the largeſt Sum Mr. Sterne gave him at any one time was ſomething more than £34; and being aſked, If he did not act under Mr. Hutchinſon the Clerk-Aſſiſtant? He anſwered, That he did not; but that at ſeveral times he aſſiſted the Clerks in general, without receiving any Gratuity or Reward from any of them: That this Houſe was pleaſed, the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, to grant him a Sum of £106 : 13*s*. 4*d*. but had never granted him any before; and as ſome of their Lordſhips were then pleaſed to mention to him, That they wiſhed a Continuance of it for the future, he believed that was the Cauſe for ſubmitting it to the Conſideration of your Committee this Seſſion, as a Clerk in the Parliament-Office.

Being further examined, Whether he was Deputy to any of the Clerks? Anſwered, He was not; but that Dr. Gayer propoſed to engage his Attendance upon as advantageous Terms as Mr. Sterne had done; and that Dr. Gayer never gave him any Gratuity, except a Piece of Linen-Cloth, which ſaid Fenner did not think himſelf intitled to; and he further ſaid, That he always thought Dr. Gayer was one of the Patentee-Clerks, and that the other Clerks were ſubordinate to the Patentee.

Your Committee then proceeded to examine Dr. Gayer, who being aſked, Whether the Profits ariſing from the Office of Clerk of the Parliaments, have been, or are they at preſent, intirely received by or applied to his Uſe, and to no other? He anſwered, That he ſubmitted to the Juſtice of their Lordſhips, as it might affect him and his Family to anſwer the Queſtion put to him: And being ordered to withdraw, was again called in, and the Queſtion being again repeated, anſwered, That they have been received by him, and applied to his own Uſe, and no other hitherto.

And being further aſked, Whether he was under a Contract to any Perſon whatſoever to pay any Part of his Emoluments as Clerk of the Parliaments, or did he receive his preſent Office under any ſuch Condition? Anſwered, That the Patent is to him and his Brother only, and that he was not under any Contract in Writing; but that he is under a Point of Honour, to part with ſome Part of the Profits, and that to a Perſon unknown to him. And being ordered to withdraw, was again called in, and aſked, What Proportion of the Emoluments was he engaged in Point of Honour

Anſwered, £200 for his Proportion of the Whole, either for a Year or a Seſſion. And being ordered to withdraw, was again called in, and aſked, To whom was he under a Point of Honour to part with any of the Emoluments to, to the Perſon unknown? To which he ſaid, He could give no Anſwer. And being ordered to withdraw, was afterwards called in, and the Queſtion being then a ſecond time read to him, and alſo being informed by the Lord in the Chair, That he would not only incur the Cenſure of the Committee, but that the Committee would direct the Chairman to move the Houſe, to have him committed to cloſe Confinement for the Remainder of the Seſſion, if he did not give a catagorical Anſwer to the Queſtion; and Dr. Gayer ſaid, He would give a categorical Anſwer; but if it was not for the Sake of his Wife and Children, that he would go to Newgate, and remain there; and then anſwered the Queſtion, by ſaying, It was Lord Beauchamp.

Whereupon your Committee came to the following Reſolution:

Reſolved, that the ſeveral Fees and Sums appointed by this Houſe for its Clerks are in Conſideration of their Services, and intended for the ſole Uſe of them, and of no other Perſon whatſoever.

To which the Houſe agreed.

William Watts Gayer, Eſq; was by Order ſworn at the Table, to anſwer ſuch Queſtions as ſhould be demanded of him by the Houſe; and being examined accordingly,

A Motion was made, That the foregoing Report be taken into Conſideration the firſt Meeting after the Receſs.

And a Debate ariſing thereupon, the Houſe divided:

The Lord Viſc. Mountmorres reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 10; and that the Not-Contents in the Houſe were 25:

It paſſed in the Negative.

Reſolutions on Report.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that it appears to this Houſe, that Dr. Gayer is bound by a Point of Honour to give Part of the Emoluments of his Office, as Clerk of the Houſe of Lords, to a Perſon unknown to him.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that Dr. Gayer is to receive but £200 for his Proportion of the whole Profits of ſaid Employment.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Dr. Gayer is under a Point of Honour to the Right Hon. Francis-Seymour Conway, Eſq; commonly called Lord Viſc. Beauchamp, to part with the Emoluments of his ſaid Office to a Perſon unknown, except the Sum of £200, which he is to receive for his own Uſe.

A Motion being made to reſolve, That it appears to this Houſe, that the Sum of £200 ℔ Seſſion is ſufficient for the Perſon exerciſing the Office of Clerk of the Parliaments, and that this Houſe ought not to addreſs his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant for more than that Sum.

It was propoſed, that the ſaid Motion be taken into Conſideration the firſt Monday after the Receſs;

And a Debate ariſing thereupon, the Houſe divided:

The Lord Viſc. Mountmorres reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 10; and the Not-Contents in the Houſe were 25:

It paſſed in the Negative.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that it appears to this Houſe, that the Sum of £200 ℔ Seſſion is ſufficient for the Perſon exerciſing the Office of Clerk of the Parliaments, and that this Houſe ought not to addreſs his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant for more than the ſaid Sum.

Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly praying him to lay before his Majeſty the Special Report from the Committee for ſettling the Allowances of the Servants of this Houſe, together with the ſeveral Reſolutions entered into in Conſequence thereof, humbly beſeeching his Majeſty graciouſly to take the ſame into his Conſideration, and to act therein as to his Royal Wiſdom ſhall ſeem proper.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Mountmorres, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet immediately in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Viſc. Mountmorres reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Day; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, with an Amendment, which was agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To

To his Excellency

GEORGE Lord Viſc. TOWNSHEND,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to lay before your Excellency the Special Report from the Committee for ſettling the Allowances of the Servants of this Houſe, together with the ſeveral Reſolutions entered into in conſequence thereof, humbly beſeeching your Excellency, that you will be pleaſed to lay the ſame before his Majeſty, for his Royal Conſideration.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Excellency.

Ordered, that all Orders for the Day, not proceeded on, be adjourned till To-morrow.

Biſhop of Cloyne introduced.

The Rev. Charles Agar, Doctor in Divinity, being by Letters Patents, dated the 26th Day of February, in the 8th Year of King George III. created Biſhop of Cloyne, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Lord Biſhop of Limerick and the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying his Lordſhip's Letters Patents preceding: His Lordſhip preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Biſhops' Bench.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had received a Meſſage from his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, which his Excellency directed him to lay before their Lordſhips, which he read, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk, at the Table, as follows, viz.

TOWNSHEND.

My Lords,

Lord Lieutenant's Letter.

I AM commanded by his Majeſty to inform your Lordſhips, that the Publick Service of his Majeſty's Kingdoms requiring that ſome Part of the Troops kept on the Eſtabliſhment of Ireland, ſhould be employed towards the neceſſary Defence of his Majeſty's Garriſons and Plantations abroad; and that, as it may be expedient, that a Number of Troops, not leſs than 12,000 Men (commiſſioned and non-commiſſioned Officers included) ſhould be kept within this Kingdom, for the better Defence of the ſame, excluſive of ſuch Regiments on this Eſtabliſhment as are, or may be, employed in his Majeſty's ſaid Garriſons and Plantations, his Majeſty thinks it neceſſary, that his Army on this Eſtabliſhment ſhould be augmented to 15,235 Men in the Whole; of which Number, it is his Majeſty's Intention, that as far as is conſiſtent with ſuch a Defence as the Safety of both Kingdoms, in Caſe of any ſudden or extraordinary Emergency may require, a Number of Troops, not leſs than 12,000 Men (commiſſioned and non-commiſſioned Officers included) ſhall be kept within this Kingdom for the better Defence of the ſame: And his Majeſty, having the firmeſt Reliance on the known Loyalty and Affection of your Lordſhips, cannot entertain the leaſt Doubt, but your Lordſhips will chearfully concur in the Support of a Meaſure, calculated to maintain the Honour and Dignity of his Crown, to promote the Publick Service, and to add Strength to his Army in this Kingdom, which has hitherto been ſo much weakened by frequent draughting.

Earl of Lanesborough takes the Oaths, &c.

This Day, the Right Hon. Brinsley Earl of Lanesborough sat first in Parliament, upon the Death of his Father Humphry late Earl of Lanesborough, and delivered his Writ in the accustomed Manner, and came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and subscribed the Declaration, and also took and subscribed the Oath of Abjuration, pursuant to the Statutes.

The Serjeant at Arms, being called upon to make a Return upon the Order of this House of the 8th of March last, in relation to Richard Hinde, acquainted their Lordships, that Richard Hinde was in his Custody.

Then the Serjeant at Arms, by Order, brought the said Richard Hinde to the Bar.

R. Hinde discharged from Custody.

IT is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that the said Rich. Hinde, now in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, shall be, and he is hereby, discharged from the Restraint he lies under (paying his Fees;) and this shall be a sufficient Warrant in that behalf.

To the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

Upon reading the Order for the Day,

The House proceeded to take his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Message to this House, of the 21st of April last, into Consideration, and a Resolution being proposed, that an humble Address be presented to his Majesty, to return him our most dutiful and unfeigned Thanks for his great and paternal Attention to the Safety, Protection and Defence of this Kingdom, manifested by the Message of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, in which we are informed that his Majesty thinks it necessary that his Army on this Establishment should be augmented to 15,235 Men in the Whole, and that it is his Majesty's Intention, that of that Number, not less than 12,000 Men should be kept within this Kingdom for the better Defence thereof, as far as is consistent with such a Defence, as the Safety of both Kingdoms in Case of any sudden or extraordinary Emergency, may require.

To declare, that we cannot but acknowledge his Majesty's Wisdom, in thus endeavouring to guard us in a Manner, which not only discourages, but which we trust would, under the good Providence of God, render ineffectual every Attempt against the established Religion, the Liberty and the Peace of this Country.

To declare also, that this fresh Instance of his Majesty's kind Regard for the Welfare of this Kingdom, added to the many Expressions he hath been pleased to give us of it, fills our Minds with the warmest Impressions of Loyalty and Gratitude, and forms in us the most perfect Reliance upon his Majeſty's Goodneſs, and his gracious Intention, communicated to us.

And to aſſure his Majeſty, that we ſhall ever be ready to concur in whatever may be neceſſary to maintain the Honour and Dignity of his Crown, and to promote and preſerve the Safety and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

And a Debate ariſing thereupon,

The Houſe divided; and the Earl of Carrick reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 42; and the Not-Contents in the Houſe were 9:

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King on Augmentation of Army.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to return him our moſt dutiful and unfeigned Thanks for his great and paternal Attention to the Safety, Protection and Defence of this Kingdom, manifeſted by the Meſſage of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, in which we are informed that his Majeſty thinks it neceſſary that his Army on this Eſtabliſhment ſhould be augmented to 15,235 Men in the Whole, and that it is his Majeſty's Intention, that of that Number not leſs than 12,000 Men ſhould be kept within this Kingdom for the better Defence thereof, as far as is conſiſtent with ſuch a Defence, as the Safety of both Kingdoms, in Caſe of any ſudden or extraordinary Emergency, may require.

To declare, that we cannot but acknowledge his Majeſty's Wiſdom, in thus endeavouring to guard us in a Manner which not only diſcourages, but which we truſt would, under the good Providence of GOD, render ineffectual every Attempt againſt the eſtabliſhed Religion, the Liberty and the Peace of this Country.

To declare alſo, that this freſh Inſtance of his Majeſty's kind Regard for the Welfare of this Kingdom, added to the many Expreſſions he hath been pleaſed to give us of it, fills our Minds with the warmeſt Impreſſions of Loyalty and Gratitude, and forms in us, the moſt perfect Reliance upon his Majeſty's Goodneſs, and his gracious Intention, communicated to us.

And to aſſure his Majeſty, that we ſhall ever be ready to concur in whatever may be neceſſary to maintain the Honour and Dignity of his Crown, and to promote and preſerve the Safety and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

Ordered, that the Earl of Carrick, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and all Lords, who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Ordered, that the Lord Mount-Florence have the Leave of this Houſe to be abſent for a Month, leaving his Proxy.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to thank his Excellency, for his Meſſage to this Houſe, communicating his Majeſty's gracious Intentions of augmenting his Army upon this Eſtabliſhment, in ſuch a Manner that 12,000 Men ſhall be conſtantly kept within this Kingdom for the better Defence and Security of the ſame: And to aſſure his Excellency of the high Senſe we have of his Attention to the Security and Welfare of this Kingdom, upon every Occaſion.

Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant for Meſſage on Augmentation of Army.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Ordered, that the Lord Biſhop of Limerick have the Leave of this Houſe to be abſent for a Month, leaving his Proxy.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Earl of Carrick reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King on the Augmentation of the Army.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return our moſt dutiful and unfeigned Thanks, for your great and paternal Attention to the Safety, Protection and Defence of this Kingdom, manifeſted by the Meſſage of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, in which we are informed, that your Majeſty thinks it neceſſary, that your Army on this Eſtabliſhment ſhould be augmented to 15,235 Men in the Whole; and that it is your Majeſty's Intention, that of that Number, not leſs than 12,000 Men ſhould be kept within this Kingdom, for the better Defence thereof, as far as is conſiſtent with ſuch a Defence, as the Safety of both Kingdoms, in Caſe of any ſudden or extraordinary Emergency, may require.

We cannot but acknowledge your Majeſty's Wiſdom, in thus endeavouring to guard us in a Manner which is not only calculated to diſcourage, but which we truſt will, under the good Providence of GOD, render ineffectual every Attempt againſt the eſtabliſhed Religion, the Liberty and Peace of this Country.

This freſh Inſtance of your Majeſty's kind Regard for the Welfare of this Kingdom, added to the many Proofs your Majeſty has been pleaſed to give us of it, fills our Minds with the warmeſt Impreſſions of Loyalty and Gratitude, and forms in us the moſt perfect Reliance upon your Majeſty's Goodneſs, and your gracious Intention, communicated to us.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall ever be ready to concur in whatever may be neceſſary to maintain the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, and to promote and preſerve the Safety and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency
GEORGE Lord Viſc. TOWNSHEND,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return our ſincere Thanks for your Excellency's Meſſage to this Houſe, informing us, that his Majeſty thinks it neceſſary that his Army on this Eſtabliſhment ſhould be augmented to 15,235 Men in the Whole; and that it is his Majeſty's Intention, that of that Number, not leſs than 12,000 Men ſhould be kept within this Kingdom for the better Defence thereof, as far as is conſiſtent with ſuch a Defence, as the Safety of both Kingdoms, in Caſe of any ſudden or extraordinary Emergency, may require; and to aſſure your Excellency of the high Senſe we have of your Attention to the Security and Welfare of this Kingdom, upon every Occaſion.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed.

John Weekes, being by Order called to the Bar, was ſworn to give Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees, appointed to take into Conſideration the ſeveral Charities and charitable Donations in this Kingdom.

Witneſs ſworn on Charities.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that in obedience to their Lordſhips' Order, he had waited upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he would pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency; and his Excellency was pleaſed to appoint this Day, at half an Hour paſt Three o'clock, at the Caſtle.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Report of ſome Progreſs on Officers' Petition.

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh, from the ſelect Committee, appointed to take into Conſideration the Petition of the Officers and Servants attending this Houſe; acquainted the Houſe, that they had made ſome Progreſs in the Matter to them referred, and that he was directed by the Committee to move the Houſe for Leave to re-conſider what they have done, previous to their making a Report.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that the ſaid Committee be impowered to re-conſider what they have done, in relation to the Petition of the Officers and Servants attending this Houſe.

Earl of Drogheda's Bill, committed.

Ordered, that an ingroſſed Bill, lying upon the Table, intitled, An Act for veſting the Eſtate whereof the Right Hon. Edward late Earl of Drogheda died ſeized in Fee-ſimple, in Truſtees, to raiſe, by Sale of a competent Part thereof, Money ſufficient to diſcharge his Debts and Legacies (and other Incumbrances) affecting the ſame, ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to a ſelect Committee; and that the Lord Viſc. Dungannon, and all the Lords preſent, be the ſaid Committee.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet on Monday Morning next, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, and compare the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and ſee that it exactly agrees therewith; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein; and two of the Judges to aſſiſt.

Petition of Hon. P. Moore, Eſq;

A Petition of the Hon. Ponſonby Moore, Eſq; ſetting forth, that certain Heads of a Bill were lately under the Conſideration of this moſt Hon. Houſe, for veſting the Eſtate whereof Edward late Earl of Drogheda died ſeized in Fee-ſimple, in Truſtees, to raiſe, by Sale of a competent Part thereof, Money ſufficient to diſcharge his Debts and Legacies (and other Incumbrances) affecting the ſame; which the Petitioner, by Advice of his Counſel and Friends, oppoſed in manner the ſame then ſtood preſented to their Lordſhips.

That certain Alterations were agreed to be made in the ſaid Heads of a Bill as ſo propoſed, and upon certain Terms expreſſed in a Writing, agreed to be executed between Charles Earl of Drogheda and the Petitioner, concerning the ſame; which Terms being ſettled by Counſel, were reduced into a Writing, and two Parts thereof were executed by the Petitioner, in Preſence of Charles Caldwell, Eſq; Agent for the ſaid Earl of Drogheda, one Part whereof was delivered to the ſaid Charles Caldwell, to be tranſmitted to the ſaid Earl, who was then in England, in order to be executed by him; and upon that Condition, the Petitioner conſented to become a Petitioner for paſſing the ſaid Heads of a Bill into a Law, in Manner and Form as they then ſtood amended.

That the ſaid Charles Earl of Drogheda did refuſe to execute the ſaid Writing on his Part, upon which Condition only the Petitioner agreed to become a Petitioner for the ſaid Bill, as by one Part of the ſaid Writing, executed under the Hand and Seal of the Petitioner, in Preſence of the ſaid Charles Caldwell and of Joſeph Bayly the Petitioner's Agent, may appear.

That the Petitioner is adviſed, that ſhould the ſaid Bill paſs into a Law, as upon the Petition of their Lordſhips' ſaid Petitioner, the ſame may hereafter be applied to Purpoſes injurious to the Petitioner, and to others intereſted in the Eſtates, touching which the ſaid Bill was converſant, unleſs ſuch Writing as has been agreed upon, as aforeſaid, as the previous Condition to the Petitioner's joining in Application for the paſſing the ſame, ſhall firſt be executed by the ſaid Charles Earl of Drogheda.

And humbly praying their Lordſhips, for the Reaſons aforeſaid (and hereby withdrawing the Petitioner's Conſent to the ſaid Bill) that the ſame may not paſs into a Law; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Petition ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to the ſelect Committee to whom the ſaid Bill is referred.

The Lord Viſc. Jocelyn reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, ſenſibly affected by every Occaſion of Sorrow to your Royal Family, beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty on the Death of that amiable Princeſs Louiſa Anne, your Majeſty's Royal Siſter. Addreſs to the King.

Such melancholy Events muſt ever fill us with the deepeſt Concern, as we conſider every Branch of your illuſtrious Houſe (eminently diſtinguiſhed by their Virtues) as ſo many Securities for the Preſervation of our Religion, Laws, Liberties, and of every thing that is dear and valuable to your loyal and dutiful People.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

The Earl of Carrick reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency

GEORGE Lord Viſcount TOWNSHEND,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, cannot look back upon what has paſſed during the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

Parliament, which now ſeems to be drawing near to its Concluſion, without obſerving, with Gratitude and Pleaſure, how eminently it is diſtinguiſhed by the many uſeful Bills which have received your Excellency's kind Countenance and Aſſiſtance, and moſt eminently by the Bill for limiting the Duration of Parliaments, which having paſſed into a Law, will for ever reflect the higheſt Glory and Honour upon your Excellency's Adminiſtration.

Your Excellency's many publick and private Virtues, have moſt deſervedly acquired our greateſt Eſteem, and it is but juſt, that we ſhould expreſs it, as we now beg Leave to do. But this Expreſſion would be inadequate, did we not add to it, as we moſt ſincerely do, our grateful and hearty Thanks to your Excellency, for your faithful and moſt diſintereſted Conduct, for your vigilant and unwearied Attention to, and your zealous Endeavours to promote and preſerve, the Trade, Manufactures, the Peace and Properity of this Kingdom.

We cannot but have remarked, and we muſt honour and admire, the amiable Humanity, Charity, Condeſcenſion and Goodneſs, by which your Excellency has rendered your Government honourable and reſpectable in itſelf, and highly ſatisfactory and agreeable to us.

To this permit us, with all humble Submiſſion and Duty to his Majeſty, to ſubjoin our Wiſhes and our Hopes, that, as far as may conſiſt with his Majeſty's Affairs, your Excellency, ſo acceptable to us as our Chief Governor, may not ſoon be taken from us.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

The Lord Biſhop of Waterford, from the Lords' Committees, appointed to take into Conſideration the ſeveral Charities and charitable Donations in this Kingdom, made the following Report:

My Lords,

Report on charitable Donations. THE Lords' Committees, appointed to take into Conſideration the State of the ſeveral Charities and charitable Donations in this Kingdom, have taken the ſame into Conſideration, and examined Witneſſes in the moſt ſolemn Manner.

And beg Leave to acquaint your Lordſhips, that ſeveral Charities and charitable Donations which have been concealed or with-held, both before and ſince the two laſt Seſſions of Parliament, have been ſince accounted for, paid and applied in the Manner ſet forth in the firſt Schedule, annexed to this Report.

And alſo beg Leave to acquaint your Lordſhips, that ſeveral of the Charities and charitable Donations, mentioned in the ſecond Schedule, annexed to the Report of the Committee, made the laſt Seſſion, have been accounted for, and ſuch others of them as have not been accounted for, are particularly mentioned in the ſecond Schedule annexed to this Report: And it is hoped and expected, that ſuch of them as have not been accounted for, will be recovered in conſequence of the Law-ſuits already commenced, and ſuch other Means as will be uſed, in order to obtain ſo deſirable an End.

Your Committee, from the good Effects which have ariſen from the Inquiries made in the two laſt Seſſions and this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, purſuant to the Orders of your Lordſhips, have great Reaſon to expect, that ſome or the greater Part of thoſe Charities and charitable Donations, not yet accounted for, will be carried into Execution, and applied agreeable to the Intentions of the ſeveral and reſpective Donors.

All which is moſt humbly ſubmitted to Lordſhips.

The SECOND SCHEDULE, to which the annexed Report refers.

A Suit inſtituted for carrying into Execution the charitable Donations of Dr. John Sterne, late Lord Biſhop of Clogher, as mentioned in the ſecond Schedule, annexed to the Report of laſt Seſſion, is proceeding on to carry the Intention of the Donor into Execution.

A Suit inſtituted by the Lord Biſhop of Waterford, for Recovery of the Legacy left by Mrs. Jane Bonnell, as mentioned in the ſaid Schedule, is proceeding upon with all Expedition, to carry the Intention of the Donor into Execution.

A Suit inſtituted for carrying into Execution the Bequeſt of the late Nathaniel Preſton, Eſq; as mentioned in the ſaid Schedule, has been ſo far carried on with Effect, ſince laſt Seſſion of Parliament, as to aſcertain the Income of ſaid Bequeſt, to the Sum of £691 a Year, and which is now received, and the Intention of the Donor ſo far carried into Execution, as to the Payment of the ſeveral Salaries and Emoluments directed by ſaid Bequeſt. And the Suit is further proceeding on for Recovery of the Arrears of Rent for Support of the Charity.

The annual Sum of £14, deviſed by Mrs. Leſlie, as mentioned in the ſecond Schedule of the Report of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, hath been, ſince then, well ſecured; and will, for the future, be applied to the Uſe of the Charity, intended by the ſaid Mrs. Leſlie.

Since the Seſſion 1763, a Sum of £550, bequeathed by Mr. Ramſay towards building an Alms-Houſe in the Pariſh of St. Thomas, Dublin, hath produced an Intereſt of £127 : 6*s*. 5*d*. which being added together, make a Sum of £677 : 6*s*. 5*d*. and the Sum of £176, Part thereof, hath this Seſſion been laid out in purchaſing a Piece of Ground for building ſaid Houſe; and the Remainder of ſaid Sum, being £501 : 6*s*. 5*d*. hath been laid out in Loan-Debentures for the Uſe of ſaid Charity.

The Sum of £100 was, by the Will of the Rev. John Vandeleur, directed to be placed out at Intereſt for the Poor of the Pariſh of Kilruſh in the Weſt of the Co. Clare, which Sum will be ſecured, and the annual Intereſt thereof applied, to the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh.

The late Richard Burke of Drumſallagh in the Co. Limerick, Eſq; bequeathed his Intereſt in a Leaſe of the Lands of Templebridane to his Executors, to be diſpoſed of to ſuch charitable Uſes as they ſhould appoint, which is now ſaid to be worth £8 a Year, but will riſe conſiderably, and which hath not been applied, on account of the Poſſeſſion being with-held from the Executors: But a Suit hath been inſtituted for Recovery of the Poſſeſſion thereof, and Aſſurance given, this Seſſion, it will be proſecuted with Effect.

The Sum of £128, bequeathed by the Rev. Peter Harvey, as mentioned in the Report of laſt Seſſion, hath, with the Sum of £22, the Intereſt thereof, been well-ſecured this Seſſion of Parliament for the Uſe of the Charity, mentioned in his ſaid Will.

The Sum of £332 : 17*s*. 4*d*. ariſing from the Charity bequeathed by the late Mr. Joſeph Love, as mentioned in the Report of laſt Seſſion, has ſince increaſed to the Sum of £395 : 12*s*. 4¼*d*. which hath been well ſecured, this Seſſion, to the Uſe of that Charity.

The Sum of £180, being 18 Years' Arrears of £10 a Year, ariſing from a Bequeſt of Mrs. Elizabeth Warren, for ſchooling and clothing poor Girls in the Pariſh of St. Paul, Dublin, has been fully ſecured this Seſſion of Parliament; and the annual Sum of £10 will, for the future, be punctually received, and paid, for the Uſe of ſaid Charity.

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the ſelect Committee, to whom the Conſideration of an ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for confirming a certain Agreement between Francis Gore of Derrymore otherwiſe called Goodwood in the Co. Clare, Eſq; and the Right Hon. Arthur Earl of Arran, and the Right Hon. John Lord Baron Annaly of Tenelick, and for the more effectual Security and immediate Payment of the Debts of the ſaid Francis Gore, and for appointing Maintenances for the ſaid Francis Gore, Ann Gore otherwiſe Lewis his Wife, and their Children, and for other Purpoſes, was committed; that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment; and find that all Perſons concerned in the Conſequences thereof have conſented thereto, and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the ſelect Committee, to whom the Conſideration of an ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, and intitled, An Act for the Relief of Richard Thwaites and Samuel Bourſiquot of the City of Dublin, Publick-Notaries, and the other Creditors of Nicholas Forde of ſaid City of Dublin, late Merchant, and for the other Purpoſes therein mentioned, was committed; that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, Paragraph hy Paragraph, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment, and find that all Perſons concerned in the Conſequences thereof have conſented thereto, and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be now read a third time.

Mr. Thwaites's Bill, Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for the Relief of Richard Thwaites and Samuel Bourſiquot of the City of Dublin, Publick Notaries, and the other Creditors of Nicholas Forde of ſaid City of Dublin, late Merchant, and for the other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

paſſed; It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Meſſage to Commons with Concurrence. A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Walker and Mr. Tunnadine, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

Lord Lieutenant preſent. His Excellency George Lord Viſc. Townſhend, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Courtown carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Mornington the Cap of Maintenance; a Nobleman's Son bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for: The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint the Commons, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter. And the Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in the Words following, viz.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

THE advanced Seaſon of the Year and the extraordinary Length of your Attendance, make it neceſſary for you to return to your ſeveral Countries as ſoon as poſſible.

Amongſt the many good Laws which have been paſſed, it was, with particular Satisfaction, that I gave the Royal Aſſent to that for limiting the Duration of Parliaments: His Majeſty's gracious Condeſcenſion to his Subjects in that Inſtance, calls for the warmeſt Returns of Gratitude and Affection; and I truſt it will be productive of the moſt ſubſtantial and permanent Advantages to the Kingdom in general.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I AM commanded to thank you, in his Majeſty's Name, for the Supplies which have been granted to ſupport the preſent Eſtabliſhment; and you may be aſſured, they ſhall be applied with the utmoſt Frugality, to the Purpoſes for which they were intended.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THAT the Inconveniencies, which unavoidably attend a general Election, may be as little felt as poſſible, his Majeſty, in his paternal Goodneſs, hath commanded me, with all convenient Speed, to diſſolve the preſent Parliament, and to iſſue Writs for calling a new one, as ſoon as the uſual and conſtitutional Courſe of Proceedings, in like Caſes, will permit.

But his Majeſty will not put an End to this Parliament, without having firſt thanked you for the many eminent Proofs which you have given him of your inviolable Fidelity and Attachment to his Perſon, Family and Government: Nor can his Majeſty in the leaſt doubt of receiving freſh Marks of the ſame Affection, Loyalty and Zeal, in the Choice of Repreſentatives at the next General Election.

I recommend it to you, moſt earneſtly, that by your Example and Authority, you do in your ſeveral Stations, preſerve that good Order and due Execution of the Laws, ſo peculiarly neceſſary at this time.

And that you do, by your Firmneſs and Prudence, diſcountenance the repeated Attempts which have been made by falſe Repreſentations, to alienate the Affections of the People, to fill their Minds with groundleſs Jealouſies, and ſtir up unjuſt Complaints.

I return you my warmeſt Acknowledgments for the very honourable and obliging Manner in which you have expreſſed your Approbation of my Conduct: And I deſire you will be aſſured, that my beſt Endeavours ſhall, upon every Occaſion, be uniformly and ſtrenuouſly exerted to promote the Intereſt and Proſperity of Ireland.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Parliament prorogued.

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 14th Day of June next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 14th Day of June next.

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that you repair to your own Houſe, and there chooſe a fit Perſon to be your Speaker; and having ſo done, that you preſent him here forthwith to his Excellency for his Approbation.

And then the Commons withdrew.

The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod acquainted his Excellency, that the Commons were at the Door; and being ordered to call them in, they were conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies, where the Right Hon. John Ponſonby, Eſq; made a Speech, as follows, viz.

" My Lord,

His Speech.

" THE Houſe of Commons having, in purſuance of your Excellency's Commands, proceeded to the Election of a Speaker, have been pleaſed to confer that Honour upon me.

" Tho' this ſignal Mark of Favour from the Commons of Ireland has placed an Obligation on me, greater than I am able to expreſs,

" expreſs, yet when I conſider the Difficulty " and Importance of preſiding in ſo great " an Aſſembly; when I am conſcious, that " there are ſo many Members in the Houſe of " Commons, whoſe Abilities are far ſuperior " to mine, I muſt intreat that your Excellency " may direct them to chooſe a Perſon more " equal to this moſt honourable but arduous " Office."

Then the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

" Mr. Ponſonby,

Speaker approved of. " HIS Excellency the Lord Lieutenant " commands me to tell you, that he, knowing " your great Experience in the Buſineſs of " Parliament, your Attachment to his Ma- " jeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, " and your Regard for the Welfare of your " Country, thinks the Commons have made " a very proper Choice; and therefore, not- " withſtanding what you have with great " Modeſty ſaid, ſeeking to be excuſed, he " cannot admit of your Excuſe, but approves " of you as their Speaker."

Then Mr. Speaker ſaid:

His Speech concluded. " SINCE your Excellency has been pleaſed " to confirm the Choice of the Commons, " however unequal I feel myſelf to this high " and difficult Taſk, it becomes my Duty to " ſubmit, and to endeavour, by a ſteady and " unalterable Attachment to his Majeſty's " Perſon and Government, and a conſtant " Attention to the true Intereſt of this King- " dom, to render my Failings the Object of " Indulgence, rather than of Cenſure.

" If an uniform and ardent Endeavour to " promote true Liberty and Publick Happi- " neſs, can in any Meaſure ſupply the Defect " of thoſe eminent Qualifications, which I " have found by Experience to be ſo neceſſary " for fulfilling this very important Truſt, I " ſhall account myſelf truly happy; and ſhall " uſe my beſt Endeavours for that Purpoſe, " with the greater Aſſurance of Succeſs, under " the Conduct of a Chief Governor during " whoſe Adminiſtration this Kingdom has " already received ſo great and material an " Improvement of its Conſtitution.

" I am now, my Lord, to proceed in Diſ- " charge of the firſt Truſt of my Office, by " demanding in the Name and on the Behalf " of the Commons, an intire Conſervation of " all their Privileges; that they may have " Freedom of Speech in their Debates, and " not be moleſted in their Perſons, Goods or " Attendants: That the Miſtakes which I " may make, may meet with a favourable " Conſtruction and gracious Pardon; and that " when the Publick Good ſhall require it, I " may by Directions of the Houſe, have free " Acceſs to your Excellency's noble Perſon."

Then the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's further Commands, ſaid:

Mr. Speaker,

Lord Chancellor's Reply. HIS Excellency the Lord Lieutenant commands me to ſay, that he moſt readily and willingly grants what you have demanded in right of the Commons; and he will ever have a tender and ſacred Regard to all their Privileges: As to yourſelf, you may at all times have free Acceſs to him, whenever the Exigencies of the Publick, or the Commands of the Commons to you, may require it; and you may rely upon his favourable Conſtruction of all that you ſhall act or ſay, as their Speaker.

Then his Excellency was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, viz

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech. IT is with particular Satisfaction that, in obedience to his Majeſty's Commands, I meet the firſt Parliament limited in Duration that ever aſſembled in this Kingdom.

I am confident that you are come together with the juſteſt Sentiments of Duty and Affection to our moſt excellent Sovereign, who has gratified the earneſt Wiſhes of his faithful Subjects of Ireland, with that great Improvement of their Conſtitution.

I flatter myſelf, that the Proteſtant Intereſt has already found the happy Effects of it; and that the many gracious Marks which you have experienced of his Majeſty's paternal Regard, will animate your Deliberations, and direct them to all ſuch Meaſures, as may ſecure to you the Bleſſings you enjoy.

Since the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, the Royal Family has been increaſed by the Birth of another Princeſs: Intereſted as you are in the Happineſs of his Majeſty and of his illuſtrious Houſe, you will receive, with the ſincereſt Pleaſure, a Communication of ſo joyful an Event.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the proper Accounts and Eſtimates to be laid before you; and doubt not you will make every neceſſary Proviſion for the Honour of his Majeſty's Government, and the Safety and Welfare of this Kingdom.

I am extremely happy to inform you, that the Exigencies of Government have required only a very moderate Uſe to be made of that confidential Credit, which was granted by the laſt Parliament; and I truſt you will always find, on my Part, the ſame Attention to Publick Oeconomy.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

AS the wiſeſt Nations have ever deemed Times of Peace, the beſt Seaſon for improving their Civil Polity, and providing for their Security, I recommend it to you, not to neglect the preſent favourable Opportunity.

The'

The Strength and Riches of a Country, are in Proportion to the Number of its induſtrious Inhabitants; and as a religious and virtuous Education is the ſureſt Guide to Induſtry and good Morals, you will not be unmindful of that uſeful and charitable Inſtitution the Proteſtant Charter Schools; you will conſider the original Deſign and great End of them; you will obſerve whether their Courſe correſponds with their firſt Plan; and you will correct any Defects which Experience may point out to you.

The Linen Manufacture is an Object that will always engage your utmoſt Attention: I ſee with the trueſt Pleaſure, that Source of Opulence daily extending itſelf over this Kingdom: Be it your Care to preſerve it in full Credit, and that neither Fraud nor Negligence, which have ſo often proved fatal to the moſt flouriſhing Branches of Commerce and Manufacture, be ſuffered to defeat this national Acquiſition.

I muſt recommend to your moſt ſerious Conſideration, what further Laws may be neceſſary to prevent the pernicious Practice of the clandeſtine running of Goods; the great Lengths to which it has been carried of late, and the Obſtruction which the Revenue-Officers frequently meet with in the Execution of their Duty, require ſome effectual Remedy. The Suppreſſion of theſe Abuſes will have a double Effect, as at the ſame time, that it increaſes the Publick Stock and National Strength, it will afford a juſt and equitable Aſſiſtance to the honeſt Citizen and Fair Trader.

In theſe and in all your Conſultations, I am perſuaded you will proceed with that Unanimity and Wiſdom, which Matters of ſuch high Importance require: You cannot fail by ſuch Conduct, to meet with his Majeſty's moſt favourable Countenance and Approbation; and you may, in every thing, rely on my beſt Aſſiſtance, not only from the Duty I owe to the King, but from the ſincere Affection which I bear to this Kingdom.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech; and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table,

Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed; and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, begging Leave to approach his Throne with our grateful Acknowledgments of the many ineſtimable Bleſſings which we have enjoyed during his Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we are come together with the juſteſt Sentiments of Duty and Affection to his Majeſty, who has gratified the earneſt Wiſhes of his faithful Subjects of Ireland with that great Improvement of our Conſtitution, the Act for limiting the Duration of Parliaments.

That we truſt the Proteſtant Intereſt has already experienced its ſalutary Eſtects, and that we are happy in the Conſideration, that his Excellency our preſent Chief Governor, (that faithful Servant of the Crown and affectionate Friend to this Country, who has the Satisfaction of meeting, in obedience to his Majeſty's Commands, the firſt Parliament, limited in its Duration, that ever aſſembled in this Kingdom) hath, through his Majeſty's Goodneſs towards his People here, been continued amongſt us, not only to be a joyful Witneſs of thoſe happy Effects, but to afford us the welcome Opportunity of conveying, through him to his Majeſty, our Thanks for that invaluable Benefit, which, by his Majeſty's Grace and Favour, he was made the happy Inſtrument of conferring upon us.

That we ſhould be unworthy of the many gracious Marks which we have experienced of his Majeſty's paternal Regard, if it did not animate our Deliberations, and direct them to all ſuch Meaſures as may ſecure the Continuance of thoſe Bleſſings which we enjoy.

That intereſted, as we are, in his Majeſty's domeſtick Happineſs and whatever contributes to the Strength of his illuſtrious Houſe, we have received with the ſincereſt Pleaſure, the Communication of an Increaſe of the Royal Family, ſince the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, by the Birth of another Princeſs.

That as we are taught by the Examples of the wiſeſt Nations, as well as by the Nature and Reaſon of Things, that Times of Peace are the beſt Seaſons for improving the Civil Polity of a Nation, and providing for its Security, we ſhall not be regardleſs of the Opportunity which Providence is now pleaſed to favour us with.

That we beg Leave to aſſure his Majeſty, that in all our Conſultations upon thoſe great and national Objects, which have been recommended to us in his Excellency's Speech from the Throne, we will proceed with that Diligence and Unanimity, which Matters of ſuch high Importance require, and which may procure to us, what we moſt ardently wiſh to obtain, a Continuance of his Majeſty's favourable Countenance and Approbation.

Ordered, that the Earl of Kingſton, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs of Thanks be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, for his Excellency's Speech delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

Ordered, that the Lord Branden, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be and, are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

The Lord Lifford preſented to the Houſe, a Bill, intitled, An Act for allowing further Time to Perſons in Offices or Employments to qualify themſelves, purſuant to an Act, intitled, an Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery, which was received, and ordered to be read.

Hodie prima vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for allowing further Time to Perſons in Offices or Employments to qualify themſelves, purſuant to an Act, intitled, An Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery. Qualification Bill, Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be read a ſecond time To-morrow Morning.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King. WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our grateful Acknowledgments of the many ineſtimable Bleſſings which we have enjoyed, during your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

Intereſted, as we are, in the domeſtick Happineſs of your Majeſty and your Royal and moſt excellent Conſort, and in whatever contributes to the Strength of your illuſtrious Houſe, we have received, with the ſincereſt Pleaſure, the Communication of an Increaſe of your Royal Family, ſince the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, by the Birth of another Princeſs.

As we are taught by the Examples of the wiſeſt Nations, as well as by the Nature and Reaſon of Things, that Times of Peace are the beſt Seaſons for improving the Civil Polity of a Nation, and providing for its Security, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall not be regardleſs of the Opportunity which Providence is now pleaſed to favour us with.

Permit us, Royal Sir, further to aſſure your Majeſty, that in all our Conſultations upon thoſe great and national Objects, which have been recommended to us, in his Excellency's Speech from the Throne, we will proceed with that Diligence and Unanimity, which Matters of ſuch high Importance require, and which may procure to us, what we moſt ardently wiſh to obtain, a Continuance of your Majeſty's favourable Countenance and Approbation.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

The Lord Branden reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency
GEORGE Lord Viſc. TOWNSHEND,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do with the utmoſt Satisfaction offer your Excellency our ſincereſt Thanks for your moſt excellent Speech from the Throne.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency, that we conſider it as a great Proof of his Majeſty's Goodneſs to us, that he hath been pleaſed to continue your Excellency our Chief Governor, to meet us in this firſt Parliament limited in its Duration, that ever aſſembled in this Kingdom.

We cannot but have obſerved in the Courſe of your Excellency's Reſidence amongſt us, how much your Excellency's Thoughts and Endeavours have been employed to acquire a true Knowledge of the Circumſtances, Affairs and true Intereſts of this Country, from whence and from a Reflection upon the Integrity with which you have ſerved his Majeſty, and the eminent Services which you have done your Country in the great Stations to which you have been called, we have the moſt pleaſing Hopes and faireſt Proſpect, that your Excellency's Adminiſtration here will proceed in ſuch a Manner as to render it throughout, glorious to his Majeſty, honourable to yourſelf, and moſt propitious and fortunate to this Kingdom.

Your Benevolence and Affection for us, manifeſted by the many Inſtances which you have given us of it, inſpire us with an earneſt Deſire to render your Government as eaſy to yourſelf, as ſo arduous and important a Concern can be.

We beg Leave to add our Aſſurances to your Excellency, that all our Deliberations upon thoſe great and important Matters recommended to us with great Force and Energy in your Speech, ſhall be conducted by us in ſuch a manner as may recommend us to what we ever wiſh above all Things to obtain, his Majeſty's gracious Approbation, and as may preſerve to us your Excellency's favourable Opinion.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Viſcount Glerawly takes the Oaths, &c.

The Lord Viſc. Glerawly delivered his Writ in the accuſtomed Manner, and came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that in obedience to their Lordſhips' Order he had waited upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know, when he would pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency; and his Excellency was pleaſed to appoint To-morrow at three o'Clock, at the Caſtle.

TOWNSHEND,

TOWNSHEND.

My Lords,

Meſſage from Lord Lieutenant on augmenting the Army.

I AM commanded by his Majeſty to inform your Lordſhips, that his Majeſty, upon the moſt mature Conſideration of the State and Circumſtances of his Kingdom of Ireland, judges, that a Number of Troops, not leſs than 12,000 Men, Commiſſion and Non-commiſſion Officers included, ſhould be conſtantly kept therein for the better Defence of the ſame, and that his Majeſty, finding that conſiſtently with the general publick Service, the Number before-mentioned cannot always be continued in Ireland, unleſs his Army upon the Iriſh Eſtabliſhment be augmented to 15,235 Men in the Whole, Commiſſion and Non-commiſſion Officers included, his Majeſty is of Opinion, that ſuch Augmentation ſhould be immediately made. And I have his Majeſty's Commands to aſſure your Lordſhips expreſsly, in his Name, that it is his determined Reſolution, that upon ſuch Augmentation, a Number of effective Troops, not leſs than 12,000 Men, Commiſſion and Non-commiſſion Officers included, ſhall at all Times, except in the Caſes of Invaſion or Rebellion in Great Britain, be kept within this Kingdom, for the better Defence thereof.

And his Majeſty, having the firmeſt Reliance on the known Loyalty and Affection of your Lordſhips, cannot entertain the leaſt Doubt, but your Lordſhips will receive with the higheſt Approbation and Satisfaction the Communication of a Meaſure, calculated to maintain the Honour and Dignity of his Crown, and to promote the Publick Service.

Proteſt. 1. BECAUSE we conceive, that it is in the higheſt Degree inexpedient to procraſtinate the Conſideration of a Meaſure, the high Importance and the Propriety of which appears to us to be clearly evident, for theſe following Reaſons:

2. Becauſe it is enacted, by an Act of Parliament of the 10th Henry VII. in the following Words: "Item, praying the Commons, that in "Conſideration of the great and manifold "Inconveniencies that late were attempted "there, contrary to all natural Allegiance to "the King's grievous Diſpleaſure by the Pro-"curement, Counſel and Exhortation of ſuch "Officers as late had Adminiſtration of Juſtice "under the King in that Land, and ſuch as "were Officers, Accomptants and had their "Offices granted unto them by Patent for "Term of Life, by reaſon whereof they were "the more bolder to miſuſe their ſuch Autho-"rity: Therefore be it ordained, enacted and "eſtabliſhed by the Authority of this preſent "Parliament, that from this Time forward, "no maner Perſon or Perſons that ſhall have "Miniſtration of Juſtice, that is for to ſay, the "Chancellor, the Treaſurer, Judges of the "King's-Bench and Common-Pleas, the Chief "and Secondary Baron of the Exchequer, the "Clerk or the Maſter of the Rolls, and all "maner Officers, Accomptants, have any "Authority by Patent, in their ſuch Offices, "but only at the King's Will and Pleaſure. "And if any Grant afore this Time, or here-"after, be made of any of the ſaid Offices "unto any Perſon or Perſons there, contrary "to the Premiſes, the ſame to be deemed "void and of none Effect in the Law; and "by the ſame Authority, all and every maner "Act or Acts, before this Time made to the "contrary hereof, to be revoked, and deemed "void and of none Effect in the Law."

3. Becauſe we conceive, that the Chancellor of the Exchequer is meant by the Word in the Act, and not the Lord High Chancellor, for the following Reaſons: Becauſe it would be needleſs to ordain that by Statute which obtained by Cuſtom before, and the Hiſtory of thoſe times informs us, that Alexander Plunket was made Chancellor in the Year 1492, by the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and becauſe, that in the ſubſequent Seſſion, in the Year 1494, he was removed from his Office by Sir Edward Poynings, the Author of this Law; and the Seals were given to the Prior of Lanthony. Vid. Liſt of Iriſh Chancellors by Sir J. Ware, Vol. II. P. 109. though he had been appointed by the Engliſh Intereſt, and though no Crime or Miſbehaviour was alledged againſt him. Becauſe this clearly evinces, that the Seals were granted during Pleaſure in the times immediately preceding this Law, and conſequently an Ordinance for that Purpoſe would be needleſs.

4. Becauſe we conceive, that the Chancellor of the Exchequer is virtually compriſed under the general Words in the Statute; Officers, Accomptants, as a principal Revenue-Officer.

5. Becauſe, admitting that he did not come under the enumerative Words of the Statute, he certainly is comprehended under the general Words, Adminiſtration of Juſtice as a Judicial Officer, and conſequently his Patent for Life is void.

6. Becauſe Sir Edward Coke founds the Court of Equity in the Exchequer upon the Office of Chancellor of the Exchequer in theſe Words. "Hereupon it is collected, that ſee-"ing there has been time out of mind a "Chancellor of the Exchequer, it follows, "that there ſhould alſo be in the Exchequer a "Court of Equity." 4th Inſtitute, P. 119.

7. Becauſe it appears, that this Office has been granted in England immemorially during Pleaſure: That the Patents during the Reigns of Edward I. and II. were at Will. Vid. Madoxe's Hiſtory of the Exchequer, P. 51, And that John Deſandale acted there as a Judge at that time: And becauſe, by an Act of Parliament of the 10th of Henry VII. Chap. 22, all the Engliſh Laws and Cuſtoms previous to that Period are made of Force in Ireland.

8. Becauſe the Chancellor of the Exchequer has always been eſteemed a Judicial Officer, and all Bills on the Equity-ſide ſhould be directed to the Chancellor, Treaſurer and Barons of the Exchequer: And it was affirmed by the Lords of Ireland, in the great Cauſe of Sherlock and Anneſley, upon the Depoſition of Daniel Reading, Eſq; Deputy Remembrancer, ſworn at the Bar, that all Bills or Orders on the Equity-ſide ſhould be directed to the Chancellor, Treaſurer and Barons of the Exchequer; if otherwiſe directed, that it would be Error; and that the Barons of the Exchequer were not warranted in obeying an Injunction, directed only to them, and in making Uſe of the Names of the Chancellor and Treaſurer of the Exchequer; Vide State Trials, Vol. VI. P. 190 and 191. and Vol. II. Lords' Journals of the 28th of July, 1719, P. 622, 657.

9. Becauſe it has been cuſtomary for the Chancellor of the Exchequer to preſide at the Commencement of the Term; and becauſe a Gentleman lately poſſeſſed of that Office preſided to the great Eaſe and Benefit of the Suitors in that Court, and becauſe the Abſence and Neglect of the firſt Officer of the Exchequer, is a great Loſs to all the People of Ireland.

10. Becauſe that the Maſter of the Rolls, being expreſsly enumerated as a Judicial Officer in the Act of Parliament, we conceive, that the Patent by which that Office paſſed to Richard Rigby, Eſq; for Life, is void.

11. Becauſe it appears, that the Maſter of the Rolls is a Judicial Officer, immemorially in both Kingdoms, becauſe though it was diſputed formerly, whether he derived his Power of hearing and determining Cauſes, in the Abſence of the Chancellor, from Preſcription or from ſpecial Commiſſion, the 3d of George II. Chap. 30, to quiet thoſe Queſtions, ratifies all Decrees, made by him or his Predeceſſors in the Abſence of the Chancellor, and declares, that he has been a Judicial Officer time immemorial; becauſe if he is a Judge at Common Law in England, he is alſo a Judge here by the 10th of Henry VII.

12. Becauſe Sir Edward Coke expreſsly ſays, that in the Abſence of the Chancellor, he heareth Cauſes and giveth Orders, 4th Inſtitute, P. 97; becauſe his Opinion in this reſpect has the greateſt Weight, as not likely to inlarge an equitable Juriſdiction.

13. Becauſe no Reaſon can be originally aſſigned, for the Separation of the judicial and miniſterial Power of this Officer; and becauſe that the Clerk or Maſter of the Rolls are ſynonimous Terms reſulting from this Circumſtance, that it was anciently the Cuſtom to appoint the Firſt Clerk or Maſter in Chancery, Maſter of the Rolls.

14. Becauſe, though the Adminiſtration of Juſtice be expreſsly excepted in the Patent, we conceive that the Crown cannot ſever the judicial from the miniſterial Power of an Office, ſince if it can do it in the Caſe of one, it can do it in any Office where they may have been united.

15. Becauſe the Reſidence of this Officer was eſteemed neceſſary formerly, ſeeing that one Henington, a Maſter in Chancery in England, about the time of Edward III. reſided here as Maſter of the Rolls, and was allowed to hold his Place as Maſter in Chancery in England.

16. Becauſe it appears, that Chriſtopher Wandesford, Eſq; Maſter of the Rolls, attended the Houſe as a Judge, and that he read the Lord Deputy Wentworth's Commiſſion for holding a Parliament in the Year 1634, by his Order ſtanding by the Wool-ſack, among the Judges. [Vol. I.] Lords' Journals, 1634, P. 3.

17. Becauſe it appears, that a Petition was preſented to his Majeſty in the Year 1640 by the Lords of Ireland, repreſenting, that "the "Maſter of the Rolls was a Counſellor of State, "an Officer of great Truſt and Conſeqence, "to give Advice to the Council-Board and "in the Court of Chancery; and praying him "that that Office might not be granted to any "one who had not ſufficient Eſtate in this "Country, and who had not Experience, "Quality or Reputation in the Common-"wealth ſufficient to diſcharge the ſaid Truſt "faithfully, nor to anſwer for any Miſde-"meanors that may be committed in the "undue Execution of the ſaid Place." [Vol. I.] Lords' Journals, 1640, P. 163.

18. Becauſe that this Diſadvantage attends granting Judicial Officers for Life, that Age or Infirmity may diſqualify them for their Offices.

19. Becauſe though this Office has frequently been granted for Life, ſince the 10th of Henry VII. yet no Inference can be drawn from thence, as Cuſtom cannot be pleaded againſt an Act of Parliament, 1ſt Inſtitute, P. 115.

20. Becauſe we humbly conceive, that Judicial Officers ſhould be ſelected from Men of Knowledge, and of the Profeſſion of the Law.

21. Becauſe a legal Diſquiſition of this Subject was ſtudiouſly avoided in the Debate: And becauſe that a Reference to the Judges was denied, upon a Preſumption, that this Inquiry might come before them in another Capacity; an Objection that would operate equally well in every other Caſe, ſince there is no legal Point which may not be cognizable in their reſpective Courts.

22. Becauſe

22. Becauſe we conceive, that the Abſence of theſe two great Judicial Officers is a heavy Grievance to this Country, creating an Accumulation of Buſineſs in the Chancery; deferring Suits for want of an Aſſiſtant, in Caſe of the Abſence or Indiſpoſition of the Chancellor. For theſe Reaſons, we have thought it our Duty to tranſmit Reaſons which to us appear as irrefragable to the unerring Judgment of the Publick and of Poſterity, and to exempt ourſelves in the Minds of thinking Men, both here and in another Kingdom, from that Obloquy which falls upon the Legiſlature of this Country, for their Acquieſcence under the evident Violation of the expreſs Words of an Act of Parliament.

Lord Erne introduced.

Abraham Creighton, Eſq; being by Letters Patents, dated the 15th Day of July, in the 8th Year of King George III. created Lord Baron Erne of Crum Caſtle in the Co. Fermanagh, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Lord Baron Southwell and the Lord Baron Mount-Florence, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the ſaid Letters Patents preceding: His Lordſhip preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place at, the lower end of the Barons' Bench.

Reſolution in favour of L. d Chancellor.

Reſolved, nem. con. by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that his Excellency will lay before his Majeſty the Requeſt of this Houſe, that his Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to grant to the Lord Chancellor the Sum of One thouſand Pounds, in Addition to his cuſtomary Allowance as Speaker of this Houſe, in Approbation of his Lordſhip's particular Merit and faithful Services in that high Station during this Seſſion of Parliament.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Jocelyn do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Reſolution.

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, to whom the Conſideration of the Memorial of Bowen Southwell, Eſq; Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, was referred; that they had agreed to a Report, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and is as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Report on Memorial of Gentleman Uſher

THE Lords' Committees for Privileges, to whom the Conſideration of the Memorial of Bowen Southwell, Eſq; Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, was referred, having met, according to Order, he produced his Appointment to the Office of Gentleman-Uſher, which with his Memorial were read, and alſo the Patent granted to the Keeper of the new Parliament-Houſe in the City of Dublin.

Your Committee alſo examined the Journals of this Houſe, from the Seſſion 1731, to the Seſſion 1767, incluſive, in order to know who had the Appointment of a Houſe-keeper and Fire-maker, during each Seſſion of Parliament, and having alſo heard Evidence thereupon, came to the following Reſolutions:

Reſolved, that it appears to this Committee, that from the Year 1731 to the Year 1767, incluſive, a Houſe-keeper for taking Care of the Houſe of Lords and making Fires during the Seſſion of Parliament (diſtinct from the Keeper of the new Parliament-Houſe appointed by Patent) has been in that Buſineſs employed and rewarded by Addreſs of the Houſe of Lords.

Reſolved, that it appears to this Committee, that from the Year 1731 to the Year 1767, incluſive, the Houſe-keeper for taking Care of the Houſe of Lords, and for making the Fires during the Seſſion of Parliament, has been appointed by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and has been occaſionally, on Miſbehaviour, removed by him.

To which the Houſe agreed.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that the Judges, according to Order, had prepared a Report of what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, which he preſented to the Houſe, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Report on temporary Laws.

IN obedience to your Lordſhips' Order of the third Day of laſt November, whereby the Judges were directed to inquire what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, the Judges, upon Inquiry, find:

An Act, paſſed in this Kingdom, in the 8th Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intitled, An Act for explaining and amending an Act, intitled, An Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery, ſo far as it relates to the Encouragement of Popiſh Prieſts becoming Proteſtants, having expired, was revived and continued by an Act, made in the 31ſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. and is now near expiring.

A Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in this Kingdom in the 3d Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for the further explaining and amending ſeveral Statutes for prohibiting Under-Sheriffs and Sheriffs' Clerks from officiating as Sub-Sheriff or Sheriff's Clerk more than one Year; and to render more effectual an Act to prevent Fees being taken in certain Caſes; and to take away the pretended Office of Barony Clerk; and to oblige Sheriffs to appoint Deputies for granting Replevins, which Clauſe relates to the preferring any Bill or Bills in the Courts of Chancery or Exchequer for the Diſcovery of any Offence againſt the ſaid Act, or againſt an Act therein mentioned of the 10th Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, and obliging any Perſon to anſwer the ſame at large; was from time to time revived and continued by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts, and is now near expiring.

A Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in this Kingdom, in the 10th Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George I. intitled, An Act for continuing and amending an Act for better regulating the Pariſh-Watches and amending High-ways in this Kingdom, and for preventing the Miſapplication of Publick Money; and alſo for eſtabliſhing a regular Watch in the City of Dublin, and to prevent Miſchiefs which may happen by graving in the River Liffey, which Clauſe relates to Pariſh-Watches and High-ways in this Kingdom; was revived and continued from time to time by other ſubſequent Acts, and is now near expiring.

An Act made in this Kingdom, in the 1ſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for regulating the Price and Aſſize of Bread, and the Markets, which was continued by other ſubſequent Acts, is now expired.

A Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in the 17th Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act to prevent the pernicious Practice of burning Land, and for the more effectual deſtroying of Vermin; which Clauſe relates to the giving Rewards for the more effectual deſtroying of Vermin, and which Clauſe (excepting Rooks and Herons) was from time to time revived and continued by other ſubſequent Acts, is now near expiring.

An Act, paſſed in this Kingdom, in the 25th Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for the better Preſervation of the Game, which Act was revived and continued by an Act, made in the 1ſt Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, is now near expiring.

A Clauſe in an Act paſſed in the 31ſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, which makes the killing and deſtroying wild Turkeys, ſubject and liable to the ſame Penalties and Forfeitures that the deſtroying of Pheaſants, Partridge and Quails, are made liable to, and which Clauſe was continued by an Act, paſſed in the 7th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for continuing, reviving and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, and other Purpoſes therein mentioned, is now near expiring.

An Act, paſſed in this Kingdom, in the 3d Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for diſcharging all Arrears of Quit, Crown and Compoſition Rents, which have been growing due for twenty Years laſt paſt, on the Terms and in the Manner therein mentioned, is now expired.

An Act, paſſed in the 3d Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the better Preſervation of the Game, which Act was ſince continued from time to time, by two other Acts of the 5th and 7th Years of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, is now near expiring.

A Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in the 3d Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for confirming the Titles and for quieting the Poſſeſſions of Proteſtants, and for giving Time to Converts from Popery to perform the Requiſites of Conformity preſcribed by the Laws againſt Popery, which enacts, that all ſuch Perſon or Perſons as had theretofore obtained the Biſhop's Certificate of their Conformity; and from and after the obtaining the ſame had profeſſed the Proteſtant Religion, and had continued Proteſtants, and had not performed all the other legal Requiſites of Conformity, and ſhould perform the ſame before the 1ſt Day of December, 1765, ſhould from the time of his, her or their Conformity from the Popiſh to the Proteſtant Religion, be deemed and taken to be Proteſtants of the eſtabliſhed Church to all Intents and Purpoſes: Provided always, that nothing therein contained contained ſhould bar, defeat or prejudice any Judgment or Decree whatſoever in any Court of Law or Equity, or any Suit then depending on the Popery Laws; which Clauſe to limit the time for performing the ſaid legal Requiſites of Conformity, was enlarged by two ſeveral Acts, the one of the 5th Year and the other of the 7th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, but the time limited by the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act for Performance of the ſaid legal Requiſites of Conformity, is lately expired.

An Act, paſſed in the 5th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to prevent for the future tumultuous Riſings of Perſons within this Kingdom, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, which was continued by an Act, paſſed in the 7th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, for continuing, reviving and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, and other Purpoſes therein mentioned, is now near expiring.

An Act, paſſed in the 7th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to continue and amend an Act paſſed in the 3d Year of his Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to amend and explain an Act, made in the 33d Year of the Reign of Henry VIII. intitled, An Act for Tythes, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, is near expiring.

An Act, paſſed in the 7th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the Encouragement of Tillage and Navigation, by granting a Bounty on the Carriage of Corn, Coaſt-ways, is now near expiring.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

Order thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the foregoing Report ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to a ſelect Committee, and that the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be the ſaid Committee; and that all the Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein; and two of the Judges to aſſiſt.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'Clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolution in favour of Ld Ranelagh

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that his Excellency will lay before his Majeſty the Requeſt of this Houſe, that his Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to grant to the Right Hon. Lord Viſc. Ranelagh the Sum of one thouſand Pounds, in Teſtimony of their Approbation of his Lordſhip's particular Merit and faithful Services in this Seſſion of Parliament, as Chairman to the ſeveral Committees, and other Buſineſs that have paſſed this Houſe.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that the Lord Annaly do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Reſolution.

Petition of Officers, &c. of Houſe.

A Petition of the Clerk of the Parliaments, Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and Serjeant at Arms, in behalf of themſelves and the other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe:

Humbly beſeeching their Lordſhips to take them into Conſideration, and to grant them ſuch Recompenſe for their Attendance and Service this preſent Seſſion of Parliament; alſo to grant to the Clerk of the Parliaments, for his Attendance on, and keeping Fires in, the Parliament-Office and the Rooms thereunto adjoining, wherein are now kept the Parliamentary Books and Records by Order of this Houſe, during the laſt Interval of Parliament, as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, ſhall ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Ordered, that Lords' Committees be appointed to take the ſaid Petition into Conſideration, and that the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh, and all the Lords preſent, be the ſaid Committee, and that all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolved, that it be an Inſtruction to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Clerk of the Parliaments, preſented this Day is referred; that they take into Conſideration the Reſolutions of this Houſe touching the Clerk of the Parliaments, in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament.

A Petition of William Hawkins, Eſq; Ulſter King of Arms of all Ireland, humbly praying their Lordſhips to grant him ſuch Recompenſe for his Service and Attendance this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, ſhall ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Petition be referred to the Lords' Committees, to whom the Petition of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and the other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, is referred.

Report on Gent. Uſher's Memorial.

The Report from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, to whom the Conſideration of the Memorial of Bowen Southwell, Eſq; Gentleman Uſher of the Black-Rod, was referred, being by Order, read:

And it appearing to this Houſe, that Diſputes have frequently ariſen between the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and the Patentee Keeper of this Houſe, touching the delivering up the Poſſeſſion of this Houſe, previous to an approaching Seſſion of Parliament, and that it may be highly inconvenient and improper, that the Vaults of this Houſe

House ſhould be in the Occupation of Tenants, or in the Poſſeſſion of any one not intruſted particularly by Government, or this Houſe;

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that it will be highly convenient, that the Poſſeſſion of this Houſe ſhould be delivered up to the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, a convenient Time before each Seſſion of Parliament, together with an exact Inventory of all the Furniture and Goods belonging thereto, together with the Vaults and other Rooms belonging to the ſaid Houſe; and that the ſame ſhould be delivered back by the Gentleman-Uſher to the Patentee Houſe-keeper, at the End of each Seſſion of Parliament, with a like Inventory; and that the Vaults and Rooms of and belonging to this Houſe, be under the Care of the Gentleman-Uſher, without making or ſuffering to be made any Uſe of the ſaid Vaults, without the Leave of his Excellency or other Chief Governor or Governors for the Time being, or the Leave of this Houſe during the Seſſion of Parliament.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, with the ſaid Reſolution.

Ordered, that all the Lords in and about the Town be ſummoned to attend the Service of this Houſe To-morrow Morning.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Motion againſt entering a Proteſt of any Perſon who is not a Lord of Parliament.

Motion being made, that the Speaker of this Houſe be deſired to direct that no Proteſt of any Perſon whomſoever, who is not a Lord of Parliament, and a Member of this Houſe, and which doth not reſpect a Matter which had been previouſly in Queſtion before this Houſe, and wherein the Lord proteſting had taken Part with the Minority either in Perſon or by Proxy, be entered in the Journals of this Houſe:

And

Debate thereon.

And a Debate ariſing thereupon, the Queſtion was put, and the Houſe divided:

The Earl of Drogheda reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 5; and the Not-Contents in the Houſe were 30;

It paſſed in the Negative.

DISSENTIENT:

Proteſt.

1. BECAUSE we conceive, that it is the ſole and excluſive Right and Privilege of a Lord of Parliament and Member of this Houſe, to have his Proteſt entered on the Journals of this Houſe; and that even a Lord of Parliament and Member of this Houſe, cannot have his Proteſt ſo entered, except upon a Matter previouſly in Queſtion before this Houſe, wherein the Lord proteſting took Part with the Minority, either in Perſon, or by Proxy.

2. Becauſe we conceive, that this Regulation of the Privilege of proteſting, ſtands upon the ſame Principle, in Conſequence of which this Privilege hath obtained among the Lords, and not among the Repreſentatives of the People; the latter, we apprehend, are conſidered by the Conſtitution, as actuated and juſtified by the Sentiments of thoſe whom they repreſent: Whereas the Lords who act not as Deputies, but in their own Right, are more perſonally reſponſible for their Conduct to Poſterity. The Practice of a permanent Juſtification, alſo ſeems to have been deemed a more neceſſary Guard upon a Body, whoſe Power was permanent. Hence we conceive the Privilege of proteſting aroſe, that a Lord againſt whom the Majority had declared might have an Opportunity of vindicating himſelf to future Times, which the original Cuſtom of inſerting the Name of each Lord on the Journals, with the Part he had taken in the Queſtion rendered more neceſſary: —And we therefore apprehend as it would be abſurd for a Lord to juſtify his Conduct where he had not acted, that the Privilege of proteſting hath been by Reaſon, as well as Practice confined to Caſes, in which the Lord proteſting had taken a Part, and in which, upon Queſtion, the Majority had been of a different Opinion.

3. Becauſe we conceive, that the Earl of Strafford, who firſt attempted, and that but in a ſingle Inſtance, to enter his Proteſt, as Chief Governor, upon the Journals of this Houſe, was a Perſon of ſuch an arbitrary Spirit, and the Times, in which he lived, of ſo bad Example, and his ſaid Proteſt ſo informal and faulty in itſelf, that ſuch his Proceeding ought not to be conſidered as a Precedent.

4. Becauſe we apprehend, that the only ſubſequent Inſtance, to wit, the Proteſt of Lord Sidney, which was made in Heat by that Governor, whoſe Conduct was diſapproved on his Recal to England, which ſoon followed, and founded upon the former Example, which ought not to have been imitated, was ſtill more irregular and improper, inaſmuch as it related to a Matter, which had never been before this Houſe, and reſpected the Privileges and Proceedings of the other Houſe of Parliament.

5. Becauſe we conceive it to be peculiarly neceſſary, at this time, to expreſs our Sentiments upon this Subject, when we have Reaſon to apprehend, that it is intended, that a Proteſt ſhall be entered upon the Journals of this Houſe, relative to the Proceedings and Privileges of the other Houſe of Parliament, in imitation of the laſt-mentioned Proteſt.

6. Becauſe we apprehend, that we ought not to ſuffer this diſtinguiſhing Privilege of the Lords to be invaded or aſſumed by any Perſon, in whatever Station. And that we ought particularly to reſiſt any ſuch Attempt, when it may be thought to involve a Breach of the Privileges of the other Houſe of Parliament alſo, and may therefore be productive of Diſſenſion between the two Houſes.

Report on Petition of Officers, &c. of Houſe.

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Petition of the Clerk of the Parliaments, the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and the Serjeant at Arms, in behalf of themſelves and the other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe; alſo the Petition of Ulſter King of Arms of all Ireland, and alſo the Reſolutions of this Houſe touching the Clerk of the Parliaments in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament were referred; that they had come to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, that it appears to this Committee, that Doctor Gayer is no longer under any Engagement of Honour or otherwiſe to any Perſon whatſoever, touching the Emoluments of his Office as Clerk of the Parliaments; and that he and his Brother, the Joint-Patentees, are to receive to their own Uſe the whole Profits thereof, and that he has been diſcharged from all Engagements from the 19th April, 1768.

Reſolved, that it appears to this Committee, that the Engagement in Point of Honour heretofore entered into by Doctor Gayer, to part with the Profits of his Office of Clerk of the Parliaments, all but two hundred Pounds, to ſome Perſon unknown to him, was an Engagement whereby the Profits ſo to be parted with, were to be applied to charitable Purpoſes, for the Relief of ſome poor Families in Diſtreſs, and Objects of Compaſſion.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and humbly deſire his Excellency to repreſent to his Majeſty the Caſe of the Officers and Servants attending this Houſe; that they may, of his Princely Bounty, receive ſuch Encouragement and Rewards as may be proportionable to their Labour, Expenſe and Services, in their ſeveral Employments in this Houſe.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon an ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for granting unto his Majeſty an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, Strong Waters, Wine, Tobacco, Hides, and other Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned; and for prohibiting the Importation of all Gold and Silver Lace, and of all Cambricks and Lawns, except of the Manufacture of Great Britain; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Committee, that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment; and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be now read a third time.

First Money Bill. Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for granting unto his Majeſty an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, Strong Waters, Wine, Tobacco, Hides, and other Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned; and for prohibiting the Importation of all Gold and Silver Lace, and of all Cambricks and Lawns, except of the Manufacture of Great Britain.

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

paſſed; It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Proteſt. 1. BECAUSE we conceive, that the Propoſition of an Augmentation is altered in Form, not in fact; and becauſe it was not to the Appearance, but to the Subſtance, and Body of the Meaſure that we gave our Negative laſt Seſſion.

2. Becauſe when we reflect upon the Ability and Numbers of the People of Ireland, we think it will be a very extraordinary Exertion in the time of Peace to encreaſe our Army to within 2000 Men of the Peace Eſtabliſhment of Great Britain.

3. Becauſe

3. Becauſe we cannot keep, conſidering an Increaſe of a Standing Army in Ireland, a dangerous Engine in the Hands of an Engliſh Miniſter.

4. Becauſe it was this Reaſon that induced the Engliſh Legiſlature, in the Year 1699, to limit the Troops in Ireland to 12,000 Men, againſt the expreſs Wiſh of their Deliverer.

5. Becauſe, when the Fears of Men, collected on an Augmentation of the Iriſh Army in the Year 1745, by the wiſe and diſintereſted Repreſentations of the Chief Governor the Earl of Cheſterfield, it was laid aſide in the Houſe of Commons.

6. Becauſe this Tranſaction has been conſidered as peculiarly laudable in the unparalelled Adminiſtration of that incomparable Nobleman.

7. Becauſe if Time and Experience have verified the Sagacity of thoſe Reaſons, and ſhewn that there was no Neceſſity for more than 12,000 Men in the Times immediately ſubſequent to the Revolution, nor in thoſe of a Scotch Rebellion, we cannot conceive it expedient now, when the late Belligerent Powers of the Weſtern Parts of Europe are lulled in the moſt profound Peace and Security.

8. Becauſe, from the Uſe that was made of a Part of the Iriſh Army in North America, immediately after the late Propoſal of an Augmentation, we are apprehenſive of a Deſign of Adminiſtration, extremely injurious to the great Commercial Intereſts of the Britiſh Empire.

9. Becauſe, upon the Whole, we conceive that this Meaſure will be dangerous — a two-edged Sword placed in the Hands of an Engliſh Miniſter, between the Liberties of Great Britain and Ireland — Dangerous to our Fellow-Subjects in America — detrimental to the good Underſtanding which will, we hope, ever ſubſiſt between the two Kingdoms — extending the Influence of Prerogative — enlarging a devouring increaſing Expenſe upon the People of Ireland — An inadequate Defence — preventive, as a bad Subſtitute, of the only true, unalienable, conſtitutional, comprehenſive Defence, a national Militia.

10. For theſe Reaſons, we have thought it our Duty to tranſmit our Reaſons to the Publick, and to our Succeſſors. And becauſe, laſtly, we cannot help anticipating many Evils in our Minds from an Increaſe of the Standing Army, which we pray God the Britiſh Empire, and Poſterity, may never feel!

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

THE Attention you have ſhewn to the great Objects which have been particularly recommended by me to your Conſideration, and the Proviſions which have been made for the Safety and Security of this Kingdom, call upon me, not only to expreſs my Approbation of, but to thank you, as I now do, for, your Conduct in theſe Particulars.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

IT is with great Pleaſure that I thank you, in his Majeſty's Name, for the Supplies which you have granted, and the Proviſion which you have made, for the preſent Eſtabliſhment, the Publick Credit, and the Safety of this Kingdom.

When I firſt met you in Parliament, as I knew and could rely upon it, that nothing could move from his Majeſty, but what would be expreſſive of his conſtant and ardent Deſire to maintain and preſerve every conſtitutional Right to his People, I little thought that any thing would happen during the Courſe of this Seſſion, that could poſſibly affect the juſt Rights of his Majeſty, and of the Crown of Great Britain, ſo as to afford his Majeſty any juſt Cauſe of Diſſatisfaction, and make it neceſſary for me, ſpecially, to aſſert and vindicate thoſe Rights.

It is therefore with great Concern, that I have ſeen and obſerved in the Votes and Journals of the Houſe of Commons, printed by your Order, a late Proceeding by you, of ſuch a Nature and of ſuch Effect, with reſpect to the Rights of his Majeſty and the Crown of Great Britain, as to make it neceſſary for me, on this Day, and in this Place, to take Notice of and animadvert thereupon: I mean the Vote and Reſolution of the 21^ſt Day of November laſt, by which you, Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons, declare, that a Bill, intitled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty the ſeveral Duties, Rates, Impoſitions and Taxes therein particularly expreſſed, to be applied to the Payment of the Intereſt of the Sums therein provided for, and towards the Diſcharge of the ſaid Principal Sums, in ſuch manner as is therein directed, which had been duly certified from hence to his Majeſty, and by his Majeſty had been tranſmitted in due Form, Form, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and which had been read a firſt time by you, and which was rejected by you on that Day, was ſo rejected, becauſe it did not take its Riſe in your Houſe.

This Vote and this Reſolution of your's declaring, that the ſaid Bill was rejected, becauſe it did not take its Riſe in your Houſe, being contrary to the Acts of Parliament of this Kingdom of the 10th of Henry VII. and the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, and the Uſage and Practice ever ſince, and intrenching upon the juſt Rights of his Majeſty and the Crown of Great Britain, to tranſmit ſuch Bills to be treated of and conſidered in Parliament here: I am now to aſſert his Majeſty's Royal Authority, and the Rights of the Crown of Great Britain in this Reſpect, and in ſuch a manner as may be moſt publick and permanent; and therefore I do here, in full Parliament, make my publick Proteſt againſt the ſaid Vote and Reſolution of the Houſe of Commons; by which you, Gentlemen of that Houſe, declare, that the ſaid Bill was rejected by you, becauſe it did not take its Riſe in your Houſe, and againſt the Entries of the ſaid Vote and Reſolution, which remain in the Journals of the Houſe of Commons; and I do require the Clerk of this Houſe, now to read my ſaid Proteſt, and to enter it in the Journals of this Houſe, that it may there remain to future Ages, as a Vindication of the undoubted Right and Authority of his Majeſty, and of the Rights of the Crown of Great Britain, in this Particular.

In this Proteſt, I think myſelf warranted in all reſpects, and if it needed, as I conceive it doth not, any other Strength, than that which it derives from the Statutes which I have mentioned, and from the Uſage and Practice ever ſince, it would be found in that Precedent which appears in the Journals of this Houſe of the 3d Day of November, 1692, under the Reign of that glorious and immortal Prince King William III. the great Deliverer of theſe Kingdoms, and the conſtant and magnanimous Aſſertor and Preſerver of the Civil and Religious Rights of Mankind.

The Lord Chancellor then, by his Excellency's Command, delivered the ſaid Proteſt to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which he read at the Table, and is as follows, viz.

TOWNSHEND.

Proteſt of Lord Lieutenant againſt Vote and Reſolutions of Commons.

WHEREAS at a Parliament, holden at Drogheda, in the 10th Year of the Reign of King Henry VII. an Act was made for and concerning the Order, Manner and Form of Parliaments, to be holden and kept in this Realm of Ireland; and by another Act, made at a Parliament, holden at Dublin in the 3d and 4th Years of King Philip and Queen Mary, it was ordained, enacted and eſtabliſhed, that no Parliament ſhould be ſummoned or holden within this Realm of Ireland, until ſuch time as the Lieutenant, Lord Deputy, Lord Juſtice, Lords Juſtices, Chief Governor or Governors, or any of them, and the Council of this Realm for the time being, ſhould have certified the King and Queen's Majeſties, her Heirs and Succeſſors, under the Great Seal of this Realm of Ireland, the Conſiderations, Cauſes and Articles of ſuch Acts, Proviſions and Ordinances, as by them ſhould be thought meet and neceſſary to be enacted and paſſed here by the Parliament, and ſhould have received again their Majeſties Anſwer, under the Great Seal of England, declaring their Pleaſures, either for paſſing the ſaid Acts, Proviſions and Ordinances, in the Form and Tenor as they ſhould be ſent into England, or elſe for the Change or Alteration of them, or any Part of the ſame, and that as well after every Authority and Licenſe, ſent into this Realm of Ireland, for ſummoning and holding a Parliament, as alſo at all Times after the Summons, and during the Time of every Parliament, to be thereafter holden within this Realm of Ireland, the Lieutenant, Lord Deputy, Lord Juſtice, Lords Juſtices, Chief Governor or Chief Governors and Council of this Realm of Ireland, for the time being, ſhould and might certify all ſuch other Conſiderations, Cauſes, Tenors, Proviſions and Ordinances, as they ſhould further think good to be enacted and eſtabliſhed, at and in the ſaid Parliament, to the King and Queen's Majeſties, her Heirs and Succeſſors, under the Great Seal of this Realm of Ireland; and ſuch Conſiderations, Cauſes, Tenors, Proviſions and Ordinances, or any of them, as ſhould be thereupon certified and returned into this Realm, under the Great Seal of England, and no others, ſhould and might paſs, and be enacted here in any ſuch Parliament within this ſaid Realm of Ireland, in Caſe the ſame Conſiderations, Cauſes, Tenors, Proviſions and Ordinances, or any of them, ſhould be agreed or reſolved on by the three Eſtates of the ſaid Parliament.

And whereas in this preſent Seſſions of Parliament, a Bill, intitled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty the ſeveral Duties, Rates, Impoſitions and Taxes therein particularly expreſſed, to be applied to the Payment of the Intereſt of the Sums therein provided for, and towards the Diſcharge of the ſaid Principal Sums in ſuch Manner as is therein directed, which had been certified by Us, the Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, and by the Council of this Kingdom, unto the King's Majeſty, under the Great Seal of this Kingdom; and by his Majeſty approved of, and returned into this Kingdom, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and by Us ſent to the Houſe of Commons to be conſidered of in this preſent Parliament, the ſaid Commons, having the ſaid Bill before them, did read the ſaid Bill the firſt time on the 21ſt Day of November laſt, and on the ſame 21ſt Day of November, a Motion being made in the ſaid Houſe, and the Queſtion put, That the ſame ſame Bill be read a ſecond time on the Morrow Morning? It paſſed in the Negative: And afterwards, on the ſame 21ſt Day of November, another Motion was made in the ſaid Houſe of Commons; and the Queſtion put, That the ſame Bill be rejected? It paſſed in the Affirmative. And afterwards, on the ſame 21ſt Day of November, a Motion was made in the ſaid Houſe of Commons, and the Queſtion put, That the ſaid Bill is rejected, becauſe it did not take its Riſe in that Houſe? It was carried in the Affirmative: And the ſaid Houſe of Commons thereupon, the ſame Day, reſolved, That the ſaid Bill was rejected, becauſe it did not take its Riſe in that Houſe. All which Motions, Queſtions, Votes, Reſolution and Proceedings, appear to us in the Journals or Votes of the ſaid Houſe of Commons, printed and publiſhed by and under their Order and Authority, and which Vote and Reſolution of the ſaid Houſe of Commons, declaring, that the ſaid Bill was rejected, becauſe it did not take its Riſe in that Houſe, do tend to exclude his Majeſty and the Crown of Great Britain from the Right of tranſmitting any Bills for granting to his Majeſty and his Succeſſors, Money or other Aids, and are not conſiſtent with, but contrary to, the ſaid recited Acts of Parliament, and the Uſage and Practice ever ſince the making thereof; and do, in Effect, intrench upon his Majeſty's Royal Power and Authority, and the juſt and undoubted Rights of the Crown of Great Britain.

We therefore the ſaid Lord Lieutenant, as well to aſſert the juſt Rights of his Majeſty and of the Crown of Great Britain (whereof we are, and ever will be moſt tender) in tranſmitting ſuch Bills under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to be conſidered of in Parliament, as to diſcharge the Truſt repoſed in us, and prevent the Inconveniencies which may hereafter happen by the ſaid Vote and Reſolution of the Houſe of Commons, declaring, that the ſaid Bill was rejected for the Cauſe therein mentioned, being made publick and remaining in their Journals, without any Contradiction or Animadverſion, have thought it neceſſary this Day, in full Parliament to proteſt, and we do accordingly proteſt againſt the aforeſaid Vote and Reſolution of the ſaid Houſe of Commons, made and paſſed, declaring, That the ſaid Bill was rejected, becauſe it did not take its Riſe in that Houſe, and appearing in their Journals or Votes. And we do aſſert, proteſt and declare, that it is the juſt and undoubted Right of his Majeſty and of the Crown of Great Britain, obſerving the Forms in the ſaid ſeveral Acts preſcribed, to tranſmit Bills under the Great Seal of Great Britain, for granting of Aids to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; which ſaid Bill, ſo tranſmitted, ought to be read and conſidered of by the Houſe of Commons in this Kingdom, without being rejected by the ſaid Houſe, on account only of their not taking their Riſe in that Houſe; and therefore the rejecting of the ſaid Bill, becauſe it did not take its Riſe in that Houſe, and the ſaid recited Vote and Reſolution of the ſaid Houſe of Commons, declaring, That the ſaid Bill was rejected, becauſe it did not take its Riſe in that Houſe, are not conſiſtent with, but contrary to, the Acts of Parliament herein before-mentioned, and the Practice and Uſage in all Parliaments ſince the making thereof; and alſo highly derogatory to his Majeſty's Royal Authority, and the Rights of the Crown of Great Britain.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's further Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 20th Day of March next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 20th Day of March next. Parliament prorogued.

His Grace the Duke of Leinſter delivered his Writ in the accuſtomed Manner, and came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

Biſhop of Limerick,

The Rev. John Averell, Doctor in Divinity, being by Letters Patents, dated the 31ſt Day of December, in the 11th Year of King Geo. III. created Biſhop of Limerick, Ardfert and Aghadoe, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Lord Biſhop of Cork and the Lord Biſhop of Waterford, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying his Lordſhip's Letters Patents preceding: His Lordſhip preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

take the Oaths, &c.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed, the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Biſhops' Bench.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

Lord Lieutenant preſent.

His Excellency George Lord Viſc. Townſhend, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Drogheda carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Weſtmeath, the Cap of Maintenance; two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State, under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint the Commons, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter.

And the Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

IT is with the trueſt Satisfaction that I obey his Majeſty's Commands to meet you again in Parliament.

The Affection which his Majeſty bears to his faithful Subjects of Ireland, and his Readineſs to concur with you in every Meaſure which may conduce to their Proſperity, have determined his Majeſty to call you together at this Time, that you may take into your ſerious Conſideration, ſuch Laws as ſhall be found to be immediately neceſſary for the general Good of this Country. The preſent high Price of Corn is an Object of the firſt Importance, and demands your utmoſt Attention. And I alſo recommend to you the Continuance or Revival of ſuch Laws as from Experience have proved of Advantage to the Publick.

I have particular Pleaſure in being able to inform you, that not only the uſual Bounties on the Exportation of Iriſh Linens have been continued by the Britiſh Parliament, but that they have been ſtill further extended; a Circumſtance which I hope will be productive of beneficial Effects to that Manufacture.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

AS I have Reaſon to expect, that with very ſtrict Oeconomy the Duties which were granted laſt Seſſion of Parliament, and which will not expire until Chriſtmas next, may be ſufficient to anſwer the Expenſes of his Majeſty's Government, I am not now to aſk for any further Supply.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Increaſe of his Majeſty's Royal Family, by the Birth of another Princeſs, ſince the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, is an Event in which we are all intereſted, and muſt afford us the ſincereſt Pleaſure.

His Majeſty's paternal Care of this Kingdom, requires every Return of Gratitude on your Part; and I have no Doubt, from your known Loyalty, that you will manifeſt your Senſe of his Goodneſs, by the Temper and Unanimity of your Proceedings.

I rejoice in this Opportunity of co-operating with you, for the Publick Welfare; and I flatter myſelf, our Endeavours will be mutual, to bring this Seſſion to a ſpeedy and happy Concluſion.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table;

Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to expreſs our moſt grateful Thanks to him, for the many Proofs which we have received of his Affection for his faithful Subjects of this Kingdom, and for this in particular which he is now graciouſly pleaſed to afford us, in his Readineſs to concur with his Parliament, in ſuch Meaſures as may be conducive to their Proſperity.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we will endeavour to fulfil his Majeſty's gracious Purpoſe in calling us together at this Time, by taking into our ſerious Conſideration, ſuch Matters as ſhall be found to be neceſſary for the general Good of this Country, and more particularly thoſe which have been recommended to us this Day from the Throne.

To expreſs our Thankfulneſs and Satisfaction in the Continuance and Extenſion by the Britiſh Parliament of the Bounties on the Exportation of Iriſh Linens.

To congratulate his Majeſty, on the happy Increaſe of his Royal Family, by the Birth of another Princeſs, ſince the laſt Seſſion of Parliament; and to expreſs our ſincere Pleaſure and the loyal Sentiments of our Hearts upon that Event.

To

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we have the trueſt Senſe of the many Inſtances which his Majeſty hath been pleaſed to afford us, of his paternal Care, and particularly his continuing the Lord Viſc. Townſhend in the Government of this Kingdom, of which, as his Experience enables him to form the trueſt Judgment, ſo his Candour and Integrity will, we doubt not, move him to make the juſteſt Repreſentation.

And to expreſs our ſincere Deſire, on this and every other Occaſion, to conduct ourſelves in whatever may come before us with Temper and Unanimity, and with all that dutiful Reſpect, which may beſt expreſs a grateful and becoming Senſe of his Majeſty's Goodneſs to us, and our faithful Attachments to his Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, his Family and Government.

Debate thereon.

A Debate aroſe thereupon, and the Queſtion being put, Whether the ſaid Reſolution ſhould ſtand without any Amendment?

The Houſe divided; and the Lord Viſc. Loftus reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 28; and the Not-Contents in the Houſe were 15:

Proxies being called for, and read over by the Clerk, the Lord Chancellor declared, that the Contents, with the Proxies, were 30; and the Not-Contents were 16;

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Loftus, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs of Thanks be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, for his Excellency's Speech delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament:

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Lord Desart takes the Oaths, &c.

Lord Desart delivered his Writ in the accuſtomed Manner, and came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

Whereas a riotous armed Mob aſſembled this Day at the Doors and about the Parliament-Houſe, and William Evans and Aaron Newton, two of the ſaid Rioters, were taken into Cuſtody by the High Sheriffs of the County of the City of Dublin, and brought to the Bar of this Houſe:

Order againſt Rioters.

IT is therefore ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the High Sheriffs of the County of the City of Dublin, do forthwith lodge the Bodies of the ſaid William Evans and Aaron Newton in his Majeſty's Gaol of Newgate; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant in that behalf.

To the High Sheriffs of the County of the City of Dublin.

Lord Mayor, &c. of Dublin to attend.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Mayor and Sheriffs of the County of the City of Dublin, do attend the Houſe immediately.

The Lord Mayor and Sheriffs attended at the Bar, and after Examination touching the Riot and Tumult, which happened this Day, and the Inſult and Interruption thereby given to Noble Lords of Parliament, a Charge was given to them to take Care, that all the Streets, Avenues and Paſſages leading to both Houſes of Parliament, be kept clear of all Mob and of all looſe and diſorderly Perſons, and that all Perſons who ſhall offend, be apprehended and brought before this Houſe.

Proceedings againſt Rioters.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Riot and Tumult this Day near and about the two Houſes of Parliament, is a daring and outrageous Breach of the Privilege of Parliament, and has a moſt dangerous Tendency to deſtroy the great Bleſſing of a free Parliament, and the Liberties and Conſtitution of this Kingdom.

Ordered, that a Committee be appointed to inquire into the Names and Places of Abode of the Perſons concerned in the Riot and Tumult, this Day, about and near to the Paſſages of both Houſes of Parliament, and into the Authors, Movers and Perpetrators thereof; and that the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh, and all the Lords preſent, be the ſaid Committee; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that he will be pleaſed to give Direction to the Attorney-General to proſecute William Evans, Lamp-lighter, and Aaron Newton, Rib-band-weaver, two of the Rioters who were apprehended this Day, and by this Houſe committed to his Majeſty's Gaol of Newgate, in ſuch Manner as may be warranted by Law.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow, at Twelve o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Further Proceedings againſt Rioters.

The High Sheriff of the County of the City of Dublin, John Buchanan, Serjeant, and Michael Perkins, Soldier, were by Order called to the Bar, and examined concerning the Riot that happened Yeſterday.

Ordered, that James Moore, one of the Rioters, now a Priſoner in Newgate, be brought to the Bar of this Houſe To-morrow Morning, and that the High Sheriffs of the County of the City of Dublin, and John Buchanan and Michael Perkins do attend.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Judges do inquire what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, that the Houſe may take it into their Conſideration which are proper to be revived or continued.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant to acquaint him, that it is the Deſire of this Houſe, that his Excellency will pleaſe to order two of the Judges to ſtay in Town from their Circuits, to attend the Service of this Houſe.

The Reſolution of this Houſe of the 27th Inſt. for addreſſing his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that he will be pleaſed to give Direction to his Majeſty's Attorney-General to proſecute William Evans, Lamp-lighter, and Aaron Newton, Ribband-weaver, two of the Rioters who were apprehended, and by this Houſe committed to his Majeſty's Gaol of Newgate, in ſuch Manner as may be warranted by Law, being by Order read:

And the High Sheriffs being again called to the Bar, and examined;

Motion relative to Addreſs.

A Motion was made, that it be an Inſtruction to the Committee, appointed Yeſterday to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, touching the two Perſons Yeſterday apprehended as Rioters, and committed to Newgate by this Houſe, that they do inſert a Clauſe:

To return his Excellency our ſincere Thanks for his ſeaſonable and neceſſary Interpoſition, in complying with the Lord Mayor and Sheriffs of this City, in giving the Civil Power the moſt effectual Aſſiſtance to quell and diſperſe a moſt dangerous and riotous Mob, who beſet the Avenues and Paſſages to both Houſes of Parliament, and inſulted and aſſaulted ſeveral of the Members of both Houſes:

Debate thereon.

A Debate ariſing thereupon, and the Queſtion being put, the Houſe divided; and the Lord Viſc. Jocelyn reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 24; and the Not-Contents in the Houſe were 11:

Proxies being called for, and read over by the Clerk, the Lord Chancellor declared, that the Contents, with the Proxies, were 28; and the Not-Contents, were 13:

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Michael M'Dermot, one of the riotous Mob, who inſulted the Rt. Hon. Lord Viſc. Loftus, was by Order brought to the Bar, and being examined;

ORDERED, nem. con. that the High Sheriffs of the County of the City of Dublin, do forthwith lodge the Body of the ſaid Michael M'Dermot in his Majeſty's Gaol of Newgate; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant in that behalf.

1. BECAUSE the repeated Proofs we have of his Majeſty's paternal Tenderneſs towards his People, convince us, that a Miſrepreſentation of his faithful Commons could alone have determined his Royal Breaſt to exert his undoubted Prerogative of proroguing his Parliament, at a Criſis when the Expiration of Laws, eſſential to the Well-being of this Kingdom, ſeemed peculiarly to point out the moſt urgent Demand for the Aſſiſtance of the Legiſlature: At a time when the Commons had given a recent, efficacious Teſtimony of their unremitting Zeal for his Majeſty's Service, by voting an Augmentation of his Majeſty's Forces; a Meaſure which had been repreſented to Parliament as highly acceptable to the King: At a Seaſon too, when the Suddenneſs of this unexpected Mark of Royal Diſpleaſure, rendered its Conſequences almoſt irretrievably fatal to the Nation, inſomuch, that we ſee, with the deepeſt Concern, an extraordinary Deficiency in his Majeſty's Revenue, proceeding from the declining State of our Credit, Trade and Manufactures thereby occaſioned.

2. Becauſe the unbounded Confidence we repoſe in his Majeſty's inviolate Regard to the fundamental Principles of the Conſtitution, aſſures us, that the Attempt which has been lately made, to infringe that Balance, indefeazably inſeparable from its very Formation, by entering upon the Journals of this Houſe

Houſe a Proteſt, animadverting upon the Proceedings of the Houſe of Commons, was the Reſult of pernicious Counſels, inſidiouſly calculated to alienate the Affections of the moſt loyal Subjects, from the moſt amiable of Princes: An Opinion in which we conceive ourſelves by ſo much the better founded, as this unconſtitutional Extenſion is unprecedented (ſave only in one Inſtance) which was followed by the juſt Diſapprobation of the Sovereign, teſtified by the immediate Removal of the Chief Governor. We further conceive, that as the Conſtitution of this Kingdom is, in reſpect to the diſtinct Departments of the Crown, the Lords and the Commons, one and the ſame with that of Great Britain; we ſhould depart not only from our Duty to our King, and to this our Country, but likewiſe from that, which we owe to Great Britain, if in our High Capacity of Hereditary Great Council of Ireland to the Crown, we ſhould acquieſce under an Attempt, which manifeſtly tends to ſubvert that reciprocal Independence of the three Eſtates, which is the Baſis of its Security.

3. Becauſe the Juſtice and Piety, which ſhine conſpicuous in our Sovereign, as well in his domeſtick Life as on the Throne, do not ſuffer us to ſuppoſe, that the Diſmiſſion of truſty Nobles and Commoners from his Majeſty's Privy Council; the former only becauſe they made a juſt Exerciſe of their hereditary Birth-right as Peers of the Realm, the latter, on account only of their Parliamentary Conduct, can have proceeded from the truly-informed Intention of ſo great and good a Prince.

4. Becauſe Moderation, Firmneſs, Conſiſtency, a due diſtinctive Regard to all Ranks of Perſons, a regular Syſtem of Adminiſtration, being, as we conceive, indiſpenſably requiſite to the Support and Dignity of Government, and to the Conduct of his Majeſty's Affairs, we cannot, without Violation of Truth and Juſtice, return Thanks to the King for continuing a Chief Governor, who in Contempt of all Forms of Buſineſs and Rules of Decency, heretofore reſpected by his Predeceſſors, is actuated only by the moſt arbitrary Caprice; to the Detriment of his Majeſty's Intereſts, to the Injury of this oppreſſed Country, and to the unſpeakable Vexation of Perſons of every Condition.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave humbly to expreſs our moſt grateful Thanks to your Majeſty, for the many Proofs which we have received of your Majeſty's Affection for your faithful Subjects of this Kingdom, and for this in particular, which your Majeſty is now graciouſly pleaſed to afford us, in your Readineſs to concur with your Parliament, in ſuch Meaſures as may be conducive to their Proſperity. We have the trueſt Senſe of the many Inſtances which your Majeſty hath been pleaſed to afford us of your paternal Care, and particularly your continuing the Lord Viſc. Townſhend in the Government of this Kingdom, of which, as his Experience enables him to form the trueſt Judgment, ſo his Candour and Integrity will, we doubt not, move him to make the juſteſt Repreſentation.

We beg Leave to expreſs our ſincere Deſire, on this and every other Occaſion, to conduct ourſelves, in whatever may come before us, with Temper and Unanimity, and with all that dutiful Reſpect which may beſt expreſs a grateful and becoming Senſe of your Majeſty's Goodneſs to us, and our faithful Attachments to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, your Family, and Government.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

The

The Lord Eyre reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs of Thanks to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Tueſday laſt; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read.

An Amendment being propoſed to be inſerted in the laſt Paragraph of the ſaid Addreſs, after the Words: "The Good of the "Publick," as follows, viz.

"During your Excellency's Adminiſtration, "the Wiſdom of which appears from the "Effects—The flouriſhing State of Trade "and Credit; the Increaſe of the Revenues; "the Redundancy of the publick Treaſure, ſo "timely applied to the Relief of our diſtreſſed "Manufactures; the Encouragement of our "Exports, by your Excellency's juſt Atten-"tion to our legal Rights, in refuſing to "impoſe an Embargo upon Proviſions.—The "univerſal Content of all Ranks throughout "the Nation, and that awful Reverence of "your Excellency's Perſon, which can only "be obtained by Uniformity, Steadineſs and "Wiſdom.—Theſe are Merits which diſtin-"guiſh your Excellency's Adminiſtration from "thoſe of your Predeceſſors, and will con-"tinue it for ever in the Minds of thoſe "over whom you have been ſet to rule."

Debate.

A Debate ariſing thereupon, and the Queſtion being put, the Houſe divided; and the Lord Eyre reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 12; and the Not-Contents in the Houſe were 25:

Proxies being called for, and read over by the Clerk, the Lord Chancellor declared, that the Contents, with the Proxies, were 14; and the Not-Contents were 29:

It paſſed in the Negative.

The ſaid Addreſs was then read, Paragraph by Paragraph, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency
GEORGE Lord Viſc. TOWNSHEND,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return your Excellency our moſt ſincere Thanks for your moſt excellent Speech to both Houſes of Parliament.

We are happy in the Opportunity which his Majeſty hath been graciouſly pleaſed to afford us, of meeting your Excellency again in Parliament; and we cannot but conſider ourſelves as under an Obligation to your Excellency, for the Satisfaction which you are pleaſed to expreſs on that Occaſion, and for your moſt obliging Readineſs to co-operate with us for the Publick Welfare: We ſhall not fail of taking into our Conſideration the important Particulars recommended to us by your Excellency.

We acknowledge with Thankfulneſs, the Continuance and Extenſion by the Britiſh Parliament of the Bounties on the Exportation of Iriſh Linens; and conſider ourſelves as indebted to your Excellency for your kind Attention to that great Branch of our Trade and Manufactures.

We rejoice with your Excellency, on the Increaſe of his Majeſty's Royal Family, by the Birth of another Princeſs, as every ſuch Event affords us an additional Security, in Support of our Religion, Laws and Liberties.

Your Excellency's Experience and Knowledge in the Affairs of this Kingdom, call upon us to unite our Endeavours with your's to promote the Good of the Publick; and we truſt we ſhall, with a becoming Temper and Unanimity, co-operate with your Excellency to bring this Seſſion to a ſpeedy and happy Concluſion.

The Queſtion was put, Whether the ſaid Addreſs ſhall ſtand the Addreſs of this Houſe?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

James Moore, according to Order, being brought to the Bar, and examined:

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid James Moore is guilty of a Breach of the Privileges of this Houſe.

ORDERED, that the High Sheriffs of the County of the City of Dublin, do remand back the Body of the ſaid James Moore to his Majeſty's Gaol of Newgate; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant in that behalf.

To the High Sheriffs of the County of the City of Dublin.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that the Judges, according to Order, had prepared a Report of what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, which he preſented to the Houſe, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Report on temporary Laws.

IN obedience to your Lordſhips' Order of the 28th Day of February laſt, whereby the Judges were directed to inquire what Laws are lately expired, or near expiring, the Judges, upon Inquiry, find:

An Act, paſſed in this Kingdom, in the 8th Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intitled, An Act for explaining and amending an Act, intitled, An Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery, ſo far as it relates to the Encouragement of Popiſh Prieſts becoming Proteſtants, having expired, was revived and continued by an Act, made in the 31ſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. and is lately expired.

A Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in this Kingdom in the 3d Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for the further explaining and amending ſeveral Statutes for prohibiting Under-Sheriffs and Sheriffs' Clerks from officiating as Sub-Sheriff or Sheriffs' Clerk more than one Year, and to render more effectual an Act to prevent Fees being taken in certain Caſes; and to take away the pretended Office of Barony Clerk; and to oblige Sheriffs to appoint Deputies for granting Replevins, which Clauſe relates to the preferring any Bill or Bills in the Courts of Chancery or Exchequer, for the Diſcovery of any Offence againſt the ſaid Act, or againſt an Act therein mentioned of the 10th Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, and obliging any Perſon to anſwer the ſame at large, was from time to time revived or continued by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts, and is lately expired.

A Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in this Kingdom in the 10th Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George I. intitled, An Act for continuing and amending an Act for better regulating the Pariſh-Watches, and amending High-ways in this Kingdom, and for preventing the Miſapplication of Publick Money; and alſo for eſtabliſhing a regular Watch in the City of Dublin; and to prevent Miſchiefs which may happen by graving in the River Liffey, which Clauſe relating to Pariſh-Watches and High-ways in this Kingdom, was revived and continued from time to time by other ſubſequent Acts, and is lately expired.

An

An Act made in this Kingdom in the 1st Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George II. intitled, An Act for regulating the Price and Assize of Bread and the Markets, which was continued by other subsequent Acts, is now expired.

An Act, passed in this Kingdom in the 9th Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George II. intitled, An Act for the more effectual assigning of Judgments, and for the more speedy Recovery of Rents by Distress, which was continued by another Act of the 31st Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and amending several temporary Statutes, is lately expired.

A Clause in an Act, passed in the 17th Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Geo. II. intitled, An Act to prevent the pernicious Practice of burning Land, and for the more effectual destroying of Vermin, which Clause relates to the giving Rewards for the more effectual destroying of Vermin, and which Clause, excepting Rooks and Herons, was from time to time revived and continued by other subsequent Acts, is lately expired.

An Act, passed in the 19th Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George II. intitled, An Act for continuing and amending the several Laws relating to the Work-House of the City of Dublin, is near expiring.

An Act, passed in this Kingdom in the 25th Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George II. intitled, An Act for the better Preservation of the Game, which Act was revived and continued by an Act, made in the 1st Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and amending several temporary Statutes, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, is lately expired.

A Clause in an Act, passed in the 31st Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Geo. II. intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and amending several temporary Statutes, which makes the killing and destroying wild Turkeys subject and liable to the same Penalties and Forfeitures, that the destroying Pheasants, Partridge and Quails are made liable to; and which Clause was continued by an Act, passed in the 7th Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for continuing, reviving and amending several temporary Statutes, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, is lately expired.

An Act passed in this Kingdom in the 3d Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for discharging all Arrears of Quit, Crown and Composition Rents, which have been growing due for twenty Years last past, on the Terms and in the Manner therein mentioned, is now expired.

An Act, passed in the 3d Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the better Preservation of the Game, which Act was since continued from time to time by two other Acts of the 5th and 7th Years of his present Majesty's Reign, is now near expiring.

A Clause in an Act passed in the 3d Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intitled, An Act for confirming the Titles and for quieting the Possessions of Protestants, and for giving Time to Converts from Popery to perform the Requisites of Conformity prescribed by the Laws against Popery, which enacts, that all such Person or Persons as had theretofore obtained the Bishop's Certificate of their Conformity, and from and after the obtaining the same, had professed the Protestant Religion, and had continued Protestants, and had not performed all the other legal Requisites of Conformity. and should perform the same before the 1st Day of December, 1765, should, from the time of his, her or their Conformity from the Popish to the Protestant Religion, be deemed and taken to be Protestants of the Established Church, to all Intents and Purposes: Provided always, that nothing therein contained should bar, defeat or prejudice any Judgment or Decree whatsoever in any Court of Law or Equity, or any Suit then depending on the Popery Laws; which Clause to limit the Time for performing the said legal Requisites of Conformity, was enlarged by two several Acts, the one of the 5th and the other of the 7th Year of his present Majesty's Reign, but the Time limited by the said last-mentioned Act for performance of the said legal Requisites of Conformity, is lately expired.

An Act, passed in the 5th Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act to prevent, for the future, tumultuous Risings of Persons within this Kingdom, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, which was continued by an Act, passed in the 7th Year of his present Majesty's Reign, for continuing, reviving and amending several temporary Statutes, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, is now near expiring.

An Act passed in the 7th Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act to continue and amend an Act, passed in the 3d Year of his Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act to amend and explain an Act, made in the 33d Year of the Reign of Henry VIII. intitled, An Act for Tythes, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, is near expiring.

An Act, passed in the 7th Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the Encouragement of Tillage and Navigation, by granting a Bounty on the Carriage of Corn, Coast-ways, is lately expired.

An Act, passed in the 7th Year of his present Majesty, intitled, An Act for licensing Hawkers and Pedlars, and for Encouragement of English Protestant Schools, is lately expired.

An Act, passed in the 7th Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the further Improvement of his Majesty's Revenue, and for continuing and amending several Acts therein paaticularly mentioned, is near expiring.

All which is humbly submitted to your Lordships.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the foregoing Report ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to a ſelect Committee; and that the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be the ſaid Committee, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow at One o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Committees for Religion;

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee for Religion; and that all the Lords of this Houſe, who are not named of this Committee, and ſhall come, are to have Voices therein; and have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, in order to their proceeding on any Affair, that ſhall come before them.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, on Monday next, at Four o'clock, in the Afternoon; and ſo on every Monday, weekly.

Privileges;

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to conſider of the Cuſtoms and Orders of the Houſe, and the Privileges of Parliament; and that all the Lords of this Houſe, who are not of this Committee, and ſhall come, are to have Voices therein; and they have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, in order to their proceeding on any Affair that ſhall come before them.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, on Tueſday next, at Four o'clock, in the Afternoon; and to ſend for the Judges to their Aſſiſtance, if they think fit; and ſo on every Tueſday, weekly; and adjourn as they pleaſe.

Courts of Juſtice;

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee for Courts of Juſtice; and that all the Lords who are not of this Committee, and ſhall come, are to have Voices therein; and have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, in order to their proceeding on any Affair that ſhall come before them; and to ſend for the Judges to their Aſſiſtance, if they ſhall think fit.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, on Wedneſday next, at Four o'clock, in the Afternoon; and ſo on every Wedneſday, weekly.

Trade;

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee for Trade; and that all the Lords of this Houſe, who are not of this Committee, and ſhall come, are to have Voices therein; and they have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, in order to their proceeding on any Affair that ſhall come before them, and to ſend for the Judges to their Aſſiſtance, if they ſhall think fit. and for Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, on Thurſday next, at Four o'clock in the Afternoon; and ſo on every Thurſday, weekly.

Ordered, that the Lords preſent be appointed Lords' Sub-Committees to conſider of the Orders and Cuſtoms of the Houſe, and to peruſe and perfect the Journals of the former Parliaments, and alſo the Journals of this Parliament. Journals

Their Lordſhips, or any two of them, to meet when, where and as often as they pleaſe.

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Wedneſday laſt; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency

GEORGE Lord Viſc. TOWNSHEND,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant;

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, moſt humbly requeſt, that your Excellency will be pleaſed to give Direction to his Majeſty's Attorney-General for the proſecuting of William Evans, Lamplighter and Aaron Newton, Ribband-weaver, two Rioters, who were apprehended on Wedneſday the 27th of February laſt (and by Order of this Houſe committed to his Majeſty's Gaol of Newgate) according to Law.

We beg Leave to return your Excellency our ſincere Thanks, for your Excellency's ſeaſonable and neceſſary Interpoſition, by giving the Civil Power the moſt effectual Aſſiſtance to quell and diſperſe a moſt dangerous and riotous Mob, who beſet the Avenues and Paſſages to the Parliament-Houſe, and inſulted and aſſaulted ſeveral Members of both Houſes of Parliament on Wedneſday laſt.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Addreſs.

A Motion

Motion relative to Entry on Journals.

A Motion was made, that an Entry in the Journals of laſt Seſſion, Page 539, beginning with the Word "TOWNSHEND" and ending with the Words "Great Britain," Page 540, may be expunged from the Journals:

Debate thereon:

A Debate ariſing thereupon, and the Queſtion being put, the Houſe divided; and the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 14; and the Not-Contents in the Houſe were 27:

Proxies being called for, and read over by the Clerk, the Lord Chancellor declared, that the Contents, with the Proxies, were 16; and the Not-Contents were 32:

It paſſed in the Negative.

DISSENTIENT:

Proteſt.

1. BECAUSE we conceive, that by the entering of the Lord Lieutenant's Proteſt upon the Journals of this Houſe, at the Cloſe of the laſt Seſſion, the Privileges of this Houſe, and the Conſtitutional Rights of the Peerage, have been moſt flagrantly infringed and violated; and that therefore the earlieſt Opportunity ſhould be ſeized of vindicating the Rights and Privileges of the Peerage, and of wiping away the Affront, which this Honſe has received therein, by expunging from its Journals this Matter of Offence which has been unwarrantably and illegally obtruded upon them.

2. Becauſe we conceive, that the abovementioned Proteſt contains in it Matter in the higheſt Degree illegal aud unconſtitutional, inaſmuch as it claims a Right and preſumes to animadvert upon ſome Proceedings of the Lower Houſe of Parliament. Now we are bold to aſſert, that whenever any one Branch of the Legiſlature ſhall arrogate a Right to animadvert upon either of the other two Branches, the Branch of the Legiſlature ſo ſubject to Animadverſion would inſtantly ceaſe to be Part of the Supreme Power; the Balance of the Conſtitution would be overturned, and that Branch in which this Juriſdiction reſided, would be completely ſovereign; a Suppoſition which is equally abhorrent to the Spirit and to the Letter of the Conſtitution.

3. Becauſe we conceive, that this Houſe hath and ought to have the ſole and excluſive Dominion over its own Journals, in like Manner as the Commons have over theirs; and that the Lord Lieutenant hath no more Right to order an Entry to be made upon our Journals than he hath to order an Entry to be made upon the Journals of the Commons: And we conceive, that as the Crown, though a Branch of the Legiſlature, is no Eſtate of Parliament, therefore the Crown or its Repreſentative, can have no Juriſdiction over the Journals of the Eſtates of Parliament, which are the Records of the Proceedings of the Deliberative Branches of the Legiſlature, whereof the Crown is not one. And we are the more confirmed in this Opinion, by reflecting, that there is not a ſingle Inſtance even in the moſt arbitrary Times, of ſuch a Power being claimed or exerciſed by the Crown, in Great Britain, over the Journals of the Britiſh Peers. We apprehend alſo, that no Matter can, with Propriety, be entered upon the Journals of this Houſe, without the Leave of this Houſe previouſly had or implied, as is clearly evinced by the conſtant Practice of reading the Minutes by the Clerk before the Houſe is adjourned, in order that every Peer may have an Opportunity of preventing any thing improper from being entered upon the Journals. Now on the laſt Day of the laſt Seſſion, no ſuch Opportunity was given, the reading of the Minutes having been prevented by the Prorogation.

4. Becauſe, though it hath been aſſerted, that the Journals of this Houſe, being Publick Records, it is improper that any Alteration ſhould be made therein: We are of Opinion, that this Maxim extends only to the Judicial Proceedings of this Houſe, not ſeeing that in other Inſtances there is any Reaſon to diſtinguiſh between the Journals of this Houſe and thoſe of the other Houſe of Parliament, from which Matters have frequently been expunged: As it is alſo notorious, that Matters, not of a Judicial Nature, have frequently been expunged from the Journals of the Houſe of Lords of Great Britain. Indeed, were it otherwiſe, the Speaker or even the Clerk of this Houſe, or any indifferent Perſon who might however irregularly get acceſs to the Journal-Book, might inſert therein Matter of the moſt criminal Import, amounting even to the Crime of Treaſon; and it would be a ſtrange Soliciſm to ſay, that ſuch Inſertion muſt for ever remain, to the Diſgrace of this Houſe, without any Power in us to expunge and purge away ſuch obnoxious Matter.

5. Becauſe it hath been declared to be a high Breach of the Privileges of Parliament, that the Crown ſhould take Notice of the Proceedings of either Houſe of Parliament, unleſs the ſame ſhall be regularly laid before it; a Circumſtance in which we conceive, that the Proteſt of Lord Strafford, however in all other reſpects irregular and unconſtitutional, hath the Advantage over thoſe of Lord Sydney and of our preſent Chief Governor.

6. Becauſe we think this Entry peculiarly improper, inaſmuch as the Viceroy hath therein, by a Breach of the Privileges of this Houſe, made our Journals the Inſtrument of a Breach of the Privileges of the other Houſe of Parliament, a Practice, which if not diſcountenanced by us, might probably end in a Rupture between the two Houſes.

Prayers.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of the Report from the Judges of what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, was referred; that they have come to the following Reſolutions:

Reſolutions on temporary Statutes.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act, paſſed in this Kingdom in the 9th Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for the more effectual aſſigning of Judgments, and for the more ſpeedy Recovery of Rents by Diſtreſs, which was continued by another Act of the 31ſt Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty, intitled, An Act for continuing, reviving and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, being lately expired, is fit to be continued for ſeven Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that a Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in the 17th Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act to prevent the pernicious Practice of burning Land, and for the more effectual deſtroying of Vermin, which Clauſe relates to the giving Rewards for the more effectual deſtroying of Vermin, and which Clauſe, excepting Rooks and Herons, was from time to time revived and continued by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts being lately expired, is fit to be continued for ſeven Years, and to the end of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act, paſſed in this Kingdom in the 25th Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for the better Preſervation of the Game, which Act was revived and continued by an Act, made in the 1ſt Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, being lately expired, is fit to be continued for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that a Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in the 31ſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, which makes the killing and deſtroying wild Turkeys ſubject and liable to the ſame Penalties and Forfeitures that the deſtroying Pheaſants, Partridge and Quails, are made liable to, and which Clauſe was continued by an Act, paſſed in the 7th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for continuing, reviving and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, and other Purpoſes therein mentioned, being lately expired, is fit to be continued for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act, paſſed in the 3d Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the better Preſervation of the Game, which Act was ſince continued from time to time time by two other Acts of the 5th and 7th Years of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, and now near expiring, is fit to be continued for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that a Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in the 3d Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for confirming the Titles and quieting the Poſſeſſions of Proteſtants, and for giving Time to Converts from Popery to perform the Requiſites of Conformity preſcribed by the Laws againſt Popery; which enacts, that all ſuch Perſon or Perſons as had theretofore obtained the Biſhop's Certificate of their Conformity, and from and after the obtaining the ſame had profeſſed the Proteſtant Religion, and had continued Proteſtants, and had not performed all the other legal Requiſites of Conformity, and ſhould perform the ſame before the 1ſt Day of December, 1765, ſhould from the Time of his, her or their Conformity from the Popiſh to the Proteſtant Religion, be deemed and taken to be Proteſtants of the eſtabliſhed Church, to all Intents and Purpoſes: Provided always, that nothing therein contained ſhould bar, defeat or prejudice any Judgment or Decree whatſoever in any Court of Law or Equity, in any Suit then depending on the Popery Laws, which Clauſe to limit the Time for performing the ſaid legal Requiſites of Conformity, was enlarged by two ſeveral Acts, the one of the 5th and the other of the 7th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign; but the Time limited by the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act for Performance of the ſaid legal Requiſites of Conformity, being lately expired, is fit to be continued, until the 24th Day of June, 1772.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act, paſſed in the 5th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to prevent, for the future, tumultuous Riſings of Perſons within this Kingdom, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, which was continued by an Act, paſſed in the 7th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, for continuing, reviving and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, and other Purpoſes therein mentioned, being nearly expired, is fit to be continued for four Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act, paſſed in the 7th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to continue and amend an Act, paſſed in the 3d Year of his Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the 33d Year of the Reign of King Henry VIII. intitled, An Act for Tythes and other Purpoſes therein mentioned, being nearly expired, is fit to be continued until the 24th of June, 1773, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

To which Reſolutions, the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree.

Ordered, that the Judges do prepare Heads of a Bill, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolutions.

Reſolved, that it be an Inſtruction to the Judges, appointed to prepare Heads of a Bill for reviving and continuing ſeveral temporary Statutes that have lately expired, and for continuing and amending others that are near expiring, to inſert the following Clauſe in ſuch Part of the ſaid Heads of a Bill as relates to an Act to amend and explain an Act, made in the 33d Year of the Reign of Henry VIII. intitled, An Act for Tythes.

Provided, that for the future, in all Cauſes for Subſtraction of Predial Tythes, inſtituted purſuant to this Statute, the Judge ſhall not receive or take Notice of any Allegation or other Pleading, whereby the Right to the Tythes ſo ſued for, or any Part thereof, is controverted, until the Party who gives in or exhibits the ſame, ſhall verify his ſaid Allegation or Pleading by his own Affidavit, in Writing annexed thereto, to the Purpoſe or Effect following, that is to ſay, "A. B. the "Party in this Cauſe, came this Day before "us, and made Oath upon the Holy Evan- "geliſts, that he does not give in or exhibit "the ſaid Pleading or Allegation, whereby "the Right of Tythes is controverted in this "Cauſe, maliciouſly or with a View to delay "the Proceedings in this Cauſe, and to pre- "vent the ſaid Cauſe from being heard and "determined in a ſummary way; but that "he this Deponent is adviſed, and verily "believes, that he will be able to prove his "ſaid Pleading or Allegation, and that the "ſaid Pleading is material and neceſſary for "Deponent's Defence in this Cauſe." And after ſuch Allegation or Pleading, with ſuch Affidavit annexed, ſhall be given in and exhibited as aforeſaid, then and in ſuch Caſe the Eccleſiaſtical Judge ſhall at ſuch time ſtop from proceeding, to hear the ſaid Cauſe in a ſummary way, and ſhall put off the Hearing of the ſaid Cauſe to a further Day, in order to give the Party, who ſo controverts the Right of Tythes, a full Opportunity of applying to any of his Majeſty's Temporal Courts for a Prohibition, and a Ceſſat' Proceſſus to the Eccleſiaſtical Judge, in like Manner as he might have done if this Act had never been made: And if within the ſaid time ſo given to the Party for the Purpoſe of applying for a Prohibition, as aforeſaid, the Eccleſiaſtical Judge, has not been ſerved with a Ceſſat' Proceſſus from ſome one of his Majeſty's Temporal Courts, as is uſual in ſuch Caſes; that then the ſaid Judge ſhall be at Liberty, after the Expiration of the ſaid time ſo given to the Party as aforeſaid, to proceed to hear the ſaid Cauſe in a ſummary way, and to give Final Sentence therein, notwithſtanding the Right of Tythes is controverted.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that the Houſe had attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with their humble Addreſs to be preſented preſented to his Majeſty; and his Excellency was pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

His Excellency George Lord Viſc. Townſhend, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Tyrone carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Drogheda, the Cap of Maintenance; two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint the Commons, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

And the Commons being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies; and having the Day before received his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Commands to proceed to the Choice of a Speaker, in the Room of the Right Hon. John Ponſonby, Eſq; who had reſigned the Chair, preſented Edmond Sexten Pery, Eſq; whom they had choſen to be their Speaker, for his Excellency's Approbation, where Mr. Pery made a Speech, as follows, viz. Commons preſent their Speaker:

" May it pleaſe your Excellency,

" THE Commons in Parliament aſſembled " have, in obedience to your Excellency's " Commands, proceeded to the Election of " a Speaker, and have elected me, and now " attend to preſent me to your Excellency. " It would give your Excellency no favour- " able Impreſſion of my Sincerity, if I were " to purſue the uſual Form, and affect to " decline this important Office; I confeſs it " is the higheſt Point of my Ambition: And " if I have the Honour of your Excellency's " Approbation, I ſhall endeavour to prove, " by my Conduct, that I have not been more " ſolicitous to obtain, than I ſhall be anxious " to diſcharge, the Duties of it." His Speech.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

Mr.

Mr. Pery,

Lord Chancellor's Reply.

I AM commanded by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to declare his full Approbation of the Choice which the Commons have made of you for their Speaker; and he has the ſtrongeſt Confidence, that your Knowledge of the Laws and Conſtitution of your Country, your Experience in the Buſineſs of Parliament, and your Loyalty to the King, which ſo eminently qualify you for that important Office, will carry you through it with Honour and univerſal Satisfaction.

Mr. Speaker's Speech continued.

Then Mr. Speaker ſaid:

" SINCE your Excellency has been pleaſed " to approve of the Choice of the Commons, " permit me to make my moſt humble and " grateful Acknowledgments to your Excel- " lency, for having expreſſed your Approba- " tion in a Manner ſo gracious, and in Terms " ſo honourable to me, and to aſſure your " Excellency, that I ſhall endeavour to merit " the Continuance of your Excellency's Fa- " vour, by the faithful Diſcharge of my " Duty."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

Meſſages to return Bills.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Serjeant Dennis and others, to return an ingroſſed Bill, ſent down by this Houſe, intitled, An Act for veſting in Truſtees, for the Purpoſes therein mentioned, Part of the Eſtates ſettled on the Marriage of the Right Hon. Richard Earl of Shannon, and for ſettling other Eſtates in Lieu thereof; and to acquaint this Houſe, they have agreed thereunto, without any Amendment.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Robert Fitzgerald and others, to return an ingroſſed Bill, ſent down by this Houſe, intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes; and to acquaint this Houſe, they have agreed thereunto, without any Amendment.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that the Houſe had Yeſterday attended his Excellency the Lord Licutenant with their Addreſs; to which Addreſs his Excellency was pleaſed to give this Anſwer:

" My Lords,

Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

" I RETURN you my ſincere Thanks for " this kind and moſt obliging Addreſs, and " I am very happy in the Teſtimony you
" are pleaſed to afford me of your Appro" bation and Eſteem. My Endeavours have " been moſt ſincerely directed to promote the " true Intereſt of this Country, and my Re-
" ſidence amongſt you ſhall be uniformly
" devoted to that End: You may rely upon
" it that I will make the moſt faithful Re-
" preſentation to his Majeſty of your Duty
" and Loyalty, and of your Zeal for his royal
" Perſon, Family and Government."

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe preſented Yeſterday to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and his Excellency's Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

Reſolution in favour of Officers of Houſe.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that this Houſe will early in the next Seſſion of Parliament take into Conſideration the Caſe of the Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, as to what may be a proper and ſufficient Recompenſe for their Trouble and Attendance during this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Thanks of this Houſe be returned to the Lord Chancellor, for his great and unwearied Attention to the Service of this Houſe, ſupported by the moſt diſtinguiſhed Abilities during this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

Lord Lieutenant preſent.

His Excellency George Lord Viſc. Townſhend, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Tyrone carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Drogheda, the Cap of Maintenance; a Nobleman's Son bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Yeoman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint the Commons, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter.

And the Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then the Clerk of the Crown read the Titles of the Bills to be paſſed, viz.

Royal Aſſent given to 14 Bills.

1. An Act for reviving, continuing and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes.
2. An Act for allowing further time to Perſons in Offices or Employments to qualify themſelves, purſuant to an Act, intitled, An Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery.
3. An Act for directing the Application of the Sum of £28,800 granted the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, to be applied to ſuch Publick Works, and other Purpoſes, as ſhould be directed by Parliament.
4. An Act to prevent Combinations to raiſe the Price of Coals in the City of Dublin.
5. An Act to prevent the pernicious Practice of burning Bricks within the City of Dublin or the Neighbourhood thereof.
6. An Act for puniſhing ſuch Perſons as ſhall do Injuries and Violences to the Perſons or Properties of his Majeſty's Subjects, with Intent to hinder the Exportation of Corn.
7. An Act to repeal an Act, intitled, An Act for Relief of Debtors, with reſpect to the Impriſonment of their Perſons.
8. An Act for reviving, continuing and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, and for other Purpoſes.
9. An Act to explain and amend an Act, paſſed in the 5th Year of his Majeſty King George III. intitled, An Act for amending the Publick Roads.
10. An Act to enable the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons to iſſue his Warrants to make out new Writs for the Choice of Members to ſerve in Parliament, in the Room of ſuch Members as ſhall die during the Receſs of Parliament.
11. An Act to oblige Ships more effectually to perform their Quarantine, and for the better preventing the Plague being brought from foreign Parts into Ireland, and to hinder the ſpreading of Infection.
12. An Act to regulate the Trials of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to ſerve in Parliament.
13. An Act for continuing certain Laws heretofore made for the Improvement of his Majeſty's Revenue, and the more effectual Prevention of Frauds therein.

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words:

" Le Roi le veult."

14. An Act for veſting in Truſtees, for the Purpoſes therein mentioned, Part of the Eſtates ſettled on the Marriage of the Right Hon. Richard Earl of Shannon, and for ſettling other Eſtates in Lieu thereof.

To this Bill, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, in theſe Words,

" Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I CANNOT put an End to this Seſſion of Parliament, without returning you my ſincereſt Thanks, for the great Diſpatch which you have given to the Publick Buſineſs.

The many good Laws which have now received the Royal Aſſent, are the moſt honourable Proofs of the faithful Performance of your important Duty, and of your ſucceſsful Solicitude for the Happineſs of your Country.

In the ſhort Interval between this and the next Meeting of Parliament, you will conſider what may be further done, to promote the Welfare and Proſperity of this Kingdom.

The Laws for making out new Writs for the Choice of Members to ſerve in Parliament, and for regulating the Trials of controverted Elections, have, I flatter myſelf, nearly compleated the great Improvement made in your Conſtitution, by the Bill for limiting the Duration of Parliaments; and I had a particular Satisfaction in giving the Royal Aſſent to that for the better Performance of Quarantine, the Importance of which, towards ſecuring the Lives of his Majeſty's Subjects, is ſo great and viſible, that I cannot doubt of its being duly and faithfully carried into Execution.

I congratulate with you upon the Proſpect, which, by his Majeſty's Wiſdom and Magnanimity, we now have of the general Tranquillity of Europe, in which this Kingdom is at all times eſſentially intereſted.

By the Continuance of this great Bleſſing, you will be fully at Leiſure to give your Attention to the Induſtry, Morals and Religion of the People, and to a regular and virtuous Obſervance and Execution of the Laws.

Your Regard to thoſe great Objects, in your ſeveral Situations, will be the moſt acceptable Return you can make to his Majeſty, for his Tenderneſs and Humanity to his People, in preſerving them from the Calamities of War, and in continuing to them every Bleſſing of Peace and Liberty, under the beſt Laws and the mildeſt Government.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

NOTWITHSTANDING a conſiderable unforeſeen Deficiency in the Supplies granted laſt Seſſion of Parliament, I have adhered to my Reſolution of not calling upon you at this Time for any further Aid, being determined to ſhew that his Majeſty's gracious Intention in aſſembling you together, was ſolely in Compliance with the Wiſhes of his People, and not for the Purpoſe of aſking new Supplies. I know you have, at all Times, the ſtrongeſt Diſpoſitions to ſupport his Majeſty's Government. Experience has given me the beſt-grounded Confidence in your Duty and Loyalty; and I am perſuaded that in the next Seſſion, when there will be more Time and a better Opportunity to take this Subject into your Conſideration, you will make every proper Proviſion for his Majeſty's Service, and for the internal Welfare and Improvement of your Country.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

YOUR obliging Approbation of my Conduct, and the Satisfaction you expreſs at my Reſidence amongſt you, are very acceptable to me; I am happy in this Circumſtance, as it has enabled me, from my own Knowledge, to declare the unſhaken Zeal of his Majeſty's faithful Subjects of Ireland, for the Honour and Dignity of his Crown, their inviolable Attachment to his Perſon, Family and Government, and their conſtant and affectionate Regard for their Country: All which I ſhall continue to repreſent, in the fulleſt and moſt faithful Manner. It is my Duty to preſerve entire the moſt confidential Intercourſe between our excellent Sovereign, and his People of this Kingdom. Let it be your's, on your Return to your ſeveral Counties, to diſcountenance and defeat every Attempt that may be made to diſturb the Minds of the People with groundleſs Suſpicion and Diſtruſt: And I earneſtly recommend it to you to uſe your beſt Endeavour to promote Concord, Harmony, and that firm Truſt in Government, ſo eſſentially neceſſary to the Tranquillity, Happineſs and true Intereſt of this Kingdom.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 2d Day of July next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 2d Day of July next.

they enter.

And the Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the usual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleased to make a Speech to both Houses of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

MY Experience of your Attachment to his Majesty's Person, and of your Zeal for the Publick Service, affords me the best-grounded Hopes, that nothing will be wanting on your Part to co-operate with his Majesty's gracious Intentions to promote the Welfare and Happiness of this Kingdom: And when to this Consideration, I add my Remembrance of your kind Regard to the Ease and Honour of my Administration, I feel the most sensible Pleasure in the present Opportunity, which his Majesty has given me of meeting you a fourth time in Parliament.

The present Prospect of Publick Affairs, seems to afford you the fullest Opportunity for Deliberation, on such Subjects as immediately relate to your own domestick Happiness; I must therefore recommend to your Consideration, whatever tends to promote and strengthen the interior Police of this Kingdom, and such Laws as may be salutary and for the Benefit of the lower Orders of the Community; for these have ever been found the most effectual Means of binding their Affections to their Country, and securing their Allegiance to one common Parent.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

As in assembling you together in the last Session, it was not his Majesty's Purpose to ask Supplies, but solely to comply with the Wishes of his People: It was not thought proper to call upon you at that time for any further Aid. But, as in the ordinary Course, it now becomes necessary to provide for the Expenses of the ensuing two Years, your last Grants being nearly expired, I have no Doubt of your turning your Thoughts to that important Subject, and of your granting such Supplies as shall be found necessary for the honourable and firm Support of his Majesty's Government, for the Security of this Kingdom, and for the Maintenance of the Publick Credit.

I have ordered the proper Estimates and Accounts to be laid before you, from which you will find, not only that the Revenue has fallen considerably short of former Years, but that the Deductions made therefrom for Payment of different Grants for Premiums, Bounties and Publick Works, have been so very great, that it has not been nearly sufficient to defray the Charges of his Majesty's Establishments, and other necessary Expenses of Government; and that a large Arrear has been incurred on that Account. If such Grants are judged proper to be continued, either for these or other Publick Uses, you will observe that it is impossible that the Revenue, as it now stands, can answer those Services, and also the Support of Government. I therefore think it incumbent upon me to recommend this Subject to your most serious Consideration.

It is with Concern, that I must ask a Sum of Money, to discharge the Arrears already incurred on his Majesty's Establishments; but you will find, that they have been unavoidable; for that the strictest Oeconomy has been used, not only in the Charges of the late Augmentation, upon which a very large Saving has been made, but in the Reduction of the Staff, which is now diminished to the Number directed by his Majesty.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Birth of another Prince, is such an Addition to his Majesty's Happiness and our Security, that it must afford us the truest Satisfaction,

It is my indispensable Duty to recommend particularly, whatever interests the Protestant Religion. There can be no Provisions in its Favour, which shall tend to carry into Execution the good Effects of that important Law for limiting the Duration of Parliaments, and are at the same time consistent with the Principles of Humanity, and the natural Rights of Mankind, which shall not have my hearty Concurrence.

The illegal Associations and audacious Outrages, committed in different Parts of this Kingdom, particularly in the North, deserve your most serious Attention. They are as destructive to Commerce, as disgraceful to Liberty.

The Wiſdom of former Parliaments, and the Affection of my Predeceſſors in this high Station, for your Intereſts, have uniformly co-operated in Support of your Charter-Schools and your Linen Manufacture: I am perſuaded our Zeal for theſe National Objects will equal theirs.

His Majeſty has the firmeſt Reliance on your Loyalty and Duty, and is perſuaded, that your Proceedings will be no leſs conſiſtent with your own Dignity, than with the true Intereſts of your Country: For my Part, I have reſided ſo long amongſt you, that I truſt it will be needleſs for me to make any new Declarations to you, of my Attachment and Affection.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table;

Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Motion for Addreſs to the King

A Motion was made, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to expreſs the grateful Senſe we have of his Majeſty's Goodneſs, and of our firm Confidence in his paternal Attention to the Happineſs of his People, and his gracious Diſpoſition to promote the Welfare and Proſperity of this Kingdom.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we ſhall endeavour to make ſuch a Uſe of the Opportunity which the preſent Proſpect of Publick Affairs affords us, as may beſt anſwer his Majeſty's gracious Purpoſes of calling us together, and that we ſhall chearfully concur with his Excellency Lord Viſc. Townſhend our Chief Governor, whom his Majeſty is graciouſly pleaſed to continue amongſt us, in whatever may promote the great and important Matters, recommended at this time to our Conſideration; and that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, endeavour ſo to conduct our Proceedings, that they may conſiſt with our own Honour, and with the true Intereſt of our Country.

To congratulate his Majeſty, on the happy Event of the Birth of another Prince; and to aſſure him, that we ſhall always conſider every Addition to his Royal Family, as a further Security to us, of our Religion, Laws and Liberties.

To declare our Readineſs, chearfully to contribute, as far as poſſible, to whatever may ſtrengthen and ſupport the Religious and Civil Rights of Mankind, and to whatever may give Effect to the important and conſtitutional Law for limiting the Duration of Parliaments.

To expreſs our Abhorrence of thoſe audacious Outrages, which of late have appeared in different Parts of this Kingdom, and to aſſure his Majeſty, that we ſhall not fail ſeriouſly to deliberate upon them, and to concur in every wiſe Proviſion that can be formed to remedy ſo great an Evil.

To acknowledge to his Majeſty, the unfeigned Pleaſure we feel in the Opinion he is graciouſly pleaſed to entertain of our loyal and dutiful Attachment to his Royal Perſon and Family; and to aſſure him, that we will ever, by our Conduct, endeavour to merit and preſerve his Majeſty's gracious Favour and Protection.

To his Excellency
GEORGE Lord Viſcount TOWNSHEND,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return your Excellency our moſt ſincere Thanks for your excellent Speech to both Houſes of Parliament.

We are thankful for and moſt ſenſible of his Majeſty's paternal Regard for our Welfare, in the Continuance of your Excellency in the Adminiſtration of this Kingdom, fully experiencing your Excellency's Attention to the Security and Happineſs of it.

We return your Excellency our Thanks for the Notice you have taken of thoſe illegal and audacious Outrages that have diſturbed ſo much the Peace and Quiet of the different Parts of this Kingdom, particularly the North, to the Diſgrace of Liberty and the Detriment of the Linen Manufacture of this Kingdom: And we do aſſure your Excellency, that we ſhall readily do all in our Power to co-operate with your Excellency in every wiſe Proviſion that may remedy ſo great an Evil.

We rejoice with your Excellency on the Increaſe of his Majeſty's Royal Family, by the Birth of another Prince, fully and daily experiencing the Bleſſings we enjoy under his Majeſty's auſpicious Reign.

We beg Leave to thank your Excellency, for your Attention in recommending to us, the Support of our Charter-Schools and the Improvement of our Linen Manufacture, as the ſureſt Support of the Proteſtant Intereſt and of the Commerce of this Kingdom, to both of which we ſhall have the utmoſt Regard.

The Experience which we have had of your Excellency's Attachment and Affection during your Reſidence amongſt us, leaves us no room to doubt of your Endeavours to promote the true Intereſts of this Country.

Then his Lordship came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and subscribed the Declaration, and also took and subscribed the Oath of Abjuration, pursuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Earls' Bench.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the House, that the Judges, according to Order, had prepared a Report of what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, which he presented to the House, and the same was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Report on temporary Laws.

IN Obedience to your Lordships' Order of the 31st Day of last October, whereby the Judges were directed to inquire what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, the Judges, upon Inquiry, find:

An Act, passed in this Kingdom in the 8th Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intitled, An Act for explaining and amending an Act, intitled, An Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery, so far as it relates to the Encouragement of Popish Priests becoming Protestants, having expired; was revived and continued by an Act, made in the 31st Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George II. and is lately expired.

A Clause in an Act, passed in this Kingdom, in the 3^{d} Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George II. intitled, An Act for the further explaining and amending several Statutes for prohibiting Under-Sheriffs and Sheriffs' Clerks from officiating as Sub-Sheriff or Sheriffs' Clerk for more than one Year; and to render more effectual an Act to prevent Fees being taken in certain Cases; and to take away the pretended Office of Barony-Clerk; and to oblige Sheriffs to appoint Deputies for granting Replevins, which Clause relates to the preferring any Bill or Bills in the Courts of Chancery or Exchequer for the Discovery of any Offence against the said Act, or against an Act therein mentioned, of the 10th Year of her late Majesty Queen Anne, and obliging any Person to answer the same at large, was from Time to Time continued or revived by by several subsequent Acts, is now near expiring.

A Clause in an Act, passed in this Kingdom in the 10th Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George I. intitled, An Act for continuing and amending an Act for better regulating the Parish-Watches and amending the High-ways in this Kingdom, and for preventing the Misapplication of Publick Money, and also for establishing a regular Watch in the City of Dublin, and to prevent Mischiefs which may happen by graving in the River Liffey, which Clause relates to Parish-Watches and High-ways in this Kingdom, and was revived and continued from time to time by other subsequent Acts, is lately expired.

An Act made in this Kingdom in the 1st Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George II. intitled, An Act for regulating the Price and Assize of Bread and the Markets, which was continued by other subsequent Acts, is now expired.

An Act, passed in this Kingdom in the 9th Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George II. intitled, An Act for the more effectual assigning of Judgments, and for the more speedy Recovery of Rents by Distress, which was continued or revived by other subsequent Acts, is now near expiring.

A Clause in an Act, passed in the 17th Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George II. intitled, An Act to prevent the pernicious Practice of burning Land, and for the more effectual effectual deſtroying of Vermin, and which Clauſe relates to the giving Rewards for the more effectual deſtroying of Vermin, and which Clauſe, excepting Rooks and Herons, was from time to time revived and continued by other ſubſequent Acts, is now near expiring.

An Act, paſſed in this Kingdom in the 25th Year of the Reign of his late Mrjeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for the better Preſervation of the Game, which Act was revived and continued by other Acts, made in his preſent Majeſty's Reign, is now near expiring.

A Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in the 31ſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, which makes the killing and deſtroying wild Turkeys, ſubject and liable to the ſame Penalties and Forfeitures that the deſtroying Pheaſants, Partridges and Quails, are made liable to; and which Clauſe was revived and continued by other Acts, paſſed in his preſent Majeſty's Reign, is now near expiring.

An Act, paſſed in this Kingdom in the 3d Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for diſcharging all Arrears of Quit, Crown and Compoſition Rents, which have been growing due for twenty Years laſt paſt, on the Terms and in the Manner therein mentioned, is now expired.

An Act, paſſed in the 3d Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the better Preſervation of the Game, which Act was ſince continued from time to time by other ſubſequent Acts, is now near expiring.

A Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in the 3d Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for confirming the Titles and for quieting the Poſſeſſions of Proteſtants, and for giving Time to Converts from Popery to perform the Requiſites of Conformity preſcribed by the Laws againſt Popery, which enacts, that all ſuch Perſon or Perſons as had theretofore obtained the Biſhop's Certificate of their Conformity, and from and after the obtaining the ſame, had profeſſed the Proteſtant Religion, and had continued Proteſtants, and had not performed all the other legal Requiſites of Conformity, and ſhould perform the ſame before the 1ſt Day of December, 1765, ſhould from the time of his, her or their Conformity from the Popiſh to the Proteſtant Religion, be deemed and taken to be Proteſtants of the Eſtabliſhed Church, to all Intents and Purpoſes; provided always, that nothing therein contained, ſhould bar, defeat or prejudice any Judgment or Decree whatſoever in any Court of Law or Equity, or any Suit then depending on the Popery Laws; which Clauſe to limit the Time for performing the ſaid legal Requiſites of Conformity, was enlarged by ſeveral other ſubſequent Acts, and particularly by an Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, but the Time limited by the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act for performing the ſaid legal Requiſites of Conformity, is now near expiring.

An Act, paſſed in the 5th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to prevent for the future tumultuous Riſings of Perſons in this Kingdom, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, which was continued by other ſubſequent Acts of Parliament, is now near expiring.

An Act, paſſed in the 7th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the Encouragement of Tillage and Navigation, by granting a Bounty on the Carriage of Corn Coaſt-ways, is lately expired.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

Report on temporary Statutes.

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, was referred; that they had conſidered thereof, and had come to the following Reſolutions:

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act paſſed in this Kingdom in the 8th Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intitled, An Act for explaining and amending an Act, intitled, An Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery, ſo far as it relates to the Encouragement of Popiſh Prieſts becoming Proteſtants, having expired, was revived and continued by an Act, made in the 31ſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. and is lately expired, is fit to be revived and continued for eleven Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that a Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in this Kingdom in the third Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for the further explaining and amending ſeveral Statutes for prohibiting Under-Sheriffs and Sheriffs' Clerks from officiating as Sub-Sheriff or Sheriffs' Clerk for more than one Year, and to render more effectual an Act to prevent Fees being taken in certain Caſes, and to take away the pretended Office of Barony Clerk, and to oblige Sheriffs to appoint Deputies for granting Replevins, which Clauſe relates to the preferring any Bill or Bills in the Courts of Chancery or Exchequer for the Diſcovery of any Offence againſt the ſaid Act, or againſt an Act therein mentioned, of the 10th Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, and obliging any Perſon to anſwer the ſame, at large, was from time to time continued or revived by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts, is now near expiring, is fit to be continued for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that a Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in this Kingdom in the 10th Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George I. intitled, An Act for continuing and amending an Act for better regulating the Pariſh-Watches and amending the High-ways in this Kingdom, and for preventing the Miſapplication of Publick Money, and alſo for eſtabliſhing a regular Watch in the City of Dublin, and to prevent Miſchiefs which may happen by graving in the River Liffey, which Clauſe relates to Pariſh-Watches and High-ways in this Kingdom, and was revived and continued from time to time by other ſubſequent Acts, is lately expired, is fit to be revived and continued for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Report on temporary Statutes.

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, was referred; that they had conſidered thereof, and had come to the following Reſolutions:

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act paſſed in this Kingdom in the 8th Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intitled, An Act for explaining and amending an Act, intitled, An Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery, ſo far as it relates to the Encouragement of Popiſh Prieſts becoming Proteſtants, having expired, was revived and continued by an Act, made in the 31ſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. and is lately expired, is fit to be revived and continued for eleven Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that a Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in this Kingdom in the third Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for the further explaining and amending ſeveral Statutes for prohibiting Under-Sheriffs and Sheriffs' Clerks from officiating as Sub-Sheriff or Sheriffs' Clerk for more than one Year, and to render more effectual an Act to prevent Fees being taken in certain Caſes, and to take away the pretended Office of Barony Clerk, and to oblige Sheriffs to appoint Deputies for granting Replevins, which Clauſe relates to the preferring any Bill or Bills in the Courts of Chancery or Exchequer for the Diſcovery of any Offence againſt the ſaid Act, or againſt an Act therein mentioned, of the 10th Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, and obliging any Perſon to anſwer the ſame, at large, was from time to time continued or revived by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts, is now near expiring, is fit to be continued for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that a Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in this Kingdom in the 10th Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George I. intitled, An Act for continuing and amending an Act for better regulating the Pariſh-Watches and amending the High-ways in this Kingdom, and for preventing the Miſapplication of Publick Money, and alſo for eſtabliſhing a regular Watch in the City of Dublin, and to prevent Miſchiefs which may happen by graving in the River Liffey, which Clauſe relates to Pariſh-Watches and High-ways in this Kingdom, and was revived and continued from time to time by other ſubſequent Acts, is lately expired, is fit to be revived and continued for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved,

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act made in this Kingdom in the 1ſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for regulating the Price and Aſſize of Bread and the Markets, which was continued by other ſubſequent Acts, is now expired, is fit to be revived and continued for ſix Years longer, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act, paſſed in this Kingdom in the 9th Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for the more effectual aſſigning of Judgments, and for the more ſpeedy Recovery of Rents by Diſtreſs, which was continued or revived by other ſubſequent Acts, is now near expiring, ought to be made perpetual.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that a Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in the 17th Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act to prevent the pernicious Practice of burning Land, and for the more effectual deſtroying of Vermin, and which Clauſe relates to the giving Rewards for the more effectual deſtroying of Vermin, and which Clauſe, excepting Rooks and Herons, was from time to time revived and continued by other ſubſequent Acts, is now near expiring, is fit to be continued for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act, paſſed in this Kingdom in the 25th Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for the better Preſervation of the Game, which Act was revived and continued by other Acts made in his preſent Majeſty's Reign, is now near expiring, is fit to be continued for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that a Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in the 31ſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, which makes the killing and deſtroying wild Turkeys ſubject and liable to the ſame Penalties and Forfeitures, that the deſtroying Pheaſants, Partridges and Quails, are made liable to, and which Clauſe was revived and continued by other Acts, paſſed in his preſent Majeſty's Reign, is now near expiring, is fit to be continued for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act, paſſed in this Kingdom in the 3d Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for diſcharging all Arrears of Quit, Crown and Compoſition Rents, which have been growing due for twenty Years laſt paſt, on the Terms and in the Manner therein mentioned, is now expired, is fit to be revived aud continued for the further Term of ten Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act. paſſed in the 3d Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the better Preſervation of the Game, which Act was ſince continued from time to time by other ſubſequent Acts, is now near expiring, is fit to be continued for the further Term of four Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that a Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in the 3d Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for confirming the Titles, and for quieting the Poſſeſſions of Proteſtants, and for giving Time to Converts from Popery to perform the Requiſites of Conformity preſcribed by the Laws againſt Popery, which enacts, that all ſuch Perſon or Perſons as had theretofore obtained the Biſhop's Certificate of their Conformity, and from and after the obtaining the ſame had profeſſed the Proteſtant Religion, and had continued Proteſtants, and had not performed all the other legal Requiſites of Conformity, and ſhould perform the ſame before the 1ſt Day of December, 1765, ſhould from the time of his, her or their Conformity from the Popiſh to the Proteſtant Religion, be deemed and taken to be Proteſtants of the Eſtabliſhed Church to all Intents and Purpoſes; provided always, that nothing therein contained ſhould bar, defeat or prejudice any Judgment or Decree whatſoever in any Court of Law or Equity, or any Suit then depending on the Popery Laws, which Clauſe to limit the Time for performing the ſaid legal Requiſites of Conformity was enlarged by ſeveral other ſubſequent Acts, and particularly by an Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, but the Time limited by the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act for performing the ſaid legal Requiſites of Conformity, is now near expiring, is fit to be continued for the further Term of ſix Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act, paſſed in the 5th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to prevent for the future tumultuous Riſings of Perſons in this Kingdom, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, which was continued by other ſubſequent Acts of Parliament, is now near expiring, is fit to be continued for the further Term of ſeven Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act, paſſed in the 7th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the Encouragement of Tillage and Navigation, by granting a Bounty on the Carriage of Corn Coaſt-ways, is lately expired, is fit to be revived and continued for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

To which Reſolutions, the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree.

Ordered,

Ordered, that the Judges do prepare Heads of a Bill, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolutions.

Mr. Lodge, Deputy Keeper of the Rolls, according to Order, delivered in at the Bar, the Inrollments of all his Majeſty's Letters, appointing Commiſſioners of Accounts, which being by Order read:

Motion relative to the Appointment of Commiſſioners of Accounts:

A Motion was made, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, repreſenting that it is the Opinion of this Houſe, that the Appointment which his Majeſty hath been adviſed to make of five Members of Parliament to examine and paſs certain of the Accounts of this Kingdom, with the Powers ſpecified in his Majeſty's Letters, dated the 31ſt of October, 1771, the preſent Circumſtances of this Country being conſidered, is unneceſſary and inexpedient; and praying that his Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to direct his Attorney-General to cauſe the Legality of ſaid Appointment to be tried, according to due Courſe of Law.

Debate thereon,

A Debate ariſing thereupon, and the Queſtion being put, the Houſe divided; and the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 9; and the Not-Contents in the Houſe were 26:

Proxies being called for, and read over by the Clerk, the Lord Chancellor declared, that the Contents, with the Proxies, were 18; and the Not-Contents were 36;

negatived. It paſſed in the Negative.

DISSENTIENT:

Proteſt. 1. BECAUSE we conceive, that the Appointment of five new Commiſſioners for examining and perfecting the impreſted or extraordinary Accounts of this Kingdom, is unneceſſary, inaſmuch, as the antient Commiſſioners appear to have been deemed ſufficient for ſome Centuries paſt, and to have been ſo held by his Majeſty's Miniſters in both Kingdoms, at his Acceſſion, and even at a later Period, viz. in 1766, when his Majeſty's laſt Appointment of the ſaid Commiſſioners was made, requiring them to ſtate and examine all the Publick Accounts four times, inſtead of once in the Year, ſince which time it cannot be pretended that any Increaſe in that Department or in the other Publick Occupations of the ſaid Commiſſioners hath ariſen, to require ſuch a new Eſtabliſhment as that in Queſtion. And we think it might imply an unmerited Cenſure on the eminent Perſons, who at preſent conſtitute the antient Commiſſion, if the Neceſſity of ſuch a new Arrangement were now, for the firſt time, to be diſcovered and admitted.

2. Becauſe it is to be preſumed, if the old Board had not been deemed by his Majeſty's Miniſters to be fully ſufficient, that they would not have rendered it leſs ſo, by ſuffering it to be deprived of one of its Members, viz. the Chancellor of the Exchequer, who doth not reſide in this Kingdom nor execute any Part of the Duty of that Office: And we conceive, if any Inſufficiency in the old Board could reaſonably be alledged in Conſequence of the Avocations of the other great Officers of the Law, who compoſe it, that it might and ought to be remedied, by ordering the Chancellor of the Exchequer to attend, whereby, inſtead of loading this Country with a new Expenſe, the Salary of that great Office would circulate within this Kingdom, whereas now it is expended abroad.

3. Becauſe the Neceſſity of this Appointment, if any, muſt ariſe either from the Arrear of unpaſſed Accounts heretofore incurred, and which is the only Argument we have heard in ſupport of this new Eſtabliſhment; or it muſt ariſe from the Nature and Extent of our Accounts reſpecting the future. Now, firſt, we conceive, that the new Commiſſioners are directed to call before them, not ſuch Perſons as have, but ſuch as ſhall receive any Sum or Sums by way of Impreſt that is to act for the future, and not for the paſt; and that therefore the Neceſſity of theſe new Commiſſioners, cannot be maintained on the ground of an Arrear, which they are not directed to examine and ſettle. Moreover, we think, that even if they were to have a Retroſpect, it is utterly abſurd to eſtabliſh a permanent Board for all Time future, for the occaſional Purpoſe of ſettling an Arrear incurred in time paſt; a temporary Appointment being ſufficient for ſuch a temporary Office, whereby the Expenſe to the Publick would ceaſe with the Occaſion which produced it. Again; as to our Accounts in future, we think it cannot be denied, that one Board of Commiſſioners of Accounts would be ſufficient to diſcharge the whole Buſineſs, if properly conſtituted. Now, either the old Board is ſo conſtituted, or it is not. If it is ſo conſtituted, it is ſufficient, and another is unneceſſary. If it is not ſo conſtituted, either it ought to be corrected, if capable of being rendered ſufficient; or, if incapable thereof, it ought to be aboliſhed by due Authority. And one Board properly regulated and ſufficient ſubſtituted in its room: Whereas the preſent Meaſure of Government is to do neither, for it is to continue the old Board in its antient Form, which, if it is inſufficient is abſurd; and to add another to do Part of its Duty, which is abſurd, if it be not inſufficient. It propoſes, in a Word, not that we ſhould have one Board properly regulated and ſufficient, but that we ſhould have two; each of which ſhall be ſo contrived as to be at leaſt ſeparately inadequate: And that not for the Purpoſe of the one being a Check and Controul on the other, but wholly independent and diſtinct; which can be productive of evil Conſequences only, as we apprehend, without one Benefit.

4. Becauſe we think it to be inexpedient, inaſmuch as no new Expenſe that can be avoided, ought to be incurred, at a Period, when, from the growing Difficulties of the Publick, the Wiſdom of Parliament hath found it neceſſary, both in the Seſſion of 1769, and in the preſent Seſſion to reduce very conſiderably the Sum uſually expended on the internal Improvement of the Kingdom, and towards the Support of its great charitable Foundations: When, notwithſtanding ſuch a Retrenchment, Government was obliged to borrow, borrow, in the two laſt Years £130,000 in Aid of the general Revenue, when the next two Years ſeem to threaten a ſtill greater Increaſe of National Debt, the Commons having deemed it neceſſary to vote, in this Seſſion, a Loan of £200,000 in Aid of the general Revenue for the ordinary Service of the two Years enſuing. When his Majeſty's Revenue, by Decay of Trade and Credit, is declining; when, notwithſtanding this Country is more heavily burdened, in Proportion to her Ability, than Great Britain; and notwithſtanding that the Taxes of this Kingdom exceed, in their annual Amount, the whole circulating Specie of the Nation; yet the Expenſe of the Publick is greatly ſuperior to the Revenue thereof, even though the latter ſhould riſe again to as high an Amount as it hath reached at any Period heretofore; which we cannot promiſe to ourſelves, at preſent, that it will: When, unleſs, inſtead of increaſing, we ſhall diminiſh the publick Charges, this Kingdom will incur a larger Debt, in a few Years of profound Tranquillity, than it contracted during the Whole of the late War, in which this Country undertook a larger Share of Expenſe than ever it had done in any War before. And, when the Speech from the Throne this Seſſion of Parliament, hath ſtated ſo emphatically, the neceſſitous Condition of this Kingdom, and hath dictated Oeconomy in ſuch alarming Terms.

5. Becauſe it appears, that at ſo late a Period as in the Year 1757, the whole Expenſe of the Publick in the Article of Commiſſioners of Accounts, amounted only to £360, which Expenſe ſince that Time, principally by the Innovation of quarterly, inſtead of annual Accounts, hath increaſed to ſeven Times that Sum, without any Advantage to the Publick therefrom, as we apprehend; and which, in conſequence of this new Eſtabliſhment, will, at the loweſt Eſtimate, be augmented upon the Whole, in more than a twenty-fold Proportion, and that in a Seaſon of publick Diſtreſs and of accumulating Debt: Whereas, in the firſt-mentioned Period, this Nation, having recently diſcharged the whole Capital of its antecedent Debt, was free from all Incumbrance whatſoever, and in a proſperous and riſing Condition. Wherefore we humbly conceive, that it would be more ſeaſonable and expedient to reduce this Article of the publick Charge, than to increaſe it: And that nothing can be more prepoſterous in this light, than the preſent Propoſition, by which this new Board of inferior Commiſſioners for taking a very ſmall Portion of the Publick Accounts, will coſt the Kingdom, on the moſt moderate Calculation, above ſixteeen times the Sum which was paid in 1757, to the ancient Commiſſioners for the whole Accounts of the Nation.

6. Becauſe we conceive, that as any two of the ſaid five Commiſſioners are authorized by theſe Letters to exerciſe all the extenſive and ſingular Powers veſted thereby in the ſaid Commiſſioners, great Inconveniencies and much Confuſion may follow therefrom; and that contradictory Orders may be iſſued, each ſigned by two of the ſaid Commiſſioners, without any apparent Precedence or Ground of Preference in the one Order over the other, whereby the Perſons required to obey the ſame may regulate their Conduct, or be able to aſcertain which they are to regard.

7. Becauſe we conceive, if any Increaſe of Expenſe in this Department were at all expedient or admiſſible, that the publick Intereſt would require that the ſame ſhould be incurred, rather by a moderate Addition of Profit to the antient Commiſſioners, than by the Creation of new ones, for many weighty Reaſons; and eſpecially, for that by multiplying unneceſſary Offices, the undue Influence of the Crown muſt be extended: For which Purpoſe alone this Appointment ſeems to us, indeed, to have been calculated; whether we conſider that ſignal Miſmanagement and Mal-adminiſtration which hath rendered the Arts of Intrigue and Corruption more than uſually requiſite to counteract the Force of juſt and national Indignation; or whether we conſider the Perſons appointed to theſe Offices, who, inſtead of being ſelected from amongſt thoſe who have had publick Opportunities of teſtifying their peculiar Fitneſs for, and experience in, the Department of National Accounts, have been all taken, without a ſingle Exception, from amongſt the Repreſentatives of the People.

8. Becauſe we wiſh the Validity of the Letters Patent in queſtion to be brought to Trial, inaſmuch as we apprehend, that the ſame are illegal; for that the Court of Exchequer is a Court of antient Juriſdiction, for the Purpoſe of hearing and determining all Matters of Account and Revenue, with ſufficient Officers and Powers for adjuſting and determining the ſame, and for recovering all ſuch Balances as may appear to be due thereon; in which Court, all Queſtions of legal Doubt muſt be decided by the Barons who know the Law, and all Queſtions of Fact by the Conſtitutional Trial by Jury. And we conceive that the executive Power cannot at this Day, conſiſtently with the Laws of the Land, appoint any new Judicature, nor any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, ſave only the antient Judges and Officers of the ſaid Court, to hear and determine any Matter or Matters incident to the Juriſdiction thereof, or to exerciſe any Powers which may interfere with the ſaid Juriſdiction: But the five new Commiſſioners of Accounts, appointed by his Majeſty's Letters Patent, bearing Date the 31ſt of October, 1771, or any two or more of them, are authoriſed by ſaid Letters, "To call "before them, once in every Year, the Maſter "of the Ordnance, the Clerks and Receivers "of Fines and Caſualties, the Treaſurer of "the Barrack Board or Board of Works, and "every Accountant and Accountants, whoſe "Accounts, by virtue of any former Com-"miſſion, the ſaid Commiſſioners or others "exerciſing or occupying their Places, were "required

" required and authoriſed to examine, except " the Accounts of the Vice-Treaſurers and " Receiver or Receivers General, and the " Treaſurer at War or Pay-maſter General: " To call before them all ſuch Perſons who " ſhall or may, from time to time, receive " any Sum or Sums of Money by way of " Impreſt, either by Warrant or Order of " Government for his Majeſty's Service, to " exhibit to the ſaid Commiſſioners all ſuch " Accounts, Books, Certificates, Warrants, " Bills and Muniments whatſoever, as ſhall " touch or concern the Charge or Diſcharge " of the ſaid Accounts remaining in their " Hands or Cuſtody, or remaining in the " Hands, Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion of any of his " Majeſty's Officers or Miniſters within this " Kingdom; and them and every of them, " by all Ways and Means they poſſibly can, " to peruſe, caſt up, try and examine, and " upon Tryal, Examination and Peruſal " thereof, to make full, perfect and juſt " Accounts or Declarations of the Accounts, " containing briefly the Sum and Subſtance " thereof, in Charge and Diſcharge, as hath " been heretofore uſed; the ſaid ſeveral Ac- " counts to be fairly ingroſſed in two Parts, " and by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two " or more of them, ſigned and vouched; the " one Part to remain of Record in the Court " of Exchequer there, and the other Part to " be delivered to the Parties accountable, and " to be to them, and every of them, their " Heirs, Executors and Adminiſtrators, againſt " the King, his Heirs and Succeſſors, a ſuffi- " cient Warrant and Diſcharge; and the ſaid " Commiſſioners, and every of them, are re- " quired to have ſpecial regard, that all ſuch " Petitions and Demands, as ſhall be by them " allowed, have good and probable Reaſons " to maintain and prove the ſame: Provided " always, that the ſaid Parts of the ſaid Ac- " counts, ſo as aforeſaid to be delivered by " the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two or more " of them, ſo ſigned and delivered, ſhall not " exonerate or diſcharge the ſaid Accountants, " or any of them, their Heirs, Executors or " Adminiſtrators, of any ſuch Debts as ſhall " be by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two " or more of them, found due, and by the ſaid " Accountants owing upon their ſaid Ac- " counts, until ſuch time as the ſaid Ac- " countants, and every of them, ſhall firſt take " Order with the King for Payment thereof, " either by Inſtallments or otherwiſe, as to " the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two or more " of them, ſhall be thought meet and con- " venient." Which ſaid Powers of allowing Petitions and Demands, and granting Diſcharges to Accountants, we conceive, will amount to a Determination of Matters incident to the Juriſdiction of the ſaid Court of Exchequer; and will alſo eſſentially interfere with the ſaid Juriſdiction, inaſmuch as Accountants, having obtained ſuch Diſcharges, will not, according to the Tenor of the ſaid Patents, be obliged to render any Account to the ſaid Court of Exchequer; but may, if the Proviſion of the ſaid Patents ſhall be conſidered as valid, plead ſuch Diſcharges in Bar of any Account demanded of them before the ſaid Court. We further apprehend, that the ſaid new Commiſſioners, conſtituted with the aforeſaid Powers, are a new Judicature, notwithſtanding any Patents that have heretofore been granted to Commiſſioners of Accounts in this Kingdom, inaſmuch as all ſuch former Patents muſt, if legal, have been founded either in the Statute of the 10th of Henry VII. Ch. I. or in the Common-Law, which is common Uſage: Now, ſo far as the ſaid antient Patents may have been founded on the ſaid Statute, they can be no Authority or Example for the preſent Patents, which do in no ſort purſue that Statute; and if in any Part they were founded in common Uſage, the Uſage muſt be taken intire: Now, it has been at all times a Part of that Uſage, by ſuch Patents, to grant the Commiſſion for taking Accounts to the Barons of the Exchequer, and certain great Officers of the Law for the time being, and that without any Tenure, but as incident to their reſpective Offices. Whereas the new Commiſſions are granted for a Tenure, during the King's Pleaſure, to Perſons unſkilled in the Law, altogether independent of, and unconnected with, the ſaid Court of Exchequer, contrary to every Appearance of old Uſage, as well as to the Spirit of that excellent Statute of the 5th of Richard II. which enacts, that no Baron of the Exchequer, Clerk of the Pipe, Appoſer, Clerk of the foreign Summonſes, Auditors or other Chief Officers of the Exchequer, ſhould be made, unleſs he be well learned in the Law, or otherwiſe very ſkilful in the Courſes and Uſage of the Exchequer. We therefore apprehend, that the ſaid former Patents, if founded in the ſaid Statute of Henry VII. can be no Example of theſe new Patents, which are not founded therein; nor can the ſame, if founded in Uſage, be any Precedent of Patents, which eſſentially differ from the Uſage obſerved therein: Neither do we conceive, that there is a Power in the Crown, of deſtroying, dividing or altering the antient Offices eſtabliſhed by Law.

9. Becauſe there are in the ſaid Court of Exchequer, certain ancient Clerks or Officers called Auditors of Impreſt, whoſe Duty it is to take all foreign and impreſted Accounts and to perfect the ſame: And we conceive, that all ſuch Matters, touching the ſaid Accounts, as are Miniſterial, may be well and effectually tranſacted by the ſaid Officers, and do of Right belong to their Office. So that the Inſtitution of new Commiſſioners of Accounts, ſo far as they are Miniſterial, is at leaſt, ſuperfluous, and ſo far as they are judicial, is, as we conceive, manifeſtly illegal.

 10. Becauſe

10. Becauſe the ſaid new Commiſſioners, or any two of them, are empowered by the ſaid Letters Patent, to give and allow at Diſcretion to any Perſon or Perſons employed in or about the ſaid Accounts, or in any thing concerning the ſame, ſuch Sum or Sums of Money or other Recompenſe as to the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall ſeem meet and convenient: And we apprehend, that to delegate ſuch a diſcretionary Power over the Revenue to any Perſons whatſoever, is repugnant to the firſt Principles of Law, and of moſt dangerous Example.

11. Becauſe we conceive, that whatever new Inſtitution tends to the Diſquietneſs, Miſchief and Delay of the Subject, and is no Advantage to the King, is therefore againſt Law. But this new Inſtitution appears to us manifeſtly to tend to the Diſquiet, Miſchief and Delay of the Subject, inaſmuch as it requires Perſons to account before Commiſſioners, who are not bound by any Oath to adminiſter Juſtice impartially, or according to Law. Neither have they any certain Rules of Law, or approved Uſage, by which to govern their Proceedings: Neither is their Court to be open at all times for receiving Accounts and regularly diſpatching the ſame, they being only authoriſed to take Accounts once in every Year. And the ſaid Inſtitution appears to us, on the other hand, to contribute in no ſort to the Advantage of the King, but, on the contrary, to the manifeſt Injury of his Revenue, inaſmuch as no Power is given to the ſaid Commiſſioners to examine any Accountant upon Oath: Neither, as we conceive, is there, or could there be, any Power granted to them by the ſaid Patent to inforce the Appearance of any Accountants or others, nor to examine any Perſons not Parties to the ſaid Accounts, nor to puniſh for any forged Receipts or other Frauds; nor in any wiſe to compel Payment of any Balance that may appear to be due: And alſo, inaſmuch as the ſaid Commiſſioners are authoriſed, at their Pleaſure, to permit Accountants to diſcharge their Balances by Inſtallments: Whereas by the Courſe of the Exchequer, according to the Oaths of the Barons and the old Law of the Land, none of the King's Debts were to be put in Reſpite, or Payment thereof allowed to be poſtponed, where the ſame might be goodly levied. From all which we draw this general Concluſion, that this novel Courſe tendeth to the Diſquietneſs, Miſchief and Delay of the Subject, is no Advantage to the King, and therefore is againſt Law, and ought not to be allowed.

12. Becauſe the ſaid new Commiſſion doth, under the general Words of "the Receivers "of the King's Fines and Caſualties," ſeem to draw all Sheriffs from the ſaid Court of Exchequer, to account before the ſaid Commiſſioners: Whereas the ſaid Sheriffs are bound by their Oath, their Office, and the Law of the Land, to account in the Exchequer and there only: And the ſubjecting them to any other Juriſdiction, would be a manifeſt Grievance to them, and to the Publick.

13. Becauſe, we conceive it of the moſt dangerous Tendency to Great Britain, as well as to this Kingdom, that the Syſtem of Juriſprudence and the Rights and Powers of the great Courts of Juſtice, which are the ſame in both Countries, ſhould be violated in either: For that in the Preſervation thereof alone, our Liberties can be ſecure; as by every Incroachment thereon, in former times, the Publick Freedom hath been brought to the brink of Ruin, and the Pillars of the Conſtitution ſhaken to their Foundation.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Petition of F. Veſey, Eſq; for Recompenſe for making Index, &c. to Statutes at large.

A Petition of Francis Veſey, Eſq; ſetting forth, that in the Year 1762, his Excellency the then Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, in Purſuance of the Addreſs of this Hon. Houſe, gave Directions, that the Statutes at large of this Kingdom ſhould be printed and publiſhed, under the Inſpection of the Lord Chancellor and Judges, who were pleaſed to honour the Petitioner with that arduous and important Charge.

That the Petitioner, under the Directions of their Lordſhips, with great Labour and Pains, completed the ſaid Work, with marginal Notes and References, a Table of the ſeveral Titles, and a general Index to the Whole, the Acts of Settlement and Explanation excepted, to which it was thought neceſſary to have a ſeparate Index.

That the Petitioner was cloſely employed in the ſaid Undertaking for above three Years, and during the greateſt Part of that time was under the Neceſſity of relinquiſhing his Practice as a Barriſter.

That the ſaid Work was printed in Eight Folio Volumes, from the 3^{d} Year of King Edward II. to the 1^{ſt} of his preſent Majeſty's Reign incluſive, diſtinguiſhing in a different Type ſuch Acts of Parliament as are expired or repealed. That by the Direction of the preſent Lord Chancellor and Judges, a Ninth Volume was publiſhed, including the 7th of his preſent Majeſty's Reign; and that the Petitioner never received any Recompenſe or Reward whatever for ſuch his Labour and Trouble:

And praying their Lordſhips to take the Premiſes into Conſideration, and to do therein as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, ſhall ſeem juſt; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Petition ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to a ſelect Committee; and that Lord Annaly, and all the Lords preſent, be the ſaid Committee; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet the firſt Monday after the Chriſtmas Receſs, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Report on Petition of Officers, &c. of Houſe.

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Petition of the Clerk of the Parliaments, the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and the Serjeant at Arms, in behalf of themſelves, and the other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe; and alſo the Petition of Ulſter King of Arms of all Ireland, were referred; that they have come to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and humbly deſire his Excellency to repreſent to his Majeſty the Caſe of the Officers and Servants attending this Houſe; that they may, of his Princely Bounty, receive ſuch Encouragement and Rewards, as may be proportionable to their Labour, Expenſe and Services, in their ſeveral Employments in this Houſe.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Lord Chancellor do, at the ſame time, lay before his Excellency as their Opinion, that the ſeveral Officers and Servants, for their extraordinary Services this Seſſion of Parliament, deſerve the ſeveral Sums following, viz.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon an ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty the ſeveral Duties, Rates, Impoſitions and Taxes therein particularly expreſſed, to be applied to the Payment of the Intereſt of the Sums therein provided for, and towards the Diſcharge of the ſaid Principal Sums, in ſuch Manner as therein is directed; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Committee, that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment; and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be now read a third time.

Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty the ſeveral Duties, Rates, Impoſitions and Taxes therein particularly expreſſed, to be applied to the Payment of the Intereſt of the Sums therein provided for, and towards the Diſcharge of the ſaid Principal Sums, in ſuch Manner as therein is directed.

Motion relative to Publick Accounts:

The Houſe was moved to reſolve, That on Wedneſday the 9th Day of October, being the ſecond Day of this Seſſion, a Motion was made and unanimouſly agreed to by this Houſe, that an Addreſs ſhould be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, praying, that his Excellency will pleaſe to order the proper Officer to lay before this Houſe, Copies of the Publick Accounts: That this Houſe, not having received any Anſwer to ſaid Addreſs, the further Conſideration thereof does, by ſeveral Adjournments, ſtand poſtponed to the firſt Monday after the Chriſtmas Receſs now enſuing; and that this Houſe, for want of Information with reſpect to the extraordinary Arrears incurred upon the Eſtabliſhments during the two Years laſt paſt, cannot form a competent Judgment with regard to the Quantum of the Supplies neceſſary for the Service of the two Years next to come:

Debate thereon: A Debate ariſing thereupon, and the Queſtion being put, the Houſe divided; and the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 7; and the Not-Contents in the Houſe were 24;

Proxies called for, Proxies being called for, and read over by the Clerk, the Lord Chancellor declared, that the Contents, with Proxies, were 15; and the Not-Contents were 36;

negatived. It paſſed in the Negative.

Queſtion, Whether Loan Bill ſhall paſs? The Queſtion was put, Whether the Bill, intitled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty the ſeveral Duties, Rates, Impoſitions and Taxes therein particularly expreſſed, to be applied to the Payment of the Intereſt of the Sums therein provided for, and towards the Diſcharge of the ſaid Principal Sums, in ſuch Manner as is therein directed, ſhall paſs?

and returned to Commons. A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Baron Scott and Mr. Juſtice Teniſon, to return the ſaid Bill, and acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſame, without any Amendment.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

L˜d Lieutenant preſent. His Excellency George Lord Viſc. Townſhend, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of of Grandeur; the Earl of Cavan carrying the Cap of Maintenance; and the Earl of Howth, the Sword of State; a Nobleman's Son bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint the Commons, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter.

And the Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies; and Mr. Speaker delivered the Money-Bill to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought it to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Title, as follows, viz.

An Act for granting to his Majeſty the ſeveral Duties, Rates, Impoſitions and Taxes therein particularly expreſſed, to be applied to the Payment of the Intereſt of the Sums therein provided for, and towards the Diſcharge of the ſaid Principal Sums, in ſuch Manner as therein is directed.

Royal Aſſent given to Loan Bill.

To this Bill, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, in theſe Words, viz.

" Le Roi remercie ſes bons Sujets, accepte leur
" Benevolence, et ainſi le veult."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

Order relative to Judges Bill adjourned.

Ordered, that the Order for putting the House into a Committee, upon Heads of a Bill for rendering Re-qualifications by the Judges in certain Cases unnecessary, and for enabling the Chief and other Judges of his Majesty's Court of King's-Bench, Common-Pleas and Exchequer to appoint Commissioners for taking Affidavits in the County of the City of Dublin and the County of Dublin, and for the remitting of Prisoners, with their Indictments, by the Justices of his Majesty's Court of King's-Bench, to the Places where the Crimes were committed, be further adjourned till Thursday next.

Ordered, that Daniel Stanford, Attorney, John Falvey and Hugh Mathews, Bailiffs, do attend at the Bar of this House on Thursday next.

Heads of Bill for erecting Chapels of Ease, adjourned.

Whereas the third reading of Heads of a Bill for erecting Parochial Chapels of Ease in Parishes of large Extent, and making such Chapels, and those that are already erected, perpetual Cures, and for making a proper Provision for the Maintenance of perpetual Curates to officiate in the same; and also, in like Manner, for making appropriate Parishes perpetual Cures; was to have been on Wednesday next, the same was adjourned till Thursday Morning next.

The Earl of Inchiquin reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Address, pursuant to the Resolution of this House of Saturday last, that they had prepared an Address accordingly, which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Table, where the same was again read, and agreed to by the House, as follows, viz.

To the KING's most excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

Address to the King.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal of Ireland in Parliament assembled, beg Leave most sincerely to condole with your Majesty on the great Loss which your Majesty and your Subjects have sustained, in the much-lamented Death of your Majesty's most excellent Mother, her late Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales.

Our Hearts are so impress with the warmest and most dutiful Affection for your Majesty, that we cannot but feel the truest Sorrow upon this melancholy Event; and we beg Leave humbly to express our Hopes and Prayers, that the Fortitude of your Royal Mind may, through the Assistance of DIVINE PROVIDENCE, enable your Majesty so to moderate your Grief, that it may not endanger your Majesty's Health, upon which, under GOD, the Happiness of your People doth depend.

Resolved, that the said Address be presented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole House, in order to lay the same before his Majesty.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will please to be attended by this House with their Address to his Majesty.

The House was adjourned during Pleasure.

The House was resumed: And the Lord Chancellor acquainted the House, that in obedience to their Lordships' Order, he had waited upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he would please to be attended by this House with their Address to his Majesty; and his Excellency was pleased to appoint this Day, at Two o'clock, at the Castle.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had received an Order of Reference from his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, on the Petition of John Anneſley of Ballyſax, Eſq; to his Excellency, in relation to the Title and Honours of Viſc. Valentia and Baron Mount-Norris, which he read, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

By the Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

TOWNSHEND.

Order of Reference relative to J. Anneſley, Eſq;

IN Purſuance of his Majeſty's royal Will and Pleaſure, ſignified unto us by a Letter from the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, dated the 18th Inſt. a Copy whereof is herewith ſent, we are hereby pleaſed to refer to the Right Hon. the Houſe of Peers of this Kingdom, the Petition of John Anneſley of Ballyſax in the Co. Kildare, Eſq; to his Majeſty, claiming the Honours of Viſc. Valentia and Baron Mount-Norris in this Kingdom, together with a Copy of the Report of the Attorney and Solicitor-General of England thereupon, in order that their Lordſhips may take the ſame into Conſideration, agreeable to his Majeſty's Commands. Given at his Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin, the 29th Day of February, 1772.

By his Excellency's Command,

RICHARD JACKSON.

The Copy of the Secretary of State's Letter to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant on the Claim of the ſaid John Anneſley, was preſented to the Houſe, and read as follows, viz.

St.

St. James's, 18th February, 1772.

My Lord,

I RETURN your Excellency the Petition of John Anneſley of Ballyſax in the Co. Kildare, Eſq; claiming the Honours of Viſc. Valentia and Baron Mount-Norris in the Kingdom of Ireland, together with a Copy of the Opinion of his Majeſty's Attorney and Solicitor-General here thereupon; and am, in Conſequence, to ſignify to your Excellency the King's Pleaſure, that you refer the ſaid Petition to the Conſideration of the Houſe of Peers in Ireland.

I am, with the greateſt
Truth and Reſpect,
My Lord,
Your Excellency's
Moſt obedient humble Servant,
ROCHFORD.

Petition of J. Anneſley.

And alſo the Petition of the ſaid John Anneſley to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, ſetting forth, That Richard Earl of Angleſey in Great Britain, enjoyed the Honours of Viſc. Valentia and Baron Mount-Norris in this Kingdom, and died in the Year 1761, without lawful Iſſue.

That the Petitioner, as the Heir-male of the Body of Sir Francis Anneſley, who was created Baron Mount-Norris and Viſc. Valentia, petitioned for a Writ of Summons to Parliament.

That another Petition, claiming the ſaid Honours, was preſented by Arthur Anneſley, who pretended to be a legitimate Son and Heir of ſaid Richard.

That without any Inquiry before, or Determination by the Houſe of Lords, as to the Validity of the ſaid Arthur's Title, a Writ of Summons was obtained; and he was admitted into the Houſe of Lords, as the legitimate Son and Heir to the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey, without the leaſt Notice thereof to the Petitioner.

That a like Claim has been ſince made by the ſaid Arthur on the ſame Pretence, to the Honours of Earl of Angleſey, &c. in Great Britain, which Claim the Petitioner is informed was fully examined before the Right Hon. the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Great Britain in Parliament aſſembled; and their Lordſhips were pleaſed to declare, that he was not intitled to the ſaid Honours.

That the Petitioner conceives the ſaid Writ was iſſued through ſome Misinformation, and that the Dignity of Peerage, the Honour of the Houſe of Lords and the Right of the Petitioner, who is undoubtedly the lineal Deſcendant of the ſaid Sir Francis Anneſley, are greatly affected thereby.

That the Petitioner has applied to the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, to grant him his Writ of Summons to his Seat in Parliament, which his Lordſhip has declined doing, under the Circumſtances of this Caſe, without Directions from his Majeſty, or the Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom:

And praying his Excellency to lay the Petitioner's Caſe before his Majeſty, and to order ſuch Steps to be taken, as may be neceſſary for the Petitioner's Relief; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order of Reference, &c. referred to Committee of Privileges.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Order of Reference, the Letter of the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, to his Excellency, and the Petition of John Anneſley of Ballyſax, Eſq; together with the Opinion of the Attorney and Solicitor-General of England, be referred to the Grand Committee for Privileges.

Ordered, that it be an Inſtruction to the Committee of Privileges, to take the Matter of the ſaid Reference into Conſideration on Tueſday ſe'n-night, and that his Majeſty's Attorney-General have Notice thereof.

Ld Chancellor to write to England for Papers, &c. relative to the Angleſey Peerage.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor be deſired to write to the Lord Chancellor of England, to deſire his Lordſhip to ſignify to the Houſe of Lords of Great Britain, the Deſire of this Houſe, that the Houſe of Lords of Great Britain, would be pleaſed to direct, that all the Papers, Records, Exhibits and other Proofs, relative to the Claim of the Angleſey Peerage remaining with their Lordſhips, may be tranſmitted to this Houſe.

Lord Valentia to be heard by Counſel.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Valentia be at Liberty to be heard by his Counſel, before the Lords' Committees for Privileges, to whom the Matter of the Petition of John Anneſley of Ballyſax, Eſq; is referred.

Ordered, that this Houſe ſhall be called over on Monday fortnight, and that all the Lords in the Kingdom be ſummoned to attend the Service of this Houſe upon that Day.

Heads of temporary Statutes Bill.

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh, according to Order, reported from the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Conſideration of Heads of a Bill for reviving and continuing ſeveral temporary Statutes that have lately expired, and for continuing others that are near expiring, were committed; that they had gone through the ſaid Heads of a Bill, with ſeveral Amendments, which were read at the Table, and agreed to by the Houſe.

The ſaid Heads of a Bill were then, by Order, read a third time.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant had received his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe of Condolence on the Death of her late Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales, which his Excellency directed him to lay before their Lordſhips, which he read; and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

"GEORGE R.

King's Anſwer to Addreſs. "HIS Majeſty returns his Thanks to the "Houſe of Lords for their affectionate Ad- "dreſs, and the Concern which they expreſs "on the Loſs which he has ſuſtained. Their "Wiſhes for his Majeſty's Health, as con- "nected with the Happineſs of his People, "are highly agreeable to his Majeſty.

"G. R."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed. It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Majeſty of the 17th Day of February laſt, and his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had waited upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the Deſire of this Houſe of Wedneſday laſt, that his Excellency would lay before his Majeſty the humble Requeſt of this Houſe, that his Majeſty would be graciouſly pleaſed to order, that all the Papers and Evidences relating to the Angleſey Peerage, ſhould be tranſmitted to this Houſe; and his Excellency was pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

"I WILL forthwith tranſmit the ſame to "be laid before his Majeſty." Lord Lieutenant's Anſwers.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that he had attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to deſire his Excellency would be pleaſed to order two of the Judges to ſtay in Town from their Circuits to attend the Service of this Houſe; and his Excellency was pleaſed to give this Anſwer:

"I WILL, upon this Requeſt of the Lords, "direct that the Lord Chief Juſtice of the "Common-Pleas and the Lord Chief Baron "of the Exchequer, ſhall attend the Service "of the Houſe of Lords."

A Petition of Ann Jupie, praying, for the Reaſons therein ſet forth, that the Lord St. George may be obliged to wave his Privilege, in a Suit to be commenced againſt his Lordſhip by the Petitioner; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Ordered, that the Rt. Hon. Lord St. George do attend at his Place in this Houſe, on Tueſday next.

Ordered, that his Lordſhip be ſerved with a Copy of the Petition of Anne Jupie, preſented this Day.

Ordered, that the Clerk of this Houſe do acquaint his Lordſhip with the foregoing Orders.

Ordered, that Ann Jupie do attend at the Bar of this Houſe on Tueſday next.

Petition of J. Annesley, Esq; relative to Titles of Valentia, &c.

A Petition of John Annesley of Ballysax in the Co. Kildare, Esq; setting forth, that in Consequence of his Majesty's Commands and the Order of Reference from his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom to their Lordships, whereby the Decision of the Right to the Titles of Viscount Valentia and Baron Mount-Norris is referred to their Lordships; it will be necessary for the Petitioner to lay before their Lordships, Evidence in Support of his Claim to the said Honours, and to cross-examine any Evidence produced against him:

And praying their Lordships to allow the Petitioner to produce Evidence, and to be heard by Counsel in support thereof; was presented to the House, and read.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that John Annesley, Esq; have the Leave of this House to be heard by Counsel before the Lords' Committees for Privileges, to whom the Consideration of the Order of Reference from his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; the Letter of the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to his Excellency; and the Petition of the said John Annesley, presented the 29th Day of February last, together with the Report of the Attorney and Solicitor General of England thereupon, is referred.

Petition of Lord Eyre.

A Petition of the Right Hon. John Lord Baron Eyre of Eyre-Court, Elinor Lady Eyre his Wife, Richard Eyre of Eyre-Court in the Co. Galway, Esq; on behalf of himself and of Giles Eyre, John Eyre and Richard Eyre, his Sons and Minors under the Age of Twenty-one Years, and of Robert Eyre of Eyre-Mount in the said County, Esq; setting forth, that several Fines were levied and acknowledged, and several Recoveries suffered by the Rev. Giles Eyre, Dean of Killaloe, and the Petitioner Lord Eyre, who hath not any Son, and but one Daughter; and the Petitioner Lord Eyre, pursuant to the Power given him, hath charged the said settled Estate with a Jointure for Lady Eyre, and a Portion for his Daughter.

That the Mansion-house, Deer-park and Improvements of the Petitioner Lord Eyre stand on Part of the Lands comprised in a Trust-Term, and that other Parts of the Premises are contiguous to the said Mansion-house, and that it would be injurious to the Petitioners and all Persons who may be intitled under the said Settlement, to dispose of the Mansion-house and Improvements, and more to the Advantage of all Parties, if other Parts of the said Estate, which are detached from the Mansion-house and Improvements, were to be sold in Lieu thereof, which cannot be done, without the Aid of Parliament:

And praying their Lordships, that Leave may be given to bring in Heads of a Bill to vest in Trustees, the Lands detached from the Mansion-house and Improvements, to be sold, or such Part thereof as shall be sufficient to discharge the several Debts and Incumbrances affecting the same; was presented to the House, and read.

Order thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill, according to the the Prayer of the said Petition.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

Biſhop of Cork, and

The Rev. Iſaac Mann, Doctor in Divinity, being by Letters Patents, dated the 7th Day of March, in the 12th Year of King George III. created Biſhop of Cork and Roſs, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Lord Biſhop of Kildare and the Lord Biſhop of Waterford, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying his Lordſhip's Letters Patents preceding: His Lordſhip preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Biſhops' Bench.

Biſhop of Clonfert, introduced.

The Rev. Walter Cope, Dean of Dromore, being by Letters Patents, dated the 9th Day of March, in the 12th Year of King George III. created Biſhop of Clonfert and Kilmacduagh, was this Day in his Robes, introduced between the Lord Biſhop of Waterford and the Lord Biſhop of Kilmore, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying his Lordſhip's Letters Patents preceding: His Lordſhip preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Biſhops' Bench.

Petition of Richard Anneſley claiming the Title of Viſcount Valentia, &c.

A Petition of Richard Anneſley, Eſq; ſetting forth, that his late Majeſty King James I. by his Letters Patent duly paſſed under the Great Seal of this Kingdom, in the 19th Year of his Reign, did create Sir Francis Anneſley, Bart. the Petitioner's Anceſtor, Viſcount of Valentia in the ſaid Kingdom, with Remainder in that Dignity to the Heirs-Male of the ſaid Sir Francis; and he the ſaid Sir Francis accordingly enjoyed that Honour during his Life.

That his late Majeſty King Charles II. by his Letters Patent, duly paſſed under the Great Seal of the ſaid Kingdom, in the 33d Year of his Reign, did create the Hon. Altham Anneſley, Baron Altham of Altham in the ſame Kingdom, with Remainder in that Dignity to the Heirs-Male of the ſaid Altham; and in Default of ſuch Iſſue, with Remainder to the the Hon. Richard Anneſley, Brother to the ſaid Altham and Grandfather to the Petitioner, and to the Heirs-Male of the ſaid Richard, and which Title of Honour was enjoyed by the ſaid Altham and Richard Anneſley ſucceſſively.

That both of the ſaid Titles of Honour deſcended unto and became duly veſted in the Right Hon. Richard late Lord Viſc. Valentia and Baron Altham of Altham in Ireland, and Earl of Angleſey in Great Britain, the eldeſt Son and Heir of the ſaid Richard Lord Altham, and he accordingly enjoyed the ſame to the time of his Deceaſe.

That the ſaid Richard the laſt Lord Viſc. Valentia and Baron Altham lately died in actual Poſſeſſion and Enjoyment of theſe ſeveral Honours, leaving the Petitioner his the ſaid Richard's Son and Heir, and that the Petitioner thereupon became intitled to the beforementioned ſeveral Honours, under and by virtue of the ſaid reſpective Creations and Limitations thereof.

That after the Deceaſe of the ſaid Richard, Arthur Anneſley, Eſq; pretending to be Son and Heir of the ſaid Richard, without any Manner of Notice unto the Petitioner, or diſcloſing his Right to the ſaid Titles of Honour, and by Miſrepreſentation of the Truth did, as the Petitioner is informed, obtain Admiſſion into this Hon. Houſe as Viſcount of Valentia and Baron Altham of Altham, as if in right of and under the ſaid Creations and Limitations of the ſaid reſpective Honours, and which Seat he thus obtained by Surpriſe, and without any Inquiry before or Determination by this Hon. Houſe concerning the ſame.

That John Anneſley of Ballyſax, Eſq; hath alſo, without Notice to the Petitioner, preſented a Petition to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, claiming the ſaid Iriſh Honours; and the Petitioner hath been informed, that ſuch Petition having been tranſmitted unto his Majeſty, has, by his Order, been referred to the Deciſion of this Hon. Houſe, and that the Matter of the ſaid Petition is now depending before their Lordſhips.

That the ſaid John Anneſley of Ballyſax ſo claims the ſaid Honours as a Deſcendant of a remote Branch of the ſaid Family, and not as a Son of the ſaid Richard late Lord Viſc. Valentia and Baron Altham, the Father of the Petitioner, who was the Perſon laſt ſeized of thoſe Honours, and whoſe eldeſt Son and Heir at Law the Petitioner now is.

That the Petitioner having very lately obtained the Knowledge of the ſaid ſeveral Tranſactions, hath preſented his Petition to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, ſtating the Matters before-mentioned, and praying his Excellency to lay the Caſe of the Petitioner before his Majeſty, and to direct ſuch other Methods to be purſued for the Petitioner's Relief, as unto his Excellency ſhould ſeem expedient.

That the Limitations and Effect of the ſaid Royal Grants, the Dignity of Peerage, and the Honour of this Honourable Houſe, are intereſted in the due Diſpoſition and Adjudication of and concerning the Succeſſion to theſe Honours, excluſive of the Rights of the Petitioner, which may be affected thereby; and the Petitioner humbly apprehends, that any Deciſion of their Lordſhips upon the ſaid Claim of the ſaid John Anneſley or concerning the Right unto the ſaid Honours, may not anſwer the deſigned Effect of the ſaid Reference, and may tend to the Introduction or Eſtabliſhment of an improper Perſon into or in their Lordſhips' Houſe, as if in Right of the ſaid Honours; unleſs their Lordſhips ſhall be pleaſed to grant their Attention unto the Claim of the Petitioner, who is the Perſon really intitled unto thoſe reſpective Titles and Dignities.

That the Petitioner hath full Evidence of the ſaid ſeveral Matters to produce, and is determined effectually to proſecute his ſaid Claim, in ſuch Manner as ſhall be for that Purpoſe duly appointed.

And praying their Lordſhips to permit the Petitioner to intervene in the Matter of the ſaid Reference, and to allow him to be heard by his Counſel to litigate the ſaid Claim, or to make ſuch other Order in the Premiſes, for the Relief of the Petitioner and for the Purpoſe of enabling their Lordſhips to make a competent and final Deciſion relative to the ſaid conteſted Honours, as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom ſhall ſeem fitting; was preſented to the Houſe, and read, and ordered to lie on the Table.

Order thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Meſſage to this Houſe of Saturday laſt, and the Petition of Richard Anneſley, Eſq; preſented this Day, be referred to the grand Committee for Privileges, to whom the Petition of John Anneſley of Ballyſax, Eſq; is referred.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had received an Order of Reference from his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, on the Petition of Richard Anneſley, Eſq; to his Excellency, claiming the Titles of Viſcount Valentia and Baron Altham of Altham in the Kingdom of Ireland, which he read, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

TOWNSHEND.

My Lords,

Order of Reference relative to R. Anneſley, Eſq;

HIS Majeſty having been pleaſed, by a Letter from the Earl of Rochford, his Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State, to me, dated the 27th of March laſt, to ſignify his Pleaſure, that I ſhould refer to the Houſe of Peers of this Kingdom the Petition of Richard Anneſley, Eſq; claiming the Titles of Viſc. Valentia and Baron Altham of Altham; I do hereby accordingly refer the ſaid Petition to your Lordſhips, and deſire that your Lordſhips may take the ſame into your Conſideration, and inform me how the ſame ſhall appear to your Lordſhips, in order that I may lay your Lordſhips' Opinion thereupon before his Majeſty.

27th April, 1772.

His Petition.

Alſo, the Petition of Richard Anneſley, Eſq; to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, ſetting forth, That his late Majeſty King James I. by his Letters Patent, duly paſſed under the Great Seal of this Kingdom, in the 19th Year of his Reign, did create Sir Francis Anneſley, Bart. (the Petitioner's Anceſtor) Viſcount of Valentia in this Kingdom, with Remainder in that Dignity to the Heirs-male of the ſaid Sir Francis, and the ſaid Sir Francis accordingly enjoyed that Honour during his Life.

That his late Majeſty King Charles II. by his Letters Patent, duly paſſed under the Great Seal of the ſame Kingdom, in the 33d Year of his Reign, did create the Hon. Altham Anneſley, Baron Altham of Altham in the ſaid Kingdom, with Remainder in that Dignity to the Heirs-male of the ſaid Altham; and in Default of ſuch Iſſue, with Remainder to the Hon. Richard Anneſley, Brother to the ſaid Altham, and Grandfather to the Petitioner, and to the Heirs-male of the ſaid Richard; and which Title of Honour was enjoyed by the ſaid Altham and Richard Anneſley, ſucceſſively.

That both the ſaid Titles of Honour of Viſcount of Valentia and Baron Altham of Altham, deſcended unto and became duly veſted in the Right Hon. Richard late Lord Viſc. Valentia and Baron Altham in Ireland, and Earl of Angleſey in Great Britain, and he accordingly enjoyed the ſame, until the time of his Deceaſe.

That the ſaid Richard Lord Viſc. Valentia and Baron Altham lately died in the Poſſeſſion of the ſaid ſeveral Honours, leaving the Petitioner his the ſaid Richard's Son and Heir, who thereupon became intitled to the beforementioned Titles of Honour, under and by virtue of the ſaid ſeveral Creations and Limitations thereof.

That upon the Deceaſe of the ſaid Richard, Arthur Anneſley, Eſq; pretending to be the Son and Heir of the ſaid Richard, without any manner of Notice unto the Petitioner, and by Miſrepreſentation and Surprize, did, as the Petitioner is informed, obtain his Seat in the Parliament of Ireland, as Viſcount Valentia and Baron Altham, as if under the ſaid Grants and Limitations thereof; but he having afterwards proceeded to claim the ſaid Earldom of Angleſey, as Son and Heir to the ſaid Richard, the Right Hon. the Houſe of Lords of Great Britain was pleaſed to diſallow of ſuch Claim, and to reſolve, that the ſaid Arthur had not any Right to the Titles, Honours and Dignities claimed by him.

That John Anneſley of Ballyſax, Eſq; encouraged by the Deciſion of the Houſe of Lords of Great Britain, had lately preſented a Petition to his Excellency, claiming the before-mentioned Iriſh Honours, although he doth not even pretend to be the Son of the ſaid Richard late Earl of Angleſey, Viſcount Valentia and Baron Altham, the Petitioner's Father, but claiming as a Deſcendant of a remote Branch of his Family.

That

That the Petitioner, the legal Male-Iſſue of the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey Viſcount Valentia and Baron Altham, being intitled to the ſeveral Iriſh Honours before-mentioned, hath lately applied to the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor of Ireland for his Majeſty's moſt gracious Writ of Summons to the Petitioner unto the preſent Parliament of Ireland, as Viſcount of Valentia and Baron Altham of Altham, agreeable to the Terms and Limitations of the ſaid Royal Patents; but his Lordſhip, upon the peculiar Circumſtances of this Caſe has thought proper to decline iſſuing the ſame, without Directions from his Majeſty or his Excellency.

That the Limitations and Effect of the ſaid Royal Grants, and the Dignity of Peerage, the Honour of the Houſe of Lords and the Rights of the Petitioner (who is the Son and Heir of the ſaid Richard the laſt undoubted Poſſeſſor of the ſaid Dignities) are greatly affected by the ſaid ſeveral Proceedings; and the Petitioner is therefore obliged to reſort unto the Crown, the Fountain of Honour, in order to be reſtored to the ſaid Iriſh Honours of his Anceſtors:

And praying his Excellency to lay the Caſe of the Petitioner before his Majeſty, and to direct ſuch other Meaſures to be purſued for the Petitioner's Relief, as to his Excellency ſhould ſeem expedient; being by Order read at the Table,

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Order of Reference, and the Petition of Richard Anneſley, Eſq; be referred to the Grand Committee of Privileges, to whom the Petition of John Anneſley of Ballyſax, Eſq; is referred. Order thereon.

Upon reading the Order for the Day,

TOWNSHEND.

My Lords,

Order of Reference relative to A. Anneſley, Eſq;

HIS Majeſty having been pleaſed, by a Letter from the Earl of Rochford, his Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State, to me, dated the 29th Day of April laſt, to ſignify his Pleaſure, that I ſhould refer to the Houſe of Peers of this Kingdom the Petition of Arthur Anneſley, Eſq; claiming to be intitled to the Honours of Baron Mount-Norris and Viſc. Valentia in Ireland, I do hereby accordingly refer the ſaid Petition to your Lordſhips, and deſire that your Lordſhips may take the ſame into your Conſideration, and inform me how the ſame ſhall appear to your Lordſhips, in order that I may lay your Lordſhips' Opinion thereupon before his Majeſty.

Dublin-Caſtle,
5th May, 1772. T.

Memorial of A. Anneſley, Eſq;

A Memorial of Arthur Anneſley, late of Rotterdam in the Province of Holland, but now of the City of Dublin in the Kingdom of Ireland, Eſq; to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, ſetting forth, that Sir Francis Anneſley (who by Letters Patent of King Charles I. bearing Date the 18th Day of February, 1628) was created Lord Baron Mount-Norris in the Co. Armagh, and afterwards became Viſcount Valentia in the Co. Kerry (both in the Kingdom of Ireland) by Reverſion upon the Death of Henry Power, who had been theretofore Lord Viſc. Valentia, died ſome time in the Year 1660, leaving Iſſue by his Wife Dorothy, Daughter of Sir John Philips, of Picton Caſtle in the County of Pembroke, Bart. five Sons, namely, Arthur, Robert, John, Humphry and James, and was ſucceeded in theſe his Honours by his eldeſt Son Arthur.

That the ſaid Arthur, afterwards was created Earl of Angleſey and Baron Newport-Pagnel in the Kingdom of Great Britain, and that the ſaid Honours of Earl of Angleſey and Baron Newport-Pagnel in Great Britain, and Viſcount Valentia and Baron Mount-Norris in the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, veſted in Richard late Earl of Angleſey, who was laſt Iſſue-Male of the ſaid Arthur the firſt Earl of Angleſey.

That Arthur, pretending to be the only Son and Heir-Male of the ſaid Richard, and ſtiling himſelf Earl of Angleſey and Baron Newport-Pagnel in the ſaid Kingdom of Great Britain, by his Petition to the Right Hon. the Lords Spiritual and Temporal of Great Britain aforeſaid, claimed the Honours and Dignities of Earl of Angleſey and Baron Newport-Pagnel.

That upon Conſideration of the Merits of the ſaid Petition, as alſo of the Petition of Conſtantine Lord Mulgrave of the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, who prayed to be heard by Petition againſt the ſaid Petition of the ſaid Arthur; it was, on the 22d of April, 1771, reſolved and adjudged by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal of the ſaid Kingdom of Great Britain in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Arthur had no Right to the Titles, Honours and Dignities claimed by his Petition.

That from the ſaid Reſolution and Judgment it appears, that Richard late Earl of Angleſey died without Iſſue-Male lawfully begotten, and the Line of Arthur the ſaid firſt Son of the ſaid Sir Francis Anneſley Lord Mount-Norris and Viſc. Valentia in the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, became thereby extinct.

That notwithſtanding the ſaid Reſolution and Judgment of the Peers of the ſaid Kingdom of Great Britain, the ſaid Arthur, upon the Pretence aforeſaid, now ſtiles himſelf Baron Mount-Norris and Viſc. Valentia in the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland.

That the Memorialiſt is by lineal and lawful Deſcent, the eldeſt Heir-Male of the Body of Robert the ſecond Son of the ſaid Sir Francis Anneſley, by his ſaid firſt Wife Dorothy, Daughter of Sir John Philips aforeſaid, and he humbly apprehends, that upon Failure of the Iſſue-Male of Arthur as aforeſaid, he is become of Right intitled to the ſaid Honours of Baron Mount-Norris and Viſc. Valentia in the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland.

Therefore the Memorialiſt moſt humbly implored his Excellency to take the Premiſes into Conſideration, and, in his Excellency's great Wiſdom and Juſtice, to give Command, that that the Memorialiſt's Claim to the ſaid Honours of Baron Mount-Norris and Viſcount Valentia in ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, be forthwith referred to his Majeſty's Attorney-General in the ſaid Kingdom, to the End that the Memorialiſt may have it in his Power to go into legal Proof before him of the Facts that are herein humbly ſtated to his Excellency; being by Order read at the Table, Ordered, that the ſaid Memorial and the Order of Reference thereupon, be referred to the Grand Committee for Privileges, to whom the Petitions of John Anneſley of Ballyſax, Eſq; and Richard Anneſley, Eſq; are referred. Order thereon.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

To his Excellency
GEORGE Lord Viſcount TOWNSHEND,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do moſt heartily congratulate your Excellency upon the approaching Concluſion of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, a Seſſion diſtinguiſhed by many uſeful and excellent Laws, which carry with them the ſtrongeſt Marks of your Excellency's ſincere Endeavours to co-operate with Parliament for the Welfare and Proſperity of this Kingdom.

We beg Leave to return your Excellency our ſincere Thanks, for the Aſſiſtance which your Excellency hath afforded us, in promoting many great and national Objects, by which your Excellency hath made it incumbent upon us to expreſs our intire Satisfaction in your Excellency's juſt and prudent Adminiſtration.

His Majeſty's continuing your Excellency ſo long reſident amongſt us, we conſider as the ſtrongeſt Proof of his Majeſty's tender Regard for the Welfare and Happineſs of this Kingdom; as your Excellency's great Experience in Buſineſs, and in the Affairs and Circumſtances of this Country, enables you to form a perfect Judgment of what may moſt contribute to our true Intereſt.

We have the fulleſt Confidence in your Excellency's Juſtice, that you will repreſent us to his Majeſty, as an affectionate, dutiful and loyal People, ſo that we may preſerve that which we hold in the higheſt Degree dear to us, the Continuance of his Majeſty's Favour and Protection.

Witneſſes ſworn.

William Glaſcock and James Coſgrave were by Order called in, and ſeverally ſworn at the Bar, in order to give their Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of an ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for veſting Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, ſituate in the Counties of Limerick, Cork, Weſtmeath and in the King's County, the Eſtate of George Stepney, Eſq; in Truſtees, in order that the ſame or a competent Part thereof may be ſold for the Payment of Debts and Incumbrances affecting the ſame, was committed.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that the Houſe had Yeſterday attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with their Addreſs; to which Addreſs his Excellency was pleaſed to give this Anſwer:

Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

" My Lords,

" I THANK you for this kind Addreſs. I " am very happy that I have not, in your " Opinion, been wanting in my Endeavours " to promote the Welfare and Proſperity of " this Kingdom; and it is a particular Pleaſure " to me to find that my Adminiſtration here " hath been acceptable to you.

" You may be aſſured, that I ſhall faithfully " repreſent you to his Majeſty, as affectionate, " dutiful and loyal Subjects, and that I ſhall, " upon all Occaſions, do you the moſt ample " Juſtice."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe, preſented Yeſterday to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and his Excellency's Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

Message from Commons to return Bill.

A Message was brought from the House of Commons, by Col. Browne and others, to return an ingrossed Bill, sent down by this House, intitled, An Act for the remitting of Prisoners, with their Indictments by the Justices of his Majesty's Court of King's-Bench, to the Places where the Crimes were committed; and to acquaint this House, that they have agreed thereunto, without any Amendment.

The Lord Visc. Ranelagh reported from the select Committee, to whom the Consideration of an ingrossed Bill, sent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for vesting Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, situate in the Counties of Limerick, Cork, Westmeath and in the King's County, the Estate of George Stepney, Esq; in Trustees, in order that the same, or a competent Part thereof, may be sold for the Payment of Debts and Incumbrances affecting the same, was committed; that they had gone through the the ſaid Bill, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment; and find that all Perſons concerned in the Conſequences thereof have conſented thereto, and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be now read a third time.

Mr. Stepney's Bill,

Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for veſting Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, ſituate in the Counties of Limerick, Cork, Weſtmeath and in the King's County, the Eſtate of George Stepney, Eſq; in Truſtees, in order that the ſame or a competent Part thereof may be ſold for the Payment of Debts and Incumbrances affecting the ſame.

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

paſſed;

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Meſſage to Commons with Concurrence.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Walker and Mr. Veſey, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed.

Report on Petition of J Anneſley, Eſq;

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Lords' Committees of Privileges, to whom was referred the Petition of John Anneſley of Ballyſax, Eſq; claiming the Titles and Honours of Viſc. Valentia and Baron Mount-Norris in this Kingdom; that the ſaid Lords' Committees have met, and proceeded upon the Matter to them referred, and upon conſidering the Evidence and Proofs laid before them, and upon full hearing of Counſel for all Parties, have come to the following Reſolution, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the ſaid John Anneſley hath not a Right to the ſaid Titles and Honours of Viſc. Valentia and Baron Mount-Norris, ſo claimed by him.

Debate thereon:

A Debate ariſing thereupon, and the Queſtion being put, that this Houſe do agree therewith,

Houſe divide.

The Houſe divided; and Lord Dawſon reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 19; and the Not-Contents in the Houſe were 5;

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Report agreed to.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that this Houſe doth agree with the Committee of Privileges, in their Report upon the Petition of John Anneſley of Ballyſax, Eſq; to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, and by his Excellency referred to this Houſe by his Majeſty's Order, claiming the Titles and Honours of Viſc. Valentia and Baron Mount-Norris.

Report, &c. to be laid before his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Report and Reſolution of the ſaid Committee, and the Reſolution of this Houſe thereon, and deſire that the ſame may be tranſmitted to, and laid before, his Majeſty, as the Opinion of this Houſe on the ſaid Petition and Reference.

Report on Petition of R. Anneſley, Eſq;

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Lords' Committees of Privileges, to whom was referred the Petition of Richard Anneſley, Eſq; to his Majeſty, claiming the Titles and Honours of Viſc. Valentia and Baron Altham in this Kingdom, as Son and Heir of Richard late Viſc. Valentia and Baron Altham; that the ſaid Lords' Committees have met, and proceeded upon the Matter to them referred, and upon conſidering the Evidence and Proofs laid before them, and upon full hearing of Counſel for all Parties, have come to the following Reſolution, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the ſaid Richard Anneſley hath not a Right to the ſaid Titles and Honours of Viſc. Valentia and Baron Altham, ſo claimed by him.

Debate thereon;

Houſe divide.

The Houſe divided; and Lord Dawſon reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 19; and the Not-Contents in the Houſe were 5;

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

DISSENTIENT:

Proteſt.

WE cannot agree to the Determination of the Houſe, that neither of the Claimants Richard Anneſley or John Anneſley are intitled to the Honours claimed by their Petitions; becauſe we are of Opinion, that Richard late Earl of Angleſey and Viſc. Valentia was not married to Juliana Donovan, now Counteſs of Angleſey, on the 15th Day of September, 1741.

The Lord Biſhop of Waterford, from the Lords' Committees, appointed to take into Conſideration the ſeveral Charities and charitable Donations in this Kingdom, made the following Report:

My Lords,

Report on charitable Donations. THE Lords' Committees appointed to take into Conſideration the ſeveral Charities and charitable Donations in this Kingdom, met according to Order on the 9th of November, 1769, and ordered the Regiſters of the ſeveral Dioceſes in the Kingdom to make Returns of all charitable Legacies and Bequeſts, from the Wills in their reſpective Offices ſince the preceding Seſſion of Parliament, and having before them the Return of Charities from the Prerogative-Office, ſummoned ſeveral Perſons to attend the Committee thereupon.

Your Committee being impowered to adjourn from Time to Time, as to them ſhould ſeem proper, in the Courſe of their Inquiry had many Perſons examined (who previous to their Examination were ſworn at your Lordſhips' Bar) and proceeding on their Inquiry till the Concluſion of that Seſſion, had not Time to compleat their Report.

Your Committee, being again appointed, in 1771, to continue their Inquiry, were afterwards further impowered to proceed thereon, and have, in Purſuance to your Lordſhips' Inſtructions, gone through many intricate Inquiries, find that the ſeveral Sums following have been paid for the Uſes of the charitable Foundations hereafter mentioned.

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words:

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I CANNOT put an End to this Seſſion of Parliament, without returning you my particular Thanks for your long and cloſe Attention to the Publick Buſineſs.

I congratulate you on the many excellent Laws which have received the Royal Aſſent this Seſſion. The Act for preventing Delays of Juſtice, by reaſon of Privilege of Parliament, muſt be received as a very ſtrong Mark of your diſintereſted Regard for the Rights and Welfare of your Fellow-Subjects. The Act to prevent Frauds committed by Bankrupts, and that for rendering Securities by Mortgage more effectual, cannot fail to produce the moſt ſalutary Effects, by reſtoring that Credit and Confidence amongſt the People, which have been much wanted, and are eſſentially neceſſary in this Commercial Country: And it was with particular Satisfaction, that his Majeſty gave his Royal Conſent to theſe Laws, which do Honour to your Deliberations, and are ſo wiſely calculated for the Publick Good.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I THANK you, in his Majeſty's Name, for the Supplies which you granted at the Beginning of this Seſſion: They ſhall be faithfully applied to the Support of his Majeſty's Eſtabliſhments, and to the Advancement of the Publick Service: But although I have Expectations, that the Act for amending and explaining a Clauſe in the Act of Tonnage and Poundage will be productive of ſome Addition to his Majeſty's Revenue, I think it my Duty to inform you, that the Arrears which had been incurred upon his Majeſty's Eſtabliſhments Civil and Military, before the Time of your Meeting, made it neceſſary to borrow one hundred thouſand Pounds immediately after the Act was paſſed, which gave Authority for that Purpoſe; and that Sum not proving ſufficient, I have ſome time ſince been obliged to order the further Sum of one hundred thouſand Pounds to be raiſed, being the Remainder of the Credit intruſted to me by that Act.

So early a Demand for the whole Loan, gives me Reaſon to apprehend, that unleſs there ſhould be a conſiderable Increaſe in his Majeſty's Revenue, a ſtill greater Arrear will accrue before the uſual time of your Meeting, in another Seſſion.

I do therefore moſt earneſtly recommend it to you, to take into your ſerious Conſideration (between this and the next Seſſion of Parliament) what will be the beſt Method of making Proviſion for ſuch Deficiencies as ariſe upon the preſent Duties, ſo as to guard againſt any farther Increaſe of the National Debt.

The additional Duties given for the Support of Government in Aid of his Majeſty's Hereditary Revenue, are nearly the ſame which were granted in the Year 1727, at the late King's Acceſſion: Had they been ſolely applied to that Purpoſe, they would have been fully ſufficient; and no Debt or Arrear would have been contracted or incurred; but the large Expenſe occaſioned by the many Premiums now payable under different Heads, muſt neceſſarily continue to increaſe both. It will therefore be true Policy, and worthy of your Wiſdom, to give particular Attention to this Object; and by prudent Regulations to form and eſtabliſh ſuch a Syſtem, as will beſt obviate any further Inconvenience, and moſt effectually promote every great National Purpoſe.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT gives me great Pleaſure to obſerve, that the Tumults and Outrages of the lower Ranks of People, which unhappily diſturbed ſome of the Northern Counties in this Kingdom, have now ſubſided. I flatter myſelf that theſe deluded Perſons are fully convinced of the Atrociouſneſs of their Attempts, and of the Impoſſibility of effecting any of the Purpoſes intended by them. I would however recommend it to ſuch Gentlemen, whoſe Weight and Influence lie particularly in thoſe Parts, to have a watchful Eye over their Behaviour, and to exert themſelves with the other Civil Magiſtrates, in inforcing a due Obedience to the Laws: And I doubt not, that by their Authority on one hand, and by their Juſtice and Moderation on the other, a thorough Reformation will be effected, and the Diſpoſitions of the People reclaimed to Peace and good Order.

It gives me great Concern to ſee the Aſſiſtance of the Military Power ſo frequently called for: Nothing can be more worthy of your ſerious Reflection, than to render that Reſource unneceſſary, by a judicious Improvement of your Police, and providing for the due Execution of the Laws.

His Majeſty gave it in expreſs Command to me, to make your Intereſts and Proſperity the great Objects of my Adminiſtration; and my own Inclinations incited me to a ſtrict and zealous Performance of that Duty. I have upon every Occaſion endeavoured, to the utmoſt of my Power, to promote the Publick Service, and I feel the moſt perfect Satisfaction in now repeating to you my Acknowledgments for the very honourable Manner in which (after a Reſidence of near five Years amongſt you) you have declared your intire Approbation of my Conduct. Be aſſured, that I ſhall always entertain the moſt ardent Wiſhes for your Welfare, and ſhall make a faithful Repreſentation to his Majeſty of your Loyalty and Attachment to his Royal Perſon and Government.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 14th Day of July next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 14th Day of July next. Parliament prorogued.

they enter.

And the Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

IT is with the higheſt Satisfaction, that I obey his Majeſty's Commands, to meet you in Parliament, and to concur with you in every Meaſure that may promote the real Intereſt of this Kingdom.

His Majeſty, who has made the Happineſs of all his People, the conſtant Object of his Wiſhes, and the unvaried Rule of his Actions, has given it to me in particular Charge, to aſſure his faithful Subjects of Ireland of the Continuance of his paternal Regard and Affection for them: And I am perſuaded, that in all your Proceedings, you will continue to manifeſt that uniform Attention to the Publick Good, of which his Majeſty's own Conduct affords the beſt and moſt illuſtrious Example.

As every Addition to his Majeſty's Royal Family, adds Strength to that happy Succeſſion, which is the great Security of all that is valuable to us, I have a particular Pleaſure in communicating to you the Birth of another Prince, ſince your laſt Seſſion of Parliament.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the proper Officers to lay before you the Publick Accounts and Eſtimates, from which you will be fully acquainted with the Circumſtances of this Country, and may be enabled to form a true Judgment of the Proviſions neceſſary to be made for the honourable Support of his Majeſty's Government. I have his Majeſty's Commands to aſk the Supplies neceſſary for this Purpoſe; and I am confident you will grant them in ſuch a Manner as will be leaſt burthenſome to his Majeſty's Subjects of this Kingdom: On my Part, you may reſt ſecure, that they ſhall be faithfully applied and frugally adminiſtered.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Laws of your Country will naturally preſent themſelves as the firſt and moſt important Objects of your Conſideration. It is my Duty to call your particular Attention to ſuch as reſpect the Religion and Morals, the Security and good Order of the People. It is in vain that Laws are made for the Puniſhment of Offenders, unleſs their Morals can be reformed, and their Minds impreſſed with Principles of Virtue.

Your

Your Proteſtant Charter-Schools, the Seminaries of true Religion and Induſtry, deſerve your particular Conſideration; and your Linen Manufacture, the great Source of Wealth to the Nation, is an Object of the higheſt Importance. You will conſider whether any new Laws may be wanting to improve, regulate and extend this moſt beneficial Trade, or to ſupport its Reputation at foreign Markets.

I am firmly perſuaded, that we are met together, animated with the ſame Intentions of maintaining the Honour and Dignity of his Majeſty's Government, and of promoting the Good of this Kingdom. Your Conduct has convinced me, that I ſhall receive from you the fulleſt Proofs of your Loyalty and Attachment to the King, and of your Zeal in the Publick Service; mine, I truſt, will ſhew that I have nothing more ſincerely at Heart, than the Welfare and Proſperity of Ireland.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech; and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table,

Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to aſſure his Majeſty, that we have the moſt lively Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under his mild, juſt and auſpicious Government, who has made the Happineſs of his People, the conſtant Object of his Wiſhes, and the unvaried Rule of his Actions; and to expreſs our moſt unfeigned Acknowledgements for the Continuance of his Majeſty's paternal Regard and Affection for his faithful Subjects of this Kingdom, who will continue to manifeſt that uniform Attention to the Publick Good, of which his Majeſty's own Conduct affords the beſt and moſt illuſtrious Example.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that as we look upon every Addition to his Majeſty's Royal Family, to add Strength to that happy Succeſſion, which is the great Security of all that is valuable to us, we humbly offer our warmeſt Congratulations upon the Birth of another Prince, as we with the trueſt Pleaſure feel every Increaſe of his Majeſty's Royal Family, and each new Source of his domeſtic Felicity, ſenſible of the great Bleſſings we enjoy under ſo excellent a Sovereign.

That we cannot have a ſtronger Aſſurance of his Majeſty's Attention to the Happineſs and Proſperity of this Kingdom, than by his gracious Appointment of Earl Harcourt to be our Chief Governor, of whoſe diſtinguiſhed Virtues and Abilities, his Majeſty, from his earlieſts Years, hath had uniform Experience; and that we ſhall prove, by our Conduct, that we do not differ from his Majeſty and the World, in a full and cordial Reliance upon his Excellency's Wiſdom, Juſtice and Moderation.

That being fully perſuaded, that the firſt and moſt important Object of our Conſideration, and the beſt and moſt effectual Method to recommend ourſelves to his Majeſty's Favour, is, and ever will be, to promote the true Intereſt of his People, we ſhall not neglect to pay due Attention to the Laws of our Country, particularly to thoſe which reſpect its Religion and Morals, the Security and good Order of the People; conſcious it is in vain, that Laws are made for the Puniſhment of Offenders, unleſs their Morals can be reformed, and their Minds impreſſed with Principles of Virtue.

That the Proteſtant Charter-Schools, the Seminaries of true Religion and Induſtry, deſerve our particular Conſideration; and our Linen Manufacture, the great Source of Wealth to the Nation, is an Object of the higheſt Importance: We ſhall therefore moſt maturely conſider, whether any new Laws may be wanting to improve, regulate and extend this moſt beneficial Trade, or to ſupport its Reputation at foreign Markets.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we will ſhew our true and unbiaſſed Regard to the Publick Welfare, by that Unanimity in all our Proceedings, which manifeſtly conduces to the Peace and Safety of his Majeſty's Government, and is ſo eſſentially neceſſary to the Intereſt of Ireland.

Ordered, that the Earl of Laneſborough, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to return his Excellency our Thanks for his Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

Ordered, that the Earl of Mornington, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Biſhops to preach.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Killaloe ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church on the 23d Inſt. being an Anniverſary Thankſgiving for the Deliverance of the Proteſtants of this Kingdom from the Popiſh Maſſacre in 1641.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Cloyne ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church on the 5th of November next, being a Day appointed for an Anniverſary Thankſgiving for the happy Deliverance of King James I. and the three Eſtates of England from the intended Maſſacre by Gun-powder; and alſo for the happy Arrival of his Majeſty King William III. of glorious Memory, on that Day, for the Deliverance of our Church and Nation.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Earl of Laneſborough reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we have the moſt lively Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under the mild, juſt and auſpicious Government of your Majeſty, who have made the Happineſs of your People, the conſtant Object of your Wiſhes, the unvaried Rule of your Actions. Permit us, with the greateſt Gratitude, to expreſs our moſt unfeigned Acknowledgements for the Continuance of your Majeſty's paternal Regard and Affection for your faithful Subjects of this Kingdom; and your Majeſty may reſt aſſured, that in all our Proceedings, we will continue to manifeſt that uniform Attention to the Publick Good, of which your Majeſty's Conduct affords the beſt and moſt illuſtrious Example.

Truly ſenſible of the many and great Bleſſings we enjoy, under ſo excellent a Sovereign, conſidering every Addition to your Majeſty's Royal Family as ſtrengthening that happy Succeſſion, which is the great Security of all that is valuable to us, and feeling the moſt ſincere Pleaſure from each new Source of your domeſtic Felicity, we humbly offer our warmeſt Congratulations upon the Birth of another Prince.

We cannot have a ſtronger Aſſurance of your Majeſty's Attention to the Happineſs and Proſperity of this Kingdom, than by your gracious Appointment of Earl Harcourt to be our Chief Governor, of whoſe diſtinguiſhed Virtues and Abilities, your Majeſty, from your earlieſt Years, hath had uniform Experience.

We ſhall prove by our Conduct, that we do not differ from your Majeſty and the World, in a full and cordial Reliance upon his Excellency's Wiſdom, Juſtice and Moderation.

Fully

Fully perſuaded, that the beſt and moſt effectual Method to recommend ourſelves to your Majeſty's Favour is, and ever will be, to promote the true Intereſt of your People, we ſhall not neglect to pay due Attention to the Laws of our Country, particularly to thoſe which reſpect the Religion and Morals, the Security and good Order of the People; convinced, that unleſs their Morals be reformed, and their Minds impreſſed with Principles of Virtue, Laws for the puniſhment of Offenders, are made in vain.

The Proteſtant Charter-Schools, theſe Seminaries of true Religion and Induſtry, ſhall receive our particular Conſideration. The Linen Manufacture, that great Source of our national Wealth, is an Object of the higheſt Importance; we ſhall give our utmoſt Attention to the forming of any new Laws that may be wanting to improve, regulate or extend this moſt beneficial Trade, or to ſupport its Reputation at foreign Markets.

Your Majeſty may be aſſured, that we will manifeſt a true and unbiaſſed Regard to the Publick Welfare, by that Unanimity in all our Proceedings, which conduces to the Eaſe of your Majeſty's Government, ſo eſſentially neceſſary to the Intereſt of Ireland.

May the Divine Goodneſs long preſerve to your People, the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign; and long may we give your Majeſty the Satisfaction of governing the Hearts of a generous and loyal People!

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

The Earl of Mornington reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz..

To his Excellency
SIMON Earl HARCOURT,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return your Excellency our moſt ſincere Thanks, for your Speech from the Throne, to both Houſes of Parliament.

We eſteem ourſelves particularly happy, in the Satisfaction which your Excellency has been pleaſed to expreſs, at the Meeting us in Parliament; and doubt not of your Concurring with us in every Meaſure that may promote the real Intereſt of this Kingdom: And we beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency, that the Satisfaction is ſincerely mutual on our Part.

Your Excellency's great Abilities, which have received the higheſt Marks of Approbation from the many important Truſts which in ſucceſſive Reigns and various Adminiſtrations have been repoſed in you, give us the moſt lively Hopes of every Benefit which can reſult from a ſteady, prudent and benign Adminiſtration.

The Aſſurances which your Excellency has given us, of the Continuance of his Majeſty's paternal Regard for his faithful Subjects of Ireland, fills us with the warmeſt Sentiments of Duty and Gratitude; and we cannot too much acknowledge the gracious Manifeſtation of his Majeſty's Goodneſs towards us, in committing the Government of this Kingdom to a Nobleman, whoſe Name ſtands unſullied through the many high Offices he has filled.

We are moſt thankful to your Excellency, for the joyful Information you have been pleaſed to give us, of the Increaſe of the domeſtic Happineſs of our amiable Sovereign, and the Stability added to his illuſtrious Houſe, by the Birth of another Prince, deſcended from him, with which the Welfare of theſe Kingdoms is ſo neceſſarily connected.

Your Excellency's wiſe and ſeaſonable Advice, in directing our Attention towards ſuch Laws as reſpect the Religion and Morals, the Security and good Order of the People, cannot fail to animate our Endeavours to do every thing, on our Part, to procure ſo deſirable an End; and to take into Conſideration what new Laws may be neceſſary, as well for that Purpoſe, as alſo for the extending and improving our Linen Manufacture, that great Source of Wealth to this Nation.

The favourable Sentiments that your Excellency is pleaſed to conceive of us, give us the moſt ſincere Pleaſure, and we can have no Doubt that the Proofs we ſhall afford of our Loyalty and Attachment to the King, and of our Zeal for the Publick Service, will be faithfully and impartially repreſented by your Excellency to his Majeſty, ſo as to preſerve to us his favourable Opinion and Royal Protection: And we flatter ourſelves, that there will be that Unanimity in all our Deliberations, as will be the diſtinguiſhing Mark of this Seſſion, and of your Excellency's Adminiſtration.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that in obedience to their Lordſhips' Order, he had waited upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he would pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency; and his Excellency was pleaſed to appoint To-morrow, at three o'clock, at the Caſtle.

Ordered, that a Committee be appointed to examine into the State of the Office of Arms, commonly called the King at Arms' Office; that they make Inquiry into the Manner in which the ſaid Office is kept, more eſpecially as to the Entries made of the Nobility of this Kingdom; and that the Earl of Mornington and all the Lords preſent, be the the ſaid Committee; and that they have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet when, where and as often as they pleaſe, and report.

That by Indenture of Leaſe, bearing Date on or about the 21st Day of December, in the Year of our Lord 1754, the Petitioner Lord Eyre did demiſe, grant, ſet and to Farm let to William Barrett of Loughrea in the ſaid County, Gentleman, the ſaid Lands of Lackaleagh, by the Deſcription of the Quarter of Land of Lackaleagh, together with the Quarter of Land of Carrowmanagh, the Cartron of Gortatrahane, and the Cartron of Caruanrevoe in the ſaid Co. Galway, for the Term of three Lives therein named, at and under the groſs yearly Rent of £96 : 5*s*. which ſaid Leaſe ſtill ſubſiſts.

That by Indenture of Leaſe, bearing Date on or about the 2d Day of November, in the Year 1756, the Petitioner Lord Eyre did demiſe, grant, leaſe and to Farm-let unto Thomas Lynch of the City of Dublin, Gentleman, the ſaid Lands of Rahally, together with the Lands of Tormon in the ſaid Co. Galway, for three Lives therein named, at and under the groſs yearly Rent of £69 : 6*s*. 8*d*. and Receiver's Fees of £1 : 14*s*. 9*d*. making together £71 : 1*s*. 5*d*. which ſaid Leaſe ſtill ſubſiſts.

That the ſaid Lands of Fohanagh, Lackaleagh, Tullubane and Rahally, are the capital Denominations of Land mentioned in the ſaid Leaſes reſpectively, and at the Time of applying for, and of the paſſing the ſaid Act, it was apprehended that the reſt of the ſaid Denominations mentioned in the ſaid reſpective Leaſes, were Sub-Denominations of the ſaid capital Denominations, the ſame having been held for many Years, without any other diſtinct Appellation or by any diſtinct Mears or Bounds under groſs Rents, and generally known and called by the Names of ſuch reſpective capital Denominations, and were not therefore particularly included or expreſsly mentioned or ſet forth in the ſaid Act, although it was the Intention of all the Petitioners (except the Petitioners Samuel and Robert Eyre, who were born ſince the paſſing of the ſaid Act) that all the Lands demiſed by the ſaid Leaſes reſpectively, ſhould have been included in the ſaid Act, to be ſold for the Purpoſes therein mentioned; and ſince the paſſing the ſaid Act, the Perſons who have propoſed to purchaſe the Inheritance of the ſaid Lands included in the ſaid Act from the ſaid Truſtees, have objected, that a good Title cannot be made to them, unleſs all the Denominations mentioned in the ſaid Leaſes ſhall be expreſsly and according to the Deſcription in the ſaid ſeveral Leaſes veſted in the ſaid Truſtees, for the Purpoſes in the ſaid Act appointed.

And praying their Lordſhips, to grant Liberty to bring in Heads of a Bill to explain and amend the ſaid Act, ſo paſſed in the 12th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, and to veſt the ſaid forty-three Acres in Cahirnamuck otherwiſe Cahernemuck, the ſaid Towns and Lands of Cluntlevy otherwiſe Clunetlevy and Culnefohanagh otherwiſe Coolenafohinagh, the Quarter of Land of Carrowmanagh otherwiſe Carhowmeneagh, the Cartron of Gortatrahane, the Cartron of Caruanrevoe and Tormon, ſituate in the Co. Galway, in the ſaid Henry Meredyth, Eſq; Frederick Trench, Eſq; Henry Leſtrange, Eſq; John-Monck Maſon, Eſq; and Neptune Lynch, Eſq; and their Heirs, upon the ſame Truſts, and to and for the ſame Uſes, Intents and Purpoſes as are mentioned and expreſſed in the ſaid Act of the 12th Year of his preſent Majeſty King George III. intitled, An Act for veſting Part of the ſettled Eſtate of the Right Hon. John Lord Eyre Baron of Eyre Court in Truſtees, and their Heirs, to be ſold in lieu and ſtead of other Part of the ſaid ſettled Eſtate, and for other Purpoſes; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill, according to the Prayer of the ſaid Petition.

The Lord Longford preſented to the Houſe, Heads of a Bill for explaining and amending an Act, intitled, An Act for veſting Part of the ſettled Eſtate of the Right Hon. John Lord Eyre Baron of Eyre-Court, in Truſtees, and their Heirs, to be ſold in lieu and ſtead of other Part of the ſaid ſettled Eſtate, and for other Purpoſes; which were received, and read a firſt time.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

Ordered, that the Order for calling over the Names of ſuch Lords as made Default on the Call of the Houſe, be further adjourned till Tueſday next.

Heads of Mortgage-Bill:

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Conſideration of Heads of a Bill to ſecure the Re-payment of Money that ſhall be really lent and advanced by Papiſts, or Perſons profeſſing the Popiſh Religion, to Proteſtants, on Mortgages of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments within the Kingdom of Ireland, was committed; that they had gone through the ſaid Heads of a Bill, with ſeveral Amendments, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table.

Motion for Re-committal

A Motion was made, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be re-committed:

Debate:

A Debate ariſing thereupon, and the Queſtion being put, the Houſe divided; and the

Houſe divide.

Lord Viſc. Mountmorres reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 14; and the Not-Contents in the Houſe were 19:

Proxies called for:

Proxies being called for, and read over by the Clerk, the Lord Chancellor declared, that the Contents, with the Proxies, were 17; and the Not-Contents were 29;

negatived.

It paſſed in the Negative.

The Queſtion was put, Whether the ſecond Amendment ſhould ſtand Part of the ſaid Heads of a Bill?

It paſſed in the Negative.

Heads of Mortgage-Bill,

The ſaid Heads of a Bill, with the Amendments as they then ſtood, were by Order read a third time, and agreed to by the Houſe.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spir
Temporal in Parliament aſſembled,
Lord Viſc. Mountmorres do attend lency the Lord Lieutenant with the of a Bill, and deſire the ſame may mitted into Great Britain, in due Fo

DISSENTIENT:

1. BECAUSE all the Laws mad
Kingdom againſt Papiſts, have been of their Rebellions and Treaſons a State, and are to be conſidered as preſerve the Proteſtant Intereſt, a Incroachments of Popery; and theref actual or virtual Repeal of any Part Laws will encourage the Spirit of P in Proportion excite Jealouſy and D and lay a Foundation for juſt App in the Breaſts of Proteſtants, eſpeci guments were offered in Support o by ſome of the Advocates for it, whi conſidered as levelled againſt the wh of the Popery Laws.

2. Becauſe this Bill tends, in Part the Popery Laws, which were made who immediately ſaw and experie intolerant Principles of the Popiſh and its Enmity to the Civil Rights kind; and were therefore better abl
ſuch Acts as were proper and neceſſ future Security of our Conſtitution and State, than we, who, by the GOD and the Security we have der thoſe Laws, have not had ſuch perience.

3. Becauſe that as Attempts to Bills in favour of Papiſts, have b quent, the Number of Converts t bliſhed Religion has decreaſed, in and this Decreaſe is particularly obſervable in the two laſt Years, which we cannot otherwiſe account for, than by imputing it to the Expectations the Papiſts entertained of obtaining this very Bill; it having been rejected by this Houſe in the Seſſion of the Year 1771, by a Majority of only two Voices.

4. Becauſe the great Object and Tendency of the Popery Laws, being to prevent an Increaſe of Popiſh Influence, and to operate as Encouragements to Conformity, this Bill tends to defeat both thoſe Purpoſes.

Firſt; We conceive it will tend to prevent Conformity, more effectually than even an Act to permit Papiſts to purchaſe Land, ſubject to the Laws now in being: For by purchaſing Land, they could not in general make more Intereſt of their Money than four, or four and an half ℔ Cent. Whereas, on Mortgages, they will receive Six ℔ Cent. which will be well ſecured, and not liable to Diminution by the Failure of Tenants. And if they were permitted to purchaſe Land, ſubject to the preſent Laws, their eldeſt Sons would have a powerful Inducement to conform to the eſtabliſhed Religion, as they would thereby make their Fathers, Tenants for Life, and acquire the Reverſion and Inheritance to themſelves. But when Money is veſted in Mortgages, the Caſe is quite different: For the Mortgagees have the abſolute Diſpoſal of them. They may convey them to whomſoever they pleaſe; and therefore the Child that conforms or ſhews an Inclination to it will probably be diſinherited. And the Apprehenſion of this muſt, we conceive, be a great Bar to Conformity, and afford very powerful Means to Popiſh Parents to retain their Children in the Communion of the Church of Rome. We muſt alſo obſerve, that an Eſtate purchaſed by a Papiſt, would, after the Death of that Papiſt, be ſubject to the Gavel-Law, and deſcend in equal Shares among his Sons: Whereas, the Money to be lent on Mortgages, will not gavel. But the Whole may, and probably will, be diſpoſed of, by the Popiſh Parent, to that Child who is moſt zealouſly attached to the Principles of the Popiſh Religion.

Secondly; We alſo conceive, that no Art or Policy could contrive a more effectual Method of veſting the Papiſts with Power and Influence, than that of enabling them to take Mortgages. That this Bill will neceſſarily increaſe the Number of Proteſtant Debtors to Popiſh Creditors; and the Influence of the Creditor upon the Debtor, is univerſally acknowledged. That it will tend to ſubject Freeholders to the Controul of Papiſts, and thereby may fill future Parliaments with Men of like Principles with themſelves. That it may alſo pollute ſome of the Sources of Juſtice: For we cannot be without Apprehenſion that thoſe intruſted in inferior Stations, with the Adminiſtration of the Laws, may be tempted not to exert themſelves in their Offices againſt Papiſts, while their Eſtates are mortgaged to Perſons of the Popiſh Religion, for larger Sums than they can readily or conveniently pay.

5. Becauſe the Papiſts, who have now no other Method of employing their Money than in Trade, or by lending it on perſonal Security, or by ſubſcribing to the Publick Loans, and thereby contributing to ſupport the Credit of this Kingdom, will (ſhould this Bill paſs into a Law) be induced to call in all the Money which they have lent on Perſonal Security to Tradeſmen and Manufacturers, (which, as we conceive, forms a conſiderable Part of that Capital by which the Trade of this Country is ſupported) and thereby neceſſarily leſſen the Extent of our Trade, cauſe a conſiderable Decreaſe in our Exports, and conſequently reduce many of our Manufacturers to Want and Beggary, or force them to ſeek Employment in foreign Countries: Nor, as we conceive, will the evil Conſequences of this Bill ſtop here. For ſhould the Publick have Occaſion for future Loans, it is not to be imagined that the Papiſts will lend their Money at Four ℔ Cent. to Government, (as they now do) or even at Four and an Half ℔ Cent. when they can lend it on Mortgages at an Intereſt of Six ℔ Cent.

6. Becauſe, notwithſtanding the high Opinion we entertain of the Perſons who now preſide in the Courts of Equity in this Kingdom, we cannot be without alarming Apprehenſions for the Conſequences, which may hereafter attend the veſting in the Officers of the Chancery and Exchequer, the Weight and Direction of an important Part of the Influence and Property of ſo numerous a Party as the Papiſts of Ireland, which we think muſt be one neceſſary Conſequence of this Bill. And we are in the more Fear on this Account, as no Precedent like it has occurred in Great Britain.

7. Becauſe the Legiſlature of Great Britain, not having thought fit to allow the Papiſts of England to take Mortgages, though the Proteſtants of that Country exceed the Papiſts in Number, in the Proportion of above an hundred to one. We cannot judge it to be expedient to grant that Indulgence to Papiſts in this Country, where they exceed the Proteſtants in Number, in the Proportion of four or five to one at leaſt. And where we have too much Reaſon to dread the Increaſe of their Influence.

8. Becauſe we think it very extraordinary and unequal, to confine this Indulgence to the taking of Mortgages from Proteſtants only. If Papiſts were permitted to take Mortgages on the Eſtates of Perſons profeſſing the Popiſh Religion, Religion, the Influence and Acceſſion of Power to Popery, would not be ſo great, as by confining this Indulgence to the Lands of Proteſtants. We conſider, therefore, any Acceſſion of Power given to the Papiſts under the preſent Bill, as given intirely out of the landed Intereſts of Proteſtants. Which, in Effect, is converting a Proteſtant Fund into a Popiſh one.

For the foregoing Reaſons, we have thought it neceſſary to proteſt againſt this Bill, and do hereby declare our intire Diſapprobation thereof, that the evil Conſequences which we apprehend will enſue from it (if paſſed into a Law) may not be charged by Poſterity to our Account.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the House, that the Judges, according to order, had prepared a Report of what Laws are lately expired, or near expiring, which he presented to the House, and the same was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Report on temporary Statutes.

IN obedience to your Lordships' Order of the 14th Day of October last, whereby the Judges were directed to inquire what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, the Judges upon Inquiry, find:

An Act of 29th Geo. II. Chap. 6, for better regulating Juries, which was continued by 1st Geo. III. Chap. 17. to the 1st of May, 1771, and to the End of the next Session, expired at the End of the last Session of Parliament.

An Act of the 3d Geo. III. for the better Preservation of the Game, and also a Clause in an Act of the 31st Geo. II. relative to Wild Turkies, were continued by 11th and 12th Geo. III. Chap. 19, for two Years, and to the End of the then next Session, when they will expire.

An Act of the 1st Geo. III. for preventing Frauds in the vending, preparing and administring Drugs and Medicines, was continued by 11th and 12th Geo. III. Chap. 19, to 24th June, 1774, and to the End of the next Session, when it will expire.

A Clause in an Act of the 10th Geo. I. for continuing and amending an Act for better regulating the Parish-Watches and amending the High-ways, &c. which Clause, so far as it relates to Parish-Watches, was continued by 11th and 12th Geo. III. Chap. 19, for two Years and to the End of next Session, when it will expire.

An Act of the 25th Geo. II. for better Preservation of the Game, was revived and continued by 11th Geo. III. Chap. 1, to 24th June, 1772, and to the End of the next Session, which Act will expire with the present Session.

An Act of the 5th Geo. III. for the further Encouragement of Tillage in this Kingdom, was continued by 11th Geo. III. Ch. 2, to 24th June, 1772, and to the End of the next Session, when it will expire.

An Act of 25th Geo. II. Chap. 12, for the more effectual Execution of Orders of the Courts of Justice, for giving and quieting Possessions, and also for the more effectual bringing to Justice such Persons as shall enlist his Majesty's Subjects to serve as Soldiers in foreign Service, without License, was further continued by 7th Geo. III. Chap. 20, for seven Years, from 1st June, 1768, and to the End of the next Session, when it will expire.

An Act of 25th Geo. II. Ch. 15, for buying and selling all Sorts of Corn and Meal and other things therein mentioned, by Weight, and for the more effectual preventing the Frauds committed in the buying and selling thereof, was continued by 7th Geo. III. Ch. 20, for seven Years, and to the End of the next Session, when it will expire.

An Act of 33d Geo. II. Chap. 11, for reviving and amending an Act of 23d Geo. II. Chap. 12, so far only as the same relates to the more easy providing a Maintenance for Parish Clerks, &c. was continued by 5th Geo. III. Chap. 15, to 1st May, 1773, and to the End of the next Session, when it will expire.

A Clause

A Clauſe in an Act of 1st Geo. III. Chap. 17, relating to Colliers and Miners, who abſent themſelves in Breach of Contract, without Licenſe or Diſcharge, &c. was continued with Amendments, by 5th Geo. III. Chap. 15, to 1st May, 1775, and to the End of the next Seſſion, when it will expire.

An Act of 1st Geo. II. Chap. 12, 5th Geo. II. Chap. 6, and 7th Geo. II. Chap. 7, ſo far as they relate to the Recovery of Tithes, and other Eccleſiaſtical Dues of ſmall Value, were further continued by 3d Geo. III. Chap. 16, for 11 Years, from 25th March, 1764, and to the End of the next Seſſion, when they will expire.

An Act of 5th Geo. II. Chap. 13, for the better Regulation and Government of Seamen in Merchants' Service, was further continued by 5th Geo. II. Chap. 15, for 10 Years, from 25th March, 1766, and to the End of the next Seſſion, when it will expire.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the foregoing Report ſhall be, and is hereby referred to a ſelect Committee, and that the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh, and all the Lords preſent, be the ſaid Committee; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein, and two of the Judges to aſſiſt.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet on Friday Morning next, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

Hodie ſecunda vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for granting Annuities in the Manner therein provided, to ſuch Perſons as ſhall voluntarily ſubſcribe towards the raiſing a Sum not exceeding the Sum of £265,000. Annuity Bill

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall be put into a Committee To-morrow Morning, to take the ſaid Bill into Conſideration, and compare the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and ſee that it exactly agrees therewith.

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

paſſed; It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

DISSENTIENT:

Proteſt. 1. BECAUSE we conſider this Tax, as peculiarly burthenſome in the preſent declining Situation of this Country, ſince no material Indulgence has been granted, nor no conſtitutional or commercial Reſtraint has been removed in this oppreſſed Country to enable us to bear this additional Incumbrance; and becauſe it does not appear to us, that there was any peculiar Demand for it at preſent, which we may reaſonably infer from the Act itſelf, as there is no Clauſe to appropriate the Produce of this Tax to a particular Purpoſe.

2. Becauſe we have reaſon to believe, that an Aſſurance had been given to the other Houſe of Parliament from Adminiſtration, that the Commiſſioners of Accounts ſhould be employed as Commiſſioners of Stamps, which was intended as an Inducement to their Acquieſcence in this Meaſure: Whereas the Words of the Act elude, if not totally counteract, this Promiſe, ſince the Commiſſioners of Stamps are obliged to account annually before the Commiſſioners of impreſt Accounts; and becauſe the Lord Lieutenant is enabled to appoint Officers without Limitation in Number or Expenſe, or any Qualification whatſoever: And farther, there is no diſabling Clauſe ſimilar to that by which the Officers of all Duties, created ſince 1692, are inadmiſſible in the Houſe of Commons of England, which muſt evidently increaſe the Number of Placemen and the Influence of the Crown in Parliament.

3. Becauſe it ſeems to us unconſtitutional to veſt the Power in his Majeſty's Repreſentative, the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, of aſcertaining annually, by Proclamation, the Price of Paper and other Materials which ſhall be iſſued from the Stamp-office, ſince a corrupt Viceroy may hereafter ſet his own Price upon them without Control, which would not be the Caſe, if it were veſted in the Commiſſioners of the Revenue, or other Officers under the Control of Parliament, in like Manner as this Power is veſted in England, in the Lords of the Treaſury.

4. Becauſe we conceive, that this Act, ſo far as it relates to the ſtamping of Newspapers and of Pamphlets, evidently tends to invade and to abridge the Liberty of the Preſs, that great and neceſſary Out-work and Barrier of our conſtitutional Rights, which we ought ever to maintain, againſt all Invaſion with the moſt cautious Attention, as upon its Security muſt ultimately depend the very Exiſtence of our excellent Conſtitution. And becauſe, farther, the Tax upon Pamphlets was not a Part of the firſt Stamp-Act in England, the 5th of William and Mary, Ch. 21, but commenced by the 10th of Anne, Ch. 19, in the latter End of the Queen's Days, a Period from whence we ſhould be ſorry to derive a Precedent.

5. Becauſe, if the Licentiouſneſs of the Preſs be an Object of Complaint, it ſhould be reſtrained by a manly Mode of Legiſlation, ſtrengthening the criminal Juſtice of this Country, and not by making the Crown countenance it to a certain Degree, by conſidering it as the Subject of Revenue.

6. Becauſe, finally, we muſt conſider this as a Tax upon the Juſtice, the Property and the Commerce of this Country, as a Fund for Penſions, and a Proviſion for that Syſtem of Venality improved by a late Viceroy, and the neceſſary Sequel of a Plan, which we muſt ever conſider with the utmoſt Deteſtation.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Ordered, that the Earl of Inchiquin have the Leave of this House to be absent for two Months, leaving his Proxy.

The House was adjourned during Pleasure, to robe.

The House was resumed: And

Lord Lieutenant present.

His Excellency Simon Earl Harcourt, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the House with the usual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Duke of Leinster carrying the Cap of Maintenance, and the Earl of Westmeath, the Sword of State; a Nobleman's Son bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, ascended the same, and seated himself in the Chair of State, under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal standing robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordships took their Seats.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and then, standing on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod to repair to the House of Commons, and acquaint the Commons, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleasure, they attend him immediately in the House of Peers.

Commons sent for:

And the Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the usual Ceremonies; and Mr. Speaker delivered the following Bills to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought them to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Titles, as follow, viz.

they enter.

Royal Assent given to three Bills.

1. An Act for granting Annuities in the Manner therein provided, to such Persons as shall voluntarily subscribe towards the raising a Sum not exceeding the Sum of £265,000.

2. An Act for granting to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, several Duties upon Vellum, Parchment and Paper.

To these Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Assent, severally, in these Words, viz.

"Le Roi remercie ses bons Sujets, accepte leur "Benevolence, et ainsi le veult."

3. An Act for explaining and amending an Act, intitled, An Act for vesting Part of the settled Estate of the Right Hon. John Lord Eyre Baron of Eyre-Court in Trustees, and their Heirs, to be sold in Lieu and Stead of other Part of the said settled Estate, and for other Purposes.

To this Bill, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Assent, in these Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il est desiré."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleased to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their House.

The House was adjourned during Pleasure, to unrobe.

Upon reading the Order for the Day,

The Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of Common-Pleas made the following Report, viz.

Report from Judges,

IN obedience to your Lordſhips' Order, by which it is referred to the Lords the Judges to inquire, whether the Law of the 29th of Geo. II. for better regulating of Juries, hath been found uſeful; and to report their Opinion thereon to the Houſe: The Judges who met, have taken the ſame into their Conſideration, and all, except one, are of Opinion, that the Law of the 29th of Geo. II. for better regulating Juries, hath been found uſeful, and may be rendered more ſo, by ſome Amendments: One of the Judges ſaid, that from his Experience or Obſervation he had no Reaſon to ſay it hath been found uſeful; and ſince it expired, thinks the Juries returned and attending before him at Common-Law full as good as any he ever obſerved under the Balloting-Act. Your Lordſhips muſt be informed, that Mr. Baron Power being prevented by Indiſpoſition from meeting the other Judges, hath not communicated his Opinion.

All which is moſt humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

referred to Committee.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the foregoing Report ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to the ſelect Committee, to whom the Conſideration of the Judges' Report of what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, is referred.

Report on temporary Laws.

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, was referred; that they had conſidered thereof, and have come to the following Reſolutions:

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 29th Geo. II. C. 6, for better regulating Juries, which was continued by 1ſt Geo. III. C. 17, to the 1ſt of May, 1771, and to the End of the next Seſſion, which expired at the End of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, is fit to be revived and continued to the 24th of June, 1781, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 3d Geo. III. for the better Preſervation of the Game, and alſo a Clauſe in an Act of 31ſt Geo. II. relative to wild Turkies, which were continued by 11th and 12th Geo. III. C. 19. for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion, when they will expire, are fit to be revived and continued for four Years, to the 24th of June, 1778, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the 1ſt Geo. III. for preventing Frauds in the vending, preparing and adminiſtring Drugs and Medicines, which was continued by 11th and 12th Geo. III. C. 19, to 24th June, 1774, and to the End of the next Seſſion, when it will expire, is fit to be revived and continued to 24th June, 1781, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that a Clauſe in an Act of the 10th Geo. I. for continuing and amending an Act for better regulating the Pariſh-watches and amending the High-ways, &c. which Clauſe, ſo far as it relates to Pariſh-watches, was continued by 11th and 12th Geo. III. C. 19, for two Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion, when it will expire, is fit to be revived and continued to the 24th June, 1776, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of 25th Geo. II. for better Preſervation of the Game, was revived and continued by 11th Geo. III. C. 1, to 24th June, 1772, and to the End of the next Seſſion, which Act will expire with the preſent Seſſion, is fit to be revived and continued to 24th June, 1778, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of 5th Geo. III. for the further Encouragement of Tillage in this Kingdom, which was continued by 11th Geo. III. C. 2, to 24th June, 1772, and to the End of the then next Seſſion, when it will expire, is fit to be revived and continued to the 24th June, 1776, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of 25th Geo. II. C. 12, for the more effectual Execution of Orders of the Courts of Juſtice for giving and quieting Poſſeſſions, and alſo for the more effectual bringing to Juſtice ſuch Perſons as ſhall inliſt his Majeſty's Subjects to ſerve as Soldiers in foreign Service without Licenſe, which which was further continued by 7th Geo. III. C. 20; for ſeven Years, from 1ſt June, 1768, to the End of the next Seſſion when it will expire, is fit to be revived and continued to the 24th of June, 1781, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of 25th Geo. II. C. 15, for buying and ſelling all Sorts of Corn and Meal and other things therein mentioned by Weight, and for the more effectual preventing the Frauds committed in the buying and ſelling thereof, which was continued by 7th Geo. III. C. 20, for ſeven Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion, when it will expire, is fit to be revived and continued to the 24th June, 1781, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of 33d Geo. II. C. 11, for reviving and amending an Act of 23d Geo. II. C. 12, ſo far only as the ſame relates to the more eaſy providing a Maintenance for Pariſh-Clerks, &c. which was continued by 5th Geo. III. C. 15, to the 1ſt of May, 1773, and to the End of the next Seſſion, when it will expire, is fit to be revived and continued for ſix Years, to the 24th of June, 1780, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that a Clauſe in an Act of 1ſt Geo. III. C. 17, relating to Colliers and Miners, who abſent themſelves in Breach of Contract without Licenſe or Diſcharge, &c. which was continued with Amendments by 5th Geo. III. C. 15, to the 1ſt of May, 1775, and to the End of the next Seſſion, when it will expire, is fit to be revived and continued to the 24th of June, 1778, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of 1ſt Geo. II. C. 12, 5th Geo. II. C. 6, and 7th Geo. II. C. 7, ſo far as they relate to the Recovery of Tythes and other eccleſiaſtical Dues of ſmall Value, which were further continued by 3d Geo. III. C. 16, for eleven Years, from the 25th of March, 1764, and to the End of the next Seſſion, when they will expire, ought to be made perpetual.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of 5th Geo. II. C. 13, for the better Regulation and Government of Seamen in Merchants' Service, which was further continued by 5th Geo. II. C. 15, for ten Years, from the 25th of March, 1766, and to the End of the next Seſſion, when it will expire, is fit to be revived and continued to the 24th of June, 1782, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

To which Reſolutions, the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree.

Ordered, that the Lords' Committees to whom the Conſideration of what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, was referred, have Leave to ſit again.

Reſolution againſt Perſons ſtanding on Steps of Throne.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that no Perſon whatſoever be permitted to ſtand upon the Steps of the Throne, but Peers' Sons, Members of the other Houſe of Parliament, the Officers attending this Houſe, and the Lords bearing the Regalia, and thoſe Perſons in Attendance upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, when he comes to this Houſe.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that a Copy of the above Reſolution be poſted upon each of the Doors of this Houſe, and that the ſame be obſerved the Beginning of every Seſſion of Parliament.

Petition of Mary Hay.

A Petition of Mary Hay, Widow and Executrix of David Hay, Aſſignee of the late Boulter Grierſon, his Majeſty's Printer, ſetting forth, that purſuant to the Directions of the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor, the Petitioner printed and delivered to ſeveral Lords and Judges, the Minutes of the Proceedings before the Lords' Committees for Privileges, upon the ſeveral Claims to the Titles of Viſc. Valentia, &c. in Number 75, as by their Lordſhips' and Honours' Receipts (ready to be produced) will appear; which, at the Price of 11*s.* 4½ d. each, amounts to the Sum of £42 : 13*s.* 1½ d.

And praying their Lordſhips to order the Petitioner Payment of the ſame, in ſuch Manner as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, ſhall ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Petition be referred to the Lords' Committees, to whom the Petition of the Clerk of the Parliaments and the other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, is referred.

Petition of Houſe-Maid,

Alſo, a Petition of Mary Smyth, Houſe-maid ſetting forth, that the Petitioner hath with great Care and Diligence attended the Duty of her Employment during this Seſſion of Parliament.

That in the Year 1771, their Lordſhips granted the Petitioner the Sum of £10:16*s.* 8*d.*

And praying their Lordſhips to order the Petitioner ſuch further Allowance to ſupport her growing Family, as their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, ſhall think proper; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Petition be referred to the Lords' Committees to whom the Petition of the Clerk of the Parliaments and the other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, is referred.

Petition of W. Richey,

And alſo, a Petition of William Richey, in behalf of himſelf and of the Widow and Children of Thomas Richey, late Meſſenger, deceaſed, ſetting forth, that the Petitioner, in order to make ſome Proviſion for his Son Thomas Richey and his Family, and alſo for the Petitioner's Wife, in Caſe they ſurvived him, did, in the Year, 1768, give up his Employment as Meſſenger of the Houſe of Lords to his ſaid Son.

That Thomas Richey executed the Duty of Meſſenger during the moſt troubleſome and diſagreeable Part of this Seſſion, and died on or about the 9th Day of January laſt, and his Employment hath ſince been filled up by another Perſon.

That the Petitioner has been a Servant to the Houſe of Lords theſe 45 Years paſt, and though he is now in the 76th Year of his Age, does the conſtant Duty of Meſſenger, to ſupport himſelf and Wife:

And praying their Lordſhips to take the Petitioner's particular Caſe into Conſideration, and grant him ſuch Relief as their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, ſhall think meet; was preſented to the Houſe and read.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Petition be referred to the Lords' Committees to whom the Petition of the Clerk of the Parliaments and the other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, is referred.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

Bill to explain Annuity Act,

Hodie tertia vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act to explain and amend an Act passed in this Session of Parliament, intitled, An Act for granting Annuities in the manner therein provided, to such Persons as shall voluntarily subscribe towards the raising a Sum not exceeding the Sum of £265,000.

The Question was put, Whether this Bill shall pass?

passed. It was resolved in the Affirmative.

DISSENTIENT.

Protest. 1. BECAUSE the Bill which has now passed this House, imports to enact, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of this Kingdom, for the Time being, to appoint one or more Person or Persons to pay in the City of London the Annuities mentioned in an Act, (intitled, An Act for granting Annuities therein provided, to such Persons as shall voluntarily subscribe towards the raising a Sum not exceeding a Sum of £265,000) according to the Rate that Money is current for in Ireland, for such Sums as have been, or shall be, subscribed; and for which the Person intitled to receive said Annuity, shall at the Time of compleating his Subscription, declare his Intention of receiving his said Annuity in the City of London, which said Annuities shall be paid without any Deduction, Abatement or Charge whatsoever, either for Exchange or otherwise.

And the said Bill further imports to enact, that the Vice-Treasurer or Vice-Treasurers, Paymaster or Receiver General, his or their Deputy or Deputies, shall, from time to time, out of the Duties, Rates, Impositions and Taxes granted by an Act, passed this Session of Parliament for Payment, among other Things, of the said Annuities, remit to the Person or Persons so appointed, as aforesaid, Sums of Money sufficient for the punctual and regular Payment of the said Annuities in the City of London, at the Times mentioned in the said Act, without any Charge, Deduction or Abatement whatsoever: And the said Bill further imports to enact, that whatever Expenses shall be incurred by sending or remitting, from time to time, the said several Annuities from this Kingdom to the City of London, and the Payment of the same there, shall be charged upon the said Duties, Rates, Impositions and Taxes, granted by the said last-mentioned Act of Parliament; and that whatever Profit shall be made in the way of Exchange, by remitting the said Sums, or any of them, shall be brought to the Credit of the Nation. Now we conceive the said Bill to be a Bill of Supply, inasmuch as by directing the said Interest to be paid in London, it gives English Subscribers Interest at the Rate of £6 ℔ Cent. clear of Deductions, instead of Interest at the Rate of £6 ℔ Cent. subject to Deductions; which is, in Effect, granting an additional Premium on the Loan of the said Sum of £265,000: This we conceive to be a substantive Grant of Money, and not a mere Matter of Regulation. The former Act was undoubtedly a Bill of Supply, and as such was presented by the Speaker of the House of Commons, and received the Royal Aſſent: Now the ſaid former Act was no otherwiſe a Bill of Supply, than as it appointed the Rate of Intereſt on the ſaid Sum of £265,000. But we conceive, the increaſing that Intereſt, does as effectually conſtitute a Bill of Supply, as the original Grant of it. The ſaid former Act did not impoſe any Tax upon the Subject, but ſimply directed the Application of a Proportion of the Taxes, raiſed by a ſeparate Act of Parliament, to the Payment of the ſaid Intereſt: In this reſpect, it preciſely correſponds with the preſent Bill. Neither have we heard any Circumſtance mentioned, in which they differ, as to the Eſſentials of a Bill of Supply.

And as the ſurplus Fund in the ſaid Bill mentioned, out of which the ſaid increaſed Intereſt is to be paid, was expreſsly reſerved to be diſpoſed of by Parliament, and might or might not have been applied by them to the Purpoſes of Government; we conſider every Diſpoſition of any Part of that Fund in favour of the Crown, as a new Grant from Parliament, and a new Benevolence from the People. We therefore think it neceſſary to expreſs our Diſſent to the paſſing the ſaid Bill; becauſe we conceive it to be a Bill of Supply, introduced at an unuſual Time of the Seſſion, and unconſtitutionally paſſed through the other Houſe, the Matter of it not having been previouſly conſidered in the Committee of Supply and Ways and Means: And we are ſo thoroughly convinced, that this Bill is a Bill of Supply, that if it ſhould not be ſent back to the Houſe of Commons, as ſuch Bills always are, and ought to be; and if it do not receive the Royal Aſſent according to the antient and uſual Form, and with the accuſtomed and neceſſary Formalities, by which Bills of Supply are conſtantly accompanied, we ſhall not conceive that it will paſs into a firm and valid Law, or be an effectual Security to the Subſcribers.

2. Becauſe we apprehend, that the paſſing ſuch ſupplementary Laws will be productive of the moſt dangerous Effects, inaſmuch as future Miniſters, founding themſelves upon Precedents of this Nature, may be induced to propoſe in Parliament, Laws which may appear innocent or even ſalutary; and which may, of conſequence, paſs uncontroverted, reſerving the noxious or dangerous Part of them to be afterwards propounded in a ſupplementary Bill, which Parliament may be the more readily induced to admit, as it may be prevailed upon to believe, that the Law already paſſed would, without ſuch Supplement, be uſeleſs or inadequate to its Purpoſe, and as it might then be too late to adopt an original Scheme for raiſing Money or for effecting ſuch End as may have been intended by any other Means.

3. Becauſe we conceive, that the only Circumſtance which could have rendered the Annuity Scheme in any Degree palatable, was the Hope, that the Sum required by it, or at leaſt the greateſt Part thereof, would have been ſubſcribed in Ireland; by which Means the Annuities would have been paid in this Country, and there would not have been, as there now is, a great and new Abſentee Intereſt eſtabliſhed: Whereas it is plain, that the Intent and Purpoſe of this Bill, is to induce Engliſh Adventurers to ſubſcribe, by giving them a mark'd Preference over Iriſh Subſcribers; and, in effect, by allowing them a Premium in Addition to that Advantage which they already enjoyed, by the comparatively low Intereſt of Money in England; the direct contrary Meaſure to which, ought, as we apprehend, to have been adopted.

4. Becauſe we conceive, that the Payment of theſe Annuities any where but at the Iriſh Treaſury, is not only in itſelf a moſt pernicious Practice, tending, for ſo much, to tranſport into another Kingdom the Exchequer of Ireland, but is alſo a Precedent of the moſt dangerous Tendency, as the ſame Arguments which have been adduced to perſuade us to this Meaſure may be urged in favour of all Payments to be made to Foreigners. And the ſame Mode of reaſoning may tend to the Eſtabliſhment of Offices for Payment in every Country to which we either are, or may hereafter be indebted. Beſides that by the Appointment of an Agent in England, the Scheme is for ſo much taken from under the immediate Control of this Country, and rendered liable to Frauds, which it will not be poſſible for an Iriſh Juriſdiction to prevent, or even to diſcover.

5. Becauſe we apprehend, that if at any future Time, Money ſhould be wanted for any Publick Exigency, which this Kingdom ſhall not be able to ſupply, it will never be had but upon Conditions of the ſame Nature with thoſe which are by this Law granted; and alſo that upon any future Loan, money'd Men will be apt to keep back their Subſcriptions, in hopes that by ſo doing, Parliament may be alarmed into the granting them Terms more advantageous, the pernicious Conſequences of which are obvious.

6. Becauſe we are apprehenſive, that this Meaſure, by which the Lord Lieutenant is impowered to appoint a Perſon or Perſons as Agents in England, will be the Source of new and expenſive Employments, and thoſe too out of the Kingdom, and conſequently of new Expenſe to this already almoſt exhauſted Country.

7. Becauſe though Parliamentary Information has been refuſed us, a Practice which we conceive to be of the moſt alarming Tendency, rendering this Houſe incompetent to judge of the Buſineſs under its Conſideration, and not, as we apprehend, well ſuited to the Dignity of Parliament, as it may be conſtrued to imply a Fear of Detection, againſt which we therefore take this Opportunity to proteſt. We have Reaſon to be confident, that the Bill which has now paſſed, is abſolutely unneceſſary; the whole Sum required, or at leaſt a Sum very near the Amount,

Amount, having, as we are well informed, been ſubſcribed, before it was poſſible that the Subſcribers ſhould have known the Determination of Parliament upon this Law. And we are the more inclined to conſider theſe Subſcriptions as abſolute, becauſe we have had no Information to the Contrary: Becauſe we cannot ſuppoſe, that Adminiſtration would undertake for Parliament; and becauſe we cannot believe, that conditional, and therefore nominal, Subſcribers, not of this Country, and clog'd with a Premium, ſhould have been haſtily inſerted and favoured by Government, to the Preclusion of Iriſh unconditional Subſcribers, which if it has been done, muſt certainly appear to all Men a Hardſhip of the moſt crying Nature, and not very far removed from an actual Fraud.

For theſe Reaſons, and for many more, we the underwritten Lords, fully ſenſible of the pernicious Tendency of this Bill, and deſirous that Poſterity ſhould hold us innocent of thoſe Conſequences which we apprehend from it, have made uſe of our Privilege, as Peers, to proteſt againſt its paſſing into a Law, and have hereunto ſigned our Names.

Motion relative to Annuity Bill.

A Motion was made, That a Meſſage be ſent to the Houſe of Commons by Mr. Walker and Mr. Burroughs, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

It was then propoſed to amend the ſaid Motion, by inſerting the Words "two of the Judges attending this Houſe," inſtead of the Words "Mr. Walker and Mr. Burroughs, two "of the Maſters in Chancery." Amendment propoſed.

A Debate ariſing thereupon, and the Queſtion being put, the Houſe divided; and the Earl of Laneſborough reported, that the Contents, below the Bar were 7; and the Not-Contents in the Houſe were 30; Debate thereon.

It paſſed in the Negative.

And it being further propoſed to amend the ſaid Motion, by adding thereto after the Word "Amendment," that the ſaid Maſters do carry with them the ſaid Bill;

It paſſed in the Negative.

Then the main Queſtion being put;

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Walker and Mr. Burroughs, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment. Meſſage to Commons.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Earl of Bellamont reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Friday laſt; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on the ſafe Delivery of the Queen, and the Birth of another Prince.

We cannot reflect upon the Bleſſings we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, without the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude, Loyalty and Affection; and we are happy in the higheſt Degree in the Conſideration that by this Increaſe of your Majeſty's Royal Family, we acquire an additional Security for the Enjoyment of our Laws, Religion and Liberties, and in the enlarged and pleaſing Proſpect we have of ſeeing the Government of theſe Kingdoms tranſmitted for Ages through a Line of Princes deſcended from your Majeſty.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Order for putting the Houſe into a Committee upon Heads of a Bill for regulating of Trials of Peers or Peereſſes in Caſes of capital Offences, be adjourned till To-morrow.

Lord Lieutenant preſent.

His Excellency Simon Earl Harcourt, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Weſtmeath carrying the Cap of Maintenance; and the Earl of Drogheda, the Sword of State; a Nobleman's Son bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State, under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint the Commons, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter.

And the Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then the Clerk of the Crown read the Title of the Bill to be paſſed, viz.

Royal Aſſent given to one Bill.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, paſſed in this Seſſion of Parliament, intitled, An Act for granting Annuities in the Manner therein provided to ſuch Perſons as ſhall voluntarily ſubſcribe towards the raiſing a Sum not exceeding the Sum of £265,000.

To this Bill, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, in theſe Words, viz.

"Le Roi le veult."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered, and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee upon Heads of a Bill for making Judges' Commiſſions continue quam diu ſe bene geſſerint; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

DISSENTIENT:

Proteſt.

1. BECAUSE the better regulating the Collection of his Majeſty's Revenue, and the Prevention of Frauds therein, are Objects of equal Importance to the Crown and to the People; the Revenue being eſſential to the Dignity of the former, and the effectual Collection of it making it leſs neceſſary to multiply the Burthens of the latter: But by this Act, Frauds will become more practicable and more frequent, and the Revenue of courſe be materially injured; becauſe whenever it is made the Intereſt of the Officer to neglect his Duty, he may eaſily exculpate himſelf, and throw the whole Blame on the Military.

2. Becauſe a diſcretionary Power of employing Military Force, without the Intervention of the Civil Magiſtrate, in the hands of any Perſon whatſoever, is inconſiſtent with a free Government, and in the hands of mean and ignorant Perſons with every Government: For it may be perverted to the worſt Purpoſes, and the Gratification of the moſt unwarrantable Paſſions, the Law providing only an inadequate Remedy againſt the Abuſe of it, and ſome of the Injuries it may occaſion, being, in the Nature of Things, irreparable.

Meſſage to Commons with Concurrence.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Veſey and Mr. Burroughs, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

Memorial of Mrs. Molloy.

A Memorial of Mrs. Elizabeth Molloy, ſetting forth, that in the Year 1755 the Memorialiſt was, by his Majeſty's Letters Patent, appointed Houſe-keeper of the Parliament-Houſe, at a Salary of £100 ℔ Ann. without having any Houſe or Apartments for her and her Family's Reſidence, which rendered it impoſſible for her to diſcharge the Duty of her Employment.

That upon Memorialiſt's repreſenting to Government the Difficulties ſhe lay under, his Grace the Duke of Bedford, who was then Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, was pleaſed to have her Memorial referred to a Committee of Council, who upon Conſideration thereof reported, that the Memorialiſt ſhould have her conſtant Reſidence in the ſaid Houſe, and that a Sum of £225 : 10*s*. ℔ Ann. ſhould be paid her by quarterly Payments for Coals, Candles, Servants' Wages, and all other Neceſſaries which ſhould be wanting for keeping the Houſe of Lords and Commons well aired, and in proper Order and Condition; upon which Report his Grace was pleaſed to order ſuch Apartments in the ſaid Houſe as were neceſſary for the Accommodation and conſtant Reſidence of the Memorialiſt and her Servants, to be furniſhed at the Expenſe of Government, which was accordingly done.

That upon an Application of one of the Clerks to the Houſe of Lords, in the Year 1766, ſetting forth that there was not ſufficient Room for their Records, it was ordered, that ſome of the Rooms which were fitted up for the Memorialiſt's Reſidence ſhould be given up for that Purpoſe, which was accordingly done, and which has prevented the Memorialiſt's Reſidence in ſaid Houſe ever ſince; ſo that the Memorialiſt is put to the Expenſe of a Houſe for her and her Family's Reſidence during the Intervals of Parliament.

That the Memorialiſt is informed, during the Receſs of Parliament, no Uſe is made of the large Committee-Room, a Room joining it and the Room called the Coffee-Houſe, through which the Clerks have a Paſſage, which may ſtill be continued, if required; but being ſhut up, prevents the Memorialiſt from keeping that Side of the Houſe properly aired, and of carrying in Water from the Pump, which ſhe had put down at her own Expenſe to clean the ſame: The two latter Rooms were particularly given her, for the Servants to ſleep in, and to keep Soap, Candles and other Neceſſaries for the Uſe of the ſaid Houſe, and which ſhe had the Poſſeſſion of, from her firſt coming into Office till the Seſſions of Parliament 1765 and 1766:

And praying their Lordſhips to take the Premiſes into Conſideration, and to grant her ſuch Relief therein as to their Lordſhips ſhall ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and being read, was ordered to lie on the Table.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon an ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for amending the Publick Roads; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Committee, that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment; and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be read a third time To-morrow.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant had received his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe of the 2d Inſt. which his Excellency directed him to lay before their Lordſhips, which he read, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

"GEORGE R.

King's Anſwer to Addreſs.

"HIS Majeſty returns his Thanks to the "Houſe of Lords for their dutiful and affectionate Addreſs.

"The grateful Senſe they entertain of his "Majeſty's paternal Care to promote the Intereſts and Happineſs of his Subjects, cannot "fail of giving great Satisfaction to his Majeſty, and is agreeable to their conſtant Zeal "and Loyalty for his Perſon and Government, "upon the Continuance of which his Majeſty "has the firmeſt Dependence.

"G. R."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Majeſty of the 2d Inſt. and his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

Reſolved, that the humble Thanks of this Houſe ſhall be returned to his Majeſty, for his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe of the 2d Inſt.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Reſolution, and deſire his Excellency will pleaſe to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

The Earl of Shannon reported from the Lords' Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency

SIMON Earl HARCOURT,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Excellency on the approaching Concluſion of a Seſſion of Parliament, diſtinguiſhed by ſo many beneficial Laws eſſential to the Proſperity and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

We are truly ſenſible of your Excellency's Concern for the Welfare of this Nation, manifeſted by thoſe wiſe and prudent Meaſures, which have already ſo effectually eſtabliſhed the declining Credit of this Kingdom, and for thoſe neceſſary and uſeful Regulations, effected by your provident Care in the Revenue and other Departments of the State, which muſt be productive of the moſt permanent and ſubſtantial Benefits.

Among the ſalutary Laws in this Seſſion obtained, we cannot avoid diſtinguiſhing that for granting a Bounty on the Exportation of Corn, which we deem as an Earneſt and Pledge of your Excellency's Solicitude for the Intereſts of this Country, and is an Event which muſt fix in the Minds of a grateful People, the laſting Remembrance of this glorious Æra, and of the Advantages derived to them under your Government.

Animated with a lively and grateful Senſe of the Happineſs we enjoy, we cannot forbear expreſſing our moſt earneſt Wiſhes, that his Majeſty, out of his paternal Regard for his loyal Subjects of this Country, may be graciouſly pleaſed to continue your Excellency in the Government of this Kingdom, where your Prudence, Abilities and Experience, have gained you the Confidence of the People, who conſider their Affection for your Excellency as the beſt Teſt of their Regard to their Country, and who wiſh to make your Adminiſtration as eaſy to yourſelf, as it is honourable to the Crown, and ſatisfactory and advantageous to the Publick.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Excellency.

Purſuant to a Power and Order from the Lords' Committees for taking into Conſideration the ſeveral Charities and charitable Donations in this Kingdom, bearing Date the 10th of February, 1774.

The Rev. Mr. Deane Hoare reported the State of the late Doctor Hall's Alms-Houſe, and of his Bequeſts to the City of Limerick, together with the State of the Agents' Accounts for the laſt twelve Years, by which it appears, that inſtead of the annual Diſburſements, which were appointed by the ſaid Dr. Hall's Will, being punctually paid, as ſet forth by the Agents of the £120, due in ſaid Years at £10 a Year, for releaſing of Priſoners, there had been only £33 expended, and that there remains not applied £86 : 11*s*. 8*d*.

And that of £240, due in ſaid Years at £20 ℔ Ann. for binding out Apprentices, there had been only £91 : 16*s*. expended, and that there remains not applied £148 : 4*s*. making in the Whole, not applied to the Service of the Publick in theſe two Articles only, within the ſaid Period, the Sum of £234 : 15*s*. 8*d*.

It further appears, that the preſent annual Rents amount to the Sum of £269 : 15*s*. and that the following are the Particulars of the Purpoſes to which they are to be applied:

To 13 poor Men, at £5 each ℔ Ann. — — —	£65	0	0
To 12 poor Women, ditto	60	0	0
To the Chaplain — —	10	0	0
To the Agent — — —	20	0	0
To the School-Maſter — —	10	0	0
To the School-Miſtreſs —	10	0	0
To releaſe Priſoners confined for ſmall Debts or Fees —	10	0	0
For Books, Paper and Repair of the Houſe — — —	10	0	0
For binding out Apprentices ℔ Order — — —	20	0	0
So that there is an annual Saving to the Charity, amounting to — —	54	15	0

Beſides

Beſides the foregoing annual Diſburſements, the Intereſt of £200 left by the ſaid Dr. Hall, is to be lent, Intereſt free, to young Men, newly out of their Apprenticeſhips.

It appears further from the ſaid Report, that on the 1ſt of November, 1773, there was a Balance due to the Charity, amounting to the Sum of £956 : 13*s*. 9*d*. as ℔ the following Particulars:

Amount of Arrears accounted good in the Tenants' hands, November 1773 — — —	£610	14 4
Ditto in late Tenants' hands, feared to be bad and irrecoverable — —	60	0 0
Balance in the Agent's hands	104	5 3
Amount of Bond-debts —	131	14 2
Mr. M'Alliſter and Major Burton's Bond — —	50	0 0

I am likewiſe directed to inform your Lordſhips, that many other charitable Donations have appeared before your Committee, to the Recovery of which great Progreſs has been made, but they could not be ſettled ſo as to report them to your Lordſhips this Seſſion of Parliament.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the ſelect Committee, to whom the Conſideration of an ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act to enable John Preſton, Eſq; for the Conſiderations therein mentioned, to charge his Eſtates in the Counties of Meath and Queen's County with a further Sum for Payment of Debts, was committed; that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment; and find that all Perſons concerned in the Conſequences thereof have conſented thereto, and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be now read a third time.

Mr. Preſton's Bill,

Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act to enable John Preſton, Eſq; for the Conſiderations therein mentioned, to charge his Eſtates in the Counties of Meath and Queen's County, with a further Sum for Payment of Debts.

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

paſſed;

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Meſſage to Commons with Concurrence.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Walker and Mr. Veſey, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

Lord Lieutenant preſent.

His Excellency Simon Earl Harcourt, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Weſtmeath carrying the Cap of Maintenance, and the Earl of Tyrone, the Sword of State; two Sons of a Nobleman bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State, under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Yeoman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint the Commons, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter.

And the Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar with the uſual Ceremonies; and Mr. Speaker delivered the Foundling-hoſpital Bill to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought it to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Titles of the Bills to be paſſed, viz.

To theſe Bills the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

THE great and uncommon Variety of Publick Buſineſs in which you have been engaged, and your conſtant Attention to the Performance of your Duty, muſt make you wiſh for the Concluſion of a Seſſion, in which the many difficult and important Subjects under your Conſideration could only have been relieved by that ſingular good Temper and Wiſdom in your Deliberations, which have thrown a peculiar Luſtre upon all your Proceedings, and crown your Labours for your Country, with merited Succeſs.

I reflect

I reflect with the greateſt Satisfaction, that the many Difficulties and Embarraſſments which appeared at our firſt Meeting, have been ſurmounted and removed, ſo ably and effectually as to anſwer my warmeſt Wiſhes, and to exceed my moſt ſanguine Expectations.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE his Majeſty's expreſs Commands to thank you, in his Name, for the extraordinary and ſeaſonable Supplies which you have granted, and which his Majeſty juſtly conſiders as a conſpicuous Inſtance of your Attachment to his Royal Perſon and Government; and I am to aſſure you, that they are as graciouſly and favourably accepted, as they have been liberally and chearfully given.

It is a ſtriking Proof of your Wiſdom and Sagacity, that the Means which you have uſed for raiſing the Supplies, have not only ſupported his Majeſty's Government, but have, at the ſame time, raiſed and eſtabliſhed publick and private Credit, and promoted the Commerce, Manufactures and Induſtry of the Kingdom.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I SHOULD have reviewed my Adminiſtration with little Satisfaction to myſelf, if while ſo much had been done for the honourable Support of Government, no Acquiſition had been obtained for this Country. But among the the many uſeful Laws paſſed this Seſſion of Parliament, the Act for granting an effectual Bounty on the Exportation of Corn, affords the ſtrongeſt Proof of the paternal Attention of the moſt beneficent Sovereign, to the Welfare and Proſperity of his dutiful and affectionate Subjects of this Kingdom, and has formed the moſt compleat Syſtem of Laws for the Encouragement of Tillage, that exiſts in any Country. This reciprocal Intercourſe of Duty and Protection, which has for ſo many Years happily prevailed, and from which ſo many ſalutary Conſequences have been derived during his Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, holds out to every Part of his Majeſty's Empire an Example reflecting the higheſt Honour upon the Virtues of a moſt amiable and excellent Sovereign, and the Wiſdom and good Conduct of affectionate and loyal Subjects.

In the high Station in which his Majeſty has placed me, I claim no Merit, but a faithful Execution of his Majeſty's gracious Purpoſes for the Happineſs of his People of Ireland, and the moſt juſt, and therefore the moſt favourable, Repreſentations of their loyal, dutiful and affectionate Conduct, which cannot fail to intitle them to the Continuance of his Royal Favour and Protection.

Your favourable Acceptance of my Endeavours to do my Duty, and your kind Approbation of my Conduct, expreſſed in Terms ſo very diſtinguiſhed and honourable to me, demand my warmeſt Acknowledgments. I have ſincerely wiſhed to deſerve your good Opinion; it is my earneſt Deſire to cultivate and improve it, and my unalterable Reſolution to exert my moſt ſtrenuous Efforts at all Times, and upon all Occaſions, to promote the Happineſs and Proſperity of Ireland.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 26th Day of July next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 26th Day of July next. Parliament prorogued.

they enter.

And the Commons, being come, they, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

YOUR diſtinguiſhed Loyalty to the King, your juſt Attention to the Honour and Dignity of his Government, and your well-regulated Zeal for the Peace and Happineſs of your Country, have made ſo ſenſible an Impreſſion on my Mind, during a three Years' Reſidence amongſt you, that, encouraged by the Experience of what I have ſeen, it is with the moſt ſincere Satisfaction I meet you again in Parliament.

I am perſuaded, that you entertain a grateful Senſe of the Bleſſings you enjoy under the mild and firm Government of the beſt of Sovereigns: And his Majeſty relies on the known Zeal and Loyalty of his Subjects of Ireland, that whilſt his Government is diſturbed by a Rebellion exiſting in a Part of his American Dominions, you will be ready to ſhew your inviolable Attachment to his Perſon and Government, in the Aſſertion of his juſt Rights, and in the Support of his legal Authority.

Gentlemen

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the proper Accounts and Eſtimates to be laid before you, that you may be enabled to judge of the Proviſions neceſſary to be made for the ordinary Expenſes of his Majeſty's Eſtabliſhments, and for diſcharging an Arrear, which has been unavoidably incurred.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I AM happy to inform you, that ſince your laſt Meeting, his Majeſty's tender Concern for the Welfare of this Kingdom, hath induced him to paſs ſeveral Laws in the Britiſh Parliament, highly beneficial to your Commerce, your Manufactures, and your Agriculture.

By the Act, which extends the great Advantages of Britiſh Fiſheries to Ireland, a Source of Induſtry and Wealth is opened to you, which has made other Nations great and flouriſhing: Let me therefore recommend to your earneſt Attention, the Improvement of Advantages tending ſo obviouſly to promote your Navigation and Trade, in the Purſuit of which you may depend upon my warmeſt Aſſiſtance and Support.

The Act, which allows the Clothing and Accoutrements neceſſary for his Majeſty's Forces, paid from the Revenues of this Kingdom, to be exported from Ireland, is a particular Mark of the Royal Favour, and even that which allows the Importation of Rape-ſeed into Great Britain from this Kingdom, under certain Regulations connected with thoſe ſalutary Laws paſſed in your laſt Seſſion, form ſuch a Syſtem of Agriculture and Improvement, as will, I truſt, ſecure Riches and Plenty to the People of Ireland.

A Bounty granted by Great Britain upon the Importation of Flax-ſeed, is ſo marked a Recommendation of the Linen Manufacture, that it becomes needleſs for me to urge the moſt perſevering Application to that Staple of your Country.

The Proteſtant Charter-Schools, an Inſtitution eſtabliſhed on the Principles of Wiſdom and Humanity, and ſo peculiarly adapted to the preſent State and Circumſtances of this Kingdom, are eminently intitled to your Conſideration and Care.

On my Part, you may be aſſured, that I ſhall continue faithfully to repreſent your Loyalty and Zeal to his Majeſty, and that I ſhall chearfully co-operate with you in whatever may tend to advance the Proſperity and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered, and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Biſhops' Bench.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table;

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

The Houſe was moved to reſolve, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to aſſure his Majeſty of our unalterable Loyalty to, and unſhaken Zeal for, his Royal Perſon and Family.

To expreſs the juſt Senſe we feel of his parental Indulgence to us, in continuing in the Government of this Kingdom, his Excellency Simon Earl Harcourt, who, from a three Years' conſtant Reſidence among us, and the affectionate Regard which he has during that Period, on every Occaſion, manifeſted towards this Country, muſt be juſtly conſidered by us, not only as moſt capable, but as moſt ready, to make a true Repreſentation of our Attachment to his Majeſty's Government.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we entertain the moſt grateful Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under his mild and firm Government; and that he may intirely rely on our Zeal and Loyalty, that whilſt his Government is diſturbed by a Rebellion exiſting in a Part of his American Dominions, we ſhall ever be ready to ſhew our inviolable Attachment to his Perſon and Government, in the Aſſertion of his juſt Rights, and in the Support of his legal Authority.

To expreſs the Gratitude with which we are penetrated, at the tender Concern which his Majeſty has ſhewn for the Welfare of this Kingdom, manifeſted by the ſeveral Laws which have been paſſed in the Britiſh Parliament, highly beneficial to our Commerce, our Manufactures, and our Agriculture.

To aſſure his Majeſty of our moſt earneſt Attention to the Improvement of Advantages, tending ſo obviouſly to promote our Navigation and Trade, which muſt ariſe from an Act which extends the great Benefits of the Britiſh Fiſheries to Ireland; Benefits which have been the Source of Induſtry and Wealth to other Nations, and which have rendered them great and flouriſhing.

To expreſs the Satisfaction and Thankfulneſs with which we receive that particular Mark of Royal Favour, the paſſing the Act which allows the Clothing and Accoutrements neceſſary for his Majeſty's Forces, paid from the Revenues of this Kingdom, to be exported from Ireland; and that we have the utmoſt Confidence, that the Act which allows the Importation of Rape-Seed to Great-Britain from this Kingdom, under certain Regulations, will, connected with thoſe ſalutary Laws, paſſed in this Kingdom during the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, form ſuch a Syſtem of Agriculture and Improvement, as we truſt may ſecure Riches and Plenty to the People of Ireland.

To acknowledge with Gratitude, that marked Recommendation of the Linen Manufacture, the Bounty granted by Great Britain upon the Importation of Flax-Seed into Ireland, which cannot fail of impreſſing upon us, the Expediency of a moſt perſevering Application to the Staple of this Country.

To expreſs our Sentiments, that the Proteſtant Charter-Schools are eminently intitled to our Conſideration and Care; and to aſſure his Majeſty, that as they claim, ſo ſhall they meet with, our utmoſt Protection and Aſſiſtance.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that, truly ſenſible of his conſtant and uniform Attention to the ſtrict Preſervation of our Laws and Liberties, we ſhall always be ready to ſhew the moſt dutiful Attachment to his Royal Perſon and Government, and ever exert the moſt effectual Zeal for the Support of the Honour and Dignity of his Crown; certain, that, by ſuch Conduct, we ſhall enſure to ourſelves a Continuation of his Majeſty's paternal Favour and Protection, the ſure Means, we find, of making us an happy, and eſtabliſhing us an opulent and flouriſhing People.

The

The first and second Paragraphs being read at the Table, and the Question thereon being severally put, were agreed to by the House.

Debate thereon:

The third Paragraph being then read, a Debate arose thereupon; and the Question being put, Whether the said Paragraph should stand Part of the said Resolution?

The House divided; and the Earl of Tyrone reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 31; and the Not-Contents in the House were 4;

It was resolved in the Affirmative.

Amendment proposed:

The following Amendment was then proposed:

" To assure your Majesty, that equally " zealous for the Preservation of the Rights " of your Crown, and for the Liberties and " Privileges of all the Parts which compose " your extended Empire, and for that firm " Union of the Whole, which can never be " maintained but by just Regard to both these " Objects, we the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, cannot see, " without the utmost Concern, the unhappy " Differences which now subsist between the " Parliament of Great Britain and your " American Colonies, and which are now " grown to such a Height, as to threaten " Consequences fatal to all your Majesty's " Dominions.

" That full of Confidence in your Majesty's " unlimited paternal Tenderness for all your " Subjects, and relying on the Resources of " your Royal Wisdom for bringing these " difficult Matters to a happy Issue, we have " been hitherto absolutely silent during the " long Agitation of a Dispute which must " be interesting to all your Majesty's Subjects.

" That finding the Event not answerable " to the Rectitude of your Majesty's Intentions, we should think ourselves wanting in " our Duty to your Majesty, and in regard to " our own particular as well as to the general " Welfare, if we delayed to offer up our ardent " Wishes, That Differences, which cannot " fail being attended by the most fatal Consequences, may be terminated without further Effusion of Blood.

" That we further assure your Majesty, that " we shall ever retain the warmest Sentiments " of Loyalty to your Majesty, and of Affection " to our Sister Kingdom; and that we shall " never be backward in the Support of your " Majesty's just Prerogative."

A Debate arose thereupon, and the Question being put, the House divided; and the Earl of Roden reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 4; and the Not-Contents in the House were 30;

It passed in the Negative. negatived.

The remaining Paragraphs of the said Resolution being then read, and the Question thereon severally put, were agreed to by the House.

Ordered, that the Earl of Tyrone, and all the Lords present, shall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Address, pursuant to the foregoing Resolution, and all Lords who shall please to come to the said Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordships, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the House of Peers, adjourn as they please, and report.

Resolution for Address to Lord Lieutenant.

Resolved, that an humble Address be presented to his Excellency Simon Earl Harcourt, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, to return his Excellency our Thanks for his Speech delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houses of Parliament.

Ordered, that the Lord Visc. Ligonier, and all the Lords present, shall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Address, pursuant to the foregoing Resolution; and all Lords who shall please to come to the said Committee are to have Voices therein.

The remaining Paragraphs of the ſaid Addreſs being then read, and the Queſtion thereon ſeverally put, were agreed to by by the Houſe.

The ſaid Addreſs is as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do moſt humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our unalterable Loyalty to, and undiminiſhed Zeal for, your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

We return your Majeſty our ſincereſt Thanks, for continuing his Excellency Simon Earl Harcourt in the Government of this Kingdom, whoſe diſtinguiſhed Merit in the high Stations he has filled, whoſe eminent Virtues and exalted Character, as well as a moſt affectionate Regard to the Welfare of this Country, uniformly manifeſted by him during a three Years' conſtant Reſidence amongſt us, leave us no reaſon to doubt that he will, at all times, make a juſt and effectual Repreſentation of us to your Majeſty.

We beſeech your Majeſty to believe, that we are filled with a juſt and lively Gratitude for the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your mild and firm Government; and your Majeſty may rely on our unfeigned Zeal and unſhaken Loyalty, that whilſt your Government is diſturbed by a Rebellion exiſting in a Part of your American Dominions, which we cannot hear of but with the utmoſt Abhorrence and Indignation, we ſhall ever be ready to ſhew our moſt inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, in the Aſſertion of your juſt Rights, and the Support of your legal Authority.

We moſt ſenſibly feel the tender Concern which your Majeſty has graciouſly ſhewn for the Welfare of this Kingdom, manifeſted by the ſeveral Laws paſſed in the Britiſh Parliament, highly advantageous to our Commerce, our Manufactures, and our Agriculture.

We are truly grateful for the Act which extends the great Advantages of the Britiſh Fiſheries to Ireland, whereby a Source of Induſtry and Wealth is opened to us, which has made other Nations great and flouriſhing: And it ſhall be our conſtant Endeavour to improve Advantages tending ſo obviouſly to promote our Navigation and Trade.

We beg Leave to expreſs our higheſt Satisfaction and Thankfulneſs, for that particular Mark of your Majeſty's Royal Favour, the paſſing the Act which allows the Clothing and Accoutrements neceſſary for your Majeſty's Forces, paid from the Revenues of this Kingdom, to be exported from Ireland; and we have the utmoſt Confidence, that the Act which allows the Importation of Rape-Seed into Great Britain from this Kingdom, under certain Regulations, will, connected with thoſe ſalutary Laws paſſed in this Kingdom during the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, form ſuch a Syſtem of Agriculture and Improvement, as, we truſt, will ſecure Riches and Plenty to the People of Ireland.

We acknowledge, with Gratitude, the Bounty granted by Great Britain upon the Importation of Flax-Seed into Ireland, which we conſider as ſo marked a Recommendation of the Linen Manufacture, as muſt engage us in the moſt perſevering Application to that Staple of this Country.

We conſider your Majeſty's gracious Recommendation of the Proteſtant Charter-Schools, as a ſtrong Proof of your Attention to the eſtabliſhed Religion of this Country; and as we are convinced, that they are eminently entitled to our Conſideration and Care, they ſhall certainly meet with our utmoſt Protection and Aſſiſtance.

We beg Leave moſt ſincerely to aſſure your Majeſty, that truly ſenſible of your conſtant and uniform Attention to the ſtrict Preſervation of our Laws and Liberties, we ſhall be always ready to teſtify our moſt dutiful Attachment to your Royal Perſon, Family and Government; and to exert the moſt cordial Zeal in Support of the Honour and Dignity of your Crown; certain that, by ſuch Conduct, we ſhall enſure to ourſelves and our Poſterity, a Continuation of that uninterrupted Protection and Favour, which your Subjects of this Kingdom have univerſally experienced under the Government of your Majeſty; convinced that in the mild and juſt Reign of the beſt of Sovereigns, we cannot fail of becoming a happy and flouriſhing People.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieuteuant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

The Lord Viſc. Ligonier reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency

SIMON Earl HARCOURT,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return your Excellency our unfeigned Thanks for your Speech from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament: And we beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency, that we feel ourſelves exceedingly happy in the favourable Opinion which your Excellency hath conceived of us, and in that Satisfaction with which your Excellency is pleaſed to declare you meet us again in Parliament.

We flatter ourſelves, that your Excellency's Reſidence amongſt us for three Years, which hath formed an Impreſſion upon your Mind ſo favourable to us, and hath afforded your Excellency ſuch a competent Knowledge of the Circumſtances of this Country, will be propitious to the Intereſts of it: And that impreſſed, as we are, with a grateful Senſe of your Excellency's ſucceſsful Endeavours to promote the Proſperity of this Kingdom, which have been manifeſted by the Advantages which our Commerce, Manufactures and Agriculture have received, we cannot but think ourſelves moſt happy under your Excellency's Adminiſtration.

The late Acts paſſed in the Britiſh Parliament, ſo highly beneficial to this Kingdom, which your Excellency is pleaſed to take Notice of, in a Manner expreſſive of your good Wiſhes and kind Concern for us, fill our Minds with Gratitude; and the Reflection, that they have paſſed during your Excellency's Government, yields us the beſt-grounded Aſſurances, that your Excellency's juſt and favourable Repreſentations of us, together with your good Offices and kind Interpoſitions, have not been wanting in our Favour.

On our Part, we beg your Excellency to accept of our grateful Acknowledgments; and we think it but juſt to aſſure your Excellency, as we now do, that as it is our Duty, ſo it will be our Inclination, to co-operate with you, in promoting thoſe great Objects recommended to us by your Excellency from the Throne; and that we will cordially concur with your Excellency in ſuch Meaſures, as may conduce to the Happineſs of this Kingdom, and the Honour and Eaſe of your Excellency's Adminiſtration.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that in obedience to their Lordſhips' Order, he had waited upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he would pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency; and his Excellency was pleaſed to appoint To-morrow, at Two o'clock, at the Caſtle.

HARCOURT.

My Lords,

Meſſage from Lord Lieutenant.

I HAVE his Majeſty's Commands to acquaint you, that the Situation of Affairs in Part of his American Dominions, is ſuch as makes it neceſſary for the Honour and Safety of the Britiſh Empire, and for the Support of his Majeſty's juſt Rights, to deſire the Concurrence of his faithful Parliament of Ireland, in ſending out of this Kingdom a Force not exceeding 4000 Men, Part of the Number of Troops upon this Eſtabliſhment appointed to remain in this Kingdom for its Defence; and to declare to you his Majeſty's moſt gracious Intention, that ſuch Part of his Army as ſhall be ſpared out of this Kingdom to anſwer the preſent Exigency of Affairs, is not to be continued a Charge upon this Eſtabliſhment, ſo long as they ſhall remain out of this Kingdom.

I am further commanded to inform you, that as his Majeſty hath nothing more at Heart, than the Security and Protection of his People of Ireland, it is his Intention, if it ſhall be the Deſire of Parliament, to replace ſuch Forces as may be ſent out of this Kingdom, by an equal Number of Foreign Proteſtant Troops, as ſoon as his Majeſty ſhall be enabled ſo to do; the Charge of ſuch Troops to be defrayed, without any Expenſe to this Kingdom.

This Day the Right Hon. Andrew-Thomas Lord Baron Caſtle-Stewart ſat firſt in Parliament upon the Death of the late Lord Baron Caſtle-Stewart, and delivered his Writ in the accuſtomed Manner, and came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

Ordered, that the Order for calling over this Houſe be adjourned till To-morrow.

Then the Houſe proceeded to take his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Meſſage to this Houſe, of Thurſday laſt, into Conſideration;

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

And a Reſolution being propoſed, That an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to aſſure his Majeſty of our Zeal at all Times for the Support of his Majeſty's juſt Rights, and for the Honour and Safety of the Britiſh Empire. To expreſs the ready and chearful Concurrence of this Houſe, in ſending out of this Kingdom a Force, not exceeding 4000 Men, Part of the Troops upon this Eſtabliſhment, appointed to remain in this Kingdom for its Defence. To acknowledge his Majeſty's paternal Regard to the Eaſe and Relief of this Country, manifeſted in his Majeſty's moſt gracious Intention, that ſuch Part of his Army as ſhall be ſpared out of this Kingdom during the preſent Exigency, is not to be continued a Charge upon this Eſtabliſhment, ſo long as they ſhall remain out of this Kingdom. To return his Majeſty our ſincere Thanks for his gracious Declaration, That he hath nothing more at Heart than the Security and Protection of his People of Ireland, of which his Majeſty has given a ſignal Proof, by his Offer, "If it "ſhall be the Deſire of Parliament to replace "ſuch Forces as may be ſent out of this King-"dom, by an equal Number of foreign Pro-"teſtant Troops, the Charge thereof to be "defrayed, without any Expenſe to this King-"dom." And to expreſs, that fully ſenſible of his Majeſty's benevolent Attention to the Security and Protection of his People of Ireland, this Houſe, confiding in the Vigilance and Care of Government, and truſting, that, with its Aſſiſtance, his Majeſty's loyal People of Ireland may be able ſo to exert themſelves, as to make ſuch Aid at this Juncture unneceſſary, do, with all humble Duty and Reſpect, agree not to deſire, that the 4000 Troops which may be ſent out of this Kingdom in the preſent Exigency, ſhould be replaced, as mentioned in his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Meſſage to this Houſe.

Amendment propoſed:

An Amendment was propoſed to the ſaid Reſolution, by leaving out the Word "not" after the Word "agree."

Debate.

A Debate aroſe thereupon:

And the Queſtion being put, That the Word "not" ſtand Part of the ſaid Reſolution;

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

A Motion being then made, That the ſaid Reſolution ſhould ſtand, without any Amendment:

A Debate aroſe thereupon, and the Queſtion being put, the Houſe divided; and the Earl of Tyrone reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 37; and the Not-Contents in the Houſe were 7:

Proxies being called for, and read over by the Clerk, the Lord Chancellor declared, that the Contents, with the Proxies, were 45; and the Not-Contents were 7;

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

DISSENTIENT:

Proteſt.

BECAUSE we conceive, that the whole Standing Force of this Kingdom is requiſite for its Defence, in the preſent critical Situation of Affairs in Europe, where every Circumſtance ſeems to threaten a general War, eſpecially as by ſending her Forces to America, England will not be in a Condition to ſupport us, in Caſe of Invaſion or of any other Emergency; and in this Belief we think ourſelves more eſpecially warranted, inaſmuch as we conceive, that his Majeſty, by his Application to us to augment our Army, ſo as that 12,000 Men ſhould always remain in Ireland, an Application made in the Time of publick Quiet and general Security, appears plainly to have been of the ſame Opinion.

Becauſe, having thought and determined that 12,000 Men ſhould always remain in this Kingdom for the Defence thereof, except in Caſe of Invaſion or Rebellion in Great Britain, we ſee no Reaſon to alter that Opinion, or to create a Precedent for diminiſhing that Number, when there is manifeſtly no Invaſion or Rebellion in Great Britain; and when the Danger of an Invaſion in this Country is increaſed, and not diminiſhed.

Becauſe that we have reaſon to apprehend, that our Army is far from being complete, and that there are not at preſent in this Kingdom more than 10,000 effective Men; we muſt therefore think a Meaſure inadmiſſible, which would reduce our Defence to 6000 Men, a Number leſs by one half than what in Times of perfect Tranquillity was by the three Branches of the Legiſlature deemed neceſſary to our Safety.

Becauſe that though America be not expreſsly mentioned in his Majeſty's Meſſage or in the Reſolution founded thereon, we conceive, that as Great Britain is not at preſent engaged in any foreign War, the Troops now required, can be deſtined only for the American Conteſt, a Service in which we would not chooſe to engage our Country, for the following Reaſons:

That without Parliamentary Informations we do not think an abſolute Deciſion on the Conteſt of Great Britain, with her Colonies, conformable to the Dignity or Juſtice of this Houſe.

That,

That, with the profoundeſt Reſpect for the Rights of the Crown and the moſt ſincere Attachment to the Perſon of our Sovereign, we are prohibited by the Principles upon which the glorious Revolution was founded, from adjudging Reſiſtance to Royal Authority in all poſſible Caſes, Rebellion: And in the preſent Caſe, not having been informed in a Parliamentary Manner, of the Riſe and Progreſs of this unhappy Conteſt, we ſhould think ourſelves unjuſt and precipitate, if thus uninformed, we ſhould condemn the Americans to the Point of the Sword.

That, if we were to determine upon what we have heard and read out of Doors, we ſee nothing, as yet, to juſtify the Conduct of Adminiſtration, in the Commencement or Progreſs of the American War, but muſt condemn its Object, and lament its Duration.

That at preſent we muſt conceive, that the Object of this War was the Eſtabliſhment of the Power of the Britiſh Parliament to tax America; a Power which, we know, is not inherent in the general Conſtitution of the Britiſh Empire; and we have as yet ſeen no Charter or written Conſent to make it the particular Conſtitution of America.

That, conſidering that Grants and Subſidies are the great Bond of Affection between Prince and People, that National Bounty is only abundant and dignified, when the ſpontaneous Offering of a free People, that the arbitrary levying of Money is contrary to all Freedom, and particularly to all Engliſh Ideas of Freedom, we are not ſurpriſed to hear, that ſuch Attempt has been reſiſted by a Nation born of Britain, warmed by her Principles, and taught by her Example.

As we cannot approve of the Motive upon which this War was commenced, ſo we would not wiſh to contribute to its Continuation. The waſting of the Britiſh Strength, the Sufferings of her Commerce, and all the increaſing Calamities of Civil War, being in our Minds, ſtrong and melancholy Arguments againſt perſiſting in an unnatural Conteſt, whoſe Object has not as yet appeared to us to be either juſt or productive.

In the preſent Stage of this Conteſt, we conceive Coalition to be neceſſary and practicable; and would not wiſh to render ſuch Coalition difficult or deſperate, by perſiſting in the Meaſures which occaſioned the War, and by a farther Effuſion of Blood; and conceiving new Embarkations no Step to that Coalition, for which we ſo ardently wiſh, We, upon the ſoundeſt Principles of Peace and Liberty, proteſt againſt ſuch new Embarkations, which by feeding the Acrimony of Civil War, may render the Breach irreparable, and multiply Calamities, not only upon the Colonies, but upon the Mother-Country alſo. And although we might be induced to ſuffer any Inconvenience, by ſending a Proportion of our neceſſary Forces to facilitate the Acceptance of ſuch reaſonable and conſtitutional Propoſitions, as might put a Period to the preſent unnatural and ruinous War; yet we conceive, that it would be in the higheſt Degree imprudent to ſtrengthen the Hands of the preſent Adminiſtration, before we are in any way certified, that ſuch Plan of Reconciliation be adopted.

Heads of Bill to prevent Tumults, &c.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that the Judges, according to Order, had prepared Heads of a Bill to prevent and puniſh tumultuous Riſings of Perſons within this Kingdom, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned; which were received, and read a firſt time.

Ordered, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be read a ſecond time on Wedneſday next.

Ordered, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

The Earl of Tyrone reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and alſo read, Paragraph by Paragraph.

And a Debate ariſing thereupon, and the Queſtion being put, Whether the ſaid Addreſs ſhould ſtand the Addreſs of this Houſe?

The Houſe divided; and the Earl of Bellamont reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 25; and the Not-Contents in the Houſe were 3;

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

The ſaid Addreſs is as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do moſt humbly aſſure your Majeſty of our Zeal at all Times for the Support of your Majeſty's juſt Rights, and for the Honour and Safety of the Britiſh Empire.

We do moſt firmly expreſs to your Majeſty, our ready and chearful Concurrence in your Majeſty's ſending out of this Kingdom a Force not exceeding 4000 Men, Part of the Troops upon this Eſtabliſhment, appointed to remain in this Kingdom for its Defence.

We cannot but acknowledge, with Gratitude, your Majeſty's paternal Regard to the Eaſe and Relief of this Country, manifeſted in your Majeſty's moſt gracious Intention, That ſuch Part of your Majeſty's Army as ſhall be ſpared out of this Kingdom, during the preſent Exigency, is not to be continued a Charge upon this Eſtabliſhment, ſo long as they ſhall remain out of this Kingdom.

We beg your Majeſty to accept our ſincere Thanks for your gracious Declaration, That you have nothing more at Heart, than the Security and Protection of your People of Ireland, of which your Majeſty hath given a ſignal Proof, by your gracious Offer, " If it " ſhall be the Deſire of Parliament to replace " ſuch Forces as may be ſent out of this " Kingdom by an equal Number of foreign " Proteſtant

" Proteſtant Troops, the Charge thereof to " be defrayed without any Expenſe to this " Kingdom."

And we beg Leave, in Anfwer to this gracious Offer of your Majeſty, to declare, That fully ſenſible of your Majeſty's benevolent Attention to the Security and Protection of your People of Ireland, confiding in the Care and Vigilance of Government, and truſting that, with its Aſſiſtance, your Majeſty's loyal People of Ireland may be able ſo to exert themſelves, as to make ſuch Aid at this Juncture unneceſſary: We do, with all humble Duty and Reſpect, agree, after mature Conſideration, not to deſire that the 4000 Troops, which may be ſent out of this Kingdom, ſhould be ſo replaced.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that in obedience to their Lordſhips' Order, he had waited upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he would pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty; and his Excellency was pleaſed to appoint To-morrow, at Two o'clock, at the Caſtle.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

Ordered, that the further reading of the Standing Orders of this House be adjourned till the first Meeting after the Recess.

The House was adjourned during Pleasure, and put into a Committee, upon Heads of a Bill to prevent and punish tumultuous Risings of Persons within this Kingdom, and for other Purposes therein mentioned; and after some time spent therein,

The House was resumed: And the Lord Visc. Ranelagh reported from the Committee, that they had made some further Progress in the Consideration of the said Heads of a Bill, and that he was directed to move the House for Leave to sit again.

Resolved, that this House shall be put into a Committee on Monday next, to take the said Heads of a Bill into further Consideration.

Ordered, that all Lords in and about the Town, be summoned to attend the Service of this House on Monday next.

Petition of Viscount Valentia &c.

A Petition of the Right Hon. Arthur Lord Visc. Valentia, Lucy Lady Viscountess Valentia his Wife, and of the Hon. George Annesley, Juliana-Lucy Annesley, Thomas-Littleton Annesley and Charles-Henry Annesley, Minors, under the Age of twenty-one Years, by the said Arthur Lord Visc. Valentia their Father and next Friend, and of Robert Phaire, Esq; and the Hon. Lady Richarda his Wife, John Toole, Esq; and the Hon. Lady Catharine his Wife, Richard Annesley, Esq; Juliana Countess Dowager of Anglesey, and of the Right Hon. Constantine Lord Baron Mulgrave, setting forth, that upon the Death of the Right Hon. Arthur the fifth Earl of Anglesey, his Titles of Honour did descend to the Right Hon. Richard then Lord Baron Altham and afterwards Earl of Anglesey, who then was the Grandson and Heir-Male of the Body of the Right Hon. Arthur the first Earl of Anglesey; and several Controversies did arise between the said Richard Earl of Anglesey and Charles Annesley, Esq; who was also the Grandson of the said Arthur the first Earl of Anglesey, concerning their respective Titles and Claims to the Family-Estate, which at length were compromised between them: And by Articles, bearing Date the 16th Day of June, in the Year 1737, it was agreed, that the said Charles Annesley should convey all his Right to the Family-Estate in Great Britain and Wales and Camolin Park, and the Woods thereon in the Co. Wexford, to the said Richard Earl of Anglesey and his Heirs; and that Lands of the yearly Value of £200 Sterl. should be set out and granted to the said Charles Annesley and his Heirs; and that the Woods should be equally divided between them; and that two Third Parts of the Remainder of the said Estate in Ireland should be settled upon the said Richard Earl of Anglesey for Life, Remainder to his first and other Sons in Tail-Male, Remainder to the said Charles Annesley for Life, Remainder to his first and other Sons in Tail-Male, Remainder to the said Richard Earl of Anglesey and his Heirs for ever: And that the remaining Third Part of the said Estate in Ireland should be settled upon the said Charles Annesley for Life, Remainder to his first and other Sons in Tail-Male, Remainder to the said Richard Earl of Anglesey for Life, Remainder to his first and other Sons in Tail-Male, Remainder to the said Charles Annesley and his Heirs for ever, with Power to the said Richard Earl of Anglesey and Charles Annesley, respectively, to make Leases, settle Jointures, and to charge Portions for younger Children.

Children. And it was agreed, that the Shares of the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey and Charles Anneſley, in the ſaid Eſtate ſhould ſtand charged proportionably with the Jointure of the Ducheſs of Buckingham, (who was the Widow of James the third Earl of Angleſey) and with the Portion of Lady Catherine the Daughter of the ſaid James Earl of Angleſey, and all other Incumbrances affecting the ſaid Eſtate: And the ſaid Agreement was eſtabliſhed by the Decree of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, on or about the 28th Day of February in the Year 1740; and the ſaid Decree was, upon an Appeal, affirmed by the Houſe of Lords of Great Britain, on or about the 10th Day of March, 1741; and in or about Trinity Term, in the 17th and 18th Years of the Reign of his late Majeſty George II. ſeveral Common Recoveries were ſuffered of the ſaid Eſtate by the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey and Charles Anneſley.

That the ſaid Charles Anneſley died without Iſſue in or about the Month of February, in the Year 1746; and all his Right to the Angleſey Eſtate afterwards became veſted in Richard Levinge of the City of Dublin, Eſq; who is the only Child and perſonal Repreſentative of Dame Mary Levinge deceaſed, who was the Widow, Deviſee and ſole Executrix of the ſaid Charles Anneſley: And by Deeds of Leaſe and Releaſe, bearing Date reſpectively the 30th and 31ſt Days of May, in the Year 1758, the ſaid Richard Levinge did grant and convey all his Right to the Angleſey Eſtate (ſuch Parts thereof as had been granted by the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey to the ſaid Dame Mary Levinge and Richard Levinge reſpectively, only excepted) unto or in Truſt for the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey, his Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns: And the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey did covenant and agree to indemnify that Part of the Angleſey Eſtate, which had been by him granted to the ſaid Dame Mary Levinge and Richard Levinge reſpectively, off from and againſt all Demands of the Repreſentatives of the ſaid Ducheſs of Buckingham and of the ſaid Lady Catherine her Daughter, and all other Incumbrances.

That by a Decree made on or about the 22d Day of November, in the Year 1738, in the ſaid Court of Chancery, the Sum of £20,413 : 14*s*. 1*d*. was decreed to remain due to the Repreſentatives of the ſaid Ducheſs of Buckingham, and to be and remain a Charge and chargeable upon the Angleſey Eſtate or ſome Part thereof, and to be paid with Intereſt.

That the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey did duly make and publiſh his Laſt Will and Teſtament, bearing Date the 7th Day of April, in the Year 1759, and did thereby bequeath all his perſonal Eſtate, exempt from the Payment of his Debts, to the Petitioner Juliana Counteſs Dowager of Angleſey; and did deviſe all his real Eſtate charged and chargeable with the Payment of his Debts, Daughters Portions and Legacies, to certain Truſtees and their Heirs, in Truſt to pay one Annuity of £1000 Sterl. to the Petitioner Juliana Counteſs Dowager of Angleſey for Life, and chargeable, as aforeſaid, to the Petitioner Arthur Lord Viſc. Valentia for Life, Remainder to his firſt and other Sons in Tail-Male, Remainder to the ſecond and other Sons of the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey in Tail-Male, Remainder to his Daughters by the Petitioner Juliana Counteſs Dowager of Angleſey in Tail-general, Remainder to the Petitioner Richard Anneſley and the Heirs Male of his Body, Remainder to the Right Heirs of the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey, and Power was thereby given to the Petitioner Arthur Lord Viſc. Valentia to charge the ſaid Eſtate with a Jointure not exceeding £2000 per Ann. and with Portions for younger Children, not exceeding £20,000 Sterl. And the ſaid Teſtator did thereby direct, that the Woods upon the ſaid Eſtate (Camolin Park excepted) ſhould be ſold, and the Money ariſing by the Sale thereof, and alſo the Rents of the ſaid Eſtate during the Minority of the Petitioner Arthur Lord Viſc. Valentia, after ſatisfying the annual Outgoings ſhould be applied in Eaſe and Exoneration of the ſaid Eſtate; and alſo for any Service to be done or performed by any Perſon or Perſons in the Execution of his Will; and the ſaid Teſtator did give and deviſe the Sum of £4000 to the Petitioner Lady Richarda Phaire; and the Sum of £3500 to his Daughter Lady Juliana ſince deceaſed; and the Sum of £3500 to the Petitioner Lady Catherine Toole, for their reſpective Portions; and the Sum of £1000 Sterl. to the Petitioner Arthur Anneſley; and ſome other ſmall Legacies, which ſince his Death have been paid; and did charge the ſame upon his real Eſtate; and appointed the Petitioner Juliana Counteſs Dowager of Angleſey ſole Executrix of his Will.

That the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey died on the 14th Day of February, in the Year 1761, leaving the Petitioner Arthur Lord Viſcount Valentia his only Son and Heir, and the Petitioners Lady Richarda Phaire and Lady Catharine Toole, and the ſaid Lady Juliana, his only Daughters by the Petitioner Juliana Counteſs Dowager of Angleſey; and the ſaid Lady Juliana inter-married with Frederick Flood, Eſq; and is ſince dead, without Iſſue.

That the ſaid Decree, obtained by the Repreſentatives of the ſaid Ducheſs of Buckingham againſt the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey, was revived and a Suit inſtituted againſt him by the Repreſentatives of the ſaid Lady Catherine the Daughter of the ſaid James the third Earl of Angleſey, was alſo revived; and by a final Decree, made by the ſaid Court of Chancery, on the 10th Day of December, in the Year 1761, the Sum of £21,204 : 6*s*. 1*d*. was decreed to the Repreſentatives of the ſaid Ducheſs of Buckingham; and by another final Decree, made by the ſame Court, on the ſame Day, the Sum of £37,300 : 17*s*. 8*d*. was decreed to the Repreſentatives of the ſaid Lady Catharine, which Sums amount together to the Sum of of £58,505 : 3s. 9d. and remain a Charge upon the Angleſey Eſtate: And the Petitioner Conſtantine Lord Mulgrave is now intitled to the ſame, and is alſo the Heir-general of the firſt five ſucceſſive Earls of Angleſey.

That by Articles, bearing Date the 9th Day of May, in the Year 1767, made in Contemplation of a Marriage ſince had between the Petitioners Lord and Lady Valentia, the Petitioner Arthur Lord Viſc. Valentia did charge the ſaid Eſtate with a Jointure of £2000 ℔ Ann. for the Petitioner Lady Viſcounteſs Valentia, and with a Sum of £20,000 for Portions for younger Children; and the Petitioners Lord and Lady Valentia have Iſſue the Petitioners George Anneſley, Juliana-Lucy Anneſley, Thomas-Littleton Anneſley and Charles Henry Anneſley, and no other Iſſue.

That the Woods upon the ſaid Eſtate have been ſold, and the Money ariſing by the Sale thereof and the Rents which accrued out of the ſaid Eſtate, during the Minority of the Petitioner Arthur Lord Viſc. Valentia, have been applied and exhauſted in the Payment of Annuities, the Intereſt of Charges affecting the ſaid Eſtate, and Part of the Legacies bequeathed by the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey, and the Coſts and Expenſes of various Conteſts concerning the Title of the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey: And the ſaid Charge of £58,505 : 3s. 9d. and the Portions of the Daughters of the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey, amounting to the Sum of £11,000, and the Coſts of the ſaid Suits ſtill remain unpaid, and are a Charge and chargeable upon his real Eſtate, and cannot be paid, otherwiſe than by a Sale of a competent Part thereof for that Purpoſe; and it is for the Advantage of all Parties intereſted in the ſaid Eſtate, either in Poſſeſſion or Expectancy, that the Charges thereon ſhall be forthwith paid, without further Coſts or Expenſes; and after the Sale of a competent Part of the ſaid Eſtate, to anſwer the Purpoſes aforeſaid, the Remainder thereof will be abundantly more than ſufficient to anſwer the Jointures of the Petitioners Juliana Counteſs Dowager of Angleſey and Lucy Lady Viſcounteſs Valentia, and the Charge of £20,000 for the younger Children of the Petitioners Lord and Lady Valentia, and all other Outgoings.

That a Doubt hath been conceived, Whether by Virtue of the ſaid Articles of the 16th June, 1737, the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey, was not in Equity, Tenant for his Life only, and diſabled to induce any Charge upon the ſaid Eſtate for the Payment of his Debts or the Portions of his Daughters, but the Petitioner Arthur Lord Viſc. Valentia is deſirous, that all the Debts of the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey and the Portions of his Daughters, and all other Incumbrances, charged or chargeable upon the ſaid Eſtate, ſhall be paid by Mortgage or Sale of a competent Part thereof; and that the Remainder of the ſaid Eſtate, ſubject to the Jointures of the Petitioners Juliana Counteſs Dowager of Angleſey and Lucy Viſcounteſs Valentia, and the Portions of the younger Children of the Petitioners Lord and Lady Valentia, ſhall enure to the ſame Uſes as are appointed of and concerning the ſaid Eſtate, in and by the ſaid Laſt Will and Teſtament of the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey, which cannot be ſo effectually done as by the Aid of Parliament:

And praying their Lordſhips to give Leave that Heads of a Bill may be introduced for veſting the Eſtate in Ireland, whereof the ſaid Richard Earl of Angleſey died ſeized, in Truſtees, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill, according to the Prayer of the ſaid Petition.

Judges to report on temporary Laws.

Frederick Flood, Eſq; Francis Larkin, Jack Hatton and Emanuel Bigley, were by order called to the Bar, and ſeverally ſworn to give their Teſtimony before the ſelect Committee, to whom the Conſideration of Heads of a Bill for veſting certain Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, late the Eſtate of the Right Hon. Richard Earl of Angleſey, in Truſtees, for raiſing a ſufficient Sum of Money for diſcharging the Debts, Legacies and Incumbrances affecting the ſame, and other Purpoſes, was committed.

Upon reading the Order for the Day,

The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Conſideration of Heads of a Bill to prevent and puniſh tumultuous Riſings of Perſons within this Kingdom, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, was committed; that they had gone through the ſaid Heads of a Bill, with ſeveral Amendments, which were afterwards read at the Table; and the Queſtion being thereupon ſeverally put, were agreed to by the Houſe. Heads of Bill to prevent Tumults, &c.

The ſaid Heads of a Bill were then, by Order, read a third time.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Earl of Tyrone do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and deſire the ſame may be tranſmitted into Great Britain, in due Form. Order'd to Lord Lieutenant.

Petitions of Officers, &c. of Houſe.

A Petition of the Clerk of the Parliaments, Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and the Serjeant at Arms, in behalf of themſelves and the other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe:

Humbly beſeeching their Lordſhips to take them into Conſideration, and to grant them ſuch Recompenſe for their Attendance and Service this preſent Seſſion of Parliament; alſo to grant to the Clerk of the Parliaments for his Attendance on, and keeping Fires in, the Parliament-Office, and the Rooms thereunto adjoining, wherein are now kept the Parliamentary Books and Records, by Order of this Houſe, during the laſt Interval of Parliament, as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom and Goodneſs ſhall ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Ordered, that Lords' Committees be appointed to take the ſaid Petition into Conſideration, and that the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh, and all the Lords preſent, be the ſaid Committee; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet on Friday next, at Twelve o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

King of Arms.

Alſo, a Petition of William Hawkins, Eſq; Ulſter King of Arms of all Ireland, humbly praying their Lordſhips to grant him ſuch Recompenſe for his Service and Attendance this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, ſhall ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Petition be referred to the Lords' Committees, to whom the Petition of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and the other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, is referred.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the Memorial of Mrs. Elizabeth Molloy, preſented to the Houſe laſt Seſſion of Parliament, be referred to the Lords' Committees, to whom the Petition of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and the other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, is referred.

Gate-keeper,

A Petition of Richard Norman, ſetting forth, that he has been Gate-keeper to their Lordſhips theſe thirteen Years, at the ſmall Salary of £26 : 8*s*. each Seſſion.

That the Duty of Gate-keeper requires conſtant Attendance, and is alſo obliged to employ and pay an Aſſiſtant out of his ſmall

and

Salary, to enable him to keep the Paſſage clean and free from Mob, for their Lordſhips' paſſing and repaſſing.

That the Petitioner humbly preſumes the Cauſe of his Salary being ſo inadequate to his Duty, is, that the Petitioner is paid by the Gentleman-Uſher, who cannot reward him, but as he receives it by Order from the Right Hon. Privy Council:

And praying their Lordſhips to have him included in the King's Letter with the other Servants attending their Lordſhips, for the Payment of his Salary; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Petition be referred to the Lords' Committees, to whom the Petition of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and the other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, is referred.

William Richey.

Alſo, a Petition of William Richey, ſetting forth, that he has attended the Right Hon. the Houſe of Lords, as a Meſſenger, ever ſince it was rebuilt.

That the Petitioner, ſome Years ago, finding himſelf growing infirm, made over his Meſſenger's Place to his Son Thomas Richey deceaſed, who attended their Lordſhips for ſome Seſſions paſt: That by a Special Deed, the ſaid Thomas Richey was obliged to give the Petitioner the whole Salary during his Life; and in Caſe of the Petitioner's Death, the ſaid Thomas Richey was likewiſe obliged to allow the Petitioner's Wife £10 a Year during her Life.

That after the moſt troubleſome Part of the laſt Seſſion was over, the ſaid Thomas Richey died ſuddenly, and that the Perſon who ſucceeded him, or ſomebody for him, received the whole Salary, though the ſaid Perſon did not do above a Week's Duty for the Remainder of the Seſſion, in Proportion to what was done before; by which Means the Petitioner has ſuffered great Hardſhips, being often ſince in Want of the common Neceſſaries of Life.

That theſe forty Years paſt, it was the cuſtomary and uſual Practice when any Servant of the Houſe died within the Seſſion, for his Heirs to receive the whole Salary:

And praying their Lordſhips to inquire into the Merits of the Petitioner's Caſe, and grant him ſuch Relief as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom, may ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Petition be referred to the Lords' Committees, to whom the Petition of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and the other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, is referred.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Petition of Mrs. Molloy.

A Memorial of Mrs. Elizabeth Molloy, Houſe-keeper of the Parliament-Houſe, ſetting forth, that in the Year 1755, the Memorialiſt purchaſed her ſaid Employment at £100 ℔ Ann. from the Heirs of Mrs. Palmer, who was in Poſſeſſion of ſaid Employment, for one Month only, or thereabouts.

That as the Memorialiſt's Patent for ſaid Employment did not mention any thing particular reſpecting her leaving at any time the Apartments appropriated for her in ſaid Houſe, ſhe thought ſhe was Houſe-keeper, as well during the Sitting of Parliament, as in the Intervals thereof, which the Memorialiſt is informed is the Cuſtom in England.

That in the Year 1769, Mr. Southwell, Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, aſſumed a Right of putting in his own Servant to act in the Memorialiſt's Employment, which ſhe apprehends he had no Right to do.

That the Memorialiſt deſired to be heard by Counſel, with Reſpect to Mr. Southwell's Right to do ſo, which was denied her; by which Means ſhe has ſince been deprived of every Emolument ſhe expected and was intitled to, as ſhe apprehended from her Patent.

That the Memorialiſt being deprived of the Apartments allotted to her, and furniſhed by Government for her, and the Servants neceſſary for ſaid Houſe (upon an Application of one of the Clerks of the Houſe of Lords, in the Year 1766, ſetting forth, that there was not ſufficient Room for the Records) ſhe has been on that Account obliged to keep a Houſe at her own Expenſe, not only during the Sitting, but in the Intervals of Parliament, for herſelf and the ſaid Furniture:

And praying their Lordſhips to take the Premiſes into Conſideration, and to grant her ſuch Relief therein, as to their Lordſhips ſhall ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Memorial ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to a ſelect Committee, and that the Lord Irnham, and all the Lords preſent, be the ſaid Committee, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet the firſt Monday after the Chriſtmas Receſs, at Eleven o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Meſſage from Commons.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by the Right Hon. Anthony Malone and others, with an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act for granting unto his Majeſty the ſeveral Duties, Rates, Impoſitions and Taxes therein particularly expreſſed, to be applied to pay an Intereſt at the Rate of £4 ℔ Cent. ℔ Ann. for ſuch Part of the ſeveral Principal Sums formerly borrowed, as ſhall remain unpaid on the 25th Day of December, 1775, and for ſuch other Purpoſes as are therein mentioned; to which they deſire the Concurrence of this Houſe.

Proteſt. BECAUSE that though upon the Requiſition made to this Houſe for the ſparing 4000 Men out of the 12,000, which had been judged by all the Branches of the Legiſlature neceſſary for the Defence of this Kingdom, a Requiſition, accompanied by a Promiſe of taking ſuch Men into Britiſh Pay; and upon the Determination of this Houſe to addreſs his Majeſty to carry ſaid Intent into Execution, we were of Opinion, that ſuch Addreſs was improper, and that ſuch Men ſhould not be ſpared: Yet, as we always wiſh that this Houſe ſhould act conſiſtently with itſelf, eſpecially in Matters of high and conſtitutional Import, we now diſſent from the paſſing this Bill of Supply, inaſmuch as his Majeſty is thereby diſabled from complying with ſaid Addreſs, by ſuch Part of ſaid Bill as provides, that 12,000 Men ſhall at all Times be kept in this Kingdom for the Defence thereof, excepting only in Caſes of Rebellion or of Invaſion in Great Britain, ſo that this Houſe appears to have applied to his Majeſty to do by Addreſs, that which it has diſabled him from doing by Law; a Proceeding unprecedented, unconſtitutional and dangerous: And although we conceive, that the preſent Bill of Supply has deſtroyed the Force of ſaid Addreſs, yet we muſt think ſuch Bill defective, as it does not contain any Clauſe explanatory of the Conduct of this Houſe, which has thus paſſed an Act, rendering his Majeſty's Compliance with the Addreſs of this Houſe impoſſible, becauſe illegal.

Witneſſes ſworn. William M'Awee and Walter Sweetman, were by Order called to the Bar, and ſeverally ſworn to give their Teſtimony before the ſelect Committee, to whom the Conſideration of Heads of a Bill for veſting certain Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, late the Eſtate of the Right Hon. Richard Earl of Angleſey, in Truſtees, for raiſing a ſufficient Sum of Money for diſcharging the Debts, Legacies and Incumbrances affecting the ſame, and other Purpoſes, was committed.

Heads of Viſcount Valentia's Bill, The Lord Viſc. Ranelagh reported from the ſelect Committee, to whom the Conſideration of Heads of a Bill for veſting certain Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, late the Eſtate of the Right Hon. Richard Earl of Angleſey, in Truſtees, for raiſing a ſufficient Sum of Money for diſcharging the Debts, Legacies and Incumbrances affecting the ſame, and other Purpoſes, was committed; that they had gone through the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and do find that all Perſons concerned in the Conſequences thereof have conſented thereunto, and agreed to the ſame, without any Amendment.

The ſaid Heads of a Bill were then, by Order, read a third time.

ordered to Lord Lieutenant. It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Viſc. Ranelagh do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and deſire the ſame may be tranſmitted into Great Britain, in due Form.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

Lord Lieutenant preſent.

His Excellency Simon Earl Harcourt, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Weſtmeath carrying the Cap of Maintenance, and the Earl of Tyrone, the Sword of State; two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Yeoman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint the Commons that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter,

And the Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies; and Mr. Speaker delivered the Money-Bills to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought them to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Titles, as follow, viz.

1. An Act for granting unto his Majeſty an additional Duty on the ſeveral Commodities, Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned, and for prohibiting the Importation of all Gold and Silver Lace, and of all Cambricks and Lawns, except of the Manufacture of Great Britain. Royal Aſſent given to two Bills.
2. An Act for granting to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſeveral Duties upon ſtamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper.

To theſe Bills the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

" Le Roi remercie ſes bons Sujets, accepte leur " Benevolence, et ainſi le veult."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered, and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

Upon reading the Order for the Day,

The House was adjourned during Pleasure, and put into a Committee, upon an ingrossed Bill, sent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for explaining an Act, intitled, An Act for granting to his Majesty, an additional Duty on the several Commodities, Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned, and for prohibiting the Importation of all Gold and Silver Lace, and of all Cambricks and Lawns, except of the Manufacture of Great Britain; and after some time spent therein,

The House was resumed: And the Lord Visc. Ranelagh reported from the Committee, that they had gone through the said Bill, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment; and also compared the same with the original Transmiss, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the said Bill be now read a third time.

Hodie tertia vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act for explaining an Act, intitled, An Act for granting to his Majesty, an additional Duty on the several Commodities, Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned, and for prohibiting the Importation of all Gold and Silver Lace, and of all Cambricks and Lawns, except of the Manufacture of Great Britain.

The Question was put, Whether this Bill shall pass?

It was resolved in the Affirmative.

A Message was sent to the House of Commons, by Mr. Walker and Mr. Vesey, two of the Masters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this House hath agreed to the said Bill, without any Amendment.

The House was adjourned during Pleasure, to robe.

The House was resumed: And

Lord Lieutenant present.

His Excellency Simon Earl Harcourt, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the House with the usual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Westmeath carrying the Cap of Maintenance; and the Earl of Lanesborough, the Sword of State; two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, ascended the same, and seated himself in the Chair of State, under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal standing robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordships took their Seats.

Commons sent for;

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and then, standing on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod to repair to the House of Commons, and acquaint the Commons, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleasure, they attend him immediately in the House of Peers.

they enter.

And the Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the usual Ceremonies.

Then the Clerk of the Crown read the Titles of the Bills, to be passed, viz.

Royal Assent given to six Bills.

1. An Act for explaining an Act, intitled, An Act for granting to his Majesty, an additional Duty on the several Commodities, Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned, and for prohibiting the Importation of all Gold and Silver Lace, and of all Cambricks and Lawns, except of the Manufacture of Great Britain.

2. An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the 11th Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act to enable the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons to iſſue his Warrants to make out new Writs for the Choice of Members to ſerve in Parliament, in the room of ſuch Members as ſhall die during the Receſs of Parliament, and for enabling the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons to make out new Writs for the Choice of Members to ſerve in Parliament, in the room of ſuch Members as ſhall, during the Receſs of Parliament, become Peers of Ireland, and be ſummoned to Parliament.

3. Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Earl of Laneſborough reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency

SIMON Earl HARCOURT,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Excellency on the approaching happy Concluſion of this Seſſion of Parliament; and to return your Excellency our unfeigned Thanks for your Adminiſtration, ever active for the Welfare of this Kingdom.

We cannot enjoy our Satisfaction in beholding the Revival of Credit; the Increaſe of the Revenue; the further Security of Publick Liberty, in the Freedom of Election; the Channels of our Trade extended and encouraged by the Britiſh Parliament; and the Aſſiſtance given by that Legiſlature to prevent any Hazard to our Staple Manufacture; without reflecting how much we owe to your Excellency's Wiſdom and powerful Repreſentations.

While we record the publick Acts of your Excellency's Adminiſtration, let us not omit the Juſtice due to that upright Character, which your Excellency has uniformly ſupported with ſuch diſtinguiſhed Steadineſs and Moderation; and to thoſe many honourable and amiable Virtues, which have endeared your Perſon to all Ranks.

We truſt, that the Gratitude of this Country will ever preſerve your Excellency's Regards, and that we ſhall find in Earl Harcourt, a conſtant Friend to repreſent to his Majeſty, in the livelieſt Colours, the unſhaken Loyalty and Attachment of his faithful People.

To theſe Bills the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

THE Buſineſs of this Seſſion being at an End, you muſt wiſh to be relieved from your Attendance, and having ſo ably and worthily diſcharged your Publick Truſt, you may the more chearfully return to the Duties and Enjoyments of Private Life.

The many Proofs which you have given of your unſhaken Loyalty to the King, of your ardent Zeal for the Honour and Dignity of his Government in every Part of the Britiſh Empire, and of your unremitted Attention to the Welfare of your Country, are highly acceptable to his Majeſty, and entitle you to the Approbation and Reſpect of all your Fellow-Subjects.

The uniform good Temper and Wiſdom of your Deliberations, have enſured that ſignal Succeſs, with which your ſtrenuous Efforts for the Publick Good have been rewarded, and will honourably diſtinguiſh this Seſſion in the Journals of Parliament.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I AM, in his Majeſty's Name, to return you Thanks for the Supplies which you have ſo liberally granted, and in a Manner ſo well conſidered, as to ſtrengthen and improve the Credit of the Nation, and to the Benefit of the Creditors of the Publick.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

In the preſent State of the Britiſh Empire, your never-failing Duty and Loyalty to your Sovereign, and your warm and affectionate Attachment to the Honour and Intereſts of Great Britain, have ſhone with diſtinguiſhed Luſtre, and have been highly exemplary and laudable. And it muſt give ſincere Pleaſure to every Friend of this Country to reflect, that whilſt a great Part of his Majeſty's Dominions in America is torn and convulſed by a moſt unnatural Rebellion, this Kingdom, wiſely and affectionately perſevering in its Duty, enjoys the Bleſſings of Tranquillity and Abundance, and cultivates the Arts of Peace, and the Improvement of Commerce, Agriculture and Manufacture.

Thoſe atrocious Offenders, who have committed ſuch barbarous Outrages in ſome few Counties, have (it is to be hoped) been effectually intimidated and reſtrained, by the Vigour with which their Offences have been proſecuted, and by the Examples already made; and I truſt that the Law this Day paſſed, will, by the Continuance of your wiſe, ſpirited and vigilant Conduct, as Magiſtrates, prevent the Perpetration of thoſe Crimes for the future.

I cannot take my Leave of the laſt Seſſion of this Parliament, without acknowledging, in the warmeſt Terms of Approbation, the great Objects which you have accompliſhed for the Improvement and Benefit of your Country, and for the Support of his Majeſty's Government: Your wiſe and careful Regulations for the Collection of the Revenue; your diſcharging the heavy Arrear on his Majeſty's Eſtabliſhment; your liberal Support of them; the Relief which you have given to Publick Credit; your generous Abridgment of your own Privileges, for the Advantage of your Fellow-Subjects; your perfecting the Syſtem of a limited Duration of Parliaments, by the ſeveral uſeful Laws made to expedite, regulate and determine Elections; your rendering the Laws for the Encouragement of Agriculture more comprehenſive and complete; your Attention to the Staple Manufacture of this Kingdom, by a prudent Regulation of its Bounties; and your wiſe Co-operation with the generous Policy of Great Britain, to encourage the Fiſheries of this Kingdom; are among the many important Acquiſitions, which it owes to his Majeſty's Favour and to the Wiſdom and good Conduct of this Parliament.

I cannot conclude without thanking you moſt cordially for the conſtant Courſe of your uninterrupted Kindneſs and Attention to me, and particularly for your Addreſſes which are highly honourable and acceptable to me: And in Juſtice to you, I muſt ſay, that if the Publick Credit, the Advancement of the Revenue and the Freedom of Elections, have been promoted by my Endeavours; if during my Adminiſtration any new Sources for the Extenſion of your Commerce, and for the Encouragement of your Manufactures, have been opened; the Succeſs of thoſe Endeavours are principally due to your having enabled me to tranſmit the ſtrongeſt Repreſentations in your Favour: And it will at all Times give me the greateſt Pleaſure to repreſent, to the beſt of Kings, the Duty and Loyalty of his moſt faithful and affectionate Subjects of Ireland, and to promote, to the utmoſt of my Power, whatever may contribute to the Honour, Happineſs and Proſperity of this Kingdom.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Parliament prorogued:

It is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 7th Day of May next; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 7th Day of May next.

diſſolved.

☞ Memorandum: The Parliament being prorogued to Tueſday the 7th Day of May, 1776; it was, by Proclamation of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, dated the 5th Day of April, 1776, DISSOLVED.
